James M. Davison spent a few days with friends at Jersey Shore.

Miss Lillian Shuggart was guest of friends at St. Marys last Monday.

Miss Lena Minard is now answering "Hello" at the local bell telephone office.

Charles E. Crandell spent the last of the week, guest of his mother at Williamsport.

Miss Anna Anderson, of Sinnamahoning, spent Saturday shopping at the county seat.

Miss Ruby Eddie, of Port Allegany, was guest of Miss Mayme Cummings, the last of the week.

Miss Rotha Kreider, of Driftwood, was guest of friends and relatives at this place, last Saturday.

Miss Ethel Fisher is spending the week, guest of Miss Margaret Dodson at her home on Fourth street.

Mrs. R. C. Dodson, of this place, is guest of her sister, Mrs. James Kelley and other relatives at Coudersport.

Messrs. Edward Stockman and J. L. Youngs, of St. Marys, called on friends at this place last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. E. S. Coppersmith is spending the week at Pittsburg, Cleveland and Buffalo, where she will purchase the spring stock.

Mrs. F. J. Keim, Sr., and Miss Flora Schant, of St. Marys, were guests of the former's son, F. J. Keim, Jr., last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Heilman returned home last Saturday, after spending the week at Philadelphia, where Mr. H., attended a convention of hardware merchants.

Esq. M. M. Larrabee, one of our oldest and most substantial citizens, was a PRESS business caller yesterday and greatly admired our plant.

Mrs. George Leiter, of Williamsport, was guest at the home of her brother, J. P. McFarney and family for a few days last week.

Rev. Paul J. Lux, of Haverhill, Mass., a former Pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this place, is spending a few days here, renewing acquaintances.

Misses Laura and May Swartz, two very bright young ladies, made the PRESS office a business call on Saturday, renewing the subscription of Mr. Lee Swartz.

Mrs. Andrew Warner, of East Emporium, transacted business at the PRESS office last Friday afternoon and renewed her subscription for another year.

The PRESS office was favored with a call on Saturday from Mr. C. F. Moate of Bennetts Branch, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Mr. E. E. Mattley, of this place. Of course they looked through our plant.

Misses Alma Hertig, Mayme Cummings and Mildred Green departed for Cleveland, Ohio, the first of the week, to prepare for the spring millinery work. The Misses Hertig and Cummings will return to Emporium to assist the Misses Ludiam during spring season.

William McDonald, of Beechwood, called at the PRESS office on Tuesday morning, renewing the subscriptions of Messrs. Daniel McDonald, of McCreas, N. S., and Finley McDonald, of Houton, Maine.

James Ulmer, who has been stenographer for the Sinnamahoning Powder Company for the past two years, departed for his home at Salladasburg, Pa., last Saturday. Mr. Ulmer will be absent for a couple months in order to regain his health. James' many friends here hope that his recovery will be a speedy one.

Miss Celia Foley, of Ridgway, is visiting her mother (who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. John Hogan), who has been quite ill for several days. The lady is much better at this writing.

Frank Housler returned on Saturday from visiting relatives at Dushore and Sayer, Pa.

Attorney J. H. Hammond of Williamsport, executor of the estate of Amanda E. Howard, deceased, transacted business in town yesterday.

J. H. Day, the progressive Fourth street grocer, is having a hard tussle with la grippe but latest reports are favorable for early recovery.

W. S. Walker, of Austin, paid his usual weekly visit to Emporium yesterday attending the meeting of First National Bank, of which he is a director. This solid institution only lacked a small amount of reaching one million dollars of assets on Tuesday.

Amos Kresge, of DuBois, transacted business at Emporium on Wednesday, and made the PRESS office a call, renewing his subscription. Mr. Kresge is engaged in lumbering on his tract near Emporium.

John Hogan, one of our careful young business men and property owners, was a PRESS visitor yesterday, to see how we are located and procure some extra copies of the paper.

Miss Belle Husted departed to-day (Thursday) for Knoxville, Pa., where she will spend some in order to regain her lost health. The many friends of Miss Husted will be pleased to learn that she is improving and hope that her recovery will be rapid.

Joseph McCool, who has been employed in the railroad yards at this place, for some time, departed for Colorado to-day. Mr. McCool has been in poor health for some time and it is hoped that the change of climate will be beneficial to him.

Mrs. Willard Coveney, nee Miss Name McCabe, of Oil City, Pa., is guest of her mother, Mrs. Ellen McCabe, at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kaye departed for their home at Deming, Wash., last Monday, after spending several weeks guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaye and family, on Sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Harris left last Monday for Syracuse, N. Y., to visit Mrs. H's parents—Mr. H., going to New York city to purchase his spring goods. Warner Judd is assisting in his store during his absence.

