EMPORIUM, PA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1909.

NO. 37.

Union Friendly Society.

A social society that will be known as the U. F. S., was organized last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Helen Metzger, on Fifth street. Invitations had been issued to twenty-five young people, representing all the religious denominations in Emporium, and sixteen persons were present at the first meeting. The organization of the U. F. S., is the outcome of the former Friendly Society, started by the Rev. Geo. H. Johnston, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church. The old society was disbanded last spring. Business and social meetings will be held once every month and all persons who received cards are requested to be present at the next meeting which will be held the third Thursday evening of November, at which time the society will be entertained by Max F. Balcom at his home on Sixth street.

Pleasant Visitor.

Mr. William Viner, of Arden, N. Y., was a pleasant Press caller, last Friday, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Edward Viner. William Viner and wife have been visiting their two sons at Omaha, Neb., and Denver, Col., both filling responsible positions on the Union Pacific R. R., through the intercession of the late E. H. Harriman, in whose employ Mr. Viner has been since he left Emporium, fifteen years ago. Their visit here, as guests of Edward Viner and family, was pleasant—meeting many old-time friends, this being their first visit to Emporium in that time. They found many changes in Emporium and noted with pleasure the many improvements made since they left.

When W. A. McClellan and Wm. Viner went to Arden, N. Y., fifteen years ago to accept positions under Mr. Harriman they struck a lucky lead. The former is Supt. of the Arden Stores, while Mr. Viner is Supt. of the Arden Dairy Farms, and both must be capable men or they would not be filling such responsible positions.

J. M. ROBERTSON, Rector.

Information Wanted.

The PRESS is in receipt of the following inquiry from Mrs. Permelia Dodson, of Hunlocks Creek, Luzerne county, Pa.: "Clinton Dodson, aged 82 years, nine months and fifteen days, fell from an apple tree, injuring his left side; died of pneumonia, Oct. 15th, 1909. We think a grand-son of his resides in your county." We called on Robt. C. Dodson, druggist, of this place, who examined his "family book" and believes the deceased was cousin of his father, Dr. M. D. L. Dodson, who died in Florida, Nov. 11th, 1892.

A Warning to Hunters.

There is law which forbids hunting on Sunday and a heavy fine is imposed on the person caught doing so. People inclined to go hunting on Sunday should take warning from this notice as the game wardens are looking into the matter. Complaint has been made to us of persons residing at and near Cameron of breaking this law and in order not to have any trouble we wish to caution them, thereby saving paying a heavy fine. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

Upholstering and Repairing.

Henry Jaeger, the Fourth Street Harness Maker, is a practical upholsterer and desires the public, having any work in his line to call and see his large line of samples and learn prices, which are reasonable. No need in sending such work out of town. Satisfaction guaranteed. 37-tf.

Champion Bear Hunter.

Mr. C. E. Logue, of First Fork, claims he is the champion bear hunter in this county, having captured alive and killed five this season. Mr. Logue has two live bears now and the pelts of three and the heads for mounting. Mr. L., would like to hear from the rest of the Cameron county bear hunters and no doubt he will hear from Woods Kelley, Allen Russel and James Batchelder.

Death of a Prominent Teacher.

Died at Hicks Run, Pa., October 19, 1909, Lois Miller, daughter of William Miller, deceased, and Mrs. Justina Miller.

MISS LOIS MILLER was about nineteen years old at the time of her death. Although so young, she was teaching her second term of school at Castle Carden when overtaken by the dread disease, typhoid fever.

She started for her home on Haston Hill, but on reaching Hicks Run, found herself too weak to proceed further and remained at the residence of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barr. A trained nurse was procured and every effort was made to restore her to health, but in vain. Her pure and lovely soul was released from her pain-racked body Tuesday, Oct. 19th, 1909, and passed into God's keeping.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, Rev. S. Ebersole, of Sterling Run, having charge of the services. Although the weather was most unfavorable, the hall at Hicks Run was crowded with those who sought to pay their last respects to the young teacher, called so soon to resign her work on earth.

The utmost sympathy is felt by every one for the heart-broken family; mother, who, left a widow when Lois was but a tiny child, faced the world bravely and brought up a family of six children to noble manhood and womanhood.

