John Montgomery, W. Sixth St., Emporium, Pa., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as a reliable remedy for backache and other kidney disorders. I suffered from a lame back and sharp, shooting pains through my loins and was so bad at times that I was unable to straighten. My kidneys were very weak and the secretions passed too frequently, causing me to arise during the night. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from Taggart's drug store and they cured me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A Dull Looking Church.

In some communities one or more churches present evidence of badly painted exteriors. The beautiful finish and coloring of the L. & M. Paint distinguishes a church painted with it. The L. & M. Paint is Metal Zinc Oxide combined with White Lead, and wears like gold. A liberal quantity of L. & M. Paint is given to every church whenever they paint. This has been done throughout the United States during past 35 years. More churches have been painted with L. & M. Paint than with any other. Sold by Harry S. Lloyd, Emporium.

For a burn or scald apply Chamberlain's Salve. It will allay the pain almost instantly and quickly heal the injured parts. For sale by Taggart.

A Realistic Actor.

Malcolm was three years old. He stood stock still in the middle of the floor, one arm extended horizontally. His mother, looking up from her sewing, saw the door open.

"Shut the door, Malcolm, please," she said. No response. She repeated her request. Still no response.

"Malcolm," she said more sternly, "I asked you to shut the door." Still Malcolm stood in the middle of the floor with his arm outstretched and did not move.

"Malcolm," said his mother, "if you don't shut the door at once I shall have to punish you." Malcolm burst into tears and flung himself on his mother's knees. "Mumver," he cried, "I was bein' a wooden sign, an' wooden signs can't shut doors!"—Woman's Home Companion.

Memory Studies.

A small boy went into a South Boston drug store, wrinkled his face, rubbed his head and rubbed his left foot up and down his right leg in an effort to remember something that had escaped him.

"Say," he began, "will you tell me the name of the place where we Americans have so many soldiers?"

"Fort Sheridan?"

"Oh, no. It's farther away than that."

"The Philippines?"

"That ain't just it, but it's somewhere around there."

"Perhaps you mean Manila?"

"Manila! That's right! I knew I would get it after awhile. I want a bottle of manila extract for flavorin'."

"They're goin' to have ice cream."—Boston Record.

Old Time Temperance.

The first temperance society is said to have been founded by Margrave Frederick V. in 1690, and it is instructive to learn that the noble members of that society were bound by a pledge good for two years not to drink more than seven bumpers of wine with any meal nor more than fourteen bumpers a day. They were, however, permitted to quench any surplus of thirst with beer and to drink one glass of whisky on the side. By this ideal of abstention may be gauged the ordinary drinking habits of our forefathers in the good old times when knighthood was in flower.—Morris Hillquit in Socialism.

An Easy One.

"You imagine you know a lot about Biblical things," said the scoffer. "Suppose you tell me who Cain's wife was."

"That's easy," rejoined the old deacon. "She was Adam's daughter-in-law."—Detroit Free Press.

System.

"I'm afraid I can't write that article on 'System.'"

"Why not?"

"I can't find my notes."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality.
