Nervous Prostration

"I suffered so with Nervous Prostration that I thought there was no use trying to get well. A friend recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine, and although skeptical at first, I soon found myself recovering, and am to-day well."
MRS. D. I. JONES,
5800 Broadway, Cleveland, O.
Much sickness is of nervous origin. It's the nerves that make the heart force the blood through the veins, the lungs take in oxygen, the stomach digest food, the liver secrete bile and the kidneys filter the blood. If any of these organs are weak, it is the fault of the nerves through which they get their strength. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a specific for the nerves. It soothes the irritation and assists in the generation of nerve force. Therefore you can hardly miss it if you take Dr. Miles' Nervine with sick. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

VON MOSCHZISKEI

Splendid Testimonial to the Republican Candidate.

LEADERS OF THE BAR SPEAK

Nominee For Supreme Court Justice
Strongly Indorsed by Members of Legal Profession Who Know His Record.

[Special Correspondence.]
Philadelphia, Oct. 19.

An unusual tribute has just been paid by members of the Philadelphia bar to Judge Robert von Moschziskei, Republican nominee for the supreme bench.

Fourteen of the most prominent practitioners, headed by the acknowledged leader of the profession, John G. Johnson, and including Attorney General M. Hampton Todd, former Attorney General Hampton L. Carson, former Judge of the Superior Court W. W. Porter, former District Attorney George S. Graham and John C. Bell, Senator Ernest L. Tustlin, Alexander Simpson, Jr., George Wharton Pepper, Owen J. Roberts, Joseph DeF. Junkin, Henry P. Brown, Samuel M. Hyneman and Francis Shunk Brown have united in an address to the members of the bar of the state in support of Judge von Moschziskei's candidacy.

It is a purely non-partisan document, as among the signers are Democrats and well-known independent voters, as well as members of the Republican party.
It is an unsolicited, genuine and sincere indorsement, prompted solely by a desire to have the citizens of the state recognize the importance of electing a thoroughly competent and absolutely trustworthy man to the highest court in the commonwealth.

Address to Pennsylvania Bar.

The address, which is sent out over the signatures of the lawyers named above, reads as follows:

To the Lawyers of Pennsylvania—
Irrespective of political affiliations we, as members of the bar of Philadelphia, knowing Judge von Moschziskei as a man, as a lawyer and as a judge, in view of his nomination for the office of associate justice of the supreme court of Pennsylvania, desire to express to the profession throughout the commonwealth, the opinion entertained, we believe, by this bar generally of his entire fitness for that high office.

Intelligent by nature, a close student, fond of research, with an acute, alert and discriminating mind, with an unusually retentive memory and wide experience in legal and other affairs, he is quick to comprehend, though deliberate in the maturing of his judgment. He combines with knowledge of the law, keen logic, sound judgment and clear, forcible expression.

During his six years of service upon the common pleas bench of this county he has displayed thorough conscientiousness, great industry and capacity for work, united with absolute fearlessness, freedom from narrowness or prejudice and the ability to dispatch legal business in the most practical way.

Six reversals, with almost 400 written opinions delivered, is a remarkable record, and testifies most strongly to his accuracy and the thoroughness of his grasp of facts and law.

Judge von Moschziskei has the esteem and good will of this bar and this community as a self-reliant and courageous man, as a good citizen and an able, considerate judge.

Judge Von Moschziskei's Strength.
The nomination of Judge von Moschziskei has met with popular support, and his candidacy has been growing stronger every day since the Republican convention adjourned.

The closer his record on the common pleas bench is studied, the better are his admirable qualities appreciated. Known as the "writing judge" among his colleagues on the bench, Judge von Moschziskei has long been looked upon as one of the most industrious and painstaking jurists in the state. He delights in delving into his law books and frequently works way into the night preparing his opinions, which are models of thought and accuracy of expression, and which form an important part of the jurisprudence of recent years.

Judge von Moschziskei has not been seen upon the stump in this campaign, nor will he be, and he has not even taken occasion to visit other parts of the state since his nomination as he entertains pronounced views regarding the impropriety of a candidate for the supreme court making a canvass for votes or in any way taking part in a political campaign. He is daily engaged in the performance of his duties as a judge on the common pleas court of this city and has declined every invitation to public functions which might in any way be construed to be of a political character.

Munson's Political Campaigning.
His Democratic opponent is C. LaRue Munson, of whom the Scranton

Truth recently had this to say:

The Democratic candidate for judge of the supreme court, C. LaRue Munson, is swinging around the state soliciting votes to put himself on the bench of the highest judicial tribunal in the commonwealth. He is going into the counties, holding conferences with the politicians of his party, and individually seeking voters.

