Harrington-Fountain.

Mr. William Harrington and Miss Belle Fountain, while visiting at Niagara Falls, Friday, Oct 1st, in company with their colored friends, gave the rest of their party the slip while in Buffalo, calling on Rev. F. H. Corman, pastor of Asbury Methodist Episcopal church and were united in marriage.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Fountain, respected and well-to-do colored citizens of Emporium, is a member of the Baptist church and Sunday school and a young lady well calculated to make a good wife. The groom has resided in Emporium for more than twenty years, being employed for several years in the employ of Dr. S. S. Smith as coachman. Everybody knows "Shorty," the good natured, jolly fellow. While the wedding was a surprise to all, especially the parents of the bride, all is forgiven and happiness reigns on West Allegany avenue, where the newly married couple will be presented with a home by the indulgent parents of the bride who have reared a family of well behaved and well educated children. Congratulations are in order.

Passion, purity and love. A tender, touching story, beautifully told elaborately staged, presented by prominent actors in living characters, in the dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' popular novel, "Tempest and Sunshine," to be seen at Emporium Opera House on Tuesday evening, Oct. 19th.

JOHN L. BOGUE, Pastor.

An Ill Behaved Cluck.

Q.—My one cluck hung six chicks in two days. I never had such a peculiar experience and can find no reason for it. Can you? A.—You give your hens too many eggs or too small a nest box; result, broken eggs that smear the feathers, which sticking together make loops which catch chicks by the neck. Make box 18 inches square and set from 13 to 15 eggs, according to size of hen and season.—Cape May Star and Wave.

Anodyne for the Nerves.

The reading of Ebers' romances, from the story of Joshua down to that of the Emperor Hadria, is of great assistance in adjusting into the mental perspective the petty annoyances of to-day.—Dr. G. L. Walton in Lippincott's Magazine.

To Save Children's Shoes.

Take one-fourth rosin and three-fourths tallow, put it into a dish and set on stove. Heat until it boils and is thoroughly mixed. Let cool, but not too much. Put it on the soles of children's shoes and they will wear twice as long.

Men of Genius Rare.

Geniuses are few. England produced only one Shakespeare, Scotland only one Burns, Germany only one Heine, and America only one Poe.

Photographic.

If a man wants a word picture of himself that isn't at all flattering he should arouse the ire of a sharp-tongued woman.—Chicago Daily News.

Joke on the Baby.

A Mr. and Mrs. Bean have named their recently-arrived daughter "Lima." The sense of humor possessed by some people is fearfully and wonderfully evidenced.—Washington Herald.

Tumor Bigger Than Patient.

A surgeon in China recently removed a tumor weighing 169 pounds from a woman who after the operation weighed only 77 pounds. The woman recovered.

Pride and the Love of Praise.

Pride is essential to a noble character, and the love of praise is one of the civilizing elements.—Henry Ward Beecher.

The Trouble.

Often the trouble with gilt-edge securities is that's where all the gilt is located.—Life.

Peculiar Article of Clothing.

The only clothing worn by a tribe of Brazilian Indians who inhabit an island at the mouth of the Amazon river is a sort of earthenware apron.

NICE OUTLOOK.

Hubby—Well, even if we lose everything I'll still have you.

Wife—Don't be too positive.—Chicago Journal.

ALL GOOD.

"I've had a dozen offers of marriage lately."

"Gracious! Good ones?"

"Yes. All from Jack."

The Old Soldiers' Candidate.

The old soldiers of Pennsylvania heartily are supporting the Republican ticket this year. They realize that it is a good ticket and that it ought to be elected. But there is an especial reason for their loyalty to the Republican party in this campaign. One of the candidates was selected from their ranks. J. A. Stober has the respect and confidence of his comrades in the Grand Army as he has of everybody who knows him. In nominating him for the important office of State Treasurer, the Republican party gladly recognized the men who fought for the nation's life. At the Harrisburg convention Major M. H. Gherst, former Department Commander of the Grand Army, told the delegates what the veterans of Pennsylvania think of Mr. Stober:

"His name and reputation are synonyms of honor and integrity," said Major Gherst. "His record in the past is the best guarantee of the future. If elected to the great office of State Treasurer, he will bring to the discharge of its responsible duties that same courage that impelled him to lay aside the pursuits and avocations of a peaceful life in the country's darkest hour, put on the uniform of his government, prepared to follow the fortunes of his flag."

The veterans of Pennsylvania will agree that every syllable of that statement is true. Mr. Stober will have the earnest support of his comrades and their sons, because he is worthy of their support. The country owes the soldiers of the Civil War more than it can ever pay them, a debt of gratitude. Through the Republican party it has done much in acknowledgement of this obligation. The Republican Party in Pennsylvania and in the nation is the old soldiers' party. When the veterans of Pennsylvania go to the polls in November, they will perform the agreeable duty of honoring one of their own number, as well as vote for a continuance of good government in this State.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

GESWENDER.

The remains of Frank Geswender, aged 73, of Beechwood, Pa., was brought from his state or Washington by his son, with whom he had been visiting when he died. The funeral took place last Thursday from Truman school house, Rev. Lux of Presbyterian church officiating. His remains were laid at rest beside his wife in Sanford cemetery. Deceased was well and favorably known in this section, having resided here many years.

FOULKROD.

The infant son of Mrs. Peter Foulkrod, of this place, died last Tuesday evening at the age of two months and eight days. The funeral was held on Wednesday and interment was made at Sizerville. C. W. Rishell had charge of the burial.

Disinfect

Some disinfectants and germicides might be classed as drugs but you do not want to be drugged just now with a bug killer. However, now is the time to think of getting after the rose bugs and currant worms.

We have a full line of the "remedies" for that class of pests. Also a non-poisonous bed bug exterminator in small cans.
