Rector For 35 Years

Father Meagher Announces on Sunday the Thirty-fifth Anniversary of His Coming to St. Leo's.

From Ridgway Daily Record, July 7th, 1909.
The Rev. Father Meagher, Rector of St. Leo's Parish, announced to the members of his church on Sunday last, that that day was the thirty-fifth anniversary of his pastorate at St. Leo's. During that time Father Meagher has won for himself such a place in the community and in the hearts of his parishioners as to make the anniversary one of real significance.

The Rev. Father Meagher has accomplished practically all of his life work thus far, right here in the local parish. He came here as a young clergyman of twenty-two years of age and for thirty-five years he has been the head and leader of the splendid advancement made by his church during that time.

He was born in Ireland, September 5, 1852. He was educated for the priesthood from his early life, beginning the preparatory studies while yet in Ireland. At the age of nineteen he came to America and entered St. Michael's Theological Seminary, in Pittsburgh, where he studied for several years in preparation for the work of the church.

On December 10, 1872, he was ordained a sub-deacon, and about the middle of the following month he was ordained deacon of St. Vincent's College, Westmoreland Co., Pa. The next summer he was ordained priest at the Cathedral of Erie, by Bishop Mullen, and was at once placed in charge of the congregation at Tidouate, Pa. The following December he was sent to Corry, where he became assistant priest in that field.

REV. FATHER MEAGHER,
Rector of St. Leo's Catholic Church,
Ridgway, Pa.

While in Corry, Father Meagher was appointed rector of the united parishes of Ridgway and Emporium and in July, 1874, he moved to Ridgway. At this time there was only a score of families living in this place who were of the Catholic faith. In the thirty-five years of his pastorate Father Meagher has been instrumental in building up, from this small beginning, the largest congregation in Ridgway. Previous to the coming of Father Meagher, this mission (formerly known as the Sacred Heart of Mary) was in charge of priests from St. Marys, the Roman Catholic Church having been established at that place at the time Benzinger township was founded, in 1842.

In the year 1867 the erection of a new house of worship was begun and after two years work the old frame church building on Zion's Hill was completed and then some time afterwards it was considerably enlarged and improved. In 1876 Father Meagher succeeded in having built, near that church, a handsome two-story frame parsonage of ample proportions, which was later used for a convent for the Sisters of the Order of St. Joseph, who have in charge the parochial school.

The present church building was dedicated in September, 1885, and was almost paid for at the time of its completion. The erection of this building, as well as those that preceded it, were under the direct supervision of Father Meagher, and it was due to his skill in business matters that the building could be carried forward so rapidly and that such good buildings would be erected.

In 1892 the present parsonage was erected under the immediate supervision of Father Meagher. No contract was let for the building, but the materials were purchased and the work was hired independently. It is a handsome structure and one of the finest buildings of its kind in the county.

About five years ago Father Meagher had erected the splendid large brick parochial school building and Convent in Depot street, and again in putting up these buildings he showed his fine business talent.

Besides the great work which he has accomplished here, Father Meagher has been instrumental in the erection of a new $17,000 church edifice in Emporium, where he again assumed personal supervision of the work of building, giving every detail of the labor his careful attention.

Though the material achievements of the local priest have stood out as extraordinary, they have not interfered in the least with the spiritual influence which he has always considered to be the main object of his life. Such things cannot be measured in figures but they are none the less written upon the hearts and lives of his people. The fact that he has completed his thirty-fifth year in St. Leo's Church proves the esteem in which Father Meagher is held by his parishioners.

Rev. Father Meagher does his great work in a modest way, and never seeks notoriety, but rather shuns anything that would savor of egotism or self advertisement on his part. So modest is he, in fact, that he made no attempt whatever to celebrate the anniversary of his long service here, and so quiet had he kept the fact that even his own people were surprised when he made the simple announcement of the anniversary to his people from the pulpit on Sunday last. He is out of town now, and we seize the opportunity of his absence to give him a little write up that he might not permit if he were here.

Constable and Collector's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the duplicate for the State, County, School, and all taxes levied and assessed in the Borough of Emporium, County of Cameron, State of Pennsylvania, for the year 1909, has been placed in my hands for collection.

I will attend at my residence in said Borough of Emporium, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 6 p. m., on three successive Saturdays, beginning Saturday, July 10th, 1909, for the purpose of receiving the taxes charged in said duplicate; and any persons who shall pay their said taxes on said days or any other day within thirty days from date of this notice shall be required to pay the amount of their taxes, as therein charged, and the additional sum of two per centum thereon. And any person paying their said taxes after the expiration of said thirty days shall be required to pay the amount of their taxes, as therein charged and the additional sum of ten per centum thereon. All taxes not paid within thirty days from this date will be collected according to law. All taxes must be paid in full on or before three months from this date.

