Burglars Captured Near Renovo.

Now Confined in Emporium Jail.

Last Sunday while P & E. R. R., Detective, Mr. J. O. Colwell, was attending to his duty he noticed two chaps stealing a ride on a freight train, between Renovo and Lock Haven, and promptly arrested them. Upon examining the chaps he found a lot of suspicious articles, razor knives, etc. Knowing that several robberies had been committed in Emporium he wired to this place and ascertaining the facts, when he locked up the chaps in Lock Haven jail, awaiting authority to bring his prisoners to Emporium. They were identified as Francis Getchell, of Emporium, aged 20 years, and Frank Smith, aged about 38 or 40.

Sheriff John W. Norris and Esquire Larrabee Tuesday morning, F. A. Johnson District Attorney appearing for the Commonwealth. The justice adjourned the hearing until Friday morning.

Sufficient evidence has been secured to convict the thieves of entering H. S. Lloyd's book store and Heilman's hardware—H. S. Lloyd identifying some knives and F. V. Heilman a razor.

So many depredations have been committed here during the past few weeks that it is hoped an entering wedge has been found and that more arrests will follow until this dastardly practice may be abolished. When the State Constabulary were located here they held in check the lawlessness. It is certainly necessary that a bunch of the Constabulary be returned to Emporium, which is centrally located. The large floating population in this section makes it absolutely necessary that our officials have experienced assistance. "Let no guilty man escape."

Game Warden. A. E. Smith, of First Fork, an old subscriber and staunch friend of the PRESS, was a caller last Friday evening and passed a pleasant hour with ye editor. Mr. Smith is a special Game Warden and is kept constantly on the go, looking after violators of the game laws. He tells us most of the violations are committed by the ignorant class, who shoot any kind of birds and eat them. Friend Smith is always on the lookout and is liable to show up in any part of the state.

Summer School. Commencing Monday, May 23, 1910, summer school will be opened in Emporium, in the East Ward school building, for a term of six weeks.

MISS ALICE QUIGLEY, Teacher.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

GREEN.

Miss Mildred Elesia Green, ward of Mrs. M. A. Rockwell, died, at Koser's private sanitarium, at Williamsport early last Thursday morning, May 12th. Deceased was born January 20, 1889 and was twenty-one years and five months of age. Miss Green has made her home with Mrs. Rockwell for the past twelve years and it is truly said no child could have received better care than that bestowed upon Mildred by her foster-mother. Miss Green was an accomplished musician and was held in high esteem by her friends. Mildred had been a patient sufferer for the past three years and was cheerful with all her suffering. Acting upon the advice of Dr. W. H. Bush, attending physician, Mrs. Rockwell accompanied Mildred on Saturday, May 7th, to the Sanitarium where she passed away. On Sunday morning a very serious operation was performed. She rallied from the operation and was getting along as well as could be expected and Mrs. Rockwell returned to Emporium, on Monday afternoon, knowing that everything was being done for Mildred's comfort and care that could be done. Mrs. Editha Howard, of Williamsport, was in constant communication with the Sanitarium. Mildred continued to improve until Wednesday morning about nine o'clock when she suddenly took a change for the worse and from that time continued to fail until the end came at three o'clock on Thursday morning. Mrs. Editha Howard, daughter of Mrs. Rockwell, accompanied the remains to her home at Emporium on Thursday afternoon. The funeral of the respected young lady was held from Emmanuel Episcopal Church on Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock, the Rev. J. M. Robertson, Rector of the church officiating. The Choir of the Church rendered the favorite hymns of the deceased, she being a member of the Choir.

During the services at the church the Choir rendered "Lead Kindly Light" and "Asleep in Jesus" in a very impressive manner. A solo, "Thy Will Be Done" was sung by W. S. Sterner. Rev. Robertson's remarks were very appropriate to the occasion. The Union Friendly Society, of which deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body. Most beautiful flowers were sent to the home from friends and relatives of the deceased. Interment was made in the Rockwell family plot, in the Newton-Wiley Cemetery. The casket bearers were Messrs. Russell M. McQuay, Guy S. Felt, John T. Howard and Moses Harris. C. W. Rishel had charge of the funeral. Out of town friends in attendance at the funeral were Mrs. Editha Howard and daughter, Mrs. Carl Rothfuss, of Williamsport and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Yeagle, of St. Marys.

FREINDEL.