Seldom has been such a funeral as that of Lois Miller, were in the vast crowd there were so many mourners, where even strangers were moved to "weep with those who wept" for the untimely death of a noble young woman.

Her body was laid to rest in Hicks Run cemetery beside her father, who died before her memory.

It is such a death as this, our finite minds cannot understand, but "God knoweth best."

An Enjoyable Dance.

The dance held at the opera house last Tuesday evening in honor of the teachers of Cameron county was a very great success and was heartily enjoyed by all present. The music was furnished by Messrs. Harold Seger, at the piano, and Lawrence Fisk at the drums. The floor was in elegant condition and with the crowd in the happiest moods the time sped all too quickly and the sound of the "Home Sweet Home Waltz" came ere the assemblage was aware that time for departure had arrived. The management of the dance was under the careful vigilance of Messrs. F. J. Keim, Jr., and R. H. Edgar.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

ABSET.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Abset, nee May Prosser, aged five weeks, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prosser, West Fifth street, last Saturday. The funeral took place last Tuesday.

ALLEN.

Mrs. Allen, aged 64, died at the residence of her son, Mr. G. S. Allen at this place last Friday, coming here only a few weeks ago to be with her children when sickness obliged her to disband her business at Wilcox, where she resided for many years, conducting a millinery establishment. Her remains were taken to Wilcox last Monday, the funeral taking place the same afternoon—funeral services being conducted by the Presbyterian clergyman.

FARRELL.

JAMES FARRELL, aged 67 years, died early this morning, at the family residence, East Fourth street. Deceased came to Emporium about 45 years ago and up to a few months ago he filled the position of section foreman at this place, when he was placed on retired list. Deceased was an honorable citizen reared a large family of good girls and boys. He assisted in the construction of the P. & E. R. R., also the W. N. Y. & P. R. R., and the Union Pacific.

His funeral takes place Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from St. Mark's Church. We hope to give an appropriate obituary in our next issue.

Box Social.

A box social will be held in the Sabbath school room of the Presbyterian Church, next Saturday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Ladies will please prepare a box with lunch for two and kindly enclose your name.

For a clear head and a strong mind, DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold by all druggists.

MR. AND MRS. RILEY WARNER,
Who were married Fifty-nine years ago to-day.

DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE LADY.

Mrs. Riley Warner Passes Over the River.

MRS. RACHAEL L. DUNLAP-WARNER, wife of Ex-Sheriff Riley Warner, died Monday, Oct. 25th, 1909, at 3:00 p. m., after a long and painful illness, surrounded by her husband and children. Mrs. Warner was born at Meshoppen, Wyoming county, Pa., March 6th, 1830, therefore being 79 years, seven months and nineteen days of age; was married to Ex-Sheriff Warner, Oct. 28th, 1850, just 59 years ago to-day, the hour of her burial. To this union was born eight children—five having passed to that better world to await the mother. The living children, all present at the funeral, are Mrs. Lulu Cole, of Keokuk, Iowa; Mrs. Lizzie Hinkle and Mrs. Margaret Judd, of this place. In addition to the children, Mrs. Warner is survived by her husband, Ex-Sheriff Riley Warner, (hale and hearty at the ripe old age of 82), and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. M. B. Storm, Phil'a; Mrs. Ronea Storm, North Dakota; Henry Dunlap, Lynn, Susquehanna county, Pa.; John W. Dunlap, Meshoppen, Pa.; Warren Dunlap, Bear Creek, Luzerne county, Pa. The first named sister and the last named brother, accompanied by his wife, are in attendance at the funeral, which took place this afternoon from the family residence on Walnut street.

The religious services were conducted by Rev. Lux, pastor of Presbyterian Church, the church choir furnishing the singing. The floral offerings and many manifestations of regard and sympathy on the part of the friends of the family were many and appropriate.

The following friends of the family serve as casket bearers: Thos. H. Norris, G. S. Allen, E. E. Forbes, Hon. I. K. Hockley, Chas. E. Crandell, H. H. Mullin.