JOHN GLENN,
Constable and Collector.
July 5th, 1909.—22-31.

Another Cameron County Boy Makes Good.

A. Smith Zaner and wife, of Morgantown, W. Va., visited friends in Emporium and Cameron last week. Mr. and Mrs. Z., were formerly residents of Cameron and came up to visit Mr. Z's mother, Mrs. Chester Potter, who is seriously ill. Since moving to Morgantown Mr. Zaner has been elected a member of the city council and the city being 12,000 population the position is one of importance. We congratulate our old friend and at the same time the city of Morgantown in selecting a reliable gentleman, one to be depended upon, to look after their interests.

Liston-Lundin.

James T. Liston and Miss Hulda M. Lundin, two of Winthrop's most popular young people, were married Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lundin. Rev. G. Fleetwood, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, performed the ceremony in the presence of over a hundred relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was attended by her sister Miss E. Lundin and L. Whitmore of Emporium, Pa., was best man.

Among the friends of the bride and groom present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kline and Miss Lillian Campbell of Emporium, Pa., and Mr. Mrs. Charles Ward of Duluth, Mr. Liston formerly lived at Emporium, Pa., where he was in the employ of the Emporium Powder Company. He gave up his position there to accept a more responsible place with the Pluto Powder Company, which established a plant south of Winthrop some months ago. The bride was reared at Winthrop, and she has many friends both there and in this city. The couple were recipients of a large number of costly and pretty gifts. They will keep house at the location. Marquette (Mich.) Journal, July 6, 1909.

Notice to Shippen Tax-Payers.

Notice is hereby given to the taxpayers of Shippen township that the duplicate for state, county, school and all other taxes levied and assessed in the Township of Shippen, county of Cameron, State of Pennsylvania, for the year 1909, has been placed in my hands for collection. I will sit at the Swesey School House, Saturday, July 24th; Howard Siding, July 31st and at Election House, Aug. 7th, 1909. All who fail to pay their taxes within thirty days will be charged ten per cent. additional.

Will Operate Southern Tract.

E. V. Dunlevie, of Buffalo, who recently operated near Emporium, has erected a large saw mill near Savannah, Ga., and will soon commence work on an extensive tract of timber, estimated from seven to eight hundred million feet of pine and oak on a 20,000 tract. Dunlevie is a hustler.

This Sounds Good.

The following press dispatch was sent out from Buffalo on Tuesday night, July 6, and it seems to show a wave of prosperity:

The largest single car order that has been awarded in recent years, representing an expenditure of $5,200,000 has been divided among the Pressed Steel Car company, the Standard Steel Car company, both of Pittsburgh, and the American Car and Foundry company, of Butler. The contract calls for 5,200 freight cars for the Harriman line and the builders have agreed to deliver a large number of the new cars before August 1.

Sent Home.

The remains of Wesley Ethridge, aged 62, who died at Williamsport Hospital several weeks ago, and brought to LaBar's undertaking rooms for embalming, were shipped to a sister of deceased on the third of July, at Cape Briton, N. S. The remains were wonderfully well preserved, after being in the morgue for six weeks, keeping company with "Zeke," the Swede who fell from a lumber wagon, two years ago next September, and taken there for embalming and held for shipment to Sweden. "Zeke" is a perfect mummy and C. W. Rishell, the embalmer, says he can keep the remains until doom's day. It is a wonderful piece of embalming work and is viewed quite often by travelling men.

BIG FIRE AT AUSTIN

Eight Business Houses Destroyed. Loss Over $75,000.

About 3:30 yesterday morning the town of Austin was visited by a destructive fire, eight or nine buildings being destroyed in the business section of the town, entailing a loss of over $75,000. The fire rapidly spread along Goodyear Ave., destroying the Austin Hardware Company, Wolcott's store, Balkeek's furniture store, Walter Warner's jewelry store, Welsh's drug store and residence, Syke's store and the Davis Hotel. The fire is a severe blow to Austin and is the second largest fire to visit that town. Twelve years ago the major portion of the town was wiped out. Mr. H. W. Smith, who conducts the New Warner at this place and the Goodyear at Austin hastened to Austin for fear the flames might extend to his hotel, managed by his wife. A number of our citizens hustled for Austin, Andrew Brady skipping over quicker than you could say jack robin, in his auto. Emporium can deeply sympathize with Austin and we wish we could be of assistance. If we can, call on Emporium.

