Gallant Old Bucktail.
Michael Evers, of West Creek, who has been in very poor health for several months, was able to come to town last Monday to transact business. While making his calls he dropped in to square with ye editor, remarking at the same time that he did not owe a cent to any person; had plenty to eat and was contented. How we wish there were many more such men as Michael Evers. This honest Irish Republican, now in his 78th year enlisted in the Bucktails at Sterling Run in 1861 and delights to relate the many incidents connected with the "doings of the Bucktails." He is proud of the fact that another straight Republican vote will be cast from his home this fall—his youngest son being 21.
Voters of Cameron county, remember Hon. Josiah Howard, the Republican nominee for Representative, stands for all that is for the up-building of Cameron county. His life is an open book and all citizens, regardless of party, will give him their cordial support at the polls. To whom do we appeal when our county, our borough, our schools, our churches, regardless of creed, needs assistance? Hon. Josiah Howard! Does he ever, has he ever, turned a deaf ear to the appeals of every laudable project. See that he has a larger vote than ever before accorded him. He is entitled to the solid vote of the county.

First Anniversary.
On Tuesday evening, at Emmanuel Parish House, the Union Friendly Society, celebrated its First Anniversary. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and card playing. As each person entered the building they were measured and paid three cents per foot and one cent for every additional inch, according to their height. A neat sum was realized for the treasury of the Society. The parish house was very tastefully decorated for the occasion, the society colors blue, green and white, predominating. Pennants of the most popular schools and colleges adorned the walls and the U. S. flag and autumn leaves