A Booster's Pledge

On my word and honor, I hereby now declare that as long as I am a resident of this community it will be my constant aim to boost at all times and every time. I will do what I can for any public work that has the good of the community as its object. I will submit to and abide by majority rule and will not knock and howl my head off if things are not done my way.

I will take no radical or extreme position on any question before the people, and will have due respect for the opinion of my friends and neighbors when their opinions are opposed to mine.

I will always try to say something good about my town and my people, or I'll keep my bazoo shut and "cut it out" like a man I realize that if this community is good enough to live in and make my money in, it is the proper place to spend my money in.-Abilene News.

Hammond-Felt.

Characterized by extreme simplicity and beauty the marriage of Miss Florence Elizabeth Hammond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hammond, and Mr. Floyd Pitt Felt, of Emporia, Fla., was solemnized at 5 o'clock this aternoon at the home of the bride's parents, North Washington Ave., in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Rev. Horace Cady Wilson, of First Presbyterian church, officiated, and the bride and groom were unattended. The bride was handsomely gowned in a white lace robe and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The rooms were simply but artistically decorated with white roses and greenery. Among the relatives at the wedding were: Mr. J. P. Felt, father of the groom and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Felt, of Emporium, Pa., and Mrs. Carl Felt, of Philadelphia. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served, covers being laid for fourteen. The table was made beautiful with white roses and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Felt will leave late this evening for an eastern trip and will be at home after November 1, at Emporia, Fla. The groom was a special student at M. A. C., his last year being '07.—The State Republican, Lancing, Mich., Aug. 4,

An Ideal Time.

On the evening of July 31st a number of young people gathered in the yard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howlett, at Sterling Run. The occasion was the anniversary of their marriage. The lawn was lighted with Japanese lanterns until the moon joined company. The evening was spent in an Ideal time and all present enjoyed it heartily. Refreshments were provided by the ladies and were ample and delicious. It has seldom been the writer's privilege to enjoy such a continuous round of pleasure. The guests left for their homeir homes at 11:40 p. m., each one expressing their enjoyment of the evening and hoping that the wedding anniversary will occur

Hackett-Steven.

Mr. Karl Hackett, of this place, second son of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Hackett, of East Third Street, and Miss Margaret Steven, of Wharton, Ills., were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Purkiss, of the First Baptist Church, of Elgin, Ills., Tuesday evening, Aug. 3rd, 1909. After a sumptuous repast music was furnished by one of the best orchestras in Elgin. Many were the congratulations extended by friends to the happy couple who will go to housekeeping in the city of Dundee, Ills., where Karl has accepted a good poti-The PRESS, as well as many of our citizens, extend their best wishes to the happy bride and groom.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, Aug. 7, 1909. The Payne tariff bill, after twenty weeks of almost continuous debate, is finally on the statute books and the Dingley law has passed into history. Final action on the bill was taken by the Senate on Thursday afternoon, August 5, and within three hours after the passage of the measure by the upper house, the President affixed his signature and the first session of the Sixty-first Congress adjourned sine die. The bill went into effect that night at mid-night. After signing the bill the President made a statement of his views, saying: "I have signed the Payne tariff bill because I believe it to be the result of a sincere effort on the part of the Republican party to make a downward revision and the comply with the promises of the platform as they have been generally understood and as I interpreted them in the campaign before election." President Taft frankly admits that he is not wholly satisfied with the measure, saying: "The bill is not a perfect tariff bill or a complete compliance with the promises made, strictly interpreted, but a fulfilment free from criticism in respect to a subject matter involving many schedules and thousands of articles could not be expected." * "There have been a great number of real decreases in rates, and they constitute a sufficient amount to justify the state ment that this bill is a substantial downward revision and a reduction of excessive rates."

To the many who put their faith in a tariff commission the President's words on that subject will prove an occasion of gratification for he says that the provision contained in the maximum and minimum section gives him "a wide latitude for acquisition, under circumstances favorable to its truth, of information in respect to the price and cost of production of goods at home and abroad, which will throw much light on the operation of the present tariff and be of primary importance as officially collected date upon which future Executive action and Executive recommendations may be based. The session of Congress just concluded demonstrated in a remarkable degree the impossibility of enacting a tariff law in accordance with the Republican national platform, that is, making the duties equal the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad plus a reasonable profit for American industries, without date bearing on the various industries other than that furnished by protected manufacturers whose personal profits are dependent on the tariff and whose views cannot be in any sense unbiazed. Such manufacturers appear before the committee of Congress and assert that any reduction of the duties below the existing law will ruin their business and throw thousands out of work. The few who attempt to controver these statements are, naturally, less familiar with the details of a given industry than those engaged in it and they are generally made to appear ridiculous because of that lack of familiarity. The Senator or Representative dependent on the manufacturers in his district in large measure for re-election is hardly in a position to treat their statements with incredulity. It is, therefore, imperative that Congress should have some official data on which to act and that, above all, the President who, as Mr. Tatt has well said, has the entire country for his constituency, should possess that data also. Only a tariff commission of the type designed by President Taft can furnish such data.

