

BOYLE GUILTY OF KIDNAPING

THE TRIAL LASTED BUT A FEW HOURS, NO DEFENSE BEING MADE.

MRS. BOYLE PLACED ON TRIAL

She is indicted under the name of Mary Doe, with Half a Dozen Aliases, Charged with Aiding and Abetting.

Mercer, Pa.—James Boyle, charged with kidnaping "Billy" Whittle, was convicted yesterday after a trial lasting but a few hours. No defense was made and the jury was out but a few minutes. Mrs. Boyle, indicted under the name of Mary Doe, with half a dozen aliases, was immediately placed upon trial, charged with aiding and abetting the kidnaping.

Strong Case Against Boyle.

That Boyle's trial came to such an abrupt ending immediately after the state had rested was due to the fact that so strong a case had been made against him. From the night before the abduction, when he was seen in Sharon, till the time of his arrest in Cleveland, almost every movement he made was testified to by one or more witnesses. A man who hired him a horse and buggy, another who saw Boyle driving with "Billy" in the buggy, the barber who saw the two together and shaved Boyle's mustache off, train and electric railway conductors who saw the couple on the way to Cleveland and identified them in court, all told stories which fitted in perfectly with that of "Billy" Whittle and left no doubt as to the part Boyle had taken in the case.

Relying entirely upon their contention that the Pennsylvania courts have no jurisdiction in her case, counsel for Mrs. James Boyle refused to offer any evidence in her behalf at the second day's trial.

POET'S STATUE IS UNVEILED

Monument to Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Given to the Nation—Many Dignitaries Present.

Washington.—To the strains of "Hiawatha" and "The Star-Spangled Banner," played by the Marine band, the bronze statue erected to the memory of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow was unveiled Friday.

Monument to Longfellow.

The occasion was the more notable because of the presence of members of the diplomatic corps, men distinguished in letters, and by practically all of the living relatives of the poet.

The statue is located in a small triangular parking at the intersection of Connecticut and Rhode Island avenues. Chief Justice Fuller of the supreme court of the United States presided at the unveiling exercises. The statue was presented to the city by Brainard H. Warner, treasurer of the Longfellow National Memorial association, and was accepted by Attorney General Wickensham, President Taft being unable to attend.

EDITOR OF 'THE NATION' DEAD

Hammond Lamont Was Also One of the Leading Editorial Writers on the New York Evening Post.

New York City.—Hammond Lamont, the editor of The Nation, died last night at Roosevelt hospital, following an operation which proved more serious than expected. His age was 45.

Mr. Lamont was born in Monticello, N. Y., and was graduated from Harvard in 1886. After several years spent in journalism in Albany and Seattle, he was appointed instructor in English in Harvard university in 1892, a few years later becoming head of the department of English composition in Brown university. After a successful term at Brown he was, in 1901, called to New York as the managing editor of the New York Evening Post. Upon the retirement, in 1906, of Wendell Phillips Garrison, Mr. Lamont succeeded him as editor of The Nation and became one of the leading editorial writers of the Evening Post.

Commits Suicide Near Spot Where His Wife Was Killed by a Train—Home and Savings Gone.

Cleveland, O.—Swinging among the branches of a tree within a stone's throw of the scene of an accident that had broken his life 18 months ago, the dead body of John Thoma, an aged farmer, was found near Corlett station yesterday.

With the suicide has come to light the pathetic story of a broken-hearted old man, struggling in vain under a weight of grief and misfortune, until physical endurance could withstand the pain no longer.

Thoma had lived for years in the neighborhood of Corlett station, growing old, happy and contented with the wife who had been at his side through years of labor in his adopted country. Eighteen months ago the sudden accidental death of his wife prostrated the old man.

For months he did not rally, wandering aimlessly about his little farm, trying vainly to pick up the broken thread of his former peaceful life. Business became a thing beyond his grasp, and gradually misfortune after misfortune robbed him of the savings of a lifetime.

Thus broken, hopeless and weary, his mind seemed at times to wander and neighbors noted and spoke pityingly of the wreck of their once prosperous friend. Unable to bear his burden longer, the old man wandered on Wednesday to the scene of his wife's sudden death and there ended the great trouble.

TWENTY PERSONS INJURED

Bomb, Hidden in a Basket, Explodes on the Streets of Buenos Ayres—Business at a Standstill.

Buenos Ayres.—The explosion of a bomb at the corner of Corrientes and Corrito streets yesterday injured 29 persons, four of them seriously, and caused great excitement for a time. The bomb was hidden in a basket of vegetables which was placed on the platform of a trolley, presumably by someone in sympathy with the strike inaugurated on May day. A passenger on board heard a noise like the ticking of a clock coming from the basket and informed the police. The basket was recovered by an officer and the explosion followed almost immediately.

