Pigs Ear Raided.

Sheriff J. W. Norris and Chief of police Frank Mundy, raided a pig's ear shanty, situated south of the railroad, near the iron works, last Saturday night, arresting the proprietor, Andy Klamantic, who was held in $300 bail for his appearance at court. The prisoner put up his bail in cash and will now have time to—think. There are several other similar joints in Emporium and Shippen, well known to the officers and why they are not arrested is what our people would like to know. This defiance of law, order and decency should be dealt with at once and wiped out. Get busy, Mr. Sheriff, constable or policeman.

"Good Presiding Officer, Equally Good Father."

WASHINGTON, March 25.—In beginning his tariff speech Champ Clark the Democratic leader, both complimented and embarrassed Mr. Olmsted, who was in the chair. Mr. Clark said: "Yesterday I stated the lamentable fact that the Anglo-Saxon race is dying out for lack of babies. To day I wish to give credit where credit is due and congratulate the present occupant of the chair, as I have just learned that his absence yesterday was occasioned by the advent of new daughter into his family. He is a most excellent presiding officer and I have no doubt an equally good father." Mr. Clark's remarks were greeted with great applause from all parts of the chamber and during the day a good many members called at the Speaker's desk and offered their congratulations.

A Large Evening.

Last Wednesday evening, thirty-eight friends and neighbors came out for a good time and swooped down upon Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Hamilton, at their residence on West Fifth street, the occasion being Mrs. Hamilton's 58th anniversary. All had a rattling good time except Jake Huffman, poor fellow, who lost the pie. The following composed the happy gathering:

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Day, Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Heilman, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Metzger, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dinianny, Mr. and Mrs. Dan'l Downey, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lingle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morrison, and Mesdames G. F. Balcom, Chas. H. Edwards, E. R. Lathrop, O. P. Warner, Samuel Faucette, Belle Beattie, J. D. Swoope, A. J. Turley, H. Jessop, F. A. Shaffer, Etta Fetter, P. R. Beattie, Edward Nye, A. Dalphy, Matilda Dodge and Miss M. Hamilton.

When our readers see who were there they will know there was something doing and plenty of fun and a good spread to delight the inner man.

K. of C. Outing.

According to advices received by the local council of the Knights of Columbus, preparations are going rapidly forward for the big annual outing of the order, which is to be held at Cedar Point on Lake Erie, during the week of July 4 to 12.

It is the custom for the delegates to these affairs from the different councils participating to choose each year a different council to take charge of the arrangements, and this year the task has been assigned to Norwalk, Ohio, council, No. 628. A lively little paper, "The Outing," is being issued by the committee of the latter body to keep the members of the order informed as to the progress of the arrangements and the initial number has already been received here. E. J. Ryan, Grand Knight and secretary of the outing committee, is the editor.

The announcement is made that this year's reunion is to be on a larger and broader scale than ever before, and that the program will embody many new and praiseworthy features.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

SMITH.
The funeral of Mrs. MARY B. SMITH, aged 73 years, whose death we briefly announced in our last issue, was held from the family residence on Fourth street, Friday afternoon at two o'clock and was very largely attended by friends of the family. Rev. Paul J. Lux, pastor of First Presbyterian church officiated and made very appropriate remarks. A choir composed of Misses Margaret Dodson, Marguerite Metzger, Minnie Bauregelt, Bessie McQuay, Rena Hertig, Messrs. H. A. Cox and W. S. Sterner, with Miss Belle Husted presiding at the piano, very beautifully rendered the hymns selected for the occasion, "Sweet Moments" and "Abide with Me," the latter hymn being a favorite of the deceased. Miss Grace Lloyd, in her sweet soprano voice, sang the solo, "Nearer My God to Thee," her sister, Miss Myrtle, presiding at the piano.

The floral offerings from the family and friends were very beautiful and in great abundance, attesting the esteem, in no small degree, this excellent lady was held by our citizens—not only in Emporium but throughout the entire county, where she had resided since 1868, coming to Driftwood from her native home in Wyoming county, Pa., to live with her sister, Mrs. Pollen; was married to Dr. S. S. Smith, Jan. 10, 1871. In 1882 her health failed her and up to the time of her death she was almost constantly an invalid, but at times delighted to mingle with her friends at parties and receptions. When possible, she loved to entertain her friends, both young and elderly, which she did splendidly.

After the word had been spoken and beautiful and touching hymns rendered the active casket bearers, Messrs. Jay P. Felt, Geo. Metzger, Jr., Edward White, Guy S. Felt, C. J. Goodnough, Leon Rex Felt Jasper Harris and Russell M. McQuay, all master Masons and members of Emporium Lodge, over which the deceased's husband had presided for years. The following citizens and friends served as honorary casket bearers: J. F. Parsons, M. T. Hogan, M. C. Tulis, Chas. L. Butler, A. A. McDonald and R. R. McQuay.

