

A Jolly Afternoon.
Miss Rose Summerson entertained 34 of her little friends at her home on West Sixth street, Saturday afternoon, in honor of her 10th anniversary. She received many pretty presents. Refreshments were served, and all enjoyed themselves and wished her many more birthdays. Those who attended were: Edward Robinson, Grace Robinson, Dorothy Howard, Vera Welsh, Ella Hout, Charlotte Jessup, Scott Lingle, Ruth Lingle, Charles Hout, Doris Moore, John Beaton, Flossie Goss, Pansy Hout, Helen Norwandy, Margaret Hout, Mildred Ensign, Grace Loucks, Mary Hout, Milton Leary, Marie Leary, Laura Hout, Cecelia Torney, Lois Cook, Louise Zwald, Elnora DeCoursey, Clara Hout, John Russel, Floyd Summerson, Walter Nellis, Anna Eckstein, Editha Craven, Regis Stahly, Eveline Carlson and Iva Carlson.

Class Social.
The Bible Class of the Emmanuel Episcopal Sunday school and the church choir, enjoyed a social time at the residence of Hon. and Mrs. Josiah Howard, last Friday evening. Mr. Coffinberg, who is in the employ of the U. S. Geological Survey at this place, was present and gave a very interesting talk on the Philippines. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Whiting were presented with a set of silver spoons. They were married about the middle of September. Mr. Whiting is in the employ of the Keystone Powder Company and is a member of Emmanuel Choir. He has made many friends during his short sojourn at this place. Mrs. Whiting is a very amiable young lady and is sure to win many friends in Emporium. Light refreshments were served. These socials will be held once every month, the next one being at the Parish House.

A Good Time.
Meadowdale Farm Rich Valley, was the scene of much merry-making on Friday evening, October 22, when Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Joyce entertained several young people from this place. The hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Joyce is well known and anyone being entertained by them is sure to have a good time, as was the case with this happy bunch. Those present were the Misses Edna Clark, Carolyn Cox, Flavia Lathrop, Helen Smutz, Margaret Dodson, Rena Jordan, Marion Judd, Gladys Lloyd, Mae Mulcahy, Messrs. Dick Kuehne, Clyde Fisher, Warner Judd, Eric Nystrom, George Balcom, Edwin Baldwin, George Barker, Gordon Vogt and Arthur Catlin.

Comedy Extravaganza Company.
The laughing event of the season the California Girls Big Musical Comedy Extravaganza Co., with its special scenery, five big vaudeville acts, eight funny comedians and a big chorus of beautiful singing and dancing girls will be the swellest thing seen in Emporium this season. A lot of catchy up-to-date musical numbers, "Come Down Malindy", "Down Where the Sweet Potatoes Grow", "The Girls of the U. S. A.", interspersed with the familiar tableaux "The Spirit of '76", illustrated, are some of the many good things to be seen only in this 20th century organization which will be at Emporium Opera House, Friday evening, Nov. 5th. Prices 25c, 35c, 50c and 75c.

Hallow'een Masquerade.
The newly organized U. F. S., held its first social function last Saturday evening, at the Parish House of the Emmanuel Episcopal Church. The party was a Hallow'een masquerade and many of the society appeared in costume. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, dancing and refreshments were served. The gypsie was there to tell fortunes and many indulged in this amusement. Taken as a whole, the evening was a most enjoyable one.

Gospel Worker's Training Class.
On Monday night of this week a Pastor's Training Class was organized in the First Methodist Episcopal Church. More than a half-hundred persons present and joining. Instructions—oral, written and story. The class will continue to meet for six consecutive Monday nights. The course, though short, will be very helpful to those who attend. Other interested persons will find a cordial welcome. Instructions free to all. If you have not already done so, join next Monday night. Bring pencil and tablet. Time 7:30 o'clock.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

