

Breezy County News

MASON HILL.

W. H. Mitchell, Dentist, Emporium. Clara and Dewey Dill spent Easter with the family of E. G. Hicks.

Rev. W. H. Hall is to remain on the circuit for another year. We are glad to have him back.

Who says there is no lumber in our neighborhood? O. B. Tanner is hauling some fine ties to the banking ground, and Thos. Connick has put up a mill to saw the lumber recently purchased of Morris Donovan.

There is a great deal said about "revenue" and "protection," but if the waste lands were protected from fire, they would yield a good revenue to the owners and be good to look at while the timber is growing.

Hulbert Smith, of Square Timber Run, visited his cousin, O. B. Tanner last week.

Ray Jordan says its work to take care of the engine and boiler at the mill.

Bernice Wrighton who has been visiting her uncle Ewen Ives and family and is now spending a week on Huston Hill. Her home is at Wilmer.

Mrs. Amelia Ives, who has been very sick, is reported to be improving slightly.

Beatrice Duell has been suffering from chicken pox, but is now much better.

Mrs. C. W. Williams has sold her store at Driftwood, it is said, and is spending some time on the farm.

ANON.

HUNTLEY.

W. H. Mitchell, Dentist, Emporium. A. W. Smith went to First Fork Saturday after his sister Emmaline, who will keep house for him in the future.

Lawrence Smith is suffering severely from an attack of neuralgia.

J. E. Johnson is moving to First Fork where he will co-operate with his brother Phineas in extensive farming operations during the coming season.

Selbourne Logue has purchased the household effects of John Drivas and will move into the house recently vacated by J. E. Johnson and keep house with his mother.

John Jordan has finished his tie job and will now try for some Taft onions.

During the high wind Wednesday, the east bound semaphore pole was blown across the east bound track at "HY" tower. As the Buffalo flyer was then due Operator Foster, assisted by Thomas Roberts and J. F. Sullivan, got the pole off the track before the train came. The wind also blew the roof off Smith & Logue's mill and blew down several trees.

The lumber firm from Oil City has purchased all of the suitable timber in this section and W. H. Logue and Levi H. Smith will have charge of preparing and shipping it to market.

Seventeen members of the Sinnamahoning Outing Club gave a pleasant surprise to Mrs. A. F. Nelson and family Thursday evening. A fine supper and a good time was enjoyed by all.

It is rumored that Elmer Hill, of Grove Hill, is about to become interested in the grocery business in Driftwood. We wish him every success for he is one of our most promising young men. Elmer is also greatly interested in our school system and we predict a bright future for him.

William H. Joloff, of Howards, was a caller on friends in town Sunday.

Harvey and Grover Mason, of Tunnel Hill, were in town Friday.

J. F. S.

RICH VALLEY.

W. H. Mitchell, Dentist, Emporium. Fritz Craven moved from Cooks Run Junction to Howardville.

Mrs. Andrew Blinzler, of Emporium, visited her parents Patrick Dulling and wife, of this place, last week. She left April 5th to join her husband who preceded her to West Virginia, where he is employed.

A. S. McGraw purchased a new watch last week. He intends to use it to stop work with. He says it can outrun anything in the watch line.

We are informed that Tillman Chadwick will move to town and that Fred Edwards will occupy his residence in this place.

The trout hog has made his appearance. One of our young men, who should know better, was searched by a fish warded last week, but just happened to have no fish on his person, which is not saying he did not have them elsewhere.

Milton Lewis moved from Howardville to the city this week.

Mrs. Edw. McCormick visited Lewis Run relatives last week.

Mrs. F. J. Lewis returned from Olean last week, where she transacted business as a delegate to the Lockport Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist church.

C. M. S.

[We called the attention of the Supervisors and Poormasters to this fact but thus far they have failed to comply with the demands of the people. The taxpayers of Shippen have not been allowed to read the Auditors' settlements of the Township for two or three years, although the Poor Masters did publish the report last year. Very naturally, the tax-payers think "there is something rotten in Denmark" when the audits are suppressed. It is up to the tax-payers of the township.]—EDITOR.