Silently and slowly the remains, accompanied by the large concourse of bereaved relatives and friends, were conveyed to the private vault recently completed in Wiley Annex to Newton cemetery to rest peacefully until resurrection morn.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES IN ATTENDANCE.

The following relatives and friends from out of town were in attendance at the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey, (niece) Charleroi, Pa.; Mrs. H. E. Koester, (niece), Mr. J. L. Brown, (nephew) Bradner, O., Mrs. J. M. Gillen, (niece) Philadelphia, Jr. (nephew) and Mrs. L. Avery, Hon. Geo. R. Dixon, Dr. Williams, Ridgway; Miss Nellie O'Day, Kane; Dr. S. Ross Allen, (nephew) and wife, Olean, N. Y.; Samuel Greenfield, (nephew) Rochester, N. Y.; Geo. B. Smith, (brother) Westbrook, Ont.; Dr. Geo. L. Brown, Buffalo, N. Y.; Dr. Humphrey, Dagus Mines; Mrs. T. J. Riley, Dr. Corbett, Col. J. O. Brookbank, Driftwood; Chas. A. Council, J. H. Baird, Sinnamahoning; J. E. Smith, Miss Bertha Sterling, Sterling Run, and many others whose names we were unable to procure.

BARDWELL.

The announcement in last week's PRESS of the death of Mrs. ELIZABETH EVANS-BARDWELL, wife of Dr. E. O. Bardwell, aged 49 years at their residence, No. 1175, Main street, Buffalo, N. Y., Wednesday evening, March 24th, 1909, at seven o'clock, of double pneumonia, was an awful shock to the host of friends of the family in Emporium, where they resided so many years and were closely allied with our people before going to Buffalo. The Emporium friends of the family were not aware of her illness until the sad news was received.

Mrs. Bardwell was taken sick Saturday evening previous to her death and rapidly grew worse. The best physicians of Buffalo were called at once and every known remedy and skill was resorted to to save her life, but without avail. She realized her condition and told her attendants that she could not live. She was conscious almost to the last, but peacefully passed to the great beyond, to join her father, mother and sisters who passed over years ago.

Mrs. Bardwell came to Emporium when only seven years of age and resided here most of her life. Twenty-one years ago she was married to Dr. E. O. Bardwell and was a faithful, affectionate and loving wife, kind to a fault and during the illness of her husband, which covered a number of years, no wife could have been more watchful, patient and faithful. An excellent manager and housekeeper, she made the home attractive and was always surrounded by hosts of our citizens, she being of that happy, jovial disposition that made one shake off the "blues." Many were the pleasant hours ye editor, as well as hosts of our citizens, passed in her pleasant parlors or veranda. We shall long remember her sunny disposition and the occasions passed in the company of Dr. and Mrs. Bardwell.

Nine years ago, next June, she was stricken with what it was feared to be a fatal disease and after a severe operation, by Dr. Mann of Buffalo, she bore up wonderfully. Although a great sufferer, yet she maintained that hopeful and sunny disposition. After moving to Buffalo (one year ago last Aug.) her health improved remarkably and only a day before her illness she expressed surprise at her greatly improving condition. Dr. Bardwell, whom we regret is in very feeble health, is almost crushed by the cruel blow, yet surrounded by loving hands and friends may be consoled and we hope will bear up under the irreparable loss.

The remains were taken to Penn Yan, N. Y., the native home of Dr. Bardwell, Friday morning and laid at rest in the Bardwell family plot.

Mrs. Clara Cruise and Miss Jane Evans, Emporium, and Mrs. Emma Sewell, Lima, Ohio, were with her sister when she passed away. Also Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hayes of Emporium, who remain there yet.

The PRESS and our citizens very generally, deeply sympathize with Dr. Bardwell and the afflicted family and we know we express the deepest sympathy of our people who regret that circumstances prevented our being present to aid in consoling and comforting, in a measure, in the sad hours.

DAY.

E. CALEB DAY, aged 50 years, died in a Buffalo Hospital Tuesday m. a. after a long illness. Deceased resided here many years ago and will be remembered by many of our citizens as a carpenter who married Miss Lizzie Morro. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Miss Lillian, to mourn his death, the latter lady notifying Mrs. M. A. Rockwell of the death. Mr. Day was a member in good standing of Emporium Lodge, No. 984, I. O. O. F., and was cared for by a Buffalo Lodge at the request of the fraternity at this place. We have no particulars of the death of Brother Day other than the above.

Store Improvements.

The Fair Store has been thoroughly renovated during the past two weeks and makes a very neat appearance. New linoleum has been placed in the aisles and the tables rearranged, allowing better display of the goods. Henry Zarp and his valuable assistant, Miss Edna Palmer, are always watching where improvements can be made.

Everybody's ice cream parlors, under the skillful management of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Meisel, has again been opened to the public for the season. A large mirror has been placed in the rear of the store and new linoleum covers the floor and new lights over the fountain. All adds greatly to the appearance of the parlors. Watch Meisel's new ad this week.

