Feeding Farm Hands.

Every farmer's wife knows what tre mendous appetites farm hands usually have; but while they eat well they work well, too.

Here's a good suggestion about feeding farm hands. Give them plenty of Quaker Oats. A big dish cf Quaker Oats porridge with sugar and cream or milk is the greatest breakfast in the world for a man who needs vigor and strength for a long day's The man that eats Quaker Oats plentifully and often is the man who does good work without excessive fa-There is a sustaining quality tigue. Would Find Use for It.

After a day and a night spent in an-swering telephone calls from people who wanted the latest news from Peary and Dr. Cook, the secretary of one of the arctic clubs had retired for a well-earned rest, when the persistent 'phone bell rang again. A voice at the other end said:

"Do you want the ambulance sent right over?"

'What ambulance?" roared the irate secretary. "Why, the one you sent for."

"I sent for no ambulance." "You lie!"

The secretary gasped, then he screamed into the 'phone: "Send it as soon as possible, and you come over, too, and I'll send you back in it!"

On a Time Limitation.

In spite of the reputation for latitu dinarianism he gained from his early trial for heresy, the late Prof. Jowett of Oxford was intolerant of pretentiousness and shallow conceit. One self-satisfied undergraduate met the master one day. "Master," he said, "have searched everywhere in all phil osophies, ancient and modern, and no where do I find the evidence of a God." "Mr. —," replied the master, after a shorter pause than usual, "if you don't find a God by five o'clock this afternoon you must leave this college."

Come Home, Mother.

Mother, dear mother, come home from the club, and rustle some supper for me; 'tis time you were here working over the grub and getting things ready for tea. The table's not set nor the teakettle boiled, the vegetables are not prepared; no wonder my temper and feelings are roiled, though 'tis doubtful, indeed, if you cared. Come home, come home, come ho-ho-home! Yes, cut your symposium down a wee bit, dear mother, and hustle right home!-Los Angeles Ex press.

Japanese Fan-Tan.

At a Japanese affair this delectable concoction was served. I give the recipe as it came to me feeling sure it will be very welcome, as many calls for just such a dish come to the department.

To make fan-tan, cook half cupful of well-washed rice in a pint of milk un-til very soft. Stir in a heaping tablespoonful of sugar and one well-beaten egg and remove at once from the fire. Mix in a half cupful of assorted candied fruits, cherries, apricots and pine apple, and turn into a shallow, well-ubttered pan to cool. When firm cut into strips about an inch and a half wide and three inches long; dip in egg and breadcrumbs and brown delicately on both sides in butter. Drain, dust with powdered sugar and gerve hot.

And He Suffered.

Little Willie, suffering from an at-tack of toothache, had paid his first visit to the dentist, accompanied by his mother. Father, on his return from the office that evening, was naturally much interested. "Didn't it hurt?" asked father.

"Sure, it hurt," replied Willie. "Weren't you scared when the dent ist put you in that big chair and started all those zizz-zizz-zizz things?" "Oh. not so much."

"That was a brave boy. But, surely, you suffered?" "Of course I suffered. But I just kept repeating over and over the golden text we had in Sunday school last Sunday."

"The golden text? What was it?" "Why, 'Suffer little children to come unto me,'" replied Willie, glibly. "I kept saying that over and over to my self, and the first thing I knew it didn't hurt any more."

Ours and Theirs.

"A play on names unconsciously per-petrated by my youngest son was very funny," said a Flatbush man the other day. "We live next door to a family named Feitenour, and the other night while my family was busy read-ing in the library we heard a racket on the back porch. My son went out to investigate, and on his return my wife, always inquisitive, asked what had caused the noise.

"'Nothin' but a couple of cats,' Jim told her, and then I heard her ask. 'Did you see whose they were?'

"'Yes; one was ours and the other was Feitenour's.'"

Weakened by Alcohol.

Dr. Bertillon, the eminent French vi-tal statistician, has shown that tuberculosis is twice as prevalent among the retail liquor dealers of France as among other shopkeepers. He at-tributes it to the fact that the alcohol which they handle and use all day long weakens their bodies and thus renders them more susceptible to the disease germ.

CHILDREN SHOWED IT Effect of Their Warm Drink in the Morning.

A year ago I was a wreck from coffee drinking and was on the point of giving up my position in the schoo room because of nervousness.

"I was telling a friend about it and she said, 'We drink nothing at meal time but Postum, and it is such a comfort to have something we can enjoy drinking with the children.' "I was astonished that she would allow the children to drink any kind of offee, but she said Postum was the nost healthful drink in the world for hildren as well as for older ones, and hat the condition of both the children nd adults showed that to be a fact. "My first trial was a failure. The cook boiled it four or five minutes and it tasted so flat that I was in despair but determined to give it one more trial. This time we followed the direc-ions and boiled it fifteen minutes aft-ir the boiling began. It was a decided success and I was completely won by its rich delicious flavour. In a short time I noticed a decided improvement in my condition and kept growing bet-ter month after month, until now I am perfectly healthy, and do my work in the school room with ease and pleasare. I would not return to the nerve lestroying regular coffee for any money.'
