VOL. 43

EMPORIUM, PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1909.

NO. 41.

For Congress.

Hon. Charles F. Barclay, our present very efficient Congressman, representing the counties of Clearfield, Centre, Cameron and McKean, comprising the Twenty-first District announces his candidacy for re-nomination, in this issue of the Press. Mr. Barclay has faithfully served his constituency, with zeal and fidelity, in fact is considered one of the hardest workers in Congress. While other counties composing this District may have candidates we believe all will concede to Capt. Barclay another term. The only other candidate to announce his name is Charles E. Patton, of Curwensville, Clearfield, county.

Much important legislation will be up to next Congress and experience and wise heads are especially necessary, at this time more essential than for years. The voters of this district will give Congressman Barclay a larger vote this year than he previously received.

A Message from a Famous Beauty Specialist to Women Lacking in Energy and Vitality.

Thousands of women vainly attempt to improve their complexions and to remove blackheads, crows' feet and other blemishes, through the use of cosmetics. This treatment fails because the trouble lies far deeper than the skin. They are suffering from impure and impoverished blood. This condition is in many cases due to a catarrhal condition of the whole system, which finds its expression in sallow, muddy complexion, dark-circled eyes, general weakness of the system, and perhaps most plainly in the weeping of mucous membranes that is commonly called catarrh.

In fact this whole tendency is, properly speaking, Catarrh. Bannish this catarrh, and the complexion will clear as if by magic, eyes will brighten, faces become rosy and shoulders erect. Perfect beauty goes only with perfect health, and perfect health for women can only be obtained through one certain treatment—that which will cure catarrh.

Mme. Swift, New York, the famous beauty specialist known throughout the world and an accepted authority on all relating thereto, states that the one positive and permanent relief for catarrh is Rexall Mucu-Tone. Here is her letter:

"I can strongly endorse the claims made for Rexall Mucu-Tone as a cure for systematic catarrh. Its tonic effects are remarkable. It builds up the strength and restores vitality. If women who are tired and run down, lacking in energy and vitality, will use Rexall Mucu-Tone, they will praise as I do its strengthening and healing qualities."

Rexall Mucu-Tone works through the blood, acting thus upon the mucous cells—the congestion and inflammation of which causes local catarrh. This remedy causes poison to be expelled from the system, and the blood is purified and revitalized. Thus the natural functions of the mucous cells are restored, and the membranes are cleansed and made strong. We know that Rexall Mucu-Tone does relieve catarrh. We positively guarantee to refund the money paid us for this remedy in every case where the user is dissatisfied. It is a builder of vigorous health and a creator of good complexions. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. Mail orders filled. It may be obtained only at our store—The Rexall Store. The Emporium Drug Co.

Mrs. Howard's Will.

From Saturday's Williamsport Sun. The will of the late Mrs. William Howard, disposing of an estate the estimated value of which is from $75,000 to $125,000, has been entered for probate at the office of Register and Recorder Myers. Bequests of nearly $40,000 are made to churches and charitable institutions, and a large part of the estate is left to the executor, Thos. H. Hammond, Esq., who is authorized to distribute it to such "religious, charitable, educational and other uses and purposes as he in his judgment determines." A number of bequests are made to individuals, including several relatives, who will receive from $100 to $1,000. The grand children of the late William Howard, Mrs. Marcia Rothfuss and Godfrey Howard, do not share in the residuary estate, but the principal of the dower fund of $33,000 now reverts to them.

Churches and Charities.

The churches and charitable institutions which benefit by Mrs. Howard's will are as follows: All Saints Memorial church, $3,000; Trinity Episcopal church, $5,000; Home for the Friendless, $5,000; Williamsport hospital, $10,000; Boys' Industrial Home, $2,000; Girl Training School, $1,000; Home for Aged Colored Women, $1,000; Domestic and Foreign Missions, $5,000; General Clergy Relief Fund, $3,000; M. E. Church, Emporium, $1,000; Sisters of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary for use of House of Annunciation, New York city, $1,000; House of St. Michael and All Angels, Philadelphia, $500; Home of the Merciful Savior, Philadelphia, $500. In addition to the bequests above mentioned it is provided that a Sunday School and parish house shall be erected for Trinity Episcopal church. Of the $10,000 given the Williamsport hospital, $5,000 is for the purpose of endowing a bed for dependent patients to be known as "The Amanda E. Howard Free Bed." The other $5,000 is to be out right for such purposes as the executor may see fit. It is understood the money will go towards the erection of and outfitting of a laboratory for bacteriological research.

