Disinfect

Some disinfectants and germicides might be classed as drugs but, you do not want to be drugged just now with a bug killer. However, now is the time to think of getting after the rose bugs and currant worms.

We have a full line of the "remedies" for that class of pests. Also a non-poisonous bed bug exterminator in small cans.

Health and Beauty Aid.
Cosmetics and lotions will not clear your complexion of pimples and blotches like Foley's Orino Laxative, for indigestion, stomach and liver trouble and habitual constipation. Cleanse the system and is pleasant to take. Sold by all druggists.

The Wilderness.
This theater of bloody conflicts is a vast sea, so to speak, of a dense forest—a second growth more than a century old. It is made up chiefly of scrubby, low limbed, stubborn oaks and disordered, haggard pines, for the soil is cold and thin, with here and there scattering clumps of alien cedars. Some of the oaks are large enough to cut two railroad ties, and every once and awhile you come across an acre or two of pines ten to twelve inches in diameter, tall and tapering, true to the soaring propensities of their kind. But generally, and above all where the battle was fought, the trees are noticeably stunted and so close together and thick lower limbs so intermingled with a thick underbrush that it is very difficult indeed to make one's way through them.—Atlantic Monthly.

Meredith's Advice to Stead.
W. T. Stead tells a characteristic story of George Meredith, which is all the more appreciable as it is told against himself.

"He was a true friend," says Mr. Stead, "not less faithful in criticism than he was cordial in his appreciation. Of the former I remember well the neat way in which he put me out of conceit with my first attempt to write a story. I sent him my little effort with fear and trembling. My trepidation was not without warrant. 'I have read "From the Old World to the New,"' he wrote. 'Some of the characters are interesting and well drawn. One of them especially reminds me of Cecil Rhodes. But if any one of your friends tells you that he likes the story as a story don't believe him.'"

Swiss Flags.
The Swiss flag is red, and it bears a Greek cross in its center. The Switzers declared their independence in 1307, and at the battle of Morgarten, 1315, where the Austrians were defeated, they carried a plain red flag without any device. During the seventeenth century a white cross was added, though it is said that the cross appeared on some Swiss flags as early as 1330. The different cantons of Switzerland have different coats of arms and different flags.

Verdi's Secrecy.
Verdi observed great secrecy concerning his operas, even to his business associates, and it is said that the first intimation his business managers, the Ricordi, received of the composition of "Falstaff" was a toast offered by Boito, who at supper one night, when the publisher and his wife were present, slyly glanced at Verdi and proposed a health to the "fat knight," at which it seemed Verdi and Boito had been working for months.

An Aspersion Suspected.
"That is quite a remarkable Rembrandt," said the connoisseur.
"Sir!" rejoined Mrs. Cumrox.
"Yes, Rembrandt, you know, the great painter."
"Oh! I thought you said 'remnant.'"
—Washington Star.

The Fraction.
"Humble as I am," said a loud voiced orator at a meeting, "I still remember that I am a fraction of this magnificent empire."
"You are, indeed," said a bystander, "and a vulgar one at that."—London Express.

Curious.
If a man is bettered his condition is improved; if he is "bested" he is really "worsted."

Be Not Too Ready with Excuses.
That man who always is searching for excuses for his short-comings is a bugbear in business life. To find an excuse almost always involves some one or more of his fellows. To have his excuses accepted tends to place his fellows more or less under censure, and whether the censure be just or unjust, friction results inevitably.

Womanish.
A woman is as old as she looks before she is dressed to go out.—Smart Set.

The One Great Interest.
Education is the only interest worthy the deep, controlling anxiety of the thoughtful man.—Wendell Phillips.