KENWORTHY.
EDWARD LESLIE KENWORTHY, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kenworthy, of Chapman Hill, near Sterling Run, Pa., died on Saturday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. His death was due to an accident which happened at Canoe Run on Saturday afternoon. The facts given to a PRESS reporter are as follows: The boy boarded train No. 68, which leaves Emporium at 3:11 p. m., and wishing to leave the train at Canoe Run was told to jump when they slowed down. In jumping from the train he struck the mail catcher, striking the back of his head. Sheriff J. W. Norris was on the train and ordered it stopped and went back and picked up the boy, carrying him to the store at Canoe Run. It was evident from the first that he could not live and he was brought to Emporium on train No. 61 arriving here at 6:30 p. m., and taken to the home of his uncle, Mr. Mark Ellis, West Fourth street. Drs. S. S. Smith and W. H. Bush were in attendance, but in spite of all they could do the little spark of life flickered out in a few hours. Deceased was born Feb. 17, 1898 and was therefore 11 years, eight months and 13 days of age. He is survived by his father, mother, three sisters and three brothers. The funeral took place last Tuesday afternoon and after short services at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ellis, the latter being a sister of the boy's father, the remains were taken to Sterling Run, where services were conducted at the church at that place. Interment was made at Sterling Run. Rev. Mr. Shank, pastor of the Circuit, officiated. C. W. Rishell had charge of the funeral arrangements. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of the PRESS and a large circle of friends.

ALLEN.

The Wilcox correspondent of the Ridgway Daily Record, in last Thursday's issue, gives the following account of the funeral of Mrs. C. T. Allen, whose death occurred at Emporium: "Death has again deprived us of a dear and honored friend, Mrs. C. T. Allen, who passed away at the home of her son, Grant Allen, at Emporium, last Friday, Oct. 22nd, at midnight. Mrs. Allen has been ill a long time but she was so brave, patient and hopeful that we could not believe that she would not recover and once more occupy the home she loved so well, and greet us there in her pleasant, cheerful way. There are no words to estimate the loss, we, as a community, sustained. Her body was brought from Emporium on Mail Monday and taken to her late home, where funeral services were held for her at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Cooper officiating. The services were brief but beautiful. A few remarks by the minister, prayer, reading of selections from scripture and the singing of two hymns by the choir: "Lead Kindly Light" and "Asleep in Jesus," constituted the service. Interment was made in the Wilcox cemetery, where Mrs. Allen's husband and several children are buried. There were many friends assembled for the last sad rites, the L. O. T. M., of which Mrs. Allen was a charter member attending in a body. The most beautiful flowers surrounded the casket, gifts of friends who sincerely loved her. Mrs. Allen was a member of Presbyterian church. She is survived by her son, Grant S. Allen, of Emporium, and a grand-son, John Jefferson Allen, of York, Pa."

FARRELL.

In our last week's issue we called briefly attention to the death of Mr. James Farrell, in his 67th year. The burial of this industrious citizen took place at St. Mark's Catholic church, last Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Before the remains were taken to the church scores of our citizens viewed the remains. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in this place, comfortably filling the large edifice, the great concourse of friends bearing testimony to the respect deceased was held, by all classes and all creeds. As the solemn cortege entered the church, preceded by the flower bearers, Messrs. M. J. Dolan, Joseph Kinsler, John Hogan, John Heher, John Eddleman, Jno. Trepawether, all members of the C. M. B. A., and Ancient Order of Hibernians, followed by the remains and funeral director B. Egan, and the following casket bearers: Messrs. R. Seger, J. F. Parsons, Hon. F. X. Blumle, M. M. Larrabee, M. C. Tullis, James Kearny, the scene was indeed solemnly grand—the choir softly singing in the choir loft, adding an additional solemnity to the sad occasion as the large circle of afflicted took their seats. The remarks of Father Downey rendered in his usual sympathetic and heart-to-heart manner, gave consolation and comfort to the grief-stricken wife, children and relatives. He bore testimony to the industry, honesty and faithfulness of the deceased to his church and family. It was one of those addresses that helped the bleeding hearts to look beyond and above for succor.