Bequests to Individuals.

The following bequests were made to relatives and friends: One thousand dollars is to be invested for the benefit of Mrs. Howard's sister, Sarah Ross, and on her death the principal is to go to another sister, Olive G. Kintner; a brother, William L. Ross, is given $100. Item six of the will provides that twenty-four bonds of the Lycoming Improvement Company, of a par value of $500 each, be deposited with the Susquehanna Trust and Safe Deposit Co., for the use of Mrs. Ada E. Throop. The income is to be paid to Mrs. Throop as the coupons mature until such time as she arrives at the age of thirty-five years, when the bonds are to be delivered to her. In the event of Mrs. Throop's death before she reaches the age of thirty-five, the bonds will vest in her children, if any, and in the event of there being no children the bonds are to become part of the residuary estate. A bequest of $1,000 is made to Debbie S. Hockley and of $500 to Chas. A. Hockley. Mrs. Butts, wife of the Rev. W. H. Butts, is given $500.

Coachman Remembered.

William Warner, a coachman, who has been in the employ of Mrs. Howard for a number of years, receives a substantial remembrance. The will provides that he shall receive all horses, harness, buggies, &c., and all the contents of the barn, together with the sum of $1,000.

In one of the codicils of the will two nieces, Fannie Fuller and Lottie Rapp, are each given $1,000; another niece, Delle Northrup, receives $500, and a nephew, Jay Batchelder, is given $1,000.

Executor Has Full Authority.

After making the specific bequests, previously mentioned in the original will, which bears date Feb. 28, 1906, the following disposition of the balance of the estate is made:

There are certain intents and purposes which I desire to be accomplished by which intents and purposes I have made known to my executor. I therefore give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, of any kind and character and whosoever situated to my executor, Thos. H. Hammond, to be disposed of by him, without any accounting to any court or courts, person or persons, after the payment of all costs and charges incident to the administration of my estate and distributed by me to such religious, charitable, educational and other uses and purposes as he in his judgment determines."

Precaution Against Contest.

In a codicil dated Jan. 13th, 1908, there is provided the following:

"I do further declare my will to be that if any person or persons shall institute or be connected directly or indirectly with any attempt to break or test the validity of my said will on any grounds whatever, then in that event, such person or persons shall not receive or be entitled to receive any part of my estate and I hereby give to my executor power to declare a bequest to any such person or persons null and void as though such bequest had never been made by me."

Bequest to Mr. Hammond.

In the codicil dated March 11th, 1908, the following item:

In recognition of the services rendered to me by Thos. H. Hammond, I give and bequeath unto the said Thos. H. Hammond twenty-two shares of the stock of the St. Marys Gas company of St. Marys, Pa., being certificates No. 245 for twenty-two shares issued by the said company to me; also thirty-six shares of stock (capital) of the West Branch National Bank, of Williamsport and being certificate No. 331."

Mrs. Howard Changed Her Mind.

One of the peculiar features of the will is in connection with the codicils bearing upon bequests made to Mrs. Throop. In the codicil dated Jan. 13, 1908, Mrs. Howard directed that in addition to the bequest made in the body of the will, Mrs. Throop was to be given $8,000. In the second codicil, dated March 11, 1908, the previous one is revoked so far as it related to Mrs. Ada Throop and in lieu of the $8,000 it was provided she should be given the property on West Fourth street occupied by the mansion house and two double brick dwellings, together with the furniture. The third codicil, dated Aug. 30, 1909, revokes the bequest made to Mrs. Throop by the previous codicil and provided that she shall receive no portion of the estate except that provided in the will dated Feb. 28, 1906. It is in the third codicil that the bequest of $1,000 is made to the Aged Colored Women's Home and to the nieces and nephew of Mrs. Howard.

Will There Be a Contest?

The fact that Mrs. Howard deemed it necessary to provide that any attempt to contest the will should bar the person thus contesting from sharing in the estate has led to the belief being expressed that some of the relatives are likely to be dissatisfied with the will and that a contest is probable. A copy of the will was being made at the register's office this morning, presumably for the information of parties interested in its contents, but whether this foreshadowed any legal contest is not known.

"Isle of Spice."

Alice Clark, prima donna, of the "Isle of Spice," comes to the role of Teresa amply equipped for the demands that the part will make upon her, by an experience of some seasons not only in musical comedy but the heavy style of drama. She was for two seasons in support of that noted legitimate actor, Louis James and Madame Madjeska. She was also prima donna of "Isle of Bong Bong" and has spent a couple of seasons in vaudeville. Miss Clark will be seen in support of Charles A. Pusey at the Emporium Opera House on Monday evening, Nov. 29th, when that comedian revives the celebrated B. C. Whitney musical comedy.

