Our landlords are both happy now. They both got their license renewed and are still doing a good business, regardless of the hard times.
It is rumored that the jurors that were drawn on the murder trial were placed in the jail. This looks rather bad for them.
The men from this place who had criminal cases in court, should be thankful that they got through as lucky as they did.
The recent heavy snow makes fine sleighing and Monday night's cold snap is sure to make ice if it keeps up.
E. D. Krape shot a large skunk Sunday evening, while it was looking for lodging in his chicken coop for the night.
Ernest Krape, who has been ill for the past week, is some better at this writing. Dr. Bash is attending.

Here is something too good to keep. Two of our townsmen, just starting out in trapping, followed what they supposed was a skunk track to its home in the ground. They both followed the track and set the trap, expecting to catch the skunk the next morning, but behold their surprise the next morning, when they lifted their trap to find a rabbit in the trap. They both now swear it is the fault of the other; so we cannot say whose fault it was but we will blame the two of them. As they do not wish their names known we will not mention any.
William McCann our truant officer, is still after the school children and every day brings in a few stragglers. "Dad" is the right man at the fight place.

SIZERVILLE.
Ed. Sizer has two black Republican kittens, which are a terror to the evil doing rodents.
Zip. Farrell has moved his earthly efforts to the plains below; has large farming operations for 1909 in his mind.
The Miller & Haskins Co., stilling works have shut down indefinitely, because of too much friction between partners. There seems to be much dissatisfaction, one with the other. Could harmony prevail there is bright outlook for them financially.
Two of the State police rode into town recently, which caused grave looks of awe on many faces: seemed to bring views of some past lives before them all in a moment.
Mrs. J. Catan has departed for West Va., on a visit to her son Bert and wife. She expects to remain with them until spring time here in the north.
A young "gent" called at the home of Wm. McDowell on New Years day. Expects to remain there permanently. Cigars might be in order.
A petition was recently circulated for two new iron bridges across Cowley Run, one on the Austin road and the other just above the hotel barn. When these structures are installed they will be hailed with delight by autoists and livery men and the public as well. We understand the petition was endorsed by last court.
