Sad Death.
The fatal accident that befell the little seven year old daughter of Mr. Wm. Smith, on North Creek, mention of which is made by our correspondent in the North Creek items, is indeed deplorable. Taken From Train.
F. M. Conant, of Cincinnati, O., who has been guest of his friend Dr. Bush, at this place, for consultation relative to a serious case of lung trouble. He left here on Sunday for home but was taken off the train at Buffalo, being in a serious condition and conveyed to Emergency Hospital. Dr. Bush was wired for and went to Buffalo on Monday. He found his friend had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs and was in a critical condition and will be compelled to remain at Buffalo for a time. Mr. Conant, made many friends here who deeply sympathized with him in his trouble, so patiently borne.

Missionary Society.
The Ladies Missionary Society of West Creek met at the home of Mrs. P. R. Beattie on Sixth street, last Friday morning. In addition to the business there was a "quilting," when all joined in congratulating Mrs. Beattie upon her 78th birthday. All enjoyed the pleasant occasion. Promptly at noon all sat down to an elegant dinner, furnished by the ladies, 31 being present. Those from out of town were: Mrs. Peterson and daughter, Cameron, Mrs. Lizzie Morse, St. Marys; Iva Taylor and daughter, Hicks Run.

Gone to Rochester.
Mr. Carl Mumford, son of Councilman and Mrs. E. D. Mumford, of this place, has accepted and entered upon his duties as clerk at Hotel Eggleston, Rochester, N. Y., lately purchased by Mr. W. G. Gilbert. Carl while clerk at Hotel Warner, this place, was popular with the public and exceedingly polite and attentive to his duties. We have not the least fear but that he will be equally as popular at Rochester, being a young man of strict, correct habits in brief a gentleman.

Mangled Remains Found.

Arthur Cousins, aged about 70, who has resided in this county for several years, being employed as expert truck gardener by various farmers. Cousins was a great success so far as his work went but the poor fellow had one terrible failing—drink. Lately he had been in charge of the Climax truck patch, but stopped work about a week ago. On Tuesday evening he boarded passenger train No. 61, wanting to get off at Beechwood, but for some reason was carried to Rathbun, when he was told to get off, which he did and started to walk to Jacob Andrews. We are told a freight coming east noticed him on the track, stopped and put him out of danger, but no doubt he had remained on the track or laid down, Erie mail coming east having run over him, crushing frightfully—beyond recognition. Had it not been for a bank book found near his remains it is doubtful if he could have been identified. His remains were found by some trackmen about one mile east of Rathbun. Cousins came to this country from Huddersfield, Yorkshire, England, where his family of ten children reside. Poor weak man; he might have been a valuable man as a farmer, being very competent. His remains were taken to LaBar's undertaking rooms, to be prepared for burial.
This (Thursday) afternoon the funeral took place at LaBar's Undertaking Rooms, Rev. J. F. Anderson, of the M. E. Church, officiating.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

HARRIS.
MRS. FLORA HARRIS, aged about 40, died at Buffalo and Monday. Her remains will arrive to-day noon and taken to Newton Cemetery. Religious services will be conducted at the grave by Rev. J. F. Anderson, pastor M. E. Church. C. W. Rishell took charge of the funeral at Junction. We have no other particulars.

Serious Accident.

On Monday evening, while tearing down an old barn on the Elibu Chadwick farm, Mr. Jas. Peasley, Forestry Warden for that district were seriously injured. Mr. Peasley is suffering from a lacerated scalp while Mr. Chadwick is not seriously injured but being well advanced in years was considerably bruised and jammed. Under Dr. H. S. Falk's careful care we hope he will be about looking after delinquent taxpayers.

Well Earned Rest.

Mrs. C. G. Schmidt, who lately retired from the bakery business she successfully conducted since the death of her husband, was a Press business caller yesterday. Mrs. Schmidt will take a well earned vacation, leaving on Monday next for Berwick, Pa., and other points of interest to visit relatives and friends for several weeks. Mrs. S. proved herself a good business woman.

Birthday Party.

Miss Eloise Warner, the bright seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Warner, entertained a party of little ladies and gents yesterday afternoon, in honor of her 7th anniversary. Of course they passed an enjoyable afternoon and remained until evening. Elaborate refreshments were served. Miss Eloise was the happiest little lady in Emporium yesterday and was remembered with many nice tokens of esteem by her guests.

Big Improvements at Furnace.

