SIGNS OF VICTORY UPON EVERY HAND

Philadelphia Republicans Will Roll Up Big Majority.

CITY TICKET CERTAIN TO WIN

Attempt of So-Called "Reformers" to Get Possession of the Water Works Has Raised an Important Issue In Quaker City Campaign.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Sept. 28.

Members of the local Republican clubs who attended the convention of the State League at Altoona returned home impressed with the earn estness and ardor displayed by the rank and file of the Republican party organization throughout the state in behalf of the party's nominees.

There was great enthusiasm shown at the mass meting when Senator Penrose in his speech declared that despite some differences and friction in Philadelphia the entire Republican ticket here would be elected by a large majority and that the candidates on the state ticket will sweep the commonwealth with a quarter of a million majority.

What the senior senator said of po litical conditions in the Quaker City will unquestionably be demonstrated when the election returns shall be read on the night of Nov. 2.

There has never been more activity shown by the stalwart Republicans of Philadelphia than in this contest. The: realize the desperate character of the opposition and the unscrupulous campaign of misrepresentation that is be ing waged by the so-called Gibboney combination. They see the same old forces that have been arrayed against the Republican organization for the last ten years and more, with a few new allies joining their ranks in the expectation of being able to foster cer tain schemes which have been turned down by the Reyburn administration.
One of these projects, in which capi talists are ready to invest millions of dollars, is the sale or leasing of the Philadelphia water works.

This great revenue producing plant has been regarded by a little coterie of wealthy Philadelphians as a great "melon" which they would like to cu up and divide among themselves.

When they could not get the Republican organization to father their scheme, the Republican leaders having called councils together and passed a resolution against all propositions to take the water works from control of the people, these financiers turned in with the insurgents and have since been giving support to the independent ticket headed by Gibboney for district attorney. They have the backing of the Wanamaker newspaper syndi cate, which has been fighting the Republican party ever since Wanamaker was defeated in his aspirations to go to the United States senate, and they have succeeded in making quite a "racket" at least in these newspapers

But that is as far as they will get. The people are on to their game. The great mass of Republican voters of this city will not be fooled. They know that Gibboney means Wanamak-erism, and they know that the mei. who want to steal the water works are behind Gibboney and are seeking to break up the Republican organiza-tion in order that they may put their nefarious schemes through councils.

The substantial business interests of the community are back of the Republican ticket, as was shown yesterday at the meeting of the Republican Business Men's association, which met in the Bellevue-Stratford and indorsed the full Republican ticket and resolv ed to work to insure its election

Men who have not heretofore taken an interest in practical politics were at that meeting. Presidents of big financial institutions, heads of large industrial establishments and commer cial houses and others identified with important 'nterests were present. Compared with the leaders of this representative gathering, many of the men at the head of the Gibboney movement look like pigmies.

Over one thousand prominent members of the bar have signed the in-dorsement of District Attorney Samuel P. Rotan for re-election, and they are taking an active part in the canvass in his behalf.

Governor Stuart is heart and soul in the campaign, and he will figure actively in favor of the whole Republican ticket. Senator Penrose has been invited to address a number of meet

An indication of the sentiment among the wage earners of this city in the matter will be given on the evening of Oct. 7, when Senator Penrose will be the guest of the Working-men's Protective Tariff League of Kensignton at a great reception and mass meeting. The men and women of the mill districts will then turn out by the thousands to express their appreciation of the senior senator's services in connection with the framing of the tariff bill so as to protect the interest of Pennsylvanians against foreign

The arrangements for the great dinner which is to be given to Senator Penrose by the manufacturers of Pennsylvania and elsewhere at the Bellevue-Stratford on Saturday, Oct. 16, are progressing favorably and it is pre-dicted that this will be one of the most remarkable testimonials ever given to a United States senator by his constituents.

While naturally a majority of the participants will be Pennsylvanians, the dinner is not merely a state function. It had its inception among mem-bers of the National Association of Hosiery and Underwear Manufactur ers, but other manufacturing interests have insisted upon being represented at the gathering.

> [Special Correspondence.] Harrisburg, Sept. 28.

Reports regarding the receptions given candidates on the Republican state ticket, A. E. Sisson, for auditor general, and J. A. Stober, for state treasurer, on their first week's stump ing tour are of the most gratifying character.