Mr. Warner and his estimable wife came to Emporium Aug. 7th, 1867, residing here all these years, having always held the esteem and respect of our citizens. Their long residence in our midst has endeared the deceased to our citizens and all remember the cheerful, kind and hospitable disposition of "Mother Warner." During the many years the writer and family delighted in dropping in to pass an evening—and that was very often—in company with this pleasant family, we always felt at home. Deceased was for many years landlady of the Warner house, that popular house being erected by her husband, and formed many warm friends by her kindness and charitableness to many poor unfortunate. Mrs. Warner was a good woman, a kind mother and a faithful wife—one of those substantial, frugal mothers that we read about. The world was better for her being in it and her family and husband can always point with pride and admiration to her spotless life. Peace to her soul.

The funeral as we go to press is very largely attended many being present from out of town.

In addition to those mentioned above, in attendance at the funeral, are the following: Mr. W. S. Warner, (nephew), Mrs. Chas. S. French, (niece) Austin; L. S. Hinkle and wife, Wilcox.

Good Old Age.

Hon. N. P. Minard, of Four Mile, called to see the PRESS last Saturday and get a receipt for another year. Judge Minard, who passed the 86th mile post May 5th, 1909, is remarkably well preserved and bids fair to live many years. Hope he may live to celebrate his 100 birthday.

Local news on every page.

Read, Republicans, What Governor Stuart Says.

Should any Republican think of voting against Judge Von Moschzisker, they should stop and reason first. Read what Governor Stuart said, recently to his Philadelphia friends:

"The state ticket is headed by a candidate whom you well know, and that position is justice of the supreme court."

"That gentleman has been nominated by the Republican party for the office of justice of the supreme court, and the name of the gentleman is Judge Von Moschzisker a resident of Philadelphia county, and a member of the Philadelphia bar, and he has filled the position as a member of one of our courts for the past seven years; a young man of undoubted ability and integrity, and a man in my mind, who will make one of the greatest jurists of this Commonwealth. By reason of his position as a candidate for the supreme court of Pennsylvania, he will not be here to-night."

Governor Stuart might have gone further and contrasted our candidate with that of the Democratic party, who is running all over the State holding political conflagrations, contrary to all previous customs of either party.

The Blanket Ballot.

The attention of every voter is called to the big ballot to be used next Tuesday. If you desire to vote a straight ticket, place an X after the party name at the left of the ballot, as formerly. But you will be called on to vote for or against the amendments. If you desire to vote for all the amendments you will have to make a X after each section.

Voting a straight party ticket does not vote for or against the amendments.

Voting a split ticket does not vote for or against the amendments.

Voting on the amendments does not vote for the candidates.

But, place an X after the word Republican, then mark an X after each amendment.

Construction Work Commenced.

A large force of Italians passed through Emporium on Saturday, enroute for Sterling Run to grade the Sterling Run R. R., for a distance of two or more miles, to the coal measures on Sterling Run. The coal will be shipped to the coke ovens near Emporium for coking—the product to be used at Emporium furnace. This vein, the Mt. Hope, is the best coal for coking purposes to be found in the state.

The Prize Banner.

The banner presented to the delegates of Cameron county at the State Sunday School Convention at Harrisburg, is on exhibition in the Theatrical window. There were only 24 of these banners awarded to the county delegations this year and we are all proud to know that our little county was one of the 24 to stand on the "Front Line."

Commencing Early.

The Mountaineer Hose Co., have commenced early arranging for their grand ball to be given at opera house, Thanksgiving Eve. The popular Germania Orchestra, of Lock Haven, has been engaged for the occasion. The tickets will be only $1.00.

Teachers' Institute.

The 43rd Annual Teacher's Institute of Cameron county convened in the Court House on Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The Institute was called to order by Miss Mattie M. Collins, County Superintendent, followed by devotional exercises conducted by the Rev. J. F. Anderson, pastor of the M. E. Church. Miss Collins made some timely remarks, after which Prof. Chas. A. Dobson was introduced as musical director and lead in several musical selections. Prof. W. A. Price, of Ashland, Ohio, was then introduced to the Institute and spoke on the subject of "Philosophy of American literature." His talk was very interesting and instructive. After some music and a short intermission, Prof. Smith Burnham, of the West Chester Normal School, was introduced and spoke on the subject, Literature and History in the lower grades and why. Prof. Burnham spoke of the teacher's power to fit the child to be a good citizen, to obtain the right kind of citizenship requires culture of the heart as well as the brain. His talk was interesting from start to finish. The Institute was then adjourned until 9:00 o'clock Tuesday morning.

TUESDAY, A. M.