Leon Woodcock, in company with the Misses Carter, of Howardsville, spent Sunday in the Valley.

Mrs. William Brown is visiting Hicks Run friends this week.

Frank Caskey, of Ridgway, is in the Valley this week on business.

William Page and family of East Emporium, were calling on Valley friends, Sunday.

Pheobe Grainger moved from Grainger Station to Slabtown, recently.

Joseph Eastwood is very ill at present.

John Minard, accompanied by Crystal Housler, visited Valley friends, Sunday.

Tillman Chadwick expects to move to town this week. Fred Edwards will occupy his home.

F. F. Hilliker, the washee man, was on our streets Sunday. He could easily find business for an addition to his laundry in this place.

Lowell Lewis, who has been sorely afflicted, does not improve as fast as his many friends could wish.

The Auditors' Report of Shippen township has failed to make its appearance as per usual. As no one would contest it, why is it withheld? Perhaps ye editor can inform us.

FIRST FORK.

H. W. Mitchell, dentist, Emporium.

The cold weather is making the parties who had sowed their oats, planted early potatoes and gardens wish they hadn't been "quite so previous." With the mercury at 14° above zero it looks as though winter "still lingers in the lap of spring" for sure this time.

C. E. Logue has the foundation laid for a barn on the M. J. Colcord place on the site where the Richardson drug store burned a few years ago. He has the lumber on the ground and is going to put it right up. And meanwhile he is keeping his blooded cow that he imported from Potter county in a cloth tent.

A. G. Bell has moved to Emporium, where he is going to live with his daughter.

At a social on Saturday evening in the Gilmore school house, the sum of $16 was raised towards the salary of Rev. Frank Lawson, who has been returned here for another year and which I believe gives general satisfaction to his parishioners. A number of young men were up from Sinnamahoning to the social. John Foutz brought them up in his hack.

The Gilmore school closed on Thursday and Miss Lewis the teacher left on Saturday afternoon for her home at Weedville.

County Supt., Miss Collins was here at the close of school and examined a small class of aspirants for teachers. We understand they passed muster with good percentages.

M. J. Colcord of the Potter Journal was in town last week, seeing about the building of the new barn, and while here trimmed his Sober Paragon chestnut grafts of last year, and saved the scions, expecting to graft a large number of chestnut trees in a couple of weeks if the weather is suitable.

The rise of water last week let Burlingame & Logue get some more rafts of logs down to the mill for O. L. Bailey.

O. L. Bailey is furnishing the lumber for Colcord's new barn and Wm. Caldwell has the job of hauling it from the mill.

mahoning and Ada Hulsinger, and John Kissel, of Renovo, spent Easter with their parents, Joseph Kissel and wife.

BLUE BELL.

CAMERON.

W. H. Mitchell, Dentist, Emporium, Pa.

E. F. Couley repaired the store building at Canoe Run Friday, which was recently destroyed by the wind storm which passed through this place Wednesday.

R. D. Graham is building a new fence around his property, and also repaired the roof on his building, which was partly damaged by the wind.

Operator Krape received a fine lot of blooded chickens Saturday and expects to go into the chicken business the coming summer.

The road-masters repaired the Oak Hill bridge the past week and also started work on the public roads.

A three-round affair was pulled off at Canoe Run. We are unable to give any particulars.

It is understood William Wertz, who was recently employed at the brick works and who is now located at Lane's Mills, is reported as having recently received a fortune from his grand-mother, amounting to $5,000,000 in coal lands. His friends in this locality are pleased to hear of his good luck, and would be pleased to renew Bill's acquaintance under his new lucky star and wish to see him back and enjoy the trout season's fishing.

W. H. Fox is wearing that smile that won't come off. It's a boy, they say. Cigars next, Bill.

LOUISE.

BEECHWOOD.
