Inspector of Election—Chas. C. Wiley.

FOR AGED PEOPLE.

Old Folks Should Be Careful in Their Selection of Regulative Medicine.

With advanced age comes inactive bowel movement and sluggish liver. Nature is unable to perform her proper functions and requires assistance. Otherwise, there is constant suffering from constipation and its attendant evils. Old folks should never use physic that is harsh and irritating.

We have a safe, dependable and altogether ideal remedy that is particularly adapted to the requirements of aged people and persons of weak constitutions who suffer from constipation or either bowel disorder. We are so certain that it will cure these complaints and give absolute satisfaction in every particular that we will offer them with our personal guarantee that they shall cost the user nothing if they fail to substantiate our claims. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies.

Rexall Orderlies have a soothing, healing, strengthening, tonic and regulative action upon the dry, relax muscular coat of the bowel. They produce a natural, successive contraction and relaxation of the muscular fibres of the bowel walls, generating a wave-like motion which forces their contents onward and outward; thus simulating nature in perfect bowel movement. They also remove all irritation, dryness, soreness and weakness. They tone up and strengthen the nerves and muscles and restore the bowels and associate organs to more vigorous and healthy activity. They may be taken at any time without inconvenience, do not cause any griping, nausea, diarrhea, excessive looseness, flatulence or other disagreeable effect. Try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee. 36 tablets 25c., and 12 tablets 10c. The B. M. Hyde Drug Co., 202 206 Main St., and 159 East Ave. Mrs. M. A. Rockwell, Emporium, Pa.

Republican Primaries.

The Republican electors of Emporium Borough are requested to meet at the usual place for holding the Causes in their respective wards, on Saturday evening, Jan 23, 1909, between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30 p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the several ward offices to be filled at the election to be held on Tuesday, Feb. 16th, 1909. Also to elect three delegates in each ward to attend the Republican Borough Convention, at the City Hall, Monday evening, Jan. 25th, 1909, to nominate candidates for Borough offices.

G. F. BALCOM,
H. O. HAUP,
W. H. HOWARD,
Ward Committeemen.

Basket Ball.

On January 15, Emporium defeated the fast team from Hicks Run by the score of 45 to 14 and on Jan. 18, St. Marys team took our boys in tow at St. Marys to the tune of 39 to 22 in the fastest game of the season. During the game at St. Marys, Chas. Hockley had the misfortune to hurt his shoulder which will keep him out of the game for some time.

Friday night next, Emporium will tackle the strong team from Ridgway at the opera house. This game will certainly be one worth seeing for as Ridgway is conceded to be one of the fastest teams in this section. The game will be called at 8:30 and everybody should try to be on hand. Don't forget.

Business Opportunity.

WANTED—By manufacturing company, a salesman who can invest $1,200, with service. Money will be secured. Must be energetic, of good address, undoubted character, and devote entire time to business. To man of above qualifications exceptional offer will be made. Salary, commission, office and furniture. Address, 203-204 Pennsylvania Bldg., Philadelphia. 48-2t.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16, 1909.

Ever since the command from the White House went forth that army and navy officers would be required to undergo a mild physical endurance test there have been muffled protests. As a usual thing army and navy men over forty years old do not keep themselves in training and it is suspected that a majority of them after a horseback ride of ten or fifteen miles would experience considerable fatigue and soreness. The test required by the President was a horseback ride of ninety miles in three consecutive days, a pretty severe test for soft men of middle age, the majority of them weighing two hundred pounds. The men weighing that much is probably not in good health and has spent too many years since he was thirsty in sedentary eating and drinking. He is too heavy for an ordinary horse, and extraordinary horses are hard to find. A rider in practice has an indurated seat and can easily ride thirty miles a day not only for three consecutive days but for ten or thirty. Well the groans, and the protests of the captains, colonels and majors came to the ear of the President and he determined to show them what the Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy could do and to that end one day this week he got up between three and four o'clock in the morning mounted his horse and with three companions rode to Warrenton, Virginia where he ate luncheon and, after a rest of half an hour rode back to the White House arriving about eight o'clock at night, having covered in the round trip, a distance of ninety eight miles, in other words, having ridden in one day eight miles more than he has required regular army and navy officers to ride in three days. The President weighs two hundred pounds but he is tough and as hard as nails. He has been riding constantly for years, probably about eighteen miles a day and was of course in training. There can be no doubt but that there is too much effeminacy on softness among the officers both of the army and of the navy. Mr. Roosevelt doubtless remembers the striking example of General Shafter who was in command of the Cuban army sent in mid-summer to Cuba. The immensely stout old General weighed probably three hundred and fifty pounds but in the way of baggage he was like a three hundred and fifty ton millstone around the neck of the army. His headquarters were miles in the rear of the army and there on a couch groaning with gout he sweltered in the humid tropical July climate.