Institute was called to order by Miss Collins, followed by devotional services led by the Rev. Paul J. Lux, pastor of Presbyterian church. Prof. W. A. Price took as his morning discourse "The Teachers." There was some good sound advice given to the teachers as well as an instructive talk. A music drill was then conducted by Prof. Dobson, followed by a short intermission. After being called to order the next speaker was Prof. Smith Burnham, who spoke on the subject "Literature and History in the lower Grades—How." After several musical numbers Institute stood adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

TUESDAY, P. M.

Institute opened by singing, under the direction of Prof. Dobson, followed by roll call. Prof. C. E. Plasterer, principal of Emporium High School was then introduced to the Institute and spoke on the subject "Common School English." Prof. Plasterer spoke very emphatically on the object and value of correct English. A piano solo was very effectively rendered by Miss Louise Welsh. Prof. W. A. Price next spoke on the subject "An hour with Eugene Fields." Prof. Price in well chosen and eloquent words, paid a beautiful tribute to Eugene Fields and cited many interesting stanzas which portrayed the character and traits of Fields.

Prof. R. Howard Edgar, principal of the East Ward school, rendered with pleasing effect a vocal solo entitled "When We're Together," in response to the applause Mr. Edgar sang a selection entitled "A Jolly Good Fellow." After a few minutes intermission, Miss Collins introduced to the assemblage, Dr. Dan McGurk, who made a short address.

Following a musical number, Prof. Burnham occupied the remainder of the session speaking on the subject "From the Brandywine to Valley Forge." Prof. Burnham gave a very interesting description of the movement of the armies of Howard and Washington during the Revolution.

WEDNESDAY, A. M.

Institute was called to order by the County Supt., followed by devotional services by Rev. J. L. Bogue, pastor of Baptist church. Music drill under Prof. Dobson. The first speaker was Prof. Price, his subject, "Government" and said in part, "There are as many different kinds of government as there are boys and girls. The teachers should cultivate their manners and morals and keep themselves in a cheerful mood, etc. In governing the boy we should use tact and common sense rather than the rod." After a short intermission, Prof. Burnham took for his subject "The Book." The address was followed by music, after which Hon. R. B. Teitrick, Dep. State Supt. was introduced and after a few preliminary remarks spoke on "Laws of Teaching." "A fundamental law is that the teacher must know what he is teaching. The central power of the teachers art is the power of illustration. The teacher must be enthusiastic in order to teach effectively."

Death of Daniel S. Dailey.

Many of our readers will be pained to learn of the death of Daniel S. Dailey, aged 68, at his home in Driftwood, after suffering for a long time with Bright's disease. He passed to the great beyond on Monday morning. Deceased came to Cameron county at the close of the civil war, having served his country faithfully, and assisted in the building of the P. & E. R. R. He located at Driftwood and for 45 years was section foreman at that place. He leaves a wife and six grown children to mourn his death.

The funeral services were conducted from the Driftwood Catholic Church. yesterday morning, the attendance being very large, many attending from this section of the county.

We greatly regret the death of our old friend, whom we have known for many years, intimately, and greatly respected. His bereaved family have our most profound sympathy, as well as all who knew him.

Hunting Party.

A hunting party, consisting of Chas. G. Grubb, of Peters Cartridge Co., and Jos. Garland, salesman for said firm, of Pittsburg, also four other business men of same city, have rented a house near Beechwood and are enjoying themselves hugely. They have met with success, having already captured considerable game, but no bear yet. They hope to get a bear or two before going home. "Teddy" Blum and H. S. Lloyd visited them on Tuesday, being acquaintances of theirs.

Handsome Appointments.

A. A. McDonald has completed the improvements in his store and billiard room, now presenting a very neat and attractive appearance—fresh paint, new paper and everything up-to-date. "Angus" is enterprising and would like to erect a brick block, if others would join him. Fred Williams was the artist, but "Uncle John" Quigley ably assisted him in putting on the finishing touches.

Visit Buffalo.

Mr. Thos. Gallagher, accompanied by Misses Mazine Gallagher and Flora Schlecht, visited Buffalo over Sunday. In addition to a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rich they had the pleasure of witnessing the Ben Hur production and were delighted. While in Buffalo they called on Mrs. T. H. Norris, who has been there for some time for treatment, and report her condition improved.