Rally Day.

Sunday, Nov. 21st, was Rally Day in Howard Siding Sunday School. Had quite a large attendance. Rev. Bogue, Hon. Josiah Howard, Miss Spence, Misses Lloyd, Mr. T. B. Lloyd and Mr. F. P. Strayer were with us and all enjoyed the services very much. Glad there is such a deep interest taken in the Sunday School work. Much credit is due the good people of Emporium for the fine service held here. Trust it may help us to do more and better work. We must not forget to mention the collection which far exceeded our expectations. Come again friends.

"Isle of Spice."

The story of B. C. Whitney's musical mixture, the "Isle of Spice" which will appear at Emporium Opera House on Monday evening, Nov. 29th, is interesting and abounds in comedy situations of the most mirth-provoking brand, witty dialogue and brilliant lyrics. The piece is full of tuneful music, beautiful costumes, sensational electrical effects, and has an environment of lavish and exquisite scenery.

Hunting Notes.

Frank Caskey and son, of this place, who spent a short time hunting on Parker Run, last week, were successful in shooting a big buck. They brought the trophy to town last Sunday and found that it weighed 350 pounds.

Messrs. John Bodner, Michael Casey, George Mundy and Peter Flynnick, of Pittsburg, composed a party who camped on Cauley Run, the past few days. Mr. Flynnick succeeded in shooting a very large bear.

Frank L. Miller, Jack Miller, Clark Miller, Will and Arthur Miller and John Walkey, of First Fork, accompanied by W. J. Buck and son, of Ridgway, and Prothonotary Leavitt, of Emporium, have been spending their hunting season at the Arkhill hunting camp, on First Fork of Sinnamoning. They have been having a fine time and report game quite plentiful in that section. They captured a lot of pheasants, rabbits, two bear and two deer, making one of the best hunting records of the season.

Oyster Supper.

An oyster supper and donation for the benefit of Rev. Wm. Osgood, will be held on December 4th, at the old Thayer house, next to the home of E. J. Rodgers on West Creek. Supper will be served from 6:00 to 12:00 o'clock, p. m. All are cordially invited to attend.

Moving!

After twenty-three years occupancy of the present building, owned by G. F. Balcom, we are now busy moving into our own building, corner of Fourth and Wood streets, where we will have every convenience. Our readers will remember the Climax office building, which was fitted up with great care, having toilets, bath, fire places and a steam heating plant. When once arranged and settled we shall have one of the most convenient printing establishments in the state.

We know our readers will overlook any short comings in this issue, which we issue under great inconvenience. Our readers will remember Gen. Sherman's definition of war—moving is the same.

When once located in our new home, we shall be pleased to greet any of our friends.

U. F. S. Entertained.

The Union Friendly Society was entertained last Thursday evening by Mr. Max F. Balcom, at his home on Sixth street. It was the regular monthly business meeting and twenty-two answered roll call. After the regular routine business was finished, all present proceeded to have a good time. Miss Margaret Dodson favored the meeting with a piano solo, which was followed by a vocal solo by Mr. Edgar. A spelling match was the next on the programme, which was enjoyed by all present and proved that the members of the U. F. S. were good spellers. Delicious refreshments were served and Mrs. Balcom was very ably assisted in serving by Mrs. George P. Jones and Miss Jettie Wiley. After a few more pleasantries the guests departed for their homes. The next meeting will be held December 16th at the home of Miss Margaret Dodson.

The Delineator for December.

The Christmas number of The Delineator represents all that is best in the making of a magazine. It is sumptuously illustrated, and the pages that offer the cream of current literature, special articles by leading thinkers and fascinating descriptions of the fashions are decorated most artistically.

"My Principles of Giving" is a subject of special moment at Christmas-time, and wide interest will be felt in what John D. Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie, J. Ogden Armour, Thomas H. Swope, John H. Converse, Nathan Straus and Evangeline Booth say concerning their methods of helping humanity. "A Home with Forty Daughters," by Mabel Potter Daggett, and "Attending to His Drop," by Eugene Wood, are two timely articles that reflect the good-will-to-man ideal. "The Gentle Resident of the Vatican," a near-by study of the Pope, by Kellogg Durand, is peculiarly fitting for the holiday number of a magazine; for it presents Christmas glimpses of Rome and the Vatican. Richard Le Gallienne's beautiful serial, "October Vagabonds," is continued.