Pure Milk.

Watering milk is now a crime, Gov. Stuart having signed the recent law enacted by the legislature. People who pay for milk are going to get milk now, or Dairy and Food Commissioner Foust will know the reason why.

Changes at Renovo.

Rumors come from Renovo that the railroad company has sold the Renovo Hotel and the Park land to the Droccon Land Co., reserving the passenger dept. It is said the land will be laid out in lots and a four story brick hotel erected on the east end of the Park. This will be a great improvement for Renovo.

Big Eggs and Little One.

Mrs. J. F. Sullivan and son John, of Huntley, were PRESS visitors on Wednesday and left three eggs on our table, one measuring 2x2, one 8x7 and one 8x6. The smaller one was laid before they fed Felt's Egg Food to their fowls and the large ones after feeding this wonderful egg producer.

Invitation Reception and Ball.

The Old Reliable.

Geo. C. Taggart, son of the late Hon. L. Taggart, has purchased the above popular drug store, so well and favorably known in this county. Geo. has been identified with the Old Reliable since he was a kid and is brushing up and "cleaning house," preparing for a brisk summer trade. Watch his ads. in the PRESS.

Better Watch Out.

Those chaps who are catching trout in violation of the law, had better be a little careful because they are liable to run against an officer any time. Fishermen have no legal right to fish in a stream where brook trout are known to be. Ten dollars is going some for each trout caught out of season. Every law-abiding citizen should aid the officers in detecting these chaps.

New Hotel Proprietor.

Mr. Charles L. Butler, who recently purchased from Mr. F. Levecke his interest in the Commercial Hotel, took possession of that old and well known house to-day. Mr. Butler is well and very favorably known in this section and will conduct a first-class house. We bespeak for him a good share of the public patronage. Mr. and Mrs. Butler have hosts of friends in this county and will keep a popular house.

New Merchant.

Clipson Martin, one of our industrious young men, has purchased the R. M. Overhiser store, including the lot and building. He has moved his family to town and occupies the rooms over the store. We congratulate the young man and bespeak for him the same success that has been the record of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Overhiser during the many years they conducted this excellent store. They will now enjoy life in their comfortable home and take it easy. Glad of it.

Opening at Ludlams.

AN ELABORATE OPENING DISPLAY

First Official Spring Wear Opening at R. Kuehne's.

Mr. R. Kuehne's first official Spring Opening of ladies wear took place on Tuesday and the large and beautiful store room never looked better than upon this occasion.

The Millinery Department, the greatest attraction for the ladies this year this season contains a larger and far superior quality of goods than ever before displayed. Hats of the latest creation, in charge of an expert milliner, not the outlandish style (peach baskets, wash tubs, etc.) but just sensible and up-to-date styles, ranging in prices up to $30.00.

Infants Department, the first display ever seen in this county comprises a beautiful line of head gear handsomely trimmed, in straw and lawn bonnets. The display is indeed beautiful.

Ladies Wear. Especial pride is displayed in the stylish suits from the best manufacturers, of the latest style in make and trimming. Also have embroidered Suits, from $10.00 to $35.00. Beautiful Lace Coats, Baby Irish, all over Lace, from $10.00 up. Wash Suits, in all the leading colors, beautifully trimmed, in Old Rose, Serpent Green, Helothrope, Copenhagen Blue and Light Blue. These are catchy, tasty, reasonable. Splendid line of Tailored Wash Suits, in two and three pieces. $3.98 to $10.00. Also Skirts from $1.98 to $5.00. In Walking Skirts, the Duchess, is the first in style in the country. Splendid in fit, quality and style, from $3.98 to $13.50. Ladies Waists, a very large line. Lawn Waists, $1.00 to $5.00. Net Lace Waists, $5.00 to $10.00.

Real Lace. A large and elaborate display of real lace. We saw one small lot of laces and nearly fainted when Mr. Kuehne told us they were valued at $1,500. We also saw lace from 5c per yard to $10.00 per yard Neckwear in lace collars from 25c to $12.00. Nothing to equal it ever brought to this section and the display is not only a credit to Emporium but speaks well of this popular house.

Silks. All the newest colors in Silks. Taffeta and Messaline—the popular Silks of the season. While in the Dress Goods Department we felt as though we had struck one of the great city stores—just as fine goods, in all the popular weaves, for summer wear.

While leaving the store we noticed a large new show case of the latest in Combs and Barretts, beautifully inlaid in gold and Rhinestone. They are worth your while to visit and look. Prices ranging from $1.50 to $12.50. The beautiful display of nice things rather bewildered us and while we stood at the door our attention was directed to the beautifully arranged windows, just as grand as any city display. The grandeur of the display can only be fully realized by calling on this enterprising, up-to-the-hour Dry Goods and Ladies Wear Merchant and engage one of his polite lady clerks to serve you—save you money—help the town—make you happy and your wife, daughter or sweetheart. Do It Now!
