SINNAMAHONING.

The hunters are all in and whilst they did not get many deer, they sighted a good many.
H. B. Lightner brought in a four pronged buck. Geo. Fomitz also captured a fine buck. This makes only two for Sinnamonahoning.
"Jim" Batchelder captured another bear last Friday. He says if the weather holds good he will catch up with some of the mighty trappers, who brought in bears before breakfast on Oct. first.
Jack Miller got into the midst of a bunch of bears, the last week of the deer season and killed two out of five.
Several deer have been shipped from here by other parties, who were here for weeks.
Jim Batchelder is after a big bear that tried to eat up a bee tree for Lewis Wykoff. Lewis says he is about nine feet tall when standing on his hind legs; has a track eight inches broad and his hind feet are fourteen inches long. When Jim finds him there will be something doing.
The Cameron Powder Company plant, in Wykoff Run, is going along as fast as the Company can push the work. They will have the road graded this week, ready for ties and rails.
Fifteen members of Camp No. 136, P. O. S. of A., took in the class initiation and banquet at Emporium, held by Camp No. 382, on Monday evening. They report a good time and congratulate the members of Emporium Camp on their good work. The Renovo Degree team was present and conferred the degrees on a large class of Emporium Camp. The work was done in an able manner and was well worth going to see.
Houses are in good demand at Wy-side, where the Cameron Powder plant will be erected. No doubt several new houses will be erected in the spring to accommodate the employees of the company. The entire plant will be located in Grove township, which will be quite a help to this township.

How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia.

"In treating pneumonia," says Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. While, of course, I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself, as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge." For sale by Geo. C. Taggart.

FIRST FORK.

L. C. Wykoff and wife were the guests of Judge J. A. Wykoff of Sinnamahoning.
Pearl Swank, of First Fork, and her sister Josephine and children from Idaho, were welcome visitors at the homes of Amos Bennett and Haynes Bros.
Quite an accident happened at the home of Fred Peno, on Sunday morning. A boy about eight years of age was handling a revolver, not knowing it was loaded, it suddenly discharged shooting one toe off. It caused great alarm. It is a good thing no one was killed.
Crist Summerson, who is employed at Hammersley, is spending some time at home.
O. L. Bailey, of Sinnamahoning, was a business visitor on First Fork.
B. B. Lorshbaugh was a visitor at Sinnamahoning recently.
We had quite a number of visitors at our Sunday School Sunday. We hope they will come regularly. We invite everybody to our Sunday School. Don't forget every Sunday afternoon at Haynes school house at two o'clock.

BLUE BELL.

Ill Health is More Expensive Than any Cure.

This country is now filled with people who migrate across the continent in all directions seeking that which gold cannot buy. Five tenths of them are suffering from throat and lung trouble or chronic catarrh resulting from neglected colds, and spending fortunes vainly trying to regain lost health. Could every sufferer but undo the past and cure that first neglected cold, all this sorrow, pain, anxiety and expense could have been avoided. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. Use it and the more serious diseases may be avoided. For sale by Geo. C. Taggart.

FIRST FORK

On Tuesday, owing to a freight wreck near Brooks Run, the passenger was five hours late leaving here for DuBois.
On Wednesday Mr. McConnell, of Cameron, got "sorter turned around" out at the head of Russell Hollow, and instead of going down the Whitehead, as he intended, came down Logue Hollow to the First Fork, where he stayed all night at C. E. Logue's and went home in the morning by the pipe line route.
Frank Logue who was working for Guncheon, on the Hammersley, was struck by a falling limb, and had a shoulder and collar bone broken. He is in bad shape.
Dr. Geo. Reese, of Costello, was called to Lushbach on Friday to see Mrs. Essington, wife of the operator at that place. I understand she had an attack of tonsillitis, but is better.
On account of there being no tracking snow the hunters have all left this section.
John Goss left on Wednesday to take a course at Williamsport Commercial College.

NUF SED.

For That Dull Feeling After Eating.

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating—David Freeman, Kempt, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at Geo. C. Taggart's drug store and see what a splendid medicine it is.

Mrs. S. Jones, Claremont, N. H., writes: "About a year ago I bought two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy. It cured me of a severe case of kidney trouble for several years standing. It certainly is a grand, good medicine and I heartily recommend it." For sale by all druggists.

The next time one of the children catch cold, give it something that will promptly and freely but gently move the bowels. In that way the cold will at once be driven out of the system. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup moves the bowels promptly and freely, yet gently, and at the same time heals irritation and stops the cough. It is especially good for children. Sold by all druggists.