The very extensive improvements at the Emporium Furnace are rapidly advancing. The new brick cast house, erected by Fitzpatrick Brothers, is now ready for the roof. The stock house is being completely remodeled, the floor being paved with brick while concrete pier foundations are now ready for the trestling and tracks. The cupola will be torn down and an up-to-date one erected. Everything is being put in shape and Mr. Brady is not sparing money to make the old Emporium Furnace, after a very successful run of eleven years under his able management, good for many more years. We hope prosperous ones. It will take several more weeks before this great hive of industry will be in full blast.

The Circus in Town.

The famous circus arrived in Cohoes during the small hours of the day and the experienced workmen erected the big tents with the rapidity with which the mushroom springs from the pasture lot. The layman invariably marvels at the ease and quickness with which the circus men build the huge canvasses from a comparatively chaotic intricacy of ropes pulleys and poles. If one believed in the power of magicians, one would almost declare that every big circus must employ a wonderful magician to wave his wand over the men when they erect the tents. However, the combined efforts of all the magicians on the face of the earth would not prove efficacious in the matter of building the white tops, for there isn't a bit of magic connected with the work at all. It is simply a system that does the trick—a splendid system which is carefully adhered to by every working man, from the superintendent down to the humblest canvassman. And to the careful observer this system is truly remarkable.
To the infinite joy of the small boy and his sister and to the evident delight of the older folks, the circus parade replete and resplendent in majestic, scintillating, bewilderling beauty, was taken over the principal streets of Cohoes this morning. And the pageant, made a decidedly favorable impression on all who thronged the line of march.
The doors will be open at seven o'clock this evening and the performance will start at eight.—Cohoes Republican.

Wonderful Bargain Sale.

H. A. Zarp's & Company, proprietors of the Great Store, so popular throughout the entire county, has something new to say in this issue of the Press, especially attractive to the ladies. Mr. Zarp's, the senior proprietor, says he has too many goods, in fact he will be simply forced to reduce his immense line, hence he is now selling almost everything far below the cost price. He is deeply in earnest and says he will reduce his goods to a reasonable size stock even if he has to sell for one-half what they cost.

Celebrates His 74th Birthday.

Our respected townsman Mr. N. Seger, on Monday last (18th) celebrated in a modest manner the 74th anniversary of his birth, surrounded by his faithful wife, brother and children, as well as grand-children. Mr. Seger came to Emporium in 1845 and entered the merchant tailoring and clothing business, having continued to this day at the helm. He prospered by hard work, economy and honorable dealing and to-day ranks as one of the most solid business men of our town, occupying the responsible position as one of the board of directors of The First National Bank of this place, with now almost a million dollar capital. We hope our good friend and citizen may live to celebrate many more anniversaries. A pleasant incident and surprise was the visit of his sister, Mrs. Josephine Singler and daughter Miss Lucy, of Chicago, Ill.—the former being guest of her brother Mr. and Mrs. R. Seger and family, while Miss Lucy is guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. Seger and family.

A Good Team.

The Press sanctum was visited yesterday by two pleasant gentlemen, Mr. John E. Smith, of Sterling Run and Mr. C. A. Ramsey, of Erie, Pa., representing The Hostetter Shoe Co. Both are very companionable gentlemen and active in the business world. Almost every citizen in this county knows Mr. Smith and appreciates his worth to this county, socially as well as business.

A post-card from Dr. S. S. Smith and A. A. MacDonald to the Press, dated Scades Point, Ont., July 15th, says: "We have turned our faces homeward. All is well."

Young Lad Wins Honors.
From the Boston Globe we note the following reference to J. Paul Lynch, of Roxbury, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lynch, formerly of this county:
"Master J. Paul Lynch, 13 years old, of 1832 Tremont St., who was graduated from the Mission church parochial school in June, was one of 250 who took examinations, and was the youngest of the four who won scholarships in the Boston high school.
These scholarships are worth $250 and they enable those winning them to take the course at the school preparatory to entering the college.
Young Lynch's success is due to some hard work, and he is pretty well pleased with his efforts.
"When we had our school examinations I was a little careless," said he last night, "and I was beaten for first honors in the class, my mark being 96.4. I think it taught me a lesson, for I made up my mind that I would win at the Boston examinations, and I have just been notified that I did so."

Embarrassing Error.
Errors, or omissions, take place in the best regulated newspaper offices. "On Tuesday evening, Misses Eathel and Nancy Turley, the pleasant daughters of our respected merchant, Mr. and Mrs. A. J.
