A Grand Opening.
Last Thursday, marked the fourth annual opening for the season of cold drinks and ice cream, at the popular fountain of J. B. Meisel and wife. The store was beautifully decorated for the occasion and everything had a most exquisite appearance. Each patron was presented with a beautiful carnation as a souvenir of the opening. A most up-to-date iceless fountain has been recently installed in this store, which is perfectly sanitary in every respect and the cold drinks and ice cream dispensed from its cool depths, by Mr. and Mrs. Meisel, are bound to please the most fastidious. Miss Edna Clark is assisting the Meisels in the store during the busy season.

To Sue Railroad.
Mrs. David Sloppy of East Smethport is bringing suit for damages against the Pennsylvania railroad company in the Supreme Court at Philadelphia, for the death of her husband who was killed at Emporium while working for the defendant company in the summer of 1907.

Don't Fail.
Do not fail to attend the demonstration at F. V. Heilman's hardware store, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Learn to varnish your own floors.

Will Repair.
Dr. J. M. Card, of Olean, N. Y., was in town on Saturday and arranged for repairs on the Card building, recently damaged by fire.

Examining the Fences.
Ex-Senator Hienle, of Bellefonte, arrived in Emporium last evening and is looking over the Congressional field, as a democratic aspirant.

Bunch of Keys.
E. E. Breene, of the Warner House, lost a bunch of keys, one day last week. Keys are marked with stencil. Liberal reward.

Y. P. S. C. E.
Prof. Earl A. Bachop, principal of the Shippen school, will speak at the Baptist C. E., next Sunday evening, on the topic of "Christ the Teacher."

MISS MOLLIE H. SPENCE, Sec'y.

ACTIONS DISCOUNT WORDS.

Bronson—I told my wife last week that it would be necessary for us to economize this year.
Woodson—What did she say?
Bronson—She didn't say anything at the time, but the next day she bought me a box of bargain-counter cigars.

Ad. Wisdom

If Wisdom's ways you wisely seek,
Five things observe with care:
With whom you advertise,
Of what you advertise,
And how and when and where.

—With apologies to the forgotten poet—
He never advertised!

TRY BRUSHING THEM!

Whether it's an old coat or hat; your skin, hair or teeth—brushing will improve them. Just as dust is brushed from clothing, germs are removed from the teeth. A vigorous rubbing with a flesh brush, massaging well in the pores, tones up the skin and vitalizes the circulation. Massaging the scalp with a stiff bristle brush followed by an application of 93 Hair Tonic will add life and lustre to your hair.