The lives and the treasure lost to the country through promotion by seniority of unfit men will never be known. The only road to physical fitness is through exercise and abstinence. There can be no sufficient exercises without abstinence. Rockefeller's doctor has just predicted that the multi-millionaire will live to be a hundred years old because as he says, "he takes a great deal of exercises in open air and always leaves the table hungry." Of course the doctors' prophecy is not proved but it may be assumed that Rockefeller has about as good a physician and as wise as money will buy and this hint and suggestion in the way of preventive medicine is one that every reader may note and profit by without paying the bill that Mr. Rockefeller pays his doctor.

That the present Congress is of the opinion that the big President elect is worth fifty thousand dollars a year more than the President who has been flourishing the big stick is plain to see. Yesterday Senator Cullom reported the legislative, executive and judicial bill to the Senate. The most prominent feature of this bill is an increase of the salary of the President of the United States to one hundred thousand dollars a year. The same bill increases the salary of the Vice President to twenty thousand dollars, and that of the Speaker of the House to twenty thousand. This is a doubling of the salaries for all three offices. Until the election of President Grant the salary of the President of the United States was only twenty-five thousand dollars a year and now after thirty-seven years at fifty thousand dollars it is proposed again to double it. The wealth of the country has more than doubled since the President's salary was last increased and there are a number of men, presidents of much smaller corporations than the United States of America, who are receiving a yearly salary of more than that it is now proposed to pay the President.

Ma's New Husband.

A gentleman, his wife and child were occupying a box at a performance of "Ma's New Husband" which appears at the opera house, Jan. 27th. The child began to cry and an usher informed his parents that if the child cried again they must get their money back at the box office and leave the theatre. The child stopped and all was quiet until the third act. The father figured for a moment, then leaned over and said to his wife "What did the usher say about Tommy? That if he cried we would have to go to the box office and get our money back, replied his wife. "Make him cry," said the husband.

Gone to Florida.

Hon. Geo. J. LaBar and wife, Mrs. C. W. Rishell and Miss Mallick left on Wednesday for Florida to spend several weeks in that land of sunshine and oranges. They will visit all the principal points, but expect to put up at either Jacksonville or Orlando. We wish we could join them for we know they will have a delightful time and will escape our disagreeable weather—Feb. and March.

Judge Green for Supreme Court Judge.

The very cordial endorsement of Judge Green's candidacy for the Republican nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania by the members of the Bar of every county composing this judicial district—Clinton, Cameron and Elk counties—is very gratifying to the able jurist's friends, who recognize in Judge Green that eminent ability displayed in thirty-five years' active practice before the courts of the West Branch Valley, as well as the Supreme and U. S. Courts, followed by an honorable career as President Judge of this the 25th Judicial District. The extensive manufacturing, farming, mining and business interests of the great North West, never yet accorded representation on the Supreme Bench, know and appreciate Judge Green's bright, able and conscientious legal ability and will be highly honored and gratified should he be nominated as the successor to Judge Mitchell. Many other able gentlemen are mentioned as candidates, but none surpass our favorite. The convention will make no mistake if they nominate Hon. B. W. Green for Justice of the Supreme Court.

Spirit Dictated to Sardou.

Before he made his reputation by writing plays Victorien Sardou, the French dramatist, who was deeply interested in spiritualism, had a remarkable experience in taking dictation. He had been interested in occult phenomena, and, by chance, he came into communication with a spirit personality who signed himself "Bernard Polissay." M. Sardou, who recently passed into the larger life, has told the story of his experiments in an article entitled, "Only the Blindly Ignorant Scoff," in the February Delineator. He says:

One day, in my room with two friends, I thought I would make the little table where we had taken our coffee run about the room, as a had often done when alone. Without saying anything I put my hand on the table, but it would not budge. I tried in vain all the time they were there to make it move, but to no avail. As soon as they were gone I could make it do what I pleased, even jump clear off the floor. So I took up my pencil and asked: "But why would you not make the table move while my friends were here?" The hand which held the pencil wrote, "They were too stupid." Shortly after this I was sitting by my table one day, idling, dreaming, not making any effort to do anything in particular. All of a sudden my hand began to work on the paper before me with a rapidity and precision which astonished me.

And it kept this up for close to two hours. The result was a fantastic piece of work drawn in delicate lines, fine almost as a spider's web, and at the bottom a signature—"Bernard Polissay." "What is it?" I asked.