After exposure, and when you feel a cold coming on, take Foley's Honey and Tar, the great throat and lung remedy. It stops the croup, relieves the congestion, and expels the cold from your system. Is mildly laxative. Refuse substitutes. Sold by all druggists.

For Eczema, Tetters and Salt Rheum.

The intense itching characteristic of these ailments is almost instantly allayed by Chamberlain's Salve. Many severe cases have been cured by it. For sale by Geo. C. Taggart.

Foley's Honey and Tar is the best and safest cough remedy for children. At the first symptoms of a cold, give as directed, and ward off danger of croup, bronchitis, sore throat, cold in the head, and stuffy breathing. It brings comfort and ease to the little ones. Contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Keep always on hand and refuse substitutes. Sold by all druggists.

Hexamethylenetetramine.

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities and avoid a serious malady. For sale by all druggists.

WHAT SHE BECAME.

Fred—There goes Mrs. Jones. She used to be a decidedly pert girl.
Girl—Isn't she still pert?
Fred—No. Marriage seems to have tamed her, and now she's an ex-pert.

When Santa Came to Cactus Gulch

By ROBERTUS LOVE.

(Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.)

WHEN Santa came to Cactus we wuz not surprised 'bout our almanac comin' 'bein' broken off complete. In fact, with us the trail of time had got so mortal dim. We only knowed 'twas winter by the absence of the heat.
Says I to Pinky Perkins, with a squint at Desert Dan—
Says I: "We'd orter hustle for a little extry feed.
It's 'long about Thanksgivin'." "W'y," says Pinky P.—"W'y, man, I'll bet it's nearer New Year's, for the old one's gone to seed."
We argied it an' argied it till Desert Dan put up His canvas bag o' nuggets an' a pint o' yaller dust. He's spent the year collectin' in his pewter drinkin' cup. "It's Christmas in a week," he says; "I'll bet you, win or bust."

I still maintained 'Thanksgivin' wuz about the proper date. As judgin' by my appetite, an' Pinky still declared That New Year's wuz the blow-out that wuz next upon the slate. But Desert waded his nugget bag an' dared an' dared an' dared.
"See here," says Desert, "I can feel the season in my bones; I sense a sort o' hankerin' for days of old long sign,
When I wuz back in Jersey an' my name wuz Daniel Jones; I'm lonesome as the soldier wuz at Bingen-on-the-Rhine."
Then Desert up an' tells us what he's never said before—
As how he had a cottage an' a woman an' a kid;
But, some misunderstandin' havin' made his sperrit sore,
Nigh on to twenty years ago he simply up and slid.

I looked at Pinky Perkins then, an' Pinky looked at me,
But both of us wuz silent, an' we looked at Desert Dan,
But he wuz sizzlin' bacon for a supper feed for three,
An', shore as I'm a sinner, there wuz teardrops in the pan!
That night we set an' hugged the stove, while all around the shack A desert blizzard whistled an' the snow wuz whirlin' thick.
It shore wuz Christmas weather, but there shorely wuz a lack
Of anything suggestin' o' our ancient friend St. Nick.
The door bust open suddent-like, an', stranger, dog my cat!
If there ain't Santy Claus hisself, in fur an' robe complete,

"IF THERE AIN'T SANTY CLAUS HISSELF," With snow a-clingin' funny to his or-tomobile hat,
As wuz a Santy makeup, air, as anywhere you'll meet.
But when he turned his bearskin down his whiskers fell away (It wuzn't anything but snow collect-ed on the fur),
An' back of him an angel stood—yes, angel's what I say—
An' Desert Dan got wobby when he up an' looked at her.
Young Santy says, "Is Mr. Jones at home tonight?" says he,
At which old Desert gives a gasp, but struggle to his feet.
Then me an' Pinky we vamoosed in honor of the three,
For if they wuzn't Joneses you can douse my glim complete!
That's all the story, stranger, but I'm some inclined to add
When Santy come to Cactus with his mother, which he did,
It clean upset the notions we had always previous had,
For daddy got the Christmas gift, and Santy wuz the kid!

GOOD NEWS.

Many Emporium Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.
"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Emporium are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is had no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands upon thousands of people are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:
Mrs. Mary M. Finkler, 212 Monterey St., Ridgway, Pa., says: "For years, in fact since childhood I was subject to attacks of backache and nothing seemed to help me. As time went by the trouble became more severe and often pains in my back extended to the top of my head. I also suffered from other distressing symptoms of kidney complaint and when I arose in the morning I would feel miserable and languid. At last I tried Doan's Kidney Pill and found them to be the remedy I required. The kidneys were restored to their normal condition and the distressing symptoms of my trouble disappeared. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions since and the results have been highly satisfactory."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