Miss Pearl Bentley, of Lock Haven, arrived in Emporium last Sunday afternoon and will visit relatives for some time.

Miss Mary Davison, of Ridgway, visited in town on Saturday between trains.

Lee Lewis, judge of election in Shippen township, was a PRESS caller yesterday. Lee makes a good judge and will have things according to law and can't be bull-dozed either.

Jos. J. Lingle, of Westboro, Wis., a former resident of Emporium and a gentleman highly esteemed by all acquainted with him, is visiting in Emporium for a short time. The PRESS sanctum was honored by a social call, accompanied by Hon. Josiah Howard. Mrs. Lingle accompanied him east, but stopped at Erie to visit relatives for a few days before coming here.

Destructive Fire.
The Emporium Lumber Company's loss by the destruction of their dry kilns and planing mill, at Galeton, foots up $40,000, upon which there is two-thirds insurance.

Very Serious Condition.
Mr. Andrew Brady informs the PRESS that his daughter, Miss Marion, who was very seriously injured by falling on the ice, at Bethlehem, a short time ago, injuring her spine, will be removed from the seminary to a sanitarium at once.

Oyster Supper.
There will be an oyster supper in the basement of the Presbyterian church Friday evening, Feb. 18th, from five o'clock until all are served. Oysters in every style. Supper 25c. Fisk Juvenile Band will furnish music for the occasion.

Fine writing material at cost. Make your selection early and secure the first choice. DODSON'S DRUG STORE.

Harmony of Dress.

A beautiful woman also studies the harmony of painting a well kept home, takes care to have the house painted with paint that will continue to look bright, clean and fresh looking. The L. & M., never becomes dingy, because only chemically pure colors are used, only the finest White Lead, only the purest of Linseed Oil, only expert paint-makers produce it with machinery, a thousand gallons at a time. Contrast this with the costly and crude production of White Lead Paint made by hard labor with stick in a pot—a few gallons at a time. L. & M., is sold by Harry S. Lloyd, Emporium, Pa.

Finger Amputated.

"Al" Wright, employed in C. B. Howard Company's mill was taken to Williamsport hospital two weeks ago suffering from the result of getting a piece of steel in his index finger of left hand. Blood poison set in and it was feared he would lose his hand, but after amputating the member it is thought he will get along. Mr. Wright was to come home last evening.

Valuable Purchase.

Mr. F. P. Rentz, of the Emporium Machine Company, while visiting the PRESS on Monday, informed us that their firm had purchased the coal yard property, adjoining the P. & E. R. R., and opposite the freight depot, on Spruce street. The consideration was $1500. Cheap enough, surely. This enterprising firm will now have room to grow, they owning from the railroad to Third Street.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

TROTTER.

THOMAS TROTTER, who was taken to the Warren Hospital about two weeks ago, hoping the treatment might be beneficial, but he continued to fail and death relieved the great sufferer, last Friday night. Undertaker Mr. B. Egan went to Warren and returned with the remains, Saturday, taking them to his undertaking rooms and prepared them for burial. The casket was removed to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pepperman, West Fourth Street, where the deceased and his invalid and helpless wife made their home and were kindly cared for by Mrs. Pepperman.

Deceased came to America from England, where he was born, May 18, 1830, at Ricktree, Durham county. From his youth he was engaged in the dry goods business and thoroughly understood it. In 1851 he was married to Miss Hannah Johnston. About twenty years ago her health failed and they came to America, hoping the change would be beneficial but she continued to grow worse. Sixteen years ago to Emporium, Mr. Trotter taking charge of the D. E. Olmsted's dry goods store, where he could be constantly with and care for his helpless wife. His faithfulness and tender care, so well known and favorably commented by all who knew them. He continued until his frail body and mind gave away and he too broke down completely. Kind friends saw they were comfortably cared for, and being highly respected, they never lacked friends.

Mrs. Trotter, who bravely bears her cross in sorrow, is a very devout Christian lady, and bears up wonderfully well, knowing that God's way is the best.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon from Mr. Pepperman's residence and was very largely attended. Rev. J. M. Robertson, Rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, who had been an intimate friend and constant adviser, conducted the services and feelingly and ably delivered the sermon, full of good thought. Both Mr. and Mrs. Trotter united with Emmanuel Church soon after coming to Emporium. A quartette composed of Mrs. T. F. More, Miss Grace A. Walker, and Messrs. Geo. A. Walker and W. S. Steers very beautifully rendered favorite hymns.

The remains were interred in Wiley Cemetery in the family lot, beside their son, John William.
