The Primary Election. The primary election in this county was void of much excitement, except the contest for Congress between Chas. E. Patton and Lewis Emery, Jr., and that did not amount to much for when the votes were polled Mr. Patton had 186 majority. The following Republican vote was polled, awful light one, for the several candidates: Congress, Patton, 313; Emery, 137; Senator, J. K. P. Hall, 232; Representative, Josiah Howard, 334; Delegate to State Convention, H. H. Mullin, 327; Chairman County Committee, C. J. Goodnough, 354.

The following total Democratic candidates: Congress, Wm. C. Heinle, 119; Senator, J. K. P. Hall, 126; Representative, J. D. Marshall, 131; Delegate to State Convention, L. C. Sumner-son, 99.

Do You Remember? While excavating for the storm sewer on Broad street, the workmen came upon the stump of the old flag pole erected by the Republican League Club, during the Grant-Coxfax campaign in 1868. The relic was taken to Republican headquarters and will be preserved. How we remember, being then only a boy, how proud we were to pull on the rope when the 110 foot pole was being hoisted and how disappointed we were when it fell and had to be spliced—H. C. Rockwell doing the work. The pine standard was cut by Russell Bro's on Salt Run and drawn to town by Geo. Edwards and Chas. W. Hall, four teams of oxen being required to "drag" it to town. Do you remember the live coon that was placed on top of the staff? Those were lively times—nothing ever like it since.

Maloy-Yeager. A very pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maloy, on Sixth Street, when their daughter, Miss Olive, became the wife of Mr. George Yeager, of Olean. Rev. Father T. B. Downey, Rector of St. Mark's Catholic Church performed the ceremony. Only the most intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom witnessed the marriage. Miss Margaret Maloy, sister of the bride, was bride's maid and Mr. Edward Kemp, of Olean, N. Y., acted as best man. The bride was becomingly gowned in white chiffon batiste and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride's maid was attired in pink silk and carried pink carnations. The groom and best man wore the conventional black. After the wedding ceremony and congratulations extended, a most elaborate wedding dinner was served. The happy couple departed on train No. 58 leaving Emporium at eleven o'clock for an extended wedding trip, which will include Philadelphia, Washington and other eastern points. The bride is well known in Emporium, having spent her entire life in this section. She is a graduate of Emporium High School, graduating with the class of 1903. Mrs. Yeager has been employed as teacher in Emporium schools ever since her graduation, and has always been a most faithful teacher. The groom, a former resident of Emporium, but now of Olean, is employed on the railroad and is an excellent young man. The Press extends its heartiest congratulations.