Some of the leaders in Congress sought to emasculate the tariff provision commission, as is clearly demonstrated by the statement of Senator Hale in debate that under the provision the President would bave no power to investigate costs of production at home or abroad. The assurance of so able a lawyer as President Taft that the provision as enacted affords him wide latitude to secure just such information is, therefore, most reassuring to a majority of the people, even though it may greatly contribute to the discomfiture of Mr. Hale.

U. S. Cavalryman.

Dan'l Sullivan, Jr., of Cameron, who is spending his furlough at his home at Cameron was in town yesterday and called at the PRESS office. He has enjoyed his vacation and will leave Aug. 25th to join his command at Scoffeld Barracks, Hawaiian Islands, being a member of Troup D, 5th U. S. HIGH EXPLOSIVE SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS

Lecture to Railroad Men by Expert Officials at Emporium Last Thursday.

The extensive shipments of dyna mite from the four large factories three located at Emporium and one at Sinnamahoning-in this county, has constrained the Penn'a R. R. officials to use every effort to ensure safety in the shipment of high explosives. To that end the company during the past week or more has been conducting schools of instruction at several points on P. & E. division. Last week, Thursday, Mr. W. H. Rumberger, assistant trainmaster of Renovo, held a conference at the Emporium freight office with Mr. Thos. Gallagher, agent at Emporium, who is acknowledged the best authority regarding the shipment of high explosives and is dubbed "King Authority," in fact all hands look to him for advice. The meeting was attended by agent Baird and his assistant of Sinnamahoning, the trackformen of this section, many of the operators, yard conductors and brakemen and foreman of motive power, E. L. Klock and his assistants. The attendance of the men closely connected with this hazardously daugerous freight were carefully and fully instructed in the rules and regulations laid down by the company, that accidents may be entirely avoided and the state lews complied with. Similar "schools of instruction" have been held at all important points between Erie and Renovo. The public can rest as-

He fears his horse is ruined. The only news he could give us was that potatoes look bad and his apple and other fruit crop is a failure. However, he says the bear crop seems good. One day recently he spied a monster black bear sitting "under the old apple tree," but when he made for his trusty rifle he noticed his bearship was reading a late edition of the bear laws, stamped compliments of Hon. Josiah Howard. Of course the bear walked away to his neighbors garden for something to eat and "Bert" had to kill some chickens for dinner.

Bradford's Big Week. Bradford's old home week is a howlng success, nothing like it ever known in this country. The finest attractions in the country are employed for a solid week. Thousands of visitors are there for the week. We notice among the old Bucktails the following: "Mr. and Mrs. Dennis O'Keefe of Addison, N. Y., are visiting friends in town. The former was one of the Euchtails. In the carrie days be contown. The former was one of the Bucktails. In the early days he conducted a note! in Bradford. DANCING UPHELD.

Dr. Conwell Also Says

Church May Approve Cards. CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., Aug. 1 .- Church approval of dancing was upheid here to-day by Rev. Russell H. Conwell. pastor of Grace Baptist Church, Philadelphia, and also president of Temple College. Card playing was put on the same basis. That the churches are now half dead and will be forced to return to the older style of Methodist camp meeting was another assertion. Incidentially, Dr. Conwell, took a rap at professional higher criticism.

"Dancing under the sanctum of the church and playing cards by church members are proper if the individual church wishes to approve them." said Dr. Conwell, "provided only they do not interfere with the main business of the church. The churches many of them, are about half dead. Give me back the old days when we shouted amen in the old camp meetings. When under excitement people were saved. These times will come again. Some educators think they can take the Bible to pieces as they do any book. They can't. No unbeliever can criticize it for no one who does not believe in it can understand it. They can't take out a sentence here and a sentence there and pick it to pieces. The Bible must be taken as a great whole into which every sentence fits."

Evidently a Success.

The recent olling of West Fourth street for two blocks, from Maple to Vine streets, appears to work well, in fact the owners of property abutting are delighted with the change. A movement is now on foot to extend the oiling farther along said street, at least oiling farther along said street, at least over that portion constructed by the state. The state assumes a portion of the expense. This will answer until such a time the taxpayers are ready to Cemetery Enlarged.

Gemetery Enlarged.

We were recently shown a survey of Wiley addition to Newton Cemetery made by Geo. P. Jones, one of the best draughtsmen in the country. The new addition will give about 350 extra lots for sale. What should be done to guard against the future neglect is to sell to an Association sufficient land that will suffice for a long term of years, thereby laying aside a fund to beautify the "city of the dead." This question has too long been neglected and, it seems to us, that the present plot should be many times larger.

Creighton's Billiard Parlor.

Creighton's Billiard Parlor.

James P. Creighton's new billiard parlors on Broad street, recently completely remodeled and refurnished are the best appointed in this section of the state. The painting and decorating was executed by Geo. Hurteau and certainly reflects credit. Mr. Creighton who is a popular and energetic citizen, may well be proud of his new appointments. That new $110.00 gold watch will now attract the boys, but Andrew Brady says he has that solid sure.

