Our dearest one from earth has gone away; In peace, to rest; We would that she with us could longer stay, But God knows best. Her earthly care and suffering now are o'er, Across the River on the Heavenly shore, Eternal life is hers for evermore, With Him, at rest.

MCDONALD.

Mrs. John McDonald, wife of Hon. John McDonald, Supervisor of the P. R. R. and former Associate Judge, died at Feb. 22nd, at the Lock Haven Hospital.

Mrs. McDonald underwent a serious operation at the above mentioned hospital on Jan. 30th, from which she did not recover. Death ended her sufferings Monday evening. The community at large and the many friends of the family along the line of the P. R. R. unite in extending heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved husband and father and the members of the family in their hour of grief.

A mother so dear, a wife most beloved, Has been called by the Savior to His home above, To receive her reward for her loving devotion, To Him and the dear ones on earth, that she loved,

The world seems so drear for the ones left to mourn her, Their hearts now are heavy with sorrow and care— But we know she is peaceful in God's love so tender, And in heaven awaits all her darling ones there.

Board of Trade.

The first meeting of the Board of Trade, held in their new rooms, over the Library, last Monday evening, was very successful, a large number of members being present. In the absence of the President, the first Vice-President, the Hon. I. K. Hockley made the opening address. A number of questions for the good of the town were discussed, among which was: Will a public market benefit our town? Many members gave their opinion on this matter and it was shown that a market would, beyond a doubt, be a great stimulant to the farmers of our county, inducing them to raise more and better produce, for which they would receive better prices than here-to-fore and all spot cash. The town's people would also be greatly benefited by this, in having a chance to buy their fruits, vegetables, etc., strictly fresh from the producer thereby saving the middleman's profit. The merchants would also be benefited by this market as the farmer would have more money to spend and without doubt spend it in our town. Every member present was in favor of a public market. A committee, who was appointed, will lay this matter before the Council at their next regular meeting. It was decided by an unanimous vote to have the new rooms open twice a week, every Monday and Friday evenings. Every meeting will combine business and pleasure. The entertainment committee will see that something of interest will be offered at each meeting. It is hoped that, not only the members, but all those who have the good of the town at heart, will be present at every meeting. After the business was over the members indulged in a friendly game of King Pedro, in which Messrs. I. K. Hockley and A. C. Blum proved themselves invincible. Next meeting will be held to-morrow evening (Friday) in the rooms over the Library. Don't forget to attend.

A BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Mr. J. L. Wheeler of Marion Purchases Large Historic Estate Near Georgetown.

Mr. J. L. Wheeler of this city has purchased the Gen. Alexander property near Georgetown, which contains about fifteen thousand acres consisting of North Island, South Island, and a large part of Cat Island. The property is said to be worth about $250,000. It has on it one of the largest rice plantations in the State, with its own rice mill, which with all the stock on the place and the farm improvements were included in the deal. Saturday's issue of the Georgetown Item contained the following concerning the purchase: "The party of gentlemen from Marion, S. C. Messrs. J. L. Wheeler, Marvin Davis and Henry Buck, which the Daily Item exclusively reported as having arrived in this port on last Thursday morning from Marion on their beautiful and nobby launch, the "Temiskaming," which, we understand, is named after the gold mine of Mr. Wheeler, in Mexico, returned yesterday from North and South Islands, where they had gone to close negotiations for all of Gen. E. P. Alexander's island holdings. In an interview with Mr. Marvin Davis yesterday afternoon he informed us that the party named above had purchased all the property on North and South Islands, belonging to General Alexander, and would make all necessary improvements in and around their holdings on each of the islands, as it was proposed to make a great deal of this valuable property into a game preserve.

Aside from its value as a game resort, North Island, situated as it is on the Atlantic ocean, has no equal in its conditions of health, and is one of the most accessible of the islands adjacent to this city, being only fifteen miles from dock to dock.

If the hills which stand as monuments of by-gone ages, were leveled, thereby, filling up the ravines, beautiful and airy residences erected, what an ideal summer resort North Island would become for summer tourists from all over the country. No fear of sickness, plenty of fish, oysters shrimp and water fowl, no apprehension of danger from storms, as South Island is close by and is connected with the main lands.

Surely the eyes of our forefathers have been blinded by these actual natural advantages of one of the most eligible islands on the coast which figuratively speaking, lies at our very doors, or else North Island to-day would have been a veritable Garden of Eden."—Marion, S. C. Star.

A Kitchen Shower.

Misses Bessie McQuay and Marion Rentz entertained the "Ramblers" at the home of Miss McQuay, on Vine Street, last Tuesday evening. The party was in honor of Miss Ida Hertig and was a kitchen shower. Miss Hertig was completely surprised. Most everything you could think of in the line of kitchen utensils were showered upon her. Miss Hertig was born and raised in Emporium and has a host of friends and has always been a member of the "Ramblers" ever since the organization of the club. She is soon to become the wife of Mr. Gordon McGriffin, of Ridgway, a very exemplary young man, who certainly made a wise choice in selecting Miss Ida. The wedding day is kept a secret from her many friends, but it is sincerely hoped that it will become known in time so that the usual rice shower may follow the ceremony. Misses McQuay and Rentz served refreshments and the "Ramblers" assisted Miss Hertig to her home with the useful articles she received. Those present were: Misses Ethel Day, Vera Olmsted, Emma Ellis, Marion Rentz, Edith Heilman, Myrtle Lloyd, Lillian Heilman, Lora McQuay, Verena Hertig, Messrs. Edward Hughes, Frank Dodson, Ermine Rentz, Gordon Beattie, Raymond Kleese, Max Balcom and Scott Sterner.

An Interesting Lecture.

Hon. Caleb Powers, of Kentucky, who delivered his lecture at Emporium last Tuesday evening and while the attendance was not as large as it should have been, owing to the inclement weather, those who did attend were deeply interested and the lecturer held his hearers for over one hour. His talk of the persecution for eight long years, during which time he was tried four times for the murder of Gov. Goebel, sentenced to death twice and to life imprisonment twice, being finally pardoned, was indeed thrilling. It is a miracle that he is at all able to tell his story. The American citizens, who contributed $50,000 to aid him in his battle for life, certainly did a commendable act. Wherever he goes, he should have crowded houses.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children, and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by L. Taggart.