And my automatic hand wrote: "The House of Swedenborg on the Planet Jupiter." This was considered as most curious by all my friends, who knew that personally, I had no aptitude for drawing. A plate was prepared and I was given an itching tool. The result, in the same order of design, was a more elaborate piece of work, this time curiously combined out of all sorts of musical terms, clefs, notes, bars, and so on, and the whole was designated as the House of Mozart, also on Jupiter, and the whole was again signed "Polissay." In fact, Bernard Polissay became my most constant companion from this on, like my second self.

Senator Boies Penrose Scores

The re-election of United States Senator Boies Penrose for the third term on Tuesday, by 198, to 42 for Senator Dimeling, is a royal and just vindication. No public official has been more bitterly and outrageously maligned in recent years than Senator Penrose, unless it was that greatest and most loved and feared, the lamented Matthew Stanley Quay. It was a great victory for Senator Penrose and a terrible rebuke to the character assassins and yellow journals. Senator Penrose, the hardest worker in the United States Senate, simply sawed wood and the people championed his cause.

Asks Us to Print.

To relieve the worst forms of Rheumatism, take a teaspoonful of the following mixture after each meal and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

These harmless ingredients can be obtained from our home druggists, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses.

This prescription forces the clogged-up, inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism.

As Rheumatism is not only the most painful and torturous disease, but dangerous to life, this simple recipe will no doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home, who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief.

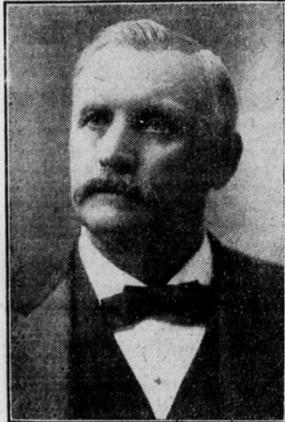

It is said that a person who would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week, would never have serious Kidney or Urinary disorders or Rheumatism.

Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescription which really relieves are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it badly.

Don't miss seeing "Ma's New Husband", which will be presented at the opera house, Wednesday Jan. 27th.

JUDGE GREEN CANDIDATE FOR SUPREME BENCH

Warmly Endorsed by Bar Associations of Cameron and Elk Counties

From Lock Haven Daily Express.

Hon. B. W. Green, of Emporium, the former president judge of the twenty-fifth judicial district, composed of Clinton, Cameron and Elk counties, has decided to be a candidate for the supreme court judgeship of Pennsylvania and his candidacy has been warmly endorsed by the bar associations of Cameron and Elk counties. His home county of Cameron has appointed a committee of prominent citizens to promote his candidacy, to succeed Hon. James T. Mitchell, the chief justice of the supreme court, whose term expires the first Monday of January, 1910.

It is understood that the nomination on the Republican ticket is to go to the "country" this time and if this be true, Judge Green should have a good chance of securing the "plum." His fitness for the place is recognized and the flattering endorsement by the bar association of his home county is excellent testimony to this fact, as the following will show.

At a meeting of the Cameron County Bar association, held January 6, 1909 the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The official term of Hon. James T. Mitchell, chief justice of the supreme court of Pennsylvania will expire on the first Monday of January, 1910, making it necessary to nominate and elect in 1909, one person to be a justice of the supreme court.

AND WHEREAS, The members of the Cameron County Bar association believe that Northern Pennsylvania, should be represented upon the bench of the supreme court by an eminent member of the bar familiar with the great industries of this section of the state and able to cope with the important legal questions growing out of the business peculiar to this section of the commonwealth.

AND WHEREAS, Hon. B. W. Green, late president judge of the twenty-fifth judicial district of Pennsylvania, embracing the counties of Cameron, Elk and Clinton, is acknowledged to be a leading and most learned lawyer, eminent as a citizen, sound and upright as a judge, of thirty-six years active practice at the bar and is qualified upon the bench and at the bar to faithfully, ably and fearlessly discharge the duties of the high and responsible office of justice of the supreme court.

Now be it resolved by the Cameron county Bar association, that we urgently request Hon. B. W. Green to become a candidate for justice of the supreme Bar association, that we urgently request Hon. B. W. Green to become a candidate for justice of the supreme court of Pennsylvania, and we pledge our hearty co-operation and support for his nomination.

And be it further resolved, that Hon. J. C. Johnson, Frank D. Leet, James E. McNarney, Fred A. Johnson and Jay P. Felt, members of the Cameron County Bar association, be appointed a committee to promote the candidacy of Hon. B. W. Green for the Republican nomination as justice of the supreme court of Pennsylvania.

The bar association of Elk county, of which Judge Harry Alvan Hall is the president, has also pledged to support Judge Green's nomination for this high office. At a meeting of this association, held January 18th, 1909, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The official term of Hon. James T. Mitchell, chief justice of the supreme court of Pennsylvania will expire on the first Monday of January, 1910, making it necessary to nominate and elect in 1909, one person to be a justice of the supreme court.

