To Expend $3,000,000.

The board of directors of the Pennsylvania railroad and the Northern Central railway have decided to build classification yards at Northumberland, and the contracts for the work of excavation and filling were awarded. It is said, at the offices in Broad street station, Philadelphia, last Tuesday, thirty prominent contractors of Philadelphia have been in Sunbury the past few days going over the ground. It is stated that practically all the necessary contracts will be let within the next few days.

Work will soon be started, if present plans are carried out, on the construction of yards that will be three miles in length, extending from Northumberland to Kappas. The yards will have a working capacity of four thousand cars, and a maximum of double that number. It is stated that about $3,000,000 will be expended on the construction of the yards, which will be used for the classification of cars and the formation of trains that are hauled over the divisions radiating from Sunbury. These include the Williamsport, Lewisville and Sunbury divisions and the Bellefonte branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, and the Susquehanna and Sunbury divisions of the Northern Central railway.

What Northumberland will have, Emporium might have had, in fact the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., very much desired to secure a favorable location at or near Emporium. They were driven away. Shame!

John Robinson's Circus.

Emporium had a gay day last Saturday and was busy from morning until night. The opening features of the circus was a fine street parade in the morning. Shortly after dinner, a heavy rain storm prevented a large number from attending the show, but in spite of the inclement weather a large and appreciative audience witnessed the afternoon performance. Everything was conducted in a very orderly manner. The trained animals were all that could be expected, especially the elephants and seals. The acrobats and trapeze performers and the riders were exceptionally fine. The evening performance was not attended by a very large audience owing to the extremely hot night. Taken as a whole everybody who witnessed the show pronounced it good.

The annual re-union of the Jordan family was held at Huntley, Saturday, June 19th, 1909. The day being a perfect one, a large crowd was present, all of the immediate family being present, except Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Those present were: Mrs. N. D. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Logue, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Logue, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beck, Mrs. J. W. Nelson, Mrs. Geo. Strawbridge, Miss Nora Jordan, Glen Logue and wife, of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchelltree, son and daughter, of Williamsport; Misses Blanche, Nellie, Grace and Florence Logue, Walter and Harry Logue, Mrs. H. Church Dedication.

EDITOR PRESS:—Will you kindly lend us space enough in your good paper to announce the dedication of the Castle Garden Church and extend an invitation to all your readers to attend?

The Mountain Mission Church will be dedicated July 17-18th. The Rev. A. T. Jennings, of Syracuse, N. Y., will preach the dedicatory and make the plea to raise funds to cancel the debt. A cordial invitation is extended to our sister churches. Everything possible will be done by the people of Castle Garden and vicinity to take care and make it pleasant for the visitors. There is a debt on this church near $1,000, which ought to be provided for before the dedication, and we believe this will be done, for it is God's work and he owns all the gold and silver, and gold is never so bright as when it is used in doing good. Already $212.00 has been pledged to this as follows: J. M. English and wife, $100.00; Hon. G. W. Huntley, Sr., $60.00, Driftwood; Mrs. C. L. Smith, East Brady, Pa., $20.00; Hon. J. W. Cochran, Ashland, Wis., $50.00. These are men that the world is better by their living in it.

Mr. Huntley said: "I consider you have done a noble work at Castle Garden and I am going to donate you $60.00 to help free the debt." Thanks.

Mr. Cochran, in replying to an invitation extended to him to attend the dedication, said: "Yours of June 18th is at hand, and in reply will say that I want to thank you for your kind invitation to attend the dedication of your church at Castle Garden. I want to congratulate you on the good work you have done in completing the church. While I am not a member of any church I am a friend to all churches and I never lived among people that I liked better than the people of Cameron county, Pa. They were always good, honest, substantial people. I enclose you my check for $50.00 to help raise the debt.

With kind regards to yourself, I am yours respectfully,
J. W. COCHRAN.

Surely this work is for the Lord and let the good work go on.
