

Breezy County News

FIRST FORK.

Hulbert Smith, of Sterling Run, was a recent visitor at the home of A. E. Smith.

A pie social for Rev. Lawson was held at Berge Run, last Thursday evening. We understand the Rev. will not return for another year. Sorry to see him leave.

Louisa Logue and Louisa Smith are on the sick list. But are better at this writing.

John and Walker Swank are home from Hammersley for the present.

H. B. Muthersbaugh, of Druitwood, Health Officer, transacted business on First Fork.

Mrs. John A. Wykoff and son Willie were visitors at the Frank Miller and Haynes homes last week.

The people are about all well from the attacks of measles. We were well represented with them on the Fork.

Mrs. Summerson is visiting friends on Kettle Creek for some time.

Josie Smith, who has been working at Sinnamahoning, is home.

Frank and Jesse Miller have procured two cans of little trout from the State Department of Fisheries. They were shipped from the hatchery at Corry, Pa. They expect to stock Lick Island Run with them. In a year or so, we ought to have plenty of the speckled beauties.

Many of our people were represented at the Central Literary Society at Sinnamahoning, Pa., on Friday night. Come again. Visitors always welcome.

The new board of supervisors was organized. Since the Socialists won in the recent election, the new board ought to keep the township out of debt.

Hank Caldwell, wife and son from Sinnamahoning, visited relatives at First Fork on Sunday.

Winter is over. The migrating birds are singing everywhere. Farming will be the next on the program.

The I. O. O. F., of Sinnamahoning gave a banquet on Saturday night. A large number partook of the delicacies of the season.

Don't forget that there will be a pie and cake social at the Haynes School Saturday night, March 19. Everybody cordially invited to be present. Come one, come all and enjoy an evening together.

FINIS.

HICKS RUN.

Margaret Mix had the misfortune to scald her foot badly on Monday of this week.

Wm. Mix and daughter, Mrs. Levi Ciphert, attended the funeral of James Laughery, at DuBois, on Friday.

Mrs. Thos. Ford, who has been very ill since last November, is slowly regaining her health.

Dr. Merrill is kept very busy attending the numerous cases of la grippe.

Mrs. Clarence Howlett, of Sterling Run, visited her parents, Wm. Summerison and wife a few days last week.

Adam Hicks, who has been suffering from paralysis for several weeks, is slightly improved in health.

Amid beautiful decorations, and surrounded by a happy company of relatives and friends, G. A. Smith, of Jamestown, N. Y., and Susie Doty were married at the home of the bride, at Hicks Run, Pa., March 10. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Beale, of DuBois. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who are very popular in this place, left on their honeymoon trip for Washington and other eastern cities.

Rev. Beale, an Evangelical minister of DuBois, is holding a very successful revival meeting at this place. The hall is crowded nightly with those desirous of hearing the excellent sermons. At present, nearly two hundred have signified their willingness to live the better life. Rev. Beale is an able speaker and an untiring worker, and well worthy of the success which has crowned his efforts.

B. E. W.

HOWARD SIDING.

Mrs. H. P. Spence and Eva J. Wadlington of Emporium, attended church at Howard and heard brother Shank's last sermon before Conference; also Mrs. J. Smith, from Beechwood. All sincerely hope he may be returned to this charge.

J. A. Dice, ticket agent at Sterling Run, made a business trip to this place, on Thursday.

Mrs. C. W. Parks and children, of Emporium, visited here over Sunday.

There are several cases of lagrippe in the neighborhood. Gerald Horning is quite sick.

Several of our young people attended the revival services which are being held in Hicks Run, Sunday evening. They not only had two hundred conversions and the best meeting they ever attended.

Cate Toker, who has been on the sick list for some time, is running the pump station here.

XXX

STERLING RUN.

The Mt. Hope Coal Co., expect to be ready to ship coal April 1st.

J. A. Dice left Wednesday to attend the M. E. Conference at York.

Mrs. J. R. Frank is reported quite lame this week with rheumatism.

Mrs. C. G. Howlett visited at Hicks Run the past week.

Earl McDougal and Joe McNarney, of Emporium, called on friends in town Saturday. They came from Emporium in their canoe.

The little daughter of W. H. Strawbridge is very ill with pneumonia at this writing.

J. G. Mason is a visitor in town this week.

Mrs. J. A. Dice was quite ill a few days the past week.

The Sterling Run base ball team have ordered new dark green suits for the coming season.