Among the injured is Dr. Victor Aguilar, an under commissioner of police, and three police agents. A little girl who was passing by had both legs fractured and other persons were more or less injured. One arrest has been made in connection with the affair.

Business is at a standstill and commerce has suffered enormously as a result of the strike.

A second bomb exploded last night at the moment a street car was passing through a prominent street, but no one was injured.

WEEKLY TRADE CONDITIONS

Everything Points to a Full Restoration of Normal Industrial and Mercantile Activity.

New York City.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

With bank clearings outside New York 15.9 per cent better than last year and 24.5 per cent better than in 1906, and in New York 24.1 per cent larger than in 1908 and 1.3 per cent larger than in 1906, with railroad earnings for the month of April showing a gain of 13.9 per cent over 1908 and only 10.3 per cent decrease as compared with the banner year of 1907; with immigration 212,000 larger than last year; with imports much greater than in 1908 and nearly equal to 1907; with a distinct gain in the iron and steel trade in both orders and prices; with a hardening tendency in copper; with works of new construction going rapidly forward, the trade situation seems to afford ample grounds for the prevailing belief that as soon as tariff revision is out of the way the last obstacle to a full restoration of normal industrial and mercantile activity will be removed.

Another "Black Hand" Crime.

Chicago, Ill.—Another "Black Hand" crime was given to the police to solve last night. Mariano Zagone, 48 years old, a wealthy cigar manufacturer who has narrowly escaped death on three previous occasions through his refusal to comply with the demands of blackmailers, was probably fatally shot in the temple while sitting in his brother-in-law's saloon. The police found Zagone lying on the sidewalk in front of the saloon, a revolver lying under him. Joseph and Nicolasi Carmello, saloon keepers, were arrested, but they protested that they knew nothing of the shooting.

Kills Man Without Provocation.

Huntsville, Ala.—J. Robert Jones, senior member of the insurance firm of Jones & Rison, was shot and killed yesterday by W. L. Halsey, president of the Halsey Wholesale Grocery Co. A. D. McDowell, shipping clerk in the Halsey establishment, was probably fatally shot. Mr. Halsey is in jail. The shooting occurred in the Halsey store, where Jones had gone to adjust some insurance. No quarrel occurred, and the shooting was unexpected to William L. Halsey, Jr., son of the slayer.

OVER 10,000 PEOPLE KILLED IN TARSUS

ATROCITIES COMMITTED BY FANATICAL MOHAMMEDANS ARE SICKENING.

MANY VILLAGES WIPED OUT

An Insensate Orgy of Lust and Violence in the Name of Race and Religion Which Lasted Ten Days.

Tarsus, Asiatic Turkey.—Authentic details of the atrocities committed by the fanatical Mohammedans in the villages and farms in this district are now coming in to Tarsus with sickening abundance. The worst particulars of these narratives cannot be mentioned, but they set forth without doubt that at least 10,000 persons lost their lives in this province, and some estimates place the total casualty list at 25,000. Villages like Osmanieh, Babsche, Hamadieh, Kara, Kristian, Keoy and Kezolook were actually wiped out.

Slaughter Unsparring. Each of these places had populations of from 500 to 600 people. In one town of 4,000 people there are less than 100 left, nearly all women and children. It was the same thing with the hundreds of chiftliks, or farms, that dot this wide and fertile plain. The slaughter was unsparring; even Greeks and Syrians were struck down with the Armenians. Entire families were burned to death in their homes. Hundreds of girls and women were maltreated and carried off to the harems, where the women were separated from the men.

Terrible Deeds of Turks. The correspondent was informed that at one place a party of 100 Armenians surrendered to the soldiers. The prisoners were taken to an open field, where the women were ordered to stand apart from the men. Every one of the men was then shot. In many cases they were done to death with their women clinging to them, trying to save their lives. A large number of women were wounded because of their persistence.

Sixty men who were brought down into this district from Hadjin are now held as slaves. Young Turks around Tarsus are today trading Armenian girls among each other for horses and modern repeating rifles. The entire 10 days seem to have been an insensate orgy of lust and violence in the name of race and religion.

Adana Still Lawless.

Adana, Asiatic Turkey.—Adana is still lawless. More people have been killed in the city. There are 30,000 dead in Adana province as a result of the massacres, and 35,000 homeless and penniless refugees are wandering in the vilayet. The deaths in Adana city alone are estimated at 6,500. Adana is terrorized by 4,000 soldiers, who are looting, shooting and burning. No respect is paid to foreign properties. Both the French schools have been destroyed, and it is feared that the American school, commercial and missionary interests in Adana are totally ruined.

