

Breezy County News

FIRST FORK.

The oldest man in the county and perhaps in the state, "passed over the great divide" on Friday last about 11 a. m., when when "Uncle" Hugh Caldwell died. He was born in Leek Haven in 1803 or 1804. As near as his age can be traced his age would be 105 or 106 years. He was married to Mary Logue and to this union were born twelve children of whom seven are still living, four sons and three daughters. Frank of Farmers Valley; John, Hugh, and William of First Fork; Mrs. Geo. Beckner of Laurel, Miss.; Mrs. Sinsbaugh of Sweden Valley and Mrs. Walters of Cross Fork, all of whom were at the funeral, except Mrs. Beckner and Frank. He left a large number of grand children and great grand children. He came here when he was 25 years old, at the time everything had to be "poled" in a canoe from Leek Haven and had lived here since. Funeral services were held by Revs. Browalee and Fowler of Costello and interment made in Gilmore Cemetery by the side of his wife who died a number of years ago.

C. E. Logue is making great preparations for entertaining bear hunters when the season opens and he has about 20 applications for room for hunters in this state and Ohio. If they get a bear a piece it will thin out the crop of bears considerable.

Jesse Logue picked over 50 quarts of ginseng berries in his ginseng garden last week and the rats destroyed quite a lot of them besides.

We have had no frost to kill green tomato vines, and the farmers are just cutting and shocking their field corn and buckwheat. Potatoes about a half crop.

One of C. E. Logue's hens hid a nest away some time ago and when found it had nine eggs. He kept missing eggs till there were only three left. One night he heard the hen making a noise and lit a lantern and went out and was surprised to find a big black snake had the old hen by the hind leg and was trying to swallow her. He killed the snake and liberated the hen. The snake was about six feet long. How is this for a story.