James Farrell was born in county Clare, Ireland; came to America when only a mere child about six years of age; located at Washington, D. C., and when a young man was present in Ford's Theatre when the lamented Lincoln was assassinated. We listened to his description of the terrible scene, with great interest. It was many times that we engaged in conversation during the very many years that we knew him. He was a practical railroad builder and bossed a construction crew on the Union Pacific R. R., from Omaha to San Francisco, as well as helping to build the P. & E. R. R., and W. N. Y. & P. R. R. He located in this county many years ago and married Miss Mary Calleran at this place, about 36 years ago—we remember well, as a boy, the incident. To this union were born Mrs. Anna L. Donovan, Emporium; John and Jas. engaged in business at Kane; Maurice at home; Mrs. Ellen Grady, DuBois; Mrs. Elizabeth Lippert, Kane; Mary, Jos. and Leo, at home. He also leaves in addition to his faithful wife, three sisters, viz: Mrs. Con. Creaton, Clermont; Mrs. Jas. Creaton, Bradford, and Mrs. Wm. Meagher, Buffalo.

In addition to the immediate family the following relatives and friends from out of town: James and John Farrell and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lippert, Mrs. Rose Ray, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. McHale, Frances Maher, Julia Dailey, Kane; James Grady, DuBois; Frances and John McGloin, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Burke, James Hoey, Ridgway; Mr. and Mrs. John Burden, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tierney, Mrs. J. Creaton, Mrs. Rodger Welsh, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. John Cashman, St. Marys; Mr. and Mrs. W. Meagher, Thomas, James and Joseph Creaton, John Powell and wife, J. C. Gallagher, Buffalo; Mrs. C. Creaton, Clermont; Mrs. James Creaton and son, Bradford; Mrs. John Cooney and son, Miss Mary Hayes and John Gilmartin, Renovo; Mr. and Mrs. James Hennigan, Elmer Hart, Eldred; W. Gilmartin, Johnsonburg; Hon. John McDonald, D. Donahue, Driftwood.

Deceased was a member of C. M. B. A., and carried an insurance of $2,000 in the former lodge.

A Pretty Home Wedding.

DRUM—COUNCIL.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Sinnamahoning, on Wednesday morning, at eleven o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Drum, when their only daughter, Miss Lela Gertrude became the bride of Mr. James David Council. Previous to the assembling of the bridal party, Miss Helen Council, sister of the groom, sang "O Promise Me", in a very pleasing manner. At the sound of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Howard M. Council, the bridal party appeared in the following order: Rev. Robert M. Runyan, pastor of the M. E. Church, then followed the bridegroom and best man, Mr. Nace H. Drum, brother of the bride, Miss Helen Council acting as maid of honor was next, followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The beautiful and impressive ring ceremony was used. The bride wore a gown of white silk, trimmed with baby Irish lace and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a gown of white over blue messalin trimmed with tan velvet and baby Irish lace. The bouquet of the maid of honor was white and pink carnations. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens, ferns and flowers, carnations predominating. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents. The wedding party assembled in the prettily decorated dining room, where a wedding breakfast was served, covers being laid for fifty. The happy couple departed on the noon flyer for Philadelphia, Washington and other points east, where they will spend their honeymoon. The PRESS extends congratulations.

Guests from out of town were: Edward Council and family, Laquin, Pa.; Howard Council and wife, Lock Haven; Joe Council, St. Marys; Mrs. W. H. Metzger; Idamar; Max F. Balcom, Emporium; Miss Marian Towers, Driftwood.

THE STATE GIVES 161,685 PLURALITY

For State Treasurer and Auditor General—Supreme Court Judge Robt. Von Munschziker Elected by 100,000.

The battle has practically closed and the G. O. P.'s taking a rest. While the contest was exceedingly hot in Philadelphia and several other sections, the people did not get interested and, as a result over 100,000 failed to vote.

In this county only about one-third of the vote was out. The fact that the Democrats did not place a ticket in nomination made the vote light. The fight was made on Supreme Court Justice, but Munson was snowed under when Philadelphia's vote was given. The Constitutional Amendments are possibly defeated in the state, but they may pull out when Philadelphia's vote is counted to-day.