WIFE MURDERER IS GUILTY

Boston Man, After Killing His Spouse, Puts Her Dismembered Body in a Trunk.

Cambridge, Mass.—Chester S. Jordan was found guilty in the first degree on a charge of murdering his wife, by a jury in the Middlesex county superior court yesterday. The verdict was returned after the jury had deliberated more than 19 hours.

Jordan was charged with having killed his wife in a quarrel at their home in Somerville. The woman's dismembered body was found in a trunk which Jordan had taken to a Boston lodging house. The suspicions of a cab driver that the trunk had been stolen led to the discovery of its contents. The defense was "epileptic insanity," and the testimony of medical experts was one of the features of the trial.

STORM IN LONG ISLAND SOUND

Four People Drowned, Four Barges Sunk, One Cast Ashore and Three Others Piled on Rocks.

New Haven, Conn.—Driving with terrific force over the upper waters of Long Island sound and along a part of the Connecticut shore, one of the severest storms which has been experienced in several years claimed a toll of four lives, sent four barges to the bottom of the sound off Branford, cast one ashore in that vicinity and piled three others on the rocks off Faulkner's island. The persons drowned were Capt. Marshall A. Percy of the barge Susquehanna, his wife and 11-year-old son, and a deckhand whose name has not been learned.

AN ASTOUNDING STORY

BOAT SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN LOST SEIZED BY VENEZUELAN

Escaped Prisoner Says Captain and Crew of American Whaler Are Incarcerated.

Kingstown, St. Vincent, B. W. I.—It may be that Capt. Rollin Stephenson and the crew of the American whaling ship Carrie D. Knowles, long since thought to have been lost at sea, are still alive in a Venezuelan prison. An American seaman who gives the name of Payne, an escaped prisoner from Venezuela, has made his way to Kingstown, where he laid before the authorities an astounding story of the seizure of the Carrie D. Knowles at a Venezuela port, where she arrived five years ago in distress, and the incarceration by the Venezuelans of the captain and his men.

So convinced are the authorities here that there is truth in Payne's story that they have taken down his full statement and have already taken steps looking to a speedy and thorough investigation of the case.

Escaped Prisoner's Story.

On January 27, 1904, the Carrie D. Knowles sailed from Provincetown, Mass., on a whaling voyage. Her captain was Collin Stephenson and her first mate H. A. Martin. In addition she carried a crew of about a dozen men. These are the names as given by Payne to the authorities here, and as far as he could remember the names of the members of the crew were: Wallace, Warner, Robertson, Hazell, Sam, Davis, Pierre, Grant, Lewis and John.

Payne asserts positively that all of these men are at the present time confined in a Venezuelan prison.

Vessel Supposed to Have Been Lost.

The vessel was supposed to have been lost in a West Indian storm with all hands. Some of the men belonged in St. Vincent and after all hope was given up of their return their relatives put on mourning and the local insurance company eventually paid the claims against it, on the assumption that the sailors were dead.

Payne declared the whaler had been disabled in a storm off the Venezuelan coast and had made port in distress. This was five years ago, but the exact date he could not remember. She was at once seized and the captain and crew were made prisoners and thrown into jail. He states that all the men are alive, but are still closely confined.

Americans Become Interested.

Provincetown, Mass.—The despatch from Kingstown outlining the story told by the escaped Venezuelan prisoner, to the effect that the crew of the lost Provincetown whaler Carrie D. Knowles were incarcerated in a prison in Venezuela, was naturally of intense interest here. As the entire crew of the Knowles were natives of the West Indies, there are few means here of verifying Payne's statements. The identity of Payne is not clear, but it may be that he is no other than Elisha Payne, a seaman of Provincetown, who mysteriously disappeared from this port previous to or about the time of the sailing of the Knowles.

BOATS STONED BY STRIKERS

Men Who Tried to Take Off Crew of Steamer Were Met With Volley of Shots.

Buffalo, N. Y.—Strikers who rushed on board the steamer Charles W. Kotcher at the Export Elevator dock here last night to take off the crew were met with a volley of shots by the special watchmen on board. The strikers stuck to the boat until the police reserves arrived. Then they scattered and ran. No one was hit by the revolver shots. A number of members of the crew of the Badger State were badly beaten on the dock at Tonawanda just before the steamer sailed last night.

Union seamen and cooks left the steamers J. S. Morrow and Frederick B. Wells here yesterday. The steamers America and Williams Castle Rhodes sailed with non-union crews. A crowd of strikers showered the America with stones as she passed out of the harbor. These package freighters left with union crews: Averill, Rome, Ogdensburg and Wilkesbarre.