Flora and Gunda Cromwell returned to Emporium Monday, having been called home on account of the illness of their mother, who is better at this writing.

William Hathaway met with quite a serious accident Saturday. While working in the woods a log struck him, breaking one leg and injuring his ankle.

Alfred Fish went to Emporium Sunday to work in the woods.

Louis Padolf is agent for the Empire Steam Laundry of Lock Haven.

BLUE BELL.

SINNAMAHONING.

Well, the beautiful snow is nearly all gone and the robins and blue birds have come again.

Sinnamahoning is on the move and everybody is hustling.

J. R. Batchelder visited the county seat on Saturday, whilst there visited the Press and Independent shops.

A. J. Barclay was a visitor at Druitwood and Emporium on Monday.

V. M. Crum, forestry officer, called on friends at Emporium on Saturday.

Harry Elliot was a caller at Sterling Run Saturday, looking after the forestry interests.

Geo. P. Jones, general manager of the Cameron Powder Co., was a caller Tuesday, looking after the interests of the Company.

The Cameron Powder Co. have eighty men on the works this week, rushing the work along as fast as the weather will permit.

The Sinnamahoning Powder Co., sent their monthly shipment of eight car loads of dynamite last week.

Clark Miller has accepted the position of delivery man for Council Bros.

Geo. P. Shaffer is improving the Sinnamahoning House this spring, getting ready for summer visitors.

Fulton Bros. are painting and papering the Mountain House this week. It will be an up-to-date hotel when completed.

Geo. P. Shafer has given up the task of busting up the meat trust.

Grove Auditors met Monday to audit the accounts of the several officers.

J. R. Batchelder, as tax collector settled in full for the year 1909, making five years he has collected the Grove taxes and paid them all in when due.

Grove township paid about twelve hundred dollars on the township debt during the year of 1909.

The "spook" that has bothered the "Sisters of Jerico" on Tuesday nights, when coming from lodge, has been located and if he keeps it up will meet with a warm reception some night, if he don't look out. The "spook" is a man of about 200 weight and has quite a thin spot on the top of his head.

Jim. Batchelder captured a fine otter last week.

R. M. Crum killed a large wild cat this week.

Where are the mighty bear hunters of the First Fork.

Frank Vebeck caught a grey fox Tuesday. Dogs ran it down, so it was easily caught alive, but it did not like to be handled much.

Alvan Smith received a trio of blooded chickens Tuesday.

The ice having gone Pap Blodgett ventured out last Saturday. He says as soon as the weather will permit the Ananias Club will be re-organized.

Pap Berfield came home from Idamar this week, in time to get his triennial assessment. He says he feels highly elated at the rating he received. Being over 80 years of age, with an occupation of $175.00, when one of his neighbors, a young man 26 years old, getting $3.25 per day, is rated at $120.00. So goes the world.

O. L. Bailey, foreman of the Cameron Powder Co., is a pretty busy man these days.

Look out for some whoppers as soon as the L. C. gets down to business.

Pap Blodgett reports that he beat Mont. Peasley at a game of "mum muggins" last week. They are going to play for the championship Thursday.

DEBSE

Cheap Dirt.

If you wish to buy either improved or unimproved land in the most fertile and productive diversified farming belt in the whole Northwest, write us for information. Hardwood timber, no stone, good water, good roads, schools, etc., 65 miles from Minneapolis and St. Paul in Benton and adjoining counties, Minnesota. Prices $10 to $40. Agents wanted. Good proposition. BENTON COUNTY REAL ESTATE CO., 4-21. Sault Rapids, Minnesota.

In any case of stomach trouble, due to indigestion or dyspepsia you may feel sure that Kodol will give you relief promptly. This is what Kodol is for. It digests the food that you eat and does it completely. It is sold by all druggists.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a writ of Levari Facias, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas, of Cameron county, and to me directed, I have seized, levied upon and taken into execution and will expose to sale and sell by public vendue or outcry, at the Court House, in Emporium, Cameron county, Pennsylvania, on Friday, 8th Day of April, A. D., 1910,

AT 1:00 O'CLOCK, P. M.,

of the said day all the following described real estate, to wit:

All that certain piece and parcel of land, situated in Sinnamahoning, in the township of Grove, in the County of Cameron and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a post corner on the North line of the right of way of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad Company, said point of beginning being also on the West line of land now or lately owned by James Shaffer and known as the James Shaffer farm; thence North four and twenty four one hundred rods to a post on the South line of the right of way of the Buffalo & Susquehanna Railroad Company; thence North along the right of way of the said Buffalo & Susquehanna Railroad Company, seventy-five and one-fourth (one-fourth degree), East nine and ninety-six one hundred (96-100) rods to a post; thence along the right of way of the said Buffalo & Susquehanna Railroad Company, north seventy and one-half (70 and one-half degrees, East fifteen and eighty-six one hundred (15 and 86-100) rods to a post; thence south nineteen and one-half (19 and one-half degrees, East fifteen rods to the Sinnamahoning creek; thence West along the Sinnamahoning Creek its several courses and distances to the line of the right of way of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad Company; thence West along the said right of way of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad Company to the place of beginning, containing one and one-half (1 and one-half) acres, more or less. Excepting the public road.

Bounded on the North by lands now or lately owned by the Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad Company; on the East by lands now or lately owned by Charles W. Goodyear; on the South by the Sinnamahoning Creek and the right of way of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad Company, and on the West by lands now or lately owned by Isaac Barber.

Being the same premises conveyed by A. D. Gore and Anna M. Gore, his wife, to the Star Box Company, by deed dated May 13, 1908, and recorded in the office for the Recording of Deeds in and for Cameron County in Deed Book—page— and being also the same premises which the said Star Box Company by indenture of mortgage dated July 17th, A. D., 1908, and recorded in Cameron County Mortgage Book, "B" at page 433, granted and conveyed unto the said Arthur D. Gore.

Having thereon erected one frame saw mill, sixty by eighty-six feet in size, one frame box factory eighty-three feet by ninety-seven feet in size, including wings. One tile Morton Dry Kiln twenty-two feet by sixteen feet in size, trestles, tramroads, &c., and the usual outbuildings. The said saw mill and box factory, all necessary belting and machinery for operating the same.

The following machinery being owned by A. D. Gore, is excepted and reserved out of said sale and is not included therein: One iron lathe, with all lathe tools and parts. One seven horse power engine, with all shafting and pulleys attached. One emery grinding machine, together with counter shaft. One link bending machine. Two iron forges and parts. One blast fan with counter shaft. Two blowers for blacksmith forges. One anvil. One Blacksmith vice. One drill press with drills, &c. Screw plates, taps and wrenches, &c. One tire upsetting machine. Lot of small blacksmith tools, tongs, etc. One feet grinding outfit. A lot of forged dies, &c.

Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of the STAR BOX COMPANY, a corporation, at the suit of ARTHUR D. GORE, a debtor.

TERMS CASH. No deed will be executed until the purchase price is paid in full.

J. W. NORRIS,

Sheriff of Cameron County.

GOREN & FELT, Att'ys.
Sheriff's Office,
Emporium, Pa., March 1st, 1910. } 5-1

Spring Opening

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 22, 23, 24

You are cordially invited to visit this store during these formal Opening Days. We will show the newest Spring Fashions in Charming Hats, Suits, Coats, Laces, Gloves and the very latest novelties in all Departments

R. Kuehne,

Emporium's
Greatest Store

Men's, Young Men's and Boys' Spring Clothing NOW READY

Never with more pleasure have we announced the readiness of our Spring Clothes for Men, Young Men and Boys. Conservative styles are always the best and we believe our selection of new clothes is the nearest approach to the highest class of custom tailoring ever shown in this city.

Men's and Young Men's Furnishings for Spring--The Easter and Spring furnishing requirements for Men and Young Men may be met here to the best advantage, as our lines are complete in every respect and prices are more than reasonable.

Spring Suits for Men $8.50 to $25
Prices - - -

Men's Spring Hats 50c to $4.00
Price

Spring Suits for Young Men
Prices - - - $5.50 to $14

Men's and Young Men's Spring Dress Shirts
Price 50c to 1.50

Men's Spring Oxfords $2 to $4
Prices - - -

Men's and Young Men's Spring Neckwear
Prices 25c to 50c

Boy's Spring Shoes and Oxfords
Price $1.25 to $2.50

Men's and Young Men's Spring Caps
Price 25c to 50c

Boys Knee Pants, Sizes 4 to 17 years, Prices, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.

The Home of Hart, Shaffner & Marx Clothes

Jasper Harris

Opposite Post Office
EMPORIUM, PA.