NO. 34.

Golden Wedding Celebration.

One of the most unique and at the same time impressive weddings that the county has ever witnessed was celebrated by Peter F. and Marcella Hope at their home in Stowell, Wyoming county, Pa., on Thursday, Sept. 3, 1909.

What makes the wedding remarkable is the fact that an unusually large family of fourteen children, being equally divided, seven boys and seven girls, all living and well, were on hand to help them celebrate.

The little Catholic church at Stowell, beautifully decorated, was filled with friends and relatives to witness the ceremonies. Rev. J. J. O'Donald, with a specially engaged choir from Pittston, sang a high mass, during the celebration, of which the contracting parties went through with (being re-married as it were) the beautiful ceremony connected with a marriage in the Catholic church.

One of the most remarkable things in connection with this wedding is the fact that all of the fourteen children, although scattered far and wide, have retained the faith of their parents and assembled with them around the little altar to give thanks to God and to receive with them the sacrament of the church in the form of holy communion.

After the church ceremony the friends of the parties assembled at the home of the parties where the real festivities of the occasion began. All day long congratulations were received by mail, telephone and telegraph and from people who drove for miles. The immediate family consists of fourteen children and forty-five grandchildren and not only filled the house but most of the surrounding yard. After the wedding dinner the picnic grounds belonging to the congregation of St. Anthony's Catholic church were engaged and thrown open with an invitation to the public in general. Hundreds enjoyed this part of the program, dancing to the music of Fraley's orchestra, and eating and drinking until the small hours of the morning.

Special mention should be made of the fact that to the Rev. J. J. O'Donald is due a great deal of credit for the success of the affair. He not only preached and appropriate sermon after the mass, but he partook of the dinner, after which he delivered a neat little speech calling the attention of the friends and the whole world in general to the fact that a large family is no burden, financially, physically or morally, when received in a proper spirit and sanctified by the grace of God.

Most of this numerous family live in the near neighborhood of their parents: The girls are Lizzie Corcoran, of Stowell; Anna Schultz, of Wilkes Barre; Mary Malloy, of Stowell; Susan Murray, of New York; Catherine Baggett and Margaret Brown, of Sugar Run, and Madge Hope at home. The sons are Christopher, of Mildred; Bernard of New York; Edward and Francis, of Wilkes Barre; Bart, of Lovelton; Charles and George at home.

As the celebrants are very well off so far as the world's goods are concerned, they made a special request that no presents should be sent; so if they received any they hid them away as none were visible to the writer.

Peter F. Hope, one of the subjects of this sketch, was born in the village of Longwood, County of Meath, Ireland, on April 30th, 1830, thus making him 79 years of age. Landing in New York in 1853 he went directly to the place where he now resides and with the exception of a few years spent in California has lived there ever since. He tells me that he has chopped from the primitive forest and cleared up at least 20 acres of land for each and every child he has raised, making a total of 280 acres or a greater part of the beautiful and spacious farm where he now resides.

Peter F. is the name familiarly applied to this man of the numerous family and by the name he has been well and favorably known, from one end of the county to the other. Not being inclined for politics, he has refused the nomination for every office within the gift of his party.

Mrs. Hope was born, raised and married in North Branch township where she has spent her whole life with only the cares and worries attending the birth and raising of such a large family. She was married in the little log cabin of her parents by the Rev. Father Anthony Felix, an Italian priest, who journeyed from Wilkes Barre on horse back to perform this marriage, and to attend to the spiritual welfare of the handful of Catholic people who were the pioneers in a vast wilderness of what is now one of the most beautiful farming localities in the county.—Tunkhannock, Pa., Democrat.

Mrs. D. C. Hayes, nee Elizabeth Riley one of Emporium's highly respected ladies, attended the golden wedding, being a sister of the "bride."