Our citizens were deeply grieved to hear the sad information that MISS EDNA MARIE FREINDEL, aged 12 years, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. A. Freindel, died yesterday morning at 10:45, at the family residence South Maple Street. The funeral will take place from St. Mark's Church, Saturday morning at nine o'clock. Deceased had been ill for several weeks with a complication of diseases and suffered great pain. Her fond parents employed every known remedy in hopes that she might out-grow the ailment but all without avail. Edna was a bright child and until recently of very robust health. Her death is indeed sad. The PRESS will miss the dear, cheerful and happy child who came to our office once a week regularly ever since she was a little girl to purchase a PRESS for their grand-mother, Mrs. John Gayney, who for many years always sent a grand-child under her PRESS almost as soon as it was issued. The afflicted family have our deepest sympathy, as well as all acquaintances.

More Burglaries. Burglaries are of such frequent occurrence in Emporium, lately, that we actually almost failed to mention the fact that Stephen's hardware was entered last Thursday night and a quantity of goods stolen. The thieves entered by back door, after boring a hole large enough to admit an arm to remove the bar across the double doors. The work was evidently "spotted" by the thieves for they knew just where to bore. The brace and bit were borrowed (?) from Emporium & Rich Valley R. R. shop. Quite a large number of expensive knives, razors, etc., were taken, valued at $100.00, or more. Very evident that all thievery pulled off here is engineered by the same gang, who will soon have stock sufficient to establish quite a store—unless they are sent on a voyage down the river.

New Powder Plant Starts To-day.

Mr. Geo. P. Jones, general manager of the Cameron Powder Mfg. Co., with offices in Emporium and works at Wy-side (Sinnamahoning) commences active operations to-day with about forty employees. This makes five dynamite plants in this county—three at Emporium and two at Sinnamahoning. Cameron county is now considered headquarters for high explosives, a larger volume of trade coming here than to any other single county in the United States. Four of the plants are owned almost exclusively by home capitalists, while the other is owned by the DuPonts, of Wilmington, Del. While years ago accidents were frequent, of late years the modern plan of building and equipping these plants are more safely constructed.

Business Change.

Our good natured and genial friend, Mr. Richard Kelly for many years connected with the hotel business in Emporium, has purchased the City Bakery, so successfully conducted by Mrs. C. G. Schmidt for twenty-one years. Mr. Kelly has taken possession and hopes to add many improvements, to meet all demands of the trade. We wish him much prosperity. Mrs. Schmidt, has retired, we are pleased to know will continue to reside in Emporium, where she is greatly respected and has proven herself to be a good business lady.

A Fast Ride.

Last Monday, Hon. Josiah Howard's new 60 H. P., touring car made a lively trip to Austin, with Mr. Andrew Brady at the wheel. In addition to Mr. Brady the party consisted of Messrs. Chas. L. Butler, A. A. McDonald, Fred Seger and H. W. Smith, of the Hotel Warner. They made a pleasant trip over but coming back was a hummer. Our friend Smith remained at Austin evidently smelling a mouse. They made the run to Emporium, via Keating Summit, in forty-six minutes, with Col. Brady at the helm. That was going some and while Mr. Brady is a rapid driver he always keeps his machine well in hand, knows the road and don't get rattled—even if his companions do. Chas. Butler, mine host of Commercial Hotel, said to a PRESS reporter, "I have ridden in a great many automobiles, both here and elsewhere, but never in a finer car than this. Talk about flying machines, this puts them all in the shade."

Accepted Position.

It is rumored that Mr. C. H. Cordie, a former chemist for the Emporium Powder Company at this place, has accepted the position as chemist for the Cameron Powder Mfg. Co., at Sinnamahoning. "Jim's" many friends at this place will be pleased to hear that he has decided to return to Emporium.

Cedar Shingles $4.50 per thousand at B. Howard & Co's.

Cold Feet Again.

The Independent evidently does not want to know what constitutes "cold feet," in spite of the fact that he has been terribly afflicted with the malady during the past and present—in fact he don't know whether he is going or coming, grooping in the dark, as it were. Capt. Barclay is not a candidate yet if he was the Independent says in one line that he is "honest and brave," he must have been when he voted for those awful (?) gang bills. If Hockley can tell where he is at it is more than the readers of his sheet can.

Surprise Party.

A surprise party was tendered G. W. Gross at his home at this place, last Thursday evening, May 12th. The evening was very pleasantly spent in a general good time, after which a delightful repast was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Turley, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lingle, Mr. and Mrs. D. Downey, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gross, Mr. and Mrs. J. Huffman, Mr. Geo. Day, Mrs. Hoven, Mrs. Chas. Specht, Mrs. A. Tebo, Miss Margaret Hughes, Messrs. R. R. McQuay and Ray Specht.

Lost in Woods.

Last Sunday afternoon, while taking a stroll on one of our pleasant hills, two young men, recent arrivals at Emporium, became bewildered and lost their way. After spending some time in search of the road they finally located one and reached Emporium in time for supper, tired and hungry.
