FIRST FORK.

How the telephones do ring, From the charming homes of ours; When the young people sing, To their loved ones all hours. James Calhoun and wife, of Cross Forks, are visiting their relatives at the homes of Mrs. Summerson and W. H. Miller.

Mrs. Rachel Miller spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Logue, of Wylside, near Sinnamahoning, who is seriously ill from a complication of diseases, incident to old age.

First Fork's good friend William Gorman, of Lycoming county, called on many of his friends last week. He was born and raised in Cameron county, in the vicinity of First Fork. It has been seven years since he passed through here and about seventeen years since he left this county. His many friends were glad to greet him.

The tenant house near the stone-crusher, formerly used by section men of the B. & S., was torn down the past week by that company.

J. H. Bierly, a popular merchant, of Sabinsville, paid a short visit to his brother-in-law, Frank L. Miller.

Why is it that some of our young people look down-hearted? Oh! It is because the flood and warm weather took the beautiful off, so they cannot skate. Our stream certainly got a good cleaning out once, it being so dry for a long while.

On account of the many changes in the weather, many of our people have bad colds and the grip. We hope for their speedy recovery.

The Sinnamahoning Valley Telephone Company have decided to switch-off at O. R. McCoolle's and go across the creek, by way of F. J. Shaffer's, and recross the bridge at the section house. Walter Swank, Brooks Lushbaugh and J. E. Bowers are busy at work setting posts and stringing wire. They will soon reach Sinnamahoning, and then many an unnecessary trip can be prevented.

Mr. Penrith moved some of his furniture to Lushbaugh, last week. He expects to work on the section at that place.

A series of revival church services are being held at the Gilmore school house every night. They have received some new members. This speaks well for First Fork, the beginning of this new year.

Our good friend, James H. Haynes, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Amos Bennett, of Sinnamahoning.

Some of our farmers are taking advantage of the low prices by purchasing their timothy and clover seed for next summer. A dollar saved is a dollar earned.

Quite a number of telephones have been placed in homes the past week. The people who have had their telephones for some time would not like to dispose of them.

The second of a series of teachers' institutes of Grove township, was held last Saturday, Jan. 9, 1909. About fifteen people were in attendance. Prof. M. H. Bair, Principal of the schools of Sinnamahoning, aided us in singing six or eight songs, afterwards the institute was begun. Prof Bair made several speeches: an address was made by Ezra Smith, on Physiology. The subject of spelling was discussed by John S. Walkey. Other short talks were given. One of the directors was also present. Prof. Bair deserves much credit for his kindness in assisting us with the institute and the singing. He is a man much interested in education and a successful teacher. We invite him to our future institutes.

The party and taffy pull held at the home of William Swank, last Saturday night, was very much enjoyed by all. They were entertained by Mr. Swank's fine graphophone.

James H. Haynes, W. H. Miller, Miles Smith and Jesse Logue have gone to the county seat to attend court as jurymen.

Hon. John A. Wykoff went to Emporium on Monday, to preside as Associate Judge this week.

YOHONTAS, (Other County News on 5th page.)

Notice to Customers. Notice is hereby given to all of my customers that from this date I shall demand payment in full for all purchases during each week, every Saturday night. We will adhere to this rule strictly.

F. X. BLUMLE, Emporium, Pa., Dec. 28th, 1908.

English Spavin Liniment removed Hard, Soft or Calloused Lumps and Blemishes from Horses; also Blood Spavins, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, Ring Bone, Stiffes, Sprains, Swollen Throats, Coughs, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. A wonderful Blemish Cure. Sold by L. Taggart, druggist. 32 6m

Good for cuts, burns, bruises and scratches, but especially recommended for piles—DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Asks Us to Print.

To relieve the worst forms of Rheumatism, take a teaspoonful of the following mixture after each meal and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

These harmless ingredients can be obtained from our home druggists, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses.

This prescription forces the clogged-up, inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism.

As Rheumatism is not only the most painful and torturous disease, but dangerous to life, this simple recipe will no doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home, who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief.

It is said that a person who would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week, would never have serious Kidney or Urinary disorders or Rheumatism.

Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescription which really relieves are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it badly.

Council Proceedings.