They indicate that the rank and file of the Republican voters of Pennsylvania are alive to the issues of the campaign and the importance of polling a large vote at the coming elec-

At every point at which these candidates stopped they were cordially re-ceived, and hundreds of the most active and prominent citizens of the respective communities were on hand to greet them and to assure them that they will have their support.

The initial meeting was held in Sen-ator Sisson's home town of Eric, and from there Crawford, Venango, Mercer, Lawrence, Indiana, Jefferson, Armstrong and Butler counties were visited.

The nominees attended the conven tion of the State League of Republican Clubs at Altoona, and they addressed the mass meeting at which Senators Penrose and Oliver and former Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw were among the other speakers.

The candidates were much impress ed with the activity of the club men and of their plans for taking a prominent part in the work of the campaign. Senator Penrose in his speech dwelt upon the work of the young Republicans of the state in promoting the success of the party candidates and said it was greatly appreciated by the leaders of the party organization.
Oliver Would Recognize Stalwarts.

Senator Oliver devoted part of his address to the same subject, and among other things said:

address to the same subject, and among other things said:

It is the members of this league and men like you, to whom the Republicans of Pennsylvania are indebted for their matchless organization, through whose labors the party has grown within the last generation from a mere fighting majority to a position of overwhelming supremacy. I am not one of those who subscribe to the doctrine that to the victor belong the spoils. That doctrine was first enunciated by a Democrat, was practiced by the Democratic party through every administration from Jackson to Buchanan, and never until the Republican party came into power was any other policy followed except that of cleaning out the offices on the advent of each administration and installing adherents of the new one. But while I am not an advocate of this doctrine, I do believe that he who works in the vine-yard should eat of the fruits thereof, and that no man should be disqualified for any office, no matter how high, simply because he has served earnestly and faithfully in the ranks in behalf of the party in whose principles he believes. I believe that the term "politician" should be one of praise and not of reproach, that every inducement should be given to men to work for their party, and that an earnest, active interest in public affairs should be encouraged in all young men as they approach the voting age.

This week Candidates Sisson and Stober resumed their campaigning.

This week Candidates Sisson and Stober resumed their campaigning.

They visited Warren and Tionesta yesterday. Today they are scheduled to go to Bradford, McKean county, and Coudersport, Forest county, and to-morrow to Emporium, Cameron county, in the morning, and Lock Haven in the afternoon. Thursday they are due in Clearfield in the morning, and Bellefonte, Centre county, in the afternoon. Friday morning they are to be in Lewisburg, Union county, and Friday afternoon they are billed for Sunbury, Northumberland county. Saturday's meet ings will be held in Middleburg, Snyder county, in the morning, and Lewis town. Mifflin county, in the afternoon,

Speaker Cox, of the state house of representatives, and Major McDowell. chief clerk of the national house of representatives, have been accompany ing the candidates, and they have both written to Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state committee, that they are elated over the cordiality and the manifest sincerity of the receptions that have been tendered the party's standar bearers They say there is no sign of party dis affection anywhere and that the Republicans are harmonious and aggreesive in every county in which they "Quincy Adams Sawyer" Repeating its Success. The phenomenal success of the bookplay, "Quincy Adams Sawyer," is re peating itself again this season when crowded houses greet its every appearance. This popularity is attributed to the preceeding fame of the book that extended from ocean to ocean, and that the play is in itself the most genuine piece of rural life ever given to lover of bucolic drama.

The simple pure charm of the book is distinctly preserved in the play. The characters are drawn so close to life that it requires an effort to be convinced that they are not real. They are just such types as are found in every New England village and portrayed by actors who are in perfect sympathy with their roles. In fact, it is a case of human nature appealing to human nature.

Another thing that people evidently appreciate is not having their pleasure of the artistic simpleness of the play marred by mawkish scenes and sloshy incidents. The amusing scenes-and those are what the play is made up of mainly-contain just wholesome, good nature, compelling laugh after laugh, and the sentimental parts consist of that kind of refined pathos that plays upon the heart strings with no dis cordant note.

The company representing this beautiful play carries with it all the equipments including four large sets of scenery, built especially for the production, all the lightning effects and all the properties. Theatre goers are looking forward to the treat in store for them when the play comes to the Emporium Opera House, Oct. 12.
