

CAMERON COUNTY PRESS.

H. H. MULLIN, Editor.

Published Every Thursday.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. For year, $2.00 paid in advance. 1.50

ADVERTISING RATES: Advertisements are published at the rate of one dollar per square for one insertion and fifty cents per square for each subsequent insertion.

JOB PRINTING. The Job Department of the Press is complete and affords facilities for doing the best class of work. PARTICULAR ATTENTION PAID TO LAW PRINTING.

Mermaid for Breakfast. A stranger meal than any ever partaken by Frank Buckland or the most hardened and cosmopolitan traveler is described by Juan Francisco de St. Antonio.

Told by the Features. Men who succeed in commerce have alert faces, but no particular features. Clergymen who go up the ladder of preferment have faces that tell of self-repression—tight lips, eyes which look straight ahead.

No Doubt. On one occasion an ignorant quack was called by mistake to attend a council of physicians in a critical case. After considerable discussion the opinion was expressed by one that the patient was convalescent.

Wise Interrogating. A faculty of wise interrogating is half a knowledge. For as Plato saith: "Whosoever speaketh knoweth that which he seeketh for in a general notion; else how shall he know it when he hath found it?"

A Hint to the Wise. A blacksmith picked up a paper the other day as he was going to work and read that he was one of the heirs to an estate that has been in litigation for 13 years.

Gallant Burglar. After riding a lady's boudoir and annexing some jewels, the burglar left a note—brief but gallant, and gratifying to a degree—before taking his departure.

Dolly Wasn't Brave. Little Grace went into her mother's darkened chamber in search of her doll. She ran out so very fast that her mother said: "What makes my darling run so? Is she afraid?"

Tyrannical Science. Everything has to be scientific nowadays; cooking, beverages, education, sport, bookkeeping, law, hygiene, sociology—that is what we teach our children.

When Romance Flees. When a woman can meet one of her husband's former sweethearts and treat her courteously or kindly, it is a sign that the former sweetheart has either grown very stout or has faded terribly.

Getting Along with People. Getting along with people is a valuable trait to cultivate. First of all, be amiable and forgiving; do not hear all that is said, never repeat anything and be willing to be pleased while doing your part.

A Fall of the Right Kind. "Don't despise the failures," said the quaint philosopher. "Even the little tumbles of life are not all bad. For instance I once knew a worthless fellow who fell into a fortune."

Said Uncle Silas: "It takes a woman longer to get into her duds to go down town shopping than it does a man to pack up for a six months' vacation trip."

Tact and Talent. Talent feels its weight; tact finds its way; talent commands, tact is obeyed; talent is honored with approbation, and tact is blessed by preference.

ALL AGAINST DELAY POINT TOO OFTEN FORGOTTEN

VOTERS ARE FOR IMMEDIATE TARIFF REVISION.

Pledge Given the Country by the Republican Party Must Be Redeemed—President Taft Does Well to Be Insistent.

The tariff bill ought to be out of the way soon. The first of June ought to be the limit. It can be given the necessary consideration and be disposed of by that date.

Responsibility for result will rest upon the Republican party. It has been charged by the people with tariff revision and the people expect that the majority of congress will redeem that pledge without unnecessary delay.

Some changes in the bill of the committee on ways and means seem to be necessary and proper. The rule should provide for these. They ought to be made with as little delay as may be.

The Double Plan.

The charge is made that the Payne maximum-minimum plan must involve us in a world-wide trade war and compel us to impose maximum duties on a large proportion of our imports.

Found at Last. The trouble with the Democratic party is too much politics and not enough statesmanship.

POINT TOO OFTEN FORGOTTEN

To Raise Necessary Revenue, Articles of Universal Consumption Must Be Taxed.

Opposition to the Payne tariff bill has been made on the familiar platform of tariff for revenue only. That is the British system—tax imports that will be imported, tax internal products that will be produced.

"Will anybody tell how to get large tariff revenues without duties on articles of universal consumption? Duties on luxuries and costly goods, however high, will supply only small sums—small for a government that must have $1,000,000,000 a year.

The trouble with the demand for a tariff for revenue that shall levy appreciable taxes, and therefore no revenue, is that it is not sincere. That is why it ends in a fizzle.

No, there is no sincerity in it. The sole purpose is to complain of the tariff bill, whatever is done—if protective, then that it taxes the poor.

Selfishness of Protection.

The government may find immense resources in taxation of imports, by proper adjustment of duties, with a view to revenue. But it is extremely difficult to reach such a result, because of the local selfishness that insists on a protective, or even a prohibitive tariff, for special interests in particular districts; and, moreover, because of insistence that commodities of universal consumption, not produced largely in our own country, should be admitted free, because the poor consume more of them than the rich.

Free Iron, Wood and Hides.

The time has come to provide for a larger supply of iron ores by a tariff which will admit new deposits, like those in Cuba, by reciprocity or by ore free altogether.

Forestry agitation and high lumber held by a few hands, has educated the public to a recognition that our lumber conditions have changed. Our great wood industries need access to new supplies. The boot and shoe manufacturers, now yearly reporting their product, have the same view on hides, and the relations of the meat trust to the domestic supply of hides and leather, whose price has been supported through depression, influence public opinion.—Philadelphia Press.

Work Must Be Well Done.

It's an endless chain, so closely are industries allied. What is the raw material of one industry is the finished product of another. The revision of these schedules is a labor infinitely complex and incalculably important.

Pennsylvania Happenings

Bradford.—Next Sunday the clergymen of the city will politely but emphatically ask the ladies of the congregations to remove their hats.

Washington.—The coroner's jury which investigated the death of William Swihart, whose body was taken from Ten-Mile creek, recommended that further inquiry be made.