The Kipling story for the month is called "Gloriana." It is superbly illustrated. Like the other tales of this remarkable series, it is compelling in interest and haunting in its strange power. J. J. Bell, the Scottish humorist, contributes a delightful story, "Deeds of Kindness." "The Making of a Hero" is a pleasant tale, well told by Lella Lyon Topping. Grace MacGowan Cook's serial, "The Power and the Glory," is continued.

The fashions for the month are reviewed by clever writer, in Paris, Berlin, London and New York. They are illustrated in full-page color plates that reveal the latest ideas for costumes of every sort.

P. O. S. of A., Attention!

A special meeting of the P. O. S. of A., will be held on Monday evening, November 29th. Business of importance is to be transacted.

"A Feast for the Eye."

Just describes the lecture to be given in the Baptist Church on Monday evening, Dec. 6th, Dr. Paske, of Chicago, who is traveling under direction of the Home Herald, (formerly Ram's Horn) will deliver an illustrated lecture on the story of Ben Hur. Thru the means of many colored slides, he will try to make Lew Wallace's masterpiece live before the audience.

At the close of the lecture, seventy-five colored views illustrating the history of the Prodigal Son will be thrown upon the screen.

Dr. Paske is one of the leading pastors of Chicago, and is a strong man on the lecture platform.

Views in the Philippines.

A stereopticon entertainment will be given in the High School room on Friday afternoon and evening, December 3d. A large number of views illustrating the life and industries of the people of the Philippines will be shown. The views are loaned by the Philadelphia Museum and the proceeds will be devoted to a fund for the purchase of a stereopticon for the schools of the county.

The afternoon entertainment will be for the benefit of the pupils of the schools and the price of admission will be 5 cents. Evening at 8 o'clock, admission 10 cents.

"Isle of Spice."

Allen Love, the author of the successful musical extravaganza, the "Isle of Spice," which will be presented at the Emporium Opera House on Monday evening, Nov. 29th, has written a new musical entitled "The Maid and the Mimic," of which A. Baldwin Sloane composed the music. The new piece will be presented at the Broadway Theatre, New York City, during the holidays. This new work should certainly be a success if Mr. Love's very excellent work in the "Isle of Spice" is any criterion. The "Isle of Spice" is now in its sixth season, and still playing to crowded houses everywhere. In fact, it has the longest record of any musical comedy now on tour.

Evening Party.

Miss Emma Ellis was hostess at a very enjoyable party, given at her home, on West Fourth street, last Monday evening. Many new and novel features of entertainment were introduced. Refreshments were served. Miss Ellis was assisted by Mrs. R. A. Eick and Mrs. Jason Loucks. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Parson, of Montgomery, Pa.; Misses Christy McDonald, Bessie McQuay, Marion Rentz, Vera Olmsted, Myrtle Lloyd, Edith Heilman, and Messrs. W. Briner, R. H. Edgar, F. J. Keim, Herbert Vogt, Robert Hoke and W. S. Sterner.

Six O'Clock Dinner.

Mrs. A. C. Blum entertained several lady friends at her home on West Fourth street, last Friday evening, at an elaborate six o'clock dinner. Covers were laid for fifteen. The tables were beautifully decorated. The following guests were present: Messdames Charles Zarps, F. P. Strayer, Josiah Howard, W. H. Howard, G. S. Allen, R. B. Warner, J. D. Logan, J. P. McNarney, H. S. Lloyd, Charles Seger, H. H. Mullin, Mary B. Judd, Lizzie Hinkle, Ida Thomas and Mrs. S. S. Stoddard.

Basket Ball.

The High School basket ball team, of this place, played their first game of the season at Renovo last Friday evening and were defeated by a score of 33 to 22.

The DuBois team will play at Emporium this (Thursday) evening. DuBois has a good team and a good game can be expected. Our team has been handicapped badly in the two games that have been played, but now there is a brighter outlook and these obstacles have been overcome. Let everyone turn out to witness an exciting game.

"The Isle of Spice."

Uninterrupted success and quite indestructible popularity have, evidently, combined to make "The Isle of Spice," this season, more tuneful, more splendid, more generally attractive than ever. At Emporium Opera House in the near future.

FOR SALE.—Thirty horse power Maxwell, A No. 1 condition, fully equipped, at a bargain if taken at once; also forty-five horse power Rambler at a bargain. J. Russell Curry, Ridgway, Pa. 3t.

"Ma's New Husband" at the opera house Tuesday gave a pleasing entertainment. It is a shame they did not receive better patronage.
