Looks for Business Boom. Senator Boies Penrose, after months of strenuous day and night hard | work in adjusting the tariff to meet the demands of not only Pennsylvania industries but the entire country, passed a few hours in Philadelphia last Monday, arranging to take a rest visit to to western points. Interviewed the

"I look for a tremendous business boom by next fall," said the Senator. "There is hardly an item in the tariff in which Pennsylvania is not interested. The great iron and steel interests, the silk mills, the cotton goods manufacturers, the leather trade and the hosiery trade have all benefitted by the revision of the tariff. You are already hearing reports of returning prosperity and before the November election I believe Pennsylvania will experience the greatest wave of pros-perity in her history."

During the days of the Wilson Bill fight it was the staying qualities of Matthew Stanley Quay that saved the industries of Pennsylvania and the present battle was made and won by Boies Penrose, the hardest hitter in the United States Senate. The seed was planted by Senator Quay, took root and blossomed under the heroic battle of brain ond endurance of Senator Penrose. The country realizes Schedule for the Amendments.

Section 12. That no inconvenience may arise from the changes in the Constitution of the Commonwealth, and in order to carry the same into complete operation, it is hereby declared that—

In the case of officers elected by the people, all terms of office fixed by act of Assembly at an odd number of years shall each be lengthened one year, but the Legislature may change the length of the term, provided the terms for which such officers are elected shall always befor an even number of years.

The above extension of official terms shall not affect officers elected at the general election of one thousand nine hundred and eight; nor any city, ward, borough, township, or election division officers, whose terms of office, under existing law, end in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

In the year one thousand nine hundred and ten the municipal election shall be held on the third Tuesday of February, as heretofore; but all officers chosen at that election to an office the regular term of which is two years, and also all election officers and assessors chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven. All officers chosen at that election to an office the regular term of which is now four years, or is made four years by the operation of these amendments or this schedule, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven. All officers chosen at that election to offices the term of which is now four years, or is made four years by the operation of these amendments, whose terms of office in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, and until the Legislature shall otherwise provide, all terms of city, ward, borough, township, and election division officers shall begin on the first Monday of December of that year.