Contributions in the way of cash for rent and gas, groceries, canned goods, flour, butter, lard, potatoes, fruits, etc., sent to this worthy family will be greatly appreciated by them. Send direct to Mrs. Downey, corner Fifth and Vine streets, or placed in the class room of the Methodist Episcopal church. Grocers, no doubt, will be glad to deliver any purchases made at their stores for such purpose. No persons will be asked especially but all will have the opportunity of helping a little in making this family a little more comfortable for the winter. Through the kindness of the Press this notice will reach all persons and the movement made general. Remember the date.

Murderers Captured.

From the Manila Times, P. I., we copy an account of the capture of two murderers by Lieut. McNarney, brother of District Attorney McNarney of this place:

MALABANG, June 19—One of the best pieces of work recently accomplished from this post was the arrest by Lieutenant McNarney of the 6th U. S. Cavalry of Pokatkoa and Manumoya. These two Moros were responsible for the death of Roadmaster Smith, who was killed about a year ago by a band of Moros who surrounded his house, and it is believed he was shot mortally before he could utilize his own fire arms. Lieutenant McNarney was engaged in making a topographical survey of the region surrounding Camp Vicars and, while rowing in a vinta along the lake shore, which he was sketching, one of his party shot at a hawk. This frightened Pokatkoa, who was evidently in a small dug out, for he suddenly shot out of a small cove into the lake. This man was the brother of Smith's wife and had been living for the past year or since the murder, in caves and trees, being an outlaw who was being sought by the civil, military and native authorities.

By a simple but effective piece of strategy he was induced to get into the vinta occupied by the surveying party, and being recognized by Datu, was seized and brought in. Through information given by him his brother-in-law was secured the same night, and both are now awaiting trial at Marahui.

Benefit Supper.

A supper will be served in the Reading Room, Tuesday evening, October 12th, at five o'clock, until all are served. This will be a warm supper and only cost the small sum of 25 cents. The proceeds will be for the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Trotter. Ice cream will be served extra. Tickets will be on sale at the door and it is hoped that a goodly number of Emporium people will be present to assist this worthy old couple. Any one wishing to donate supplies for the supper can do so and please notify Mrs. Bennett Leutze, who has charge of the arrangements, assisted by other ladies. The very feeble condition of this aged couple should enlist the sympathy of all.

Moved to Canada.

Mr. O. B. Barnes and family have moved to Amherstburg, Ont., where Mr. Barnes fills a prominent position of Supt. of a dynamite plant, owned by Dunbar & Sullivan Dredging Co., who are digging a channel seven miles long, in Mich. While they are in Canada, it is only a short distance from Detroit. Their many Emporium friends wish them well in their new home.

The Mighty Bear Hunter.

Allen Russell, of Shippen, is the champion bear hunter of this county, without a doubt. He started in the first "bear day" and brought his bearship to Emporium selling the same to John T. Howard. Last Saturday he delivered another in town. We enjoyed a nice bear steak, presented us by Mr. Howard, and we found it delicious, the best ever. We never really cared for bear meat until eating this, but honestly, it was fine.

Supervisor's Train.

The section supervisors, of the Pennsylvania R. R., on the divisions between Erie and Renovo, assembled at Erie last Monday and on Tuesday were taken over the line on a special train accompanied by railroad officials. Upon arriving at Renovo prizes were awarded the supervisors having the best section of road. The train passed through Emporium Tuesday afternoon.

Mountaineer Hose Company Smoker.

About forty of the one hundred members of Mountaineer Hose Company, No. 1, gave one of their popular Smokers and Lunches, at their rooms in City Hall, last Tuesday evening. After a social time of two or three hours a good lunch was served by W. J. Anderson, the Broad street caterer, which was washed down with steaming coffee—no intoxicating drinks being permitted in their rooms. After all had partaken of the feed, President Jas. M. Davison, who was chosen toastmaster, called on many of those present for remarks. Mr. A. C. Blum, one of the oldest members, being the first to spout in regular Roseveltian style, full of good cheer. Among other things he informed those present that he was pleased to tell them that the Firemen's Relief Fund contained over $600.00, at interest, for the benefit of injured members—Mr. Blum having given this branch of Emporium Fire Department his special attention.