The fight in Greater New York city resulted in the routing of Tammany, although they elected the Mayor. His hands are tied, all other offices in city and county being against him, thereby preventing Tammany handling the one billion dollars of appropriations.

Tom Johnson was defeated in Cleveland. Buffalo elected Democratic Mayor.

Junior's Hay Ride.

The members of the Junior Class of the Emporium High School enjoyed a hay ride to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Johnson, on Bryan Hill, last Saturday evening. This was a Hallow'een party and was a surprise to Miss Edna Johnson, who is a member of the class. The rooms were tastefully decorated, the only light being that of jack o'lanterns. A sumptuous repast was served. There was about twenty young people present and they did not arrive home until the "wee sma' hours."

Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Etc.

Having taken a thorough course in hair dressing, treating all diseases of the scalp, manicuring, pedicuring, etc., I am now ready to serve the public either at their residence or at the home of Herbert Day, on Woodland Avenue. Phone orders will receive immediate and prompt attention. I carry a full line of hair goods and toilet articles. Your patronage is solicited. Phone 7-38-4t. MISS RACHEL DAY.

Second Anniversary.

The popular department store of Mr. R. Kuehne will celebrate their second anniversary, Nov. 5th and 6th, announcing in this issue of the PRESS in a half page ad. the great event. Upon this occasion this great store will give their customers handsome souvenirs, at the same time making a great display of dependable goods. In each department all goods will be marked in plain figures and the wonderful care displayed by Mr. Kuehne in purchasing his goods, making frequent visits to the centre of trade and personally making his purchases for this trade.

While Mr. Kuehne has only been a resident of Emporium for two years, he has made hosts of friends throughout the county by his square manner of dealing and elegant line of goods he offers his trade. Until his advent in Emporium the numerous requests of the ladies could not be met, but now the finest in the land can be secured right at home and at prices far below the great city houses.

Again, Mr. Kuehne has been the means of putting new life into trade here and being a liberal and judicious advertiser has taken the public into his confidence and dealt honestly and fairly. If other merchants would better themselves and take pattern from this enterprising firm they would soon realize what business means. The day has passed, never to return, when the merchant can draw trade unless they use a liberal amount of printers ink.

We hope every reader of the PRESS will call upon Mr. Kuehne upon this occasion of his anniversary and extend the right hand of fellowship.

Sewing Club Entertained.

Miss Lora McQuay entertained the Sewing Club at her home on Vine street, last Friday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Rachel Brookbank of Driftwood. Those present were the Misses Nina Bryan, Floss Taggart, Jessie Anderson, Maude Thomas, Encie Howard, Alice Montgomery and her guest, Miss Locker.

Final Institute Notes.

APPROPRIATE RESOLUTIONS UPON THE DEATH OF MISS LOIS MILLER.

WEDNESDAY, P. M.

The 43d annual session of Cameron County Teachers' Institute was opened with music, under the direction of Prof. Dobson, followed by roll call. The first period of the afternoon was occupied by Prof. Albert Clay, of the University of Pennsylvania, who spoke on the subject, "Recent Researches in the Bible Land." Prof. Clay gave a very interesting description of some of the countries in Bible times, including Assyria, Palestine and Egypt. A piano duet was rendered very effectively by the Misses Flavia Lathrop and Rena Jordan. Hon. R. B. Teitrick continued his talk on the subject, "Laws of Teaching." Prof. Dobson delighted the Institute by rendering a beautiful solo. Prof. Burnham occupied the next period in speaking on the "Battle of Gettysburg." He said, "In teaching battles in history, we should teach each battle in sufficient detail to understand the battle thoroughly." His talk was most interesting. Adjourned.

THURSDAY, A. M.