Complied with the Law.

The proprietors of the Theatorium desire to inform the general public that they have used every effort to comply with the new state law regulating moving picture shows, etc. Every precaution has been made to protect their patrons, fire extinguishers, four in number, have been stationed in the house, hose attachments to the water line connected, power room made absolutely power proof and perfectly safe; also two windows and one door exits in the rear of stage. The public can rest easy when in the Theatorium because every precaution has been taken to protect our patrons. To guard against panics, we would ask all to remain seated in case of accident or alarm.

THE THEATORIUM CO.

Old-Timer Here.

Mr. Ed. J. Young, of Evansville, Ind., pleasantly remembered as master mechanic at Junction yard, dropped into town yesterday, surprising his friends, all of whom were glad to meet him. It is 27 years, since Mr. Young left Emporium. He fills a very responsible position at Evansville, having hundreds of men under his management in the railroad shops. Mr. Young's wife was called to Reno on account of the illness of her brother, Mr. Schuster.

Mrs. Clark Better.

The PRESS is pleased to inform the many friends of Mrs. Lizzie Lyons-Clark that the lady, who has been very dangerously ill for several days, is some better as we go to press. A professional nurse has been in constant attendance. Dr. Walter H. Bush is in attendance.

State Police.

John C. Groome, Supt. of Department of State Police, writes District Attorney J. P. McNarney, under date of July 12th, as follows: "I beg to inform you that a Substation, consisting of three privates, will be established in that town on July 21st."

Noted Banjoist.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Graham, of Fifth street, entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening, July 7th, in honor of Prof. C. P. Stinson, the noted banjoist, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who filled a three night engagement at opera house. Prof. Stinson rendered a few selections for the entertainment of the guests, after which they all enjoyed a lunch.

A Pleasing Act.

The pleasing act with a moral to it, "Valued at Thirty Cents," presented by Mr. and Mrs. Adams at opera house Monday, Tuesday evenings was a story from life and should be beneficial to more than one thoughtless girl. This pleasing team, in their songs, costume and general stage work impress their audience with the fact that they are first-class up-to-date artists—clean and wholesome.

Sad News.

BIG RAILROAD GUNS HERE.

A number of the leading officials of the Pennsylvania R. R., visited Emporium Tuesday evening, remaining here several hours. The party included the head officers of the road, in addition to several of the directors as well as Div. Supt. We understand they decided upon improvements at Emporium in the very near future, especially improvements in depot facilities, both at Emporium and the Junction—the latter to be done this fall.

Eye Specialist.

Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., July 17th. If you can't see well or have headache don't fail to call and see Prof. Budine, as he guarantees to cure all such cases. Lenses ground and fitted in old frames. Eyes tested and examined free. All work guaranteed.

Making Good.
C. C. Pearl, one of the proprietors of Gordon's Minstrels, is as busy as a swarm of bees managing his Eddy Run farm, consisting of over 363 acres. He is making good and rapidly bringing up this extensive farm to a point where he will see the right side of the ledger make a good report. Located handy to Emporium, this farm, by the help of his brother and wife who are practical farmers, will amply repay the owner, although it is large enough for four good farms. Mr. Pearl is supplying our citizens with large quantities of fruit and vegetables, eggs, etc. The "burnt cork" artist evidently enjoys his new work and is hale and hearty.

The Delineator for August.
The Delineator for August contains an article by Gertrude Atherton, in which the writer says many startling things on the subject of "The Present Unrest Among Women." Mrs. Atherton attributes much of the modern discontent to the fact that the law, which gives man the right to woo, still rules the world. Despite economic independence, women, she declares, are not less susceptible than they were formerly to the primitive instinct called romantic love.

Another feature of interest in this number is a symposium on the "The Book the Most Influenced Me," by Edwin Markham, Hamilton W. Mabie, Richard Le Gallienne, Clara Barton, and Jeanette L. Gilder.

Mabel Potter Daggett describes the reaction of sentiment on the subject of the Continental Sabbath in an article that will interest persons of all classes. With convincing directness, she describes the work of "Saving Sunday for America." Lovers of good pictures will read with interest "The Art of Mary Cassatt," by Lulu Merrick.

The fiction for August includes two short stories, "To Kellogg's Faam," by George Hubbard, and "Nature" by Juliet Wilber Tompkins. "The Power and the Glory," the new serial by Grace MacGowan Cooke, begins in this number and "Stradella," by F. Marion Crawford, is continued.