Coming Home.

Mr. W. H. Howard and son, W. H. Jr., are booked to sail from Liverpool on the Mauritania, the fastest passenger steamer afloat and which has recently beaten her own high record, on August 14th. The two Howards, fathorates father and son, have been in Europe several weeks, visiting all the principal cities in England, Germany and France and our readers can look for wonderful reports when the two "Bills" came home.

Boys' Brigade Encampment.

Boys' Brigade Encampment.

The Boys' Brigade Companies, comprising companies from Ridgway, St. Marys and Emporium, numbering about two hundred members, in charge of Maj. Th. Bliss, Commander of Fitth Division assembled at Emporium, Wednesday noon, preparatory to marching to Encampment at Sizerville. Upon arrival noon Flyer bringing the Ridgway and St. Marys companies, the several commands marched to Emmanuel Parish House when they broke ranks for dinner. Promptly at 3:00 o'clock the command, headed by Trumperter Metzger, of Company M, Maj. Bliss, Division Chaplain Radcliffe and Lieut.-Chaplain. Robertson and Brigade Drum Corps, started on the six mile tramp for Sizerville, arriving there about five o'clock, tired, dust covered and hungry. After a rest the boys got busy putting their tents in order for the night.

perienced cooks, who with plenty of provision will see that the boys have plenty to eat.

Strict military rules govern the camp, wholsome and substantial food only allowed the boys.

Camp W. H. Howard is admirably situated on the flat on Cauley Run, near Robt. McDowell's farm, an ideal spot for an Encampment. With plenty of good spring water, excellent bathing and nice pure air the boys cannot fail to have an enjoyable week.

Next Sabbath the Ridgway Cornet Band will be present and give a sacred concert. No doubt large numbers of people from Emporium and adjoining town will daily visit the camp. The boys are in good hands and their parents need not have fear but that they will be carefully cared for.

Ample accommodations for visitors can be secured at Sizer Springs Hotel. Those desiring to spend the day at Sizerville can go up at 8:00 in the morning; 1:40 at noon and return at 8:00 during the evening. Efforts are being made to have a special leave here next Sunday at one o'clock, to return in time to connect with the evening train for western points on P. & E. R. R.

Returned From S. C.

Returned From S. C.

Mrs. E. M. Hurteau, who has been spending several months at Marion, S. C., guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wheeler, returned to Emporium last Saturday, accompanied by her daughter (Mrs. Wheeler) and Mrs. W. G. Gilbert, of this place, and Miss Gilbert, of Buffalo, who were also enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler. Those who visit Mr. W's southern home speak in glowing terms of the country and the enjoyable visit. Mrs. Wheeler will remain here until Sept. 1st.

Big Mill to be Erected.

Light of that the Goodyear Lumber Company are planning to erect a large band saw mill at Liberty, on the line of Buffalo division, to manufacture the timber on Potato Creek, said to require eight years to cut. Our informant tells us that the mill will be larger than the Austin mill and will employ more men. Liberty was years ago a lively town, when Frank Goodyear first commenced lumbering in Pennsylvania.

DEATH'S DOINGS. CRANDELL.

Mr. D. E. Crandell, father of Bank Teller Chas. E. Crandell, of this place, died at Williamsport, Friday evening, last, aged 70 years. The Williamsport Bulletin says of the death and funeral:

"Mr. Crandell was born near Elmira, N. Y., and was seventy-one years of age on June 15. He came here in 1872, and for some years conducted a grocery business, erecting the block at Fourth and Campbell streets, which he later sold to Harry Rakestraw.

He is survived by a widow and the following children: C. E. Crandell, of Emporium; L. B. Crandell of this city, and E. P. Derr of Spokane, Wash.

The funeral of the late D. E. Crandell was held on Monday afternoon from his late residence 761 Grace street. The services were in charge of the Rev. Oliver C. Horseman, pastor of the first Baptist church. The pallbearers were: Warren Fisher, George Steiger, William Linck and Logan Jackson. Interment was made in Wildwood.

Among the the out-of-town relatives and friends present at the funeral were i Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Crandell, a son, of Emporium; Mrs. N. J. Crandell, of Montour Folls. Mrs. Brace, of North

The deceased visited Emporium many times during the past few years and met many of our citizens. He was a pleasant, genial gentleman and while his death was not unexpected his demise is deeply deplored. He belonged to that old-school class of merchants who quietly watched Williamsport grow from the seed planted by himself and others long ago. The bereaved family, especially the devoted wife, are indeed entitled to our sympathy.

CHANDLER.

Amer Chandler, aged 70, who left Emporium about three or four years ago for Detroit Mich., died in a hospital in that city on July 1st, after long suffering from a cancer in the face. We have no particulars other than above, which are given us by his sister, Mrs. E. P. White, of this place. Mr. Chandler was owner of the mineral right on land now owned by Penn Vitrified Brick Co., at Calder, near Emporium, and promoted the Calder Brick Company.
