Mrs. Moore, of Rich Valley, visited with Mrs. Lovelson the other day.

Charles E. Chadwick killed a rattler Tuesday of last week.

Norman Solveson had the misfortune of receiving a bad cut on the forehead, Thursday evening. Mrs. Solveson hastily took him to the doctor's office to have the wound dressed. A few stitches were required and at this writing the wound is getting along nicely.

Dr. Falk was summoned Tuesday morning early to attend Mrs. Carter who was taken suddenly ill. She suffers greatly. We hope this highly esteemed lady will improve rapidly under the Doctor's care.

The Misses Hazel and Winnie Chandler and Tressa Britton were guests of Mrs. Allen Russell and family, of Four Mile, Sunday. They were detained at the Russell home by the very inclement weather, and a sick horse, but arrived home early Monday morning in excellent spirits and ready for school duties.

Mrs. E. M. Smith who has been ill so long, is slowly weakening.

The Woman's Missionary Society was held Wednesday of last week, at the home of Mrs. May Lewis.

A coincident—The Sunshine Circle gave a surprise card shower, Sept. 2nd., to Mrs. Winnie Russell, of Four Mile. Not knowing when her birthday was, it was decided to not wait to find out, but give the shower no matter what date. Imagine their own surprise when they were told they had given the shower at the right time. Curious—isn't it.

Our Valley was well represented in the city the past week. So many of our people were there that we will not give a list of their names.

BLUE JAY.

TRADE MORAL—If we were all mind-readers we would have no trouble in learning what merchant's goods are best. About one in every 1,000 of us is addicted to mental telepathy. To reach the other 999 of us, Mr. Merchant must advertise. Persistent advertising in this paper will make those 999 buy. The telepathist will buy anyhow.

Don't Cut It!

—the ATLAS E-Z Seal Jar Will Hold it Whole

That's one strong feature in favor of the "ATLAS E-Z SEAL"—it has a wide mouth for large fruits. Another is its uniform thickness—no thin spots or weak places in an ATLAS E-Z SEAL Jar. Still a third good point is its smooth top, which can't cut the hand when sealing. Be sure to ask your dealer for the ATLAS E-Z SEAL Jar and take no other.