Hon. I. K. Hockley followed Mr. Blum in his usual style and closed his address by addressing his remarks to President Jas. M. Davison, who was greatly surprised when he was presented with a handsome gold watch fob, a testimonial from the members in appreciation of his untiring efforts for years in furthering the best interests of the company. Mr. Davison, who was greatly surprised, returned his thanks in a few words. President Davison is popular with the boys and to his energy, more than any other member, falls the credit for the efficient company, now comprising over one hundred members, composed of our best fire fighters—always ready to respond to duty. After remarks by ye editor, Dr. Mitchell, Leon R. Felt, Jason Loucks, A. M. Haupt, Foreman Burnside, Sec'y G. A. Klees, and many others, whose names we forget, the pleasant evening was brought to a close. The M. H. Co., boys are all right and can be relied upon to protect your property.

Called to Philadelphia.

Wm. L. Thomas, Esq., Commissioners Clerk, was called to Philadelphia last evening, to be present at the University Hospital, while his wife is undergoing quite a serious operation. Mrs. Thomas has been in Philadelphia for two weeks.

Teachers' Institute.

The Forty-third Annual Session of the Cameron County Teachers' Institute will be held at Emporium, Pa., Oct. 25th-29th, 1909. This promises to be one of the very best sessions ever held.

A strong corps of day instructors has been secured, while the evening entertainments are all of a high order, each one the very best of its kind that could be procured.

The Maude Willis Company is one of the ablest and happiest combinations on the American platform. The Company consists of Miss Maude Willis reader; Miss Genevieve Grosse, soprano; Miss Hortense Gilbert, harpist; and Mr. Vedder Dunn, baritone. Every member a star.

Dr. Dan McGurg, who has made his way to the top as a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will give one of his famous Lectures.

Laurant, the Magician and Company, will present a program of mysteries almost beyond description.

Sig. Calefaty Victor and his Venetian Band, consisting of twenty-five members are the delight of all who hear them. The Band is assisted by a vocal soloist, Miss Caroline Lewis, contralto. We are assured that no disappointment awaits the lover of good music.

Emporium High School Athletics.

It will no doubt be of interest to our citizens to learn of the efforts which are now being manifested by the teachers and students of the High School, for the promotion of athletics in this institution. For several years, the need of athletics in our High School has been greatly felt but, thus far, all attempts at organization have been unsuccessful. With the present prospects, however, the Emporium High School will equip a basket ball team which will do credit to it itself, as well as the town. The students and faculty have organized an Athletic Association and the following officers were elected: President, Prof. W. G. Briner; Vice President, Edwin Baldwin; Secretary, William Howard; Treasurer, Prof. C. E. Plasterer. The association has elected Prof. R. H. Edgar coach of the team. Mr. Edgar's experience and ability in this work will be of very great value to the team. Last year Mr. Edgar had charge of the South Fork, Pa., High School team and won wide reputation, for himself and team, as a basket ball coach. Under the management of Prof. W. G. Briner, the association is at present negotiating with surrounding high schools for a schedule of games. It is to be sincerely hoped that our citizens will support this movement, whenever opportunity affords, for the value of athletics in any high school is very obvious in those which now possess them.

Two Former Emporium Kids Make Good.

The Secretary of the Navy has accepted Edward Viner as an apprentice at the Annapolis Naval Academy. Viner was the successful candidate at the recent competitive examination held at Newburgh and his appointment was recommended by Representative Bradley. Viner's brother, Joseph, is now in West Point, having secured an appointment from this district.

These bright young men are sons of William Viner, manager of the Arden Farms Dairy Company, at Arden.—Goshen, N. Y., Republican.

The young men, above named, are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Viner, former residents of Emporium, and their evident prosperity will be read with pleasure by their many friends here. We can congratulate the young men, as well as their parents. Why do not some of our young men prepare themselves and enter the contest from this district.

Going to the Sunny South.

Dr. L. R. Felt and wife expect to leave about the middle of this month for Emporia, Fla., to pass several weeks on J. P. Felt's plantation, basking in the balmy climate. They expect to return home about the holidays. Miss Pearl McGrain will accompany them, to remain during the winter months. It will certainly be delightful but the coming home in December will be horridly disagreeable.