AND WHEREAS, The members of the Elk county Bar association believe that Northern Pennsylvania should be represented upon the bench of the supreme court by an eminent member of the bar, familiar with the great industries of this section of the state and able to cope with the important legal questions growing out of the business peculiar to this section of the commonwealth;

AND WHEREAS, Hon. B. W. Green, late president judge of the twenty-fifth judicial district of Pennsylvania, embracing the counties of Cameron, Elk and Clinton, is acknowledged to be a leading and most learned lawyer, eminent as a citizen, sound and upright as a judge, of thirty-six years active practice at the bar and is qualified by his training and experience both upon the bench and at the bar, to faithfully, ably and fearlessly discharge the duties of the high and responsible office of justice of the supreme court.

Now be it resolved by the Elk County Bar association, that we urgently request Hon. B. W. Green to become a candidate for the nomination of the Republican party for justice of the supreme court of Pennsylvania, and we pledge our hearty co-operation and support for his nomination.

HARRY ALVAN HALL, J. P. J. President.
FRED W. MCFARLIN, Secretary.

Adjourned to Friday.

Court convened at 2:00 p. m., when Joe Pagano was brought in open Court by High Sheriff John W. Norris, Prisoner sentenced by Judge Hall to be "hanged by the neck until dead, etc."

The prisoner did not seem to realize the horrible truth of the scene. When taken to his cell by Sheriff Norris he threw himself on his cot and fell asleep within five minutes, from clear exhaustion. Confined in his cell he now suffers the tortures of the demons and imagines every time his door opens that he is "going to be killed." He refuses to eat anything.

Are you troubled with "Blue devils?" If so the Harry Scott Company guarantee a sure cure in their musical farce, "Ma's New Husband" which is to be presented on Wednesday, Jan. 27th at the opera house.

It's a Girl.

"Henry Auchu, is setting up the cigars. It's a girl and tips the scales at the usual weight." The above is a clipping taken from the CAMERON COUNTY PRESS, published Jan. 22, 1909, and the anniversary of the event was celebrated in fine order last Monday evening by a dance given at the Theatrical hall in honor of Miss Ellen Auchu. The party was a complete surprise, the plans having been made by several of her friends, and it was indeed genuine, as the young lady never once thought of such a thing. Miss Auchu is one of Emporium's most charming and jolly daughters and after the effects of the surprise passed away, proceeded in her usual happy way to make her guests have a good time, indeed all, who were lucky enough to receive an invitation, had Mesdames Henry Auchu and A. F. Vogt were patronesses of the evening. The "wee sma' hours" arrived all too quickly and the guests departed for their homes wishing Miss Auchu many happy returns of the day. Those present were: Miss Christy McDonald, Lena Coyle, Kathryn and Julia Hogan, Frances, Helen and Agnes Hulan, Bose Ganey, Vera Geary, Mayme Cummings, Kate Welsh, Lena and Julia Bair, Lillian Cotter, Edna Auchu and Messrs. Herbert Vogt, Ed. Foster, Raymond and Guy Klees, Frank Eckstein, Hugh Swartz, Jay Nangle, Carl Thompson, Guy Thomson, Charles Farrell, John Stephens, Frank Cavanaugh, Scott Sterner, James Murphy, Homer Hayes, Mose Harris, Dr. Mitchell, J. M. Bair, Mr. and Mrs. Eckstein, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Vogt and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Auchu. Out of town guests were: Miss Ella McCloskey, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lion, St. Mary; Mr. George Evans, Allegheny, Pa., and Mr. Pat Larry, Ridgeway. Miss Auchu received many useful and beautiful gifts.

A Successful Pie Social.

The Pie Social that was held at Howard's Siding last Saturday evening proved to be a most successful affair. Howard Shiner, of this place, acted as auctioneer and fine prices were received for the pies, amounting to as high as $3.50. Those who attended from Emporium were: Misses Flavia Lathrop, Marguerite Metzger, Margaret Dodson, Opelia Dodson, Erma Randolph, Ina Hopple, Kathryn Vogt, Mamie Farrell, Martha Buines, Nell Thomas, Myrtle Gregory, Mrs. E. E. Randolph, Messrs. John Murray, Allen Randolph, Neal Coppersmith, Howard Shiner, Wendell Hopple, Arthur Catlin, Richard Hughes and Charles Piper. A very enjoyable time was had by all present.

Maccabees Attention.

The Knights of the Maccabees will hold the installation of its officers, followed by a banquet, in the hall, on Friday evening, January 22nd, 1909. Every member is cordially invited to be present.

JACOB HUFFMAN,
Commander.