PAINT EVERY YEAR.

No One Wants to Do It, But Some Paint Will Wear No Longer.

When you have a job of painting done you don't expect to have it done over again very soon. But to make a lasting job, several things must be taken into consideration—the proper time to paint—the condition of the surface—the kind of materials to use, etc. All these matters are fully covered in the specifications which can be had free by writing National Lead Company, 1902 Trinity Building, New York, and asking for Houseowner's Painting Outfit No. 49. The outfit also includes a book of color schemes for both interior and exterior painting, and a simple instrument for detecting adulteration in the paint materials. The outfit will solve many painting problems for every houseowner.

Meantime while buying paint see that every white lead keg bears the famous Dutch Boy Patent trademark, which is an absolute guarantee of purity and quality. If your paint dealer cannot supply you National Lead Company will see that some one else will.

RASH ALL OVER BOY'S BODY.

Awful, Crusted, Weeping Eczema on Little Sufferer—A Score of Treatments Prove Dismal Failures.

Cure Achieved by Cuticura.

"My little boy had an awful rash all over his body and the doctor said it was eczema. It was terrible, and used to water awfully. Any place the water went it would form another sore and it would become crusted. A score or more physicians failed utterly and dismally in their efforts to remove the trouble. Then I was told to use the Cuticura Remedies. I got a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, and before we had used half the Resolvent I could see a change in him. In about two months he was entirely well. George F. Lambert, 139 West Centre St., Mahanoy City, Pa., Sept. 26 and Nov. 4, 1907." Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

A Frank Opinion.

Once a youth thought it his solemn duty to learn something about Henry James. So, to the great admiration of his frivolous friends, he picked up "The Wings of the Dove" and disappeared into its pages.

Two weeks later he was thinner, but still at it, when one of the aforementioned frivolous friends came into the room, and, for the first time showed interest.

"Say," he observed, "is 'The Wings of the Dove' a collection of short stories or one long story?"

The deliver into James glanced up from the pages.

"One darned long story," he replied, throwing his whole soul into the words.

Judge Will Wait and See.

An earnest plea was made by Attorney Charles Pettijohn to Judge Pritchard of the criminal court for leniency to a client who had entered a plea of guilty to larceny. The burden of the attorney's argument was that his client was the father of twins and was tempted to theft in order to feed the mouths of the infants.

"Your honor, I will say frankly," said Mr. Pettijohn in closing, "that if I were the father of twins and needed food for my family, I would not hesitate to go out and steal it." "Mr. Pettijohn, when you are the father of twins I will consider your proposition," said Judge Pritchard.—Indianapolis News.

OLD SOAKERS

Get Saturated with Caffeine.

When a person has used coffee for a number of years and gradually declined in health, it is time the coffee should be left off in order to see whether or not that has been the cause of the trouble.

A lady in Huntsville, Ala., says she used coffee for about 40 years, and for the past 20 years was troubled with stomach trouble.

"I have been treated by many physicians but all in vain. Everything failed to perfect a cure. I was prostrated for some time, and came near dying. When I recovered sufficiently to partake of food and drink I tried coffee again and it soured my stomach.

"I finally concluded coffee was the cause of my troubles and stopped using it. I tried tea and milk in its place, but neither agreed with me, then I commenced using Postum. I had it properly made and it was very pleasing to the taste.

"I have now used it four months, and my health is so greatly improved that I can eat almost anything I want and can sleep well, whereas, before, I suffered for years with insomnia. "I have found the cause of my troubles and a way to get rid of them. You can depend upon it I appreciate Postum."

Mrs. Joannah Straw, 526 North Broadway, Canton, S. D., says: "For three years I suffered everything with rheumatism in my limbs and a dull, ceaseless aching in my back. I was really in a critical condition when I began with Doan's Kidney Pills, and they certainly did wonders for me. Though I am 81 years old, I am as well as the average woman of 50. I work well, eat well and sleep well."

Simple and Comprehensive Sign Put Up by Small Boy with a Grievance.

The Langworths lived in a corner house so easily accessible from the street that they were constantly annoyed by persons ringing to ask where other possible inhabitants of that block were to be found. Finally, goaded to desperation by these interruptions, the family boy attempted to put a stop to the nuisance.

"I guess," said he, complacently, "there won't be any more folks asking if the Browns, the Biddles or the Hansons live in this house. I've fixed 'em."

"What have you done?" queried Mrs. Langworth.

"Hung out a sign."

"And what did you print on it, ladie?"

"Just five words," replied Harold, proudly: "'Nobody lives here but us.'" Lippincott's.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
