

A Newspaper "Scoop."

The Pittsburg Gazette Times has scored the newspaper beat of the century by adding to its already superb equipment the entire news and feature service of the Hearst newspapers. This service is known throughout America as the snappiest, brightest, quickest, most artistic, wholesome and human special service available anywhere. It is a service that has brought the Hearst newspapers to the very front rank of American journalism both in character and circulation.

With this new feature, secured at enormous cost, The Gazette Times alone in the Pittsburg field will have the complete service of the Associated Press and the news of the whole world gathered by the famous staff of the Hearst newspapers including the work of the foremost journalists of our time, among whom are Wm. T. Stead, of London, Marquis de Castellane and Max Nordau, of Paris, Count Leo Tolstoy, of Russia; Storm Burnett, of Berlin; Geo. Dufresne and Vance Thompson and others who furnish special articles by cable.

Articles of special interest to women are furnished by such favorite writers as Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Mrs. John A. Logan, Dorothy Dix, Winifred Black and Lina Cavalari.

The sporting field is governed by men who "know the game," including C. F. Van Loan, Bert E. Collyer, W. J. McConaughy, Igoe, W. W. Naughton, J. H. Gruber, Richard R. Guy, and others who have earned country-wide reputations by their fairness and understanding. And on the sporting page will be Bad Fisher's uproariously funny "Mutt."

The unexcelled local news service of The Gazette Times with its great State page in which all of the interests of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia are covered as by no other paper, together with its own special writers whose work always is welcomed, such as The Quiet Observer, (Erasmus Wilson), E. J. Edwards, Geo. Seibel, Chas. Gregg, Walt Mason and Fred. J. Hasken, will continue as of yore.

On Sundays the Gazette Times will have five pages of comics in color—color printed as only the Gazette Times can print it—including the work of Opper, Dirks, Swinnerton, Outcault, "Coo", etc., whose Katzenjammer Kids, Happy Hooligan, Little Jimmie and His Pa, Coon Hollow Folks, Howson Lott, Buster, Batch, Violet and others have made all America laugh. This comic section will be the only one readers will want for it will contain in one sheet all of the real American comics.

Thus the Gazette Times has "cleaned up" the news and special feature field.