SABBATH SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

Thursday, October 14, a Big Day at the State Capital.

Until within the very recent past the Sunday school was looked upon as a place for the instruction of children but the advent of the Organized Adult Bible Class has changed this old fashioned notion and men and women are now found in the Sunday school in large numbers.

The organization of Bible classes for men and women has taken the form of mighty movement in Pennsylvania and the State is feeling the influence of it from one end to the other.

Thursday, October 14th representatives of these classes will assemble in Harrisburg in connection with the annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, which meets Oct. 13-15 and hold a big demonstration in the interest of the Organized Adult Class Movement. Governor Stuart will be present and address the evening meeting to be held in the Chestnut Street Auditorium. The building has a seating capacity of 4,000 and will be reserved strictly for members of men's classes. The representatives of women's classes will meet in one of the large churches.

The afternoon of the day will be devoted to a conference session of the delegates. Three auditoriums will be used to accommodate the audiences.

The mass meeting will be preceded by a street parade in which more than 5,000 men will participate.

The railroads will run special trains for the occasion and many counties are now at work forming their delegations. Some of them have already announced the number that will take as follows: Lebanon, 500; Berks, 500; Philadelphia, 500; Fayette, 125; Westmoreland, 100; Lycoming, 100; Blair, 100, Cambria, 100. Every county will be represented. The delegations will go with bands and banners. It will be a big day at the State Capitol.

Among the speakers advertised are Hon. John Wanamaker, Philadelphia; Rev. David James Burrell, D. D., New York; Bishop James Henry Darlington, Harrisburg; W. C. Pearce, Chicago; Dr. Joseph Clark, Ohio, and others.

The State Association will offer four flag awards for classes showing the largest percentage of membership present and the largest aggregate mileage traveled by the delegates. The parade will be reviewed by Governor Stuart, the State Board of Directors and invited guests.

The local committee is planning to have elaborate electric illuminations for the occasion.

Mr. O. P. Beckley, of Harrisburg, with an efficient committee is co-operating with the State Association in working out the details. The carrying out of the present plans will surpass anything of the kind ever attempted.

The Convention has been largely advertised and every one of the sixty-seven counties will be well represented. Cameron county is entitled to five delegates. The following persons have been appointed and will go to Harrisburg: Arthur V. Orton, District Organizer; Mrs. J. E. Smith, Treas.; Charlotte A. Spence, Sec'y.; Rev. Mr. Bogue, and Mrs. M. E. Close.

Cameron county is one of the highest counties in the state—a front line county and we will receive a front line banner at the Harrisburg Convention.
CH. ARLOTTE A. SPENCE, Sec'y.

"On the Way to Taggart's."
The valley isn't very wide, nor is it very long. But you'd think it held a million folk when Taggart sings his song; You never heard of Taggart, gee! but you must be slow, You'd better get a hunch on, I'll tell you where to go.

Just walk with me up Fourth street of old Emporium. And I'll show you where a hustler is making business hum; No drowsy clerks to drag their heels, but a man that makes things tell, I thought you'd recognize the place, "The Old Reliable."

Just step inside and look around, come on, don't be afraid, There are no grouches here, you'll find they're looking for your trade, The drags are fresh, the store is clean, you'll find things up-to-date, And as to prices, well I'm sure you'll pay an honest rate.

Oh, here he comes, How-do, old pal, we just dropped in awhile For when a fellow has the blues, there's nothing like your smile, To cheer one up to make him feel that life's worth living yet, Gee, but your place looks fine old man, it cost you some I'll bet.

Have a cigar? you bet I will, they always bring good cheer, Or I would't pass the other chaps to spend my money here, Well, good-bye, George, I wish you luck, I know it's coming too, It always does to fellows who have push and pluck like you.

The locale of the play is in the most picturesque of all the Western states, namely Colorado. It is a skillful bit of work of admirably drawn characters, bubbling humor, intensely dramatic situations with a very pretty love story. Don't forget the date.