Institute was called to order at 9:00 o'clock, by Miss Collins. Devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. J. M. Robertson, Rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church. A music drill was conducted by Prof. Dobson, followed by roll call. The first period was used by Mr. Teitrick, who spoke on the subject, "Effective Teaching." The teachers present gathered some useful information from the address. Prof. Price was the next speaker and took for his subject, "The Trio." By the trio he means the child, the parent and the teacher. The one great trouble with the pupil, teacher and parent is the fact that they do not understand each other. Prof. C. E. Piasterer, chairman of the committee on "Course of Reading," reported for the committee and recommended to the teachers, Barrett's Practical Pedagogy and two Manuals on the subject of "Insects and Flies." Intermission. After being called to order, Prof. Dodson lead in several musical selections. The last period of the morning was occupied by Prof. Burnham, who spoke on the subject, "The Tools of the History Teacher,"—the Map.

THURSDAY, P. M.

Called to order by Miss Collins, followed by music and roll call. During the first period, Prof. Price spoke on the subject, "Paul Lawrence Dunbar." His talk was very interesting. Hon. R. B. Teitrick followed Prof. Price and gave a very interesting and instructive address to the Directors of the county. This talk was followed by a recitation by Miss Mildred Lloyd, who rendered the same in a very creditable manner. Prof. Dobson favored the Institute with a vocal solo. Intermission, followed by music by the Institute.—Prof. Lynch, of St. Marys, was then introduced and made a short but very interesting address. Mr. Hughes was next introduced to the Institute and gave a very instructive address. Supt. Sweeney, of Elk county, was introduced. He expressed his pleasure in being present and extended his congratulations to Miss Collins. Dr. Becht, of Clarion State Normal School, was then introduced and made a short address. Prof. Burnham occupied the last period of the afternoon in discussing the subject, "A Visit to Greece." For a period of forty-five minutes, Mr. Burnham held the audience in rapture with the figurative and eloquent language which he used in describing the beauties of nature, as well as many other accompanying circumstances of the voyage. Adjournment.

FRIDAY, A. M.

Institute called to order by Miss Collins, followed by devotional services. Prof. Dobson led the musical drill, which was followed by roll call. Hon. Mr. Teitrick was the first speaker and took as his subject, "The Right View of Teaching." Some good sound advice was given to the teachers. Dr. Becht was the next speaker and spoke on "Education." After an intermission, Prof. Price addressed the Institute on the subject, "Essentials." Prof. Burnham occupied the next period and took as his subject, "The Tools of the History Teacher—the Black Board."—After music, the report of the several committees were made. Committee on resolutions reported, Prof. R. H. Edgar, the chairman of the committee being absent, Mr. Joseph Harrington read the resolutions, which were accepted by the Institute without change. The committee on Educational Reunions reported, through Prof. D. B. Peterson. Some general business was

RESOLUTIONS.

Committee on Resolutions beg leave to submit the following report for your approval: We, the Teachers of Cameron county, Penna., in Forty-Third Annual Institute assembled, feeling it highly incumbent upon ourselves to express, in some manner, our appreciation of the benefits here derived have

Resolved, That we express our thanks to our faithful and efficient County Superintendant, by whose self-sacrificing efforts such excellent instructors and entertainers have been provided.

Resolved, That to all instructors, namely, Hon. R. B. Teitrick, Prof. Price, Burnham and Dobson, and Dr. Clay, we express our high appreciation for the valuable instruction received.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Institute be extended to Misses Brookbank, Jordan, Lathrop and Welsh for the instrumental selections rendered.

Resolved, That we thank the ministers of the town who have conducted the devotional exercises and those of our citizens who have shown their interest in our work by attending the sessions of our Institute.

Resolved, That we give thanks to the Baptist Church for the chairs loaned us for our evening entertainments.

Resolved, That we read the books adopted by the committee on Course of Reading, especially the one dealing with Practical Pedagogy.

Resolved, That we attend, as often as possible the Educational Reunions of Cameron county.

Resolved, That we, as teachers, return to our schools with new aspirations and ambition to improve the schools of Cameron county and to raise them as far as possible to an ideal state of efficiency.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes of the Institute and a copy thereof be sent to the family of the deceased.
