New York City .- After a trial which has lasted nearly three weeks, Katherine Clemmons Gould obtained legal separation from her husband, Howard Gould, third son of the late Jay Gould, by a decision of Justice Dowling in the supreme court here. With the exception of alimony, her vic-tory was complete, but in this phase of the case the court decided that $36,-000 a year was sufficient, although in her suit Mrs. Gould asked for $250, It was in the vindication of charges of intoxication and her alleged relations with Dustin Farnum, the actor. that Mrs. Gould scored most strongly, for notwithstanding the long array of witnesses for Mr. Gould who gave such testimony as to make Mrs. Gould appear at times as defendant rather than plaintiff, the court held that the alleged "intoxication" might have been due to excitement.

MRS. GOULD DIVORCED

Dustin Farnum, the Actor.

As to Dustin Farnum it was held that her association with him came after Mr. and Mrs. Gould separated and the husband apparently made no objection.

Immediately after the decision, De Lancey Nicoll, for Mr. Gould, asked for a 60-day stay of judgment and Clarence J. Shearn, for the plaintiff, was on his feet to object. He asked for an immediate judgment. Justice Dowling compromised by making the stay 30 days. Mr. Shearn then, asked for an extra allowance for counsel fees and the court gave him $2,000. This, together with the $10,000 allowed recently and the original allowance of $5,000, will bring his fees to $17,000, with an additional sum of $3,900 for expenses.

REPORTS ARE ENCOURAGING

Continued Improvement in Industrial and Mercantile Business Noted

all Over the Country.

New York City.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

Reports from the principal industrial and mercantile centers are of an encouraging nature and even the long delay in ta.iff readjustment and the new controversy over the proposition to levy a tax on the net earnings of corporations do not seem to hold in check the improvement in business conditions. The improvement, though based upon many sound economic conditions, is undoubtedly facilitated by the ease of money, which also in part explains the prevailing tendency toward high prices. Hot weather is stimulating the distribution of sea sonable merchandise.

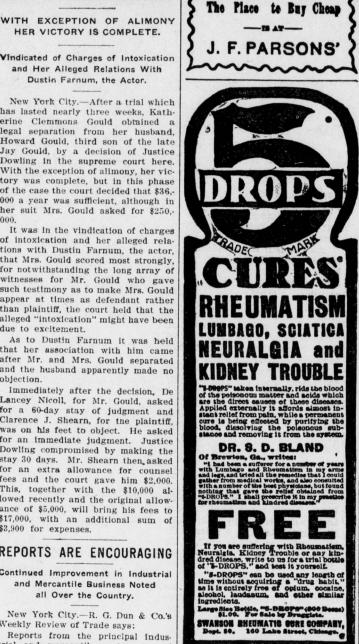

With continued new business and restoration of wages the uplift in the iron and steel trade is maintained, the railroads placing notably large orders for rails. Wholesale dry goods markets are broadening.
