Christmas Quatrains

By GEORGE CREEL

A GAIN the star shines in the eastern sky; Again we hear the shepherd's startled cry As waking from his midnight sleep he sees The camels of the wise men sweeping by.

The years have worked their measure of decay. Where are the inn and stable? Who can say "This is the spot" or "There the very place Where Lord Christ came into the light of day?"

No more chants Caiphas his vengeful song, And scattered to the winds are all the throng That clamored for Barabbas, only held In memory by reason of their wrong.

The weak souled Pilate long has passed away; Great Caesar, too, is now at one with clay, Their mighty Rome forgotten save as theme To keep the grumbling schoolboy from his play.

But still the scent of frankincense and myrrh Steals down the centuries, and as it were But yesterday, so sweet and new it seems, Did Virgin Mary bear the Harbinger.

Let fools with much pretense of wisdom scout The truth and wag their heads in owl-ish doubt Of Great Jehovah's all embracing scheme Because there is a door they stand without.

THE CAMELS OF THE WISE MEN SWEEPING BY.

Content are we, the children of his hand, To wait, nor insolently demand, Assured that in God's own good time he will Unlock the door and let us understand. Of all thy gracious gifts, O God Most High, The dearest of them all is this clear eye Of faith with which we shrine the miracle Of faroff Bethlehem and time defy.

O Virgin, wert thine eyes less unafraid Or didst thou shrink, sore startled and dismayed, When first thou felt that life within and learned On thee God's precious burden had been laid? What must have been thy happy, sweet amaze

After the Christmas Pudding.

Dolly (in wild excitement)—Tommy, here's the doctor to see you!
Tommy (sadly)—Oh, tell him I'm too ill to see him!

To see the aureate halo blaze And from the wide flung gates of paradise To hear the mighty harmonies of praise!

Loud sang the golden throated cherubim And all the wheeling hosts of seraphim, Whose snowy pinions changed to canopy Of virgin white the heaven's sapphire rim.

HUMILITY DIVINE! A MANGER BIRTH.
Hosanna! Glory to the Son of Man!
O happy moments ere his work began
Of lifting from the world its weight of sin
And making straight salvation's tender plan!

No hint of Pontius Pilate's last decree,
The lonely horror of Gethsemane;
No prescience of thorny diadem
Or shadow from the hill of Calvary.

Humility divine! A manger birth—
The humble stable bathed in holy light—
The Babe upon a truss of straw—the mild
Eyed kine awaked to wonder at the sight!

Alas, still lingers issue of that kine,
The thick of wit, who can detect no sign
Of God in Christ's dear birth nor understand
The marvel of the holy bread and wine.

And sons of doubting Thomas still abide
With us on earth and still the truth deride
Because they cannot grasp his nail torn hands
And see the blood gush from his pierced side.

O shame of shames! The wise men saw on high
God's guiding star gleam in the eastern sky
And straightway journeyed forthin across the world,
With ne'er a question of where or why.

Thy place within the heavens ever hold,
O blessed star, and like those men of old,
May we have faith and hope to follow on
And at our journey's end the Christ behold!

—Kansas City Independent.

This Unromantic Age.
"It sho'ly do look," said Miss Miami Brown sadly, "like dar war no mo' romance dese days."
"What's de trouble?" asked Erastus Pinkly.
"I takes notice dat when you asks a gemman to a Christmas dinner he doesn' splay no interest in whether dey's grvine to be mistletoe in de pahlor, but keeps hintin' aroun' to fin' out how 'bout de turkey an' fixin's on de dinner table."

A Word of Holiday Caution.
Little Grace—I don't think my new doll is quite as nice as your new doll.
Little Ethel—Well, I don't think you ought to say much about it, 'cause it might hurt Santa Claus' feelings.—Brooklyn Life.

For the Children's Sake

Try Foods Shot from Guns

Let us put it up to the children—this question of their breakfast food. Serve them a dish of Puffed Wheat or Puffed Rice, then ask what they want to have next. See if your children, like legions of others, are delighted with these queer foods. There are no other foods in existence which are anywhere near like these. So we cannot compare them with others.

To know these crisp, gigantic grains the only way is to try them. They are puffed to eight times natural size. They are four times as porous as bread. They are nut-like and brown. They digest more easily than any other cereals known. But cold type can't describe them. Let one dish, tomorrow morning, tell your folks the story.

Puffed Wheat—10c Puffed Rice—15c

These are the foods invented by Prof. Anderson, and this is his curious process: The whole wheat or rice kernels are put into sealed guns. Then the guns are revolved for sixty minutes in a heat of 550 degrees. That fierce heat turns the moisture in the grain to steam, and the pressure becomes tremendous.

Then the guns are unsealed, and the steam explodes. Instantly every starch granule is blasted into a myriad particles. The kernels of grain are expanded eight times. Yet the coats are unbroken, the shapes are unaltered. We have simply the magnified grain. One package will tell you why people delight in them. Order it now.