This is a new thing. The people of Pennsylvania have never before been diverted by so interesting a spectacle as a candidate for the exalted place of judge of the supreme court whirling around in a personal canvass of the state. Searching back through all the years since the adoption of the present constitution, the Democratic candidate himself would be unable to find a precedent for it. The sentiment, made and ever maintained by the people which holds high judicial office above such methods, has always been respected heretofore by those who have been honored with a nomination.

The Democratic candidate seems to have a less exalted view of the place he seeks, and to think he can promote his cause by thrusting aside what has become an unwritten and should be an inviolable law. The duties of a judge of the supreme court are of the most delicate and responsible character—too delicate and responsible to be exposed to a compromising personal campaign for votes. The office has never been pulled down to that level, and no one has ever before thought he could pull himself up to the office by such methods.

The Democratic candidate will not benefit by those methods now. The people of Pennsylvania have too high an appreciation of the proprieties to look with either patience or favor upon a personal canvass by a candidate for judge of the supreme court.

PENROSE ACTIVE IN CAMPAIGNING

Senator Knows Necessity of Big Republican Vote.

IMPORTANCE OF TARIFF ISSUE

Pennsylvania Must Give Emphatic Indorsement of Payne Bill and Silence the Western Tariff Tinkers.

No one better than Boies Penrose realizes the importance of the campaign now under way in Pennsylvania.

No one better than Boies Penrose appreciates the far-reaching effect of a sweeping Republican victory in this state upon national conditions and national politics, and no one better than he understands how a reduced Republican vote and a reduced Republican majority would be heralded as a lack of confidence in the policy of protection which Pennsylvania's representatives in Washington so steadfastly championed at the recent session of congress.

Senator Penrose is therefore taking an unusually active part in the present state campaign.

He has made a number of speeches and he is giving much time to assisting the Republican state organization in the effort to get a large Republican vote to the polls on Nov. 2. He attended the convention of the State League of Republican clubs at Altoona, has made several speeches in Philadelphia, expects to visit Pittsburg to address a meeting on Oct. 28, and he will then return to Philadelphia to participate in the big Republican rally arranged by the Republican Business Men's association, which is to be held in Hammerstein's Opera House, the great temple of music in the Quaker City, which for the first time will be used for a political gathering. It was only due to the prominence of the members of the Business Men's association and the interest of the merchants and manufacturers of the city in the success of the Republican ticket that the opera house was secured.

Great Tribute to Penrose.
Senator Penrose has missed no opportunity to emphasize the importance of the tariff situation to Pennsylvanians. He has just been the recipient of one of the greatest testimonials ever given an American statesman.

The observation of "Penrose day" in the textile district known as Kensington was an event in the history of Philadelphia. The senior United States senator accepted invitations to visit a number of industrial plants, and he was given ovations at every place he stopped by thousands of mill workers, as well as the proprietors of the various establishments, in recognition of his services in protecting those interests in the framing of the Payne tariff bill. Flags were flying from the homes of many of the wage earners in the mill district and the factories were gaily decked with bunting. At each stopping place men and women assembled, and after listening to a short address from him upon the subject of the tariff and the benefits that have been derived from protection, they cheered the senator lustily. Employees, both men and women, made speeches thanking him on behalf of their colleagues.

In the evening of the same day over five hundred representative manufacturers, coming from various states of the Union, assembled at the Bellevue-Stratford and lauded Senator Penrose for the part he took in the great fight for protection so recently. Representatives of the wage earners were also heard from at this gathering.

Senator Penrose is making earnest appeals to Republicans of the state to roll up a majority such as will leave no question of Pennsylvania's position on the tariff issue and be a service of notice upon revisionists that further tinkering with the tariff will not be tolerated.

Grains Crisp and Gigantic—Eight Times Size

Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice—the foods shot from guns—are eight times natural size.

They are four times as porous as bread. They are nut-like, crisp and brown.

And they are digestible, for every starch granule has been literally blasted to pieces.

That's about all we can say. Cold type cannot describe them. There is nothing with which to compare them.

Puffed Wheat—10c

These are the foods invented by Prof. Anderson, and this is his curious process:

The whole wheat or rice kernels are put into sealed guns. Then the guns are revolved for sixty minutes in a heat of 550 degrees.

That fierce heat turns the moisture in the grain to steam, and the pressure becomes tremendous.

You will think the foods queer, and they are. But don't think that you will not like them.

Last month, there were seventeen million dishes served in homes that have found them out.

The folks who once taste them, demand them. The folks at your table are just like the rest.

Serve them one package and all will say, "Let us have those puffed foods always."

Puffed Rice—15c

Then the guns are unsealed, and the steam explodes. Instantly every starch granule is blasted into a myriad particles.

The kernels of grain are expanded eight times. Yet the coats are unbroken, the shapes are unaltered. We have simply the magnified grain.

One package will tell you why people delight in them. Order it now.
