REPUBLICAN TICKET.For Auditor General,
A. E. SINSON, of Erie County
For State Treasurer,
JEREMIAH H. STOBBER, of Lancaster County.
For Judge of the Supreme Court,
ROBERT VON MOSCHIZSKER, of Philadelphia County.
For Prothonotary, Register, Recorder and Clerk of the Courts,
WILLIAM J. LEAVITT, of Shippen.
For District Attorney,
FREDARN JOHNSON, of Emporium.
For Jury Commissioner,
FRANK L. MILLER of Grove.Don't Be Caught.

Don't be caught by circular letters asking you to vote for the Democratic candidate for Supreme Court, even if he does reside in Lycoming county. Vote for Robert Von Moschizsker, who refuses, absolutely, to attend any political gatherings, believing that the judiciary should be absolved from politics. Is he not correct? Vote for him, as well as the entire Republican ticket. By doing so you will have a clear conscience.

Remember Your Duty.

While the Republicans of Pennsylvania are not the least bit annoyed, or worried, over the result of the election to be held Nov. 2d and count on a safe off-year majority of at least 125,000, all should get out and vote the endorsement of President Taft's administration. Show by your ballots, that you believe in the principles of the G. O. P., by voting for every Republican on the ballot.

Only One Ticket.

While there is only one list of candidates nominated by the two political parties of Cameron county, that named by the Republican voters, all should vote by simply placing an X in Republican box at the left of the ballot, after the word Republican. This will then vote the entire Republican ticket and you will then have done your duty. W. J. Leavitt, for Prothonotary, Register and Recorder; Fred Arn Johnson, for District Attorney and Frank L. Miller, of Grove township for Jury Commissioner, all young, active and energetic Republicans, have no opposition yet they are eminently entitled to the entire vote of the county. Just place an X after the word Republican—then your ballot counts, otherwise its lost.

What is a Complimentary Vote?
Candidates on the Democratic state ticket—particularly the candidate for judge of the supreme court—are making appeals for complimentary votes?

What is a complimentary vote? Why, it is just the same as any other kind of a vote. It goes to the candidate, is counted for him, and helps to elect him—if he can get enough of them.

It is the habit of candidates who have no hope of election otherwise to plead for complimentary votes, and the plea is that it can do no harm; that it is only a compliment. It goes just as far as any other vote in the election, however.

The complimentary vote is a trick to be avoided. Every citizen should vote in support of his principles.

Personal Canvass for a Judgeship.

The Democratic candidate for judge of the Supreme Court, C. Larue Munson, is swinging around the State soliciting votes to put himself on the bench of the highest judicial tribunal in the Commonwealth. He is going into the counties, holding conferences with the politicians of his party, and individually seeking voters, says Scranton Truth.

This is something new. The people of Pennsylvania have never before been diverted by so interesting a spectacle as a candidate for the exalted place of judge of the Supreme court whirling around in a personal canvass of the state. Searching back through all the years, since the adoption of the present constitution the Democratic candidate himself would be unable to find a precedent for it. The sentiment, made and ever maintained by the people which holds high judicial office above such methods, has always been respected heretofore by those who have been honored with a nomination.

The Democratic candidate seems to have a less exalted view of the place he seeks, and to think he can promote his cause by thrusting aside what has become an unwritten and should be an inviolable law. The duties of a judge of the Supreme court are of the most delicate and responsible character—too delicate and responsible to be exposed to a compromising personal campaign for votes. The office has never been pulled down to that level, and no one has ever before thought he could pull himself up to the office by such methods.

The Democratic candidate will not benefit by those methods now. The people of Pennsylvania have too high an appreciation of the proprieties to look with either patience or favor upon a personal canvass by a candidate for judge of the Supreme court.

Mix and apply to the parts affected as often as possible, but morning and night anyway, allowing it to remain on as long as possible, never less than ten minutes, the longer the better, then you can wipe off the powdery film deposited on the skin.

You can get this put up at any Drug Store. For any skin trouble this has no equal.

Actual Starvation*The Emporium Drug Co., Give Facts*Regarding Dyspepsia.