Homestead.—The board of health recommended that milk dealers of this borough use non-refillable bottles made of paper, and decided to ask the state board of health to inspect dairies from which the town gets its milk.

Canonsburg.—The Canonsburg Iron and Steel company has closed its plant, throwing 400 men out of work. The company has offered to start the plant up again if the men will accept a reduction of 10 per cent in wages.

New Castle.—Heart trouble caused the sudden death at his home here of Samuel H. Rice, aged 56, a traveling salesman. He was a member of the Pittsburgh Commercial Travelers' association. His widow and six children survive.

Altoona.—John E. Craig, who killed Edward Russell after finding the man with Mrs. Craig, and who refused later to be reconciled with the woman, has relented. He left with his children to join Mrs. Craig at her former home in Elmira, N. Y.

Pittsburgh.—Ninety-five per cent of the 8,764 trains operated on the Western Pennsylvania division of the Pennsylvania railroad in March arrived at their destination "on time," according to a report issued by the general superintendent here.

Pittsburgh.—The following Pittsburghers sailed Wednesday, April 21: On Rotterdam, for Rotterdam, R. R. Quay, Mrs. R. R. Quay, Miss E. Quay, M. S. Quay II, and R. R. Quay, Jr.; on Kronprinzessin Cecilie, for Bremen, A. Gollwitzer, O. Lehmann and Miss T. Elias of Washington.

Butler.—In Lancaster township, eight miles north of Zellenpole, a well brought in by Brown & Company on the John Scott farm is flowing 50 barrels a day. This has increased the activity of oil men, and thousands of acres are being leased. In many cases fancy bonuses are being paid.

South Hills.—At a meeting held at Smith's hotel in Beachview, the South Hills Baseball league was formed with the following teams: Banksville, Beachview, Brookline, Mt. Lebanon and Altlewton. "Pop" Williams was elected president, Archie Dunn secretary and George J. Smith treasurer. The league will open the season on May 8.

Philadelphia.—The torpedo boat destroyer Joseph B. Smith, built for the United States government, was launched Wednesday, April 21. The destroyer was christened by Mrs. Edward B. Richardson of Brookline, Mass., daughter of Rear Admiral Pillsbury. Mrs. Pillsbury is also a relative of the late Lieutenant Smith, for whom the destroyer was named.

Allentown.—Mrs. Cora Texter and Mrs. Laura Bigley, each about 55 years old, have been convicted of being common scolds. They were prosecuted by Mrs. Sadie Kern, who had a pair of red stockings on the wash line, about which defendants said some very sarcastic things. In fining them $106 each, Judge Trexler said he regretted he had not the power given judges under the old English law of ordering them to be ducked in a pond.

Harrisburg.—The Anti-Saloon league announces a state local option conference here on May 14. The league board of trustees will meet in executive session and an open conference of friends of local option throughout the state will be held. A public mass meeting in the evening is to be addressed by General Superintendent of the League Rev. P. A. Baker of Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens of Portland, Me., president of the national Woman's Christian Temperance union.

Pittsburgh.—Representing himself as private secretary to George Gould and taking as his partner William H. May of Pittsburgh, William G. McLaughlin, formerly of New York, but now believed to be in Philadelphia, formed a corporation under the title of the "McLaughlin-May Iron & Steel Company and started operations in Greensburg. On information received from Greensburg, May was arrested on eight warrants charging him with false pretense. McLaughlin has not been seen and the police of four cities are looking for him.

Altoona.—The general foreman of the Altoona car shops announces that orders have been received for 15 new steel dining cars of the latest design and fitted with all modern conveniences. The Car shops will not be idle during the coming summer.

Harrisburg.—Gov. Stuart has taken up the task of disposing of the 715 bills and 18 resolutions put up to him by the recent Legislature. He has until May 15 to finish this work, but a proceeding without delay to dispose of the mass of matter ahead.

The Place to Buy Cheap — IS AT — J. F. PARSONS'

DROPS CURES RHEUMATISM LUMBAGO, SCIATICA NEURALGIA and KIDNEY TROUBLE. DR. S. D. BLAND. FREE. SWANSON RHEUMATIC CURE COMPANY, Dept. 80, 150 Lake Street, Chicago, Ill.

If you are a business man, did you ever think of the field of opportunity that advertising opens to you? There is almost no limit to the possibilities of your business if you study how to turn trade into your store.

MAKE YOUR APPEAL

to the public through the columns of this paper. With every issue it carries its message into the homes and lives of the people. Your competitor has his store news in this issue. Why don't you have yours? Don't blame the people for flocking to his store. They know what he has.

The Home Paper Gives you the reading matter in which you have the greatest interest—the home news. Its every issue will prove a welcome visitor to every member of the family. It should head your list of newspaper and periodical subscriptions.

C. G. SCHMIDT'S HEADQUARTERS FOR Popular Bakery, CONFECTIONERY. FRESH BREAD, PIES, FANCY CAKES, ICE CREAM. Daily Delivery. All orders given prompt and skillful attention.

Enlarging Your Business. If you are in business and you want to make more money you will read every word we have to say. Are you spending your money for advertising in haphazard fashion as if intended for charity, or do you advertise for direct results? Did you ever stop to think how your advertising can be made a source of profit to you, and how its value can be measured in dollars and cents. If you have not, you are throwing money away.

JOB PRINTING. We can do the finest class of printing, and we can do that class just a little cheaper than the other fellow. Wedding invitations, letter heads, bill heads, sale bills, statements, dodgers, cards, etc., all receive the same careful treatment—just a little better than seems necessary. Prompt delivery always.