United Boys Brigade Encampment.

While enjoying an auto ride up Portage on Monday in Hon. Josiah Howard's auto, with W. A. Dalrymple at the wheel, we noted many improvements being made between Emporium and Sizerville, especially at Sizerville, where Hon. F. C. Councilman has made extensive improvements on the popular Sizer Springs Hotel, providing first-class accommodations for the public and built up a large and rapidly increasing demand for the popular mineral water flowing from the never failing spring. His large outlay will some day, in the near future, return to him in three-fold. We also noticed how neatly the property of Wm. R. Sizer looked, every indication of prosperity and strict attention to business. The post office is located in Mr. Sizer's store and is ably managed by Mrs. Sizer, as postmistress.

After viewing the large and beautiful body of land located between Sizer's store and Robt. McDowell's, we joined W. H. Howard, Maj. B. Th. Bliss and Capt. W. B. Powell, of Ridgway, and examined the land decided upon for the United Boys Brigade Encampment to take place August 11th to 18th. Maj. Bliss, who is commander of Third Battalion of Fifth Regiment, in conjunction with Capt. Powell, who is Adjutant of the Battalion, (in addition to being a graduate of Louisville, Ky., Military Academy,) carefully viewed the grounds and marked out the plans of Camp W. H. Howard. It is fully expected that this annual camp will be very largely attended. In addition to the two companies from Emporium, two or three companies will come from Bradford, one from St. Marys and two or three from Ridgway. The boys will have a big time, nice location and handy to the railroad. All roads will lead to Camp W. H. Howard between Aug. 11th-18th. Don't make any engagements that may interfere with your enjoying the Boys Brigade Encampment.

While coming home we noticed County Treasurer Chas. J. Howard's well kept farm—the old Delos Burlingame farm—and all looked inviting. Farmer Howard enjoys his country home and his family also.

Passing by the old John Jackson farm, we were glad to see that John L. Johnson was busy erecting a barn as large as all out doors. Stick to the farm and you will wear diamonds some day and be happy too. Good for you, John.

Just received a new line of men's suits at C. B. Howard & Co's.

The Persevering Guesser.
 "It is amazing what perseverance will achieve," said an Englishman "Even misdirected perseverance has achieved marvels. There is the case of Robson, the great Nottingham cricketer. Robson during his Australian tour was determined one scorching afternoon that his side shouldn't do the hard work of fielding. Well, when the Australian captain spun the coin Robson shouted, 'Woman!' Then, seeing that heads lay uppermost, instead of acknowledging defeat Robson said, with perseverance and nonchalance: "Well, we'll go in."
 "But—er—I thought," said the puzzled Australian—"you see, I don't quite know the English meaning of "woman."
 "Then," said Robson gallantly, "we'll toss again."
 "The Australian made a second toss. Robson called heads, and tails came up. The ordinary man would at this point have surrendered in despair, but not so Robson.
 "Honors are now easy," said he, with a pleasant smile. "On with the rubber."
 "The Australian a third time flipped the coin, and, having at last called the toss correctly, the persevering Robson led in his side to the shady benches."

An Unofficial Order.
 Thomas, tenth Earl of Dundonald, at his death vice admiral in the English navy, tells in his "Autobiography of a Seaman" of an incident on board the Hind, on which he served as midshipman. The pet of the ship was a parrot, the aversion of the boatswain, whose whistle the bird learned to imitate exactly.
 "One day a party of ladies paid us a visit aboard. By the usual means of a 'whip' on the yardarm several had been hoisted on deck. The chain had descended for another. Scarcely had its fair freight been lifted out of the boat alongside when the parrot piped, 'Let go!'
 "The order was instantly obeyed and the unfortunate lady, instead of being comfortably seated on deck, was soured in the sea. Luckily for her, the men were on the watch and quickly pulled her out, and, luckily for the parrot, the boatswain was on shore or this unseasonable assumption of the boatswain's functions might have ended tragically for the bird."

How Prisoners converse.
 A man who was sent to jail recently for three days for a small offense was greatly impressed with the precautions taken to prevent the prisoners' engaging in conversation. There seemed to be warders everywhere, and no one was allowed to utter a word.
 On the Sunday he was in the church the psalm given was the "Old Hundredth." Beside him were two old jailbirds, and instead of the orthodox words beginning "All people that on earth do dwell" this pair sang a hymn of their own in conversational style, which went something as follows:
 First convict sings:
 "How long are you in for?
 I am doing sixty days.
 I nearly broke a copper's jaw.
 Sing low or else they'll maybe hear."
 Second convict replies:
 "You are a lucky piece,
 I've got twel-elve months to serve.
 Tried to break into a house.
 Some'dy must have g'en me away."
 By this method they exchanged histories during the singing.—Glasgow News.

Too Humiliating.
 A certain small boy of six is rapidly assuming many ways. Not long ago his "room" at school planned an entertainment. There were to be little songs and recitations and a mysterious grab bag. The small boy waxed eloquent concerning the coming glories of this show, and more especially the part he would take.
 On the morning of the entertainment his mother suggested that he should take his little sister, aged four, with him. He hung his head.
 "Don't you want to take her?" his mother asked.
 "No, I don't," he answered.
 "And why not?"
 "The reply came quickly.
 "'Cause there ain't none of th' other fellers has to bring their children!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

No Acid Needed.
 Weary William Rhoades—Say, Happy, wot's de difference between us an' new fall cider?
 Happy Harry—Search me.
 Weary William Rhoades—Dey don't have ter put no acid in us ter keep us frum workin'."
 At which the dry hay in the mow burst into a furious flame.—Exchange.

Getting His Straight.
 "I wouldn't make a confidante of May," said the conceited fellow, with a self satisfied smirk. "She told me you said you were crazy to marry me. Of course she's no friend if—"
 "No," interrupted Miss Wise, "and she's not even a good reporter. I didn't say I 'was,' but 'would be.'"—Catholic Standard and Times.

Noiseless.
 Wife—Would it please you, dear, if I learned another language? Husband—Yes, it would delight me infinitely.
 Wife—Well, which one shall I study? Husband—The sign language.—Smart Set.

A Woman's Secret.
 Biggs—There goes a woman with a past. Boggs—Yes, and there are about twenty years more of it than she is willing to own up to.—New York Journal.

Great is the fact that our interests gradually take a wider scope, allowing more scope for the healing power of compensation.—Dinah Mulock Craik.

Chronic Rheumatism.
 This is the variety of rheumatism that usually attacks the larger joints, knees, hips and shoulders. It is aggravated by cold and damp weather, and for this reason a man afflicted with it can often foretell changes in the weather. Chamberlain's liniment applied freely and with vigorous rubbing relieves the pain and makes sleep and rest possible. It will also effect a cure, but will not prevent a recurrence of the disease. For sale at Taggart's.

For Great and Small.
 A guarantee is contained in each box of Seline Pills, so that any person needing a remedy for any form of nerve weakness, and to produce perfect and restful sleep, can buy these pills without risking a cent. These great nerve and manhood builders are sold by R. C. Dodson, drugist, Emporium, Pa., where they sell all the principal remedies and do not substitute.

Every tablespoonful of Kodol will digest 2 1/2 pounds of food. Kodol will digest what you eat, and in that way will cure you of dyspepsia, and indigestion. It is sold by all druggists.