Although indigestion and dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and how to obtain relief. There is no reason why people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-looking, good-smelling and good tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

Dieting cannot cure dyspepsia. If we refuse every article of food that disagrees with us, before long we have nothing left, and find ourselves chronic dyspeptics.

We are so confident that we can furnish relief for indigestion and dyspepsia that we promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who uses it according to directions who is not perfectly satisfied with the results. We exact no promises and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here where you live, and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one who is troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and get a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home, and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. They are very pleasant to take; they soothe the irritable stomach, strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, promote a healthy and natural bowel action, almost immediately relieve nausea and stomach irritation, produce hearty digestion and assimilation, and promote nutrition.

A 25-cent package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases this is sufficient to produce complete relief. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases we have two larger sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Emporium only at our store.—The Rexall Store. The Emporium Drug Store.

An exchange says: "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth, the editor, then the advertiser—which was all good. The next day it snowed and he created the man who does not believe in advertising and another, who does not take the home paper. And then the devil got into the moulding room and created the man who takes the paper for several years and fails to pay for it. After he had completed that sorry job and having a few lumps left, he created the excuse of a man who settles his subscription by instructing the postmaster to mark his paper 'refused.'"

Entertaining and Hospitality.

I have no sympathy with the tired murmur of the straining women who speak of entertaining as "a duty to society." We all have duties to society, but entertaining is not one of them. There is no more obligation for a woman to entertain than there is for a man to swap horses with a neighbor. The conditions as they now exist are identical. The neighbor may desire to swap his horse, but no man feels bound on that account to exchange his own for it against his wish. Since I have recognized the market value of my own horse and how much I am always expected to give "to boot," I never swap.

The real and usually neglected duty to society is hospitality, and that has an important distinction from entertaining. It is hospitality only when the entertainment is without hope of reward. The moment the host hopes to receive in exchange even a good opinion, a little affection or admiration it ceases to be hospitality and becomes entertaining. The foundation of hospitality must be perfect unselfishness.

The question left us to solve in individual cases is, which will give the most satisfaction as society is now organized?—Ethel Davis in "Dishonesty and Caste."

Time at the North Pole.

At the north pole time is nothing, and if one were residing at the north pole it would be unnecessary to wind one's watch. You are always at 12 o'clock and can't walk out of the hotel without walking south. All times of day meet at the pole as the meeting place of all the meridians. A man sitting with the invisible mathematical point right under him would be in all twenty-four hours at once, or a twenty-four hour watch placed on the pole could be made to point to the correct time in every part of the world. There used to be something of an approximation to this in the extreme north of Norway, where the degrees of longitude squeeze in, until recent days. Captains of Norwegian coasting schooners will tell you how inconvenient it was to change between the time of Holland at Bergen and that of Crete at the North cape while correct local time was maintained. General Norwegian time became indispensable.

A Traveler's Tale.

The passengers were beguiling the journey with pleasant conversation. One man in particular, who had the look of a traveler, told of long sojourns in foreign lands and kept them all interested with his anecdotes. "Yes, gentlemen," said he, "there is nothing like travel to expand the mind. Now, I don't suppose, for instance, that many of you have ever seen a beet root putting on a waistcoat?" His fellow passengers stared in surprise. "No; we certainly have not!" "Or a lettuce donning a pair of trousers?" "No!" "Or a spring onion fixing on its tie and collar?" "No, not even that!" "Well, gentlemen," said the traveler as the train drew up at the terminus and he prepared to alight, "you may believe me or not, as you like, but several times in my travels I have seen not only a beet root or a lettuce or an onion but a whole salad dressing!"—London Mail.

Paupers' Paradise.

The authorities of Samoa, the little island upon which Robert Louis Stevenson lived and died, provide board and lodging absolutely free to strangers who are unable or unwilling to pay for their keep. Every village on the island has a guest house, called a "faletale," and here the tourist is invited to come and be fed, lodged and entertained without any payment whatever.

The officials of the town of Klingenberg-on-the-Main, in Bavaria, are exceptionally generous, for they not only provide free beds and free board to poor people, but give away big puddings every year end to all who ask for them. Klingenberg owns several pottery clay pits that bring in so much money to the town coffers that they pay all the town expenses and leave a good round sum over, which is distributed to charity. Klingenberg is one of the few places where taxes are unknown.
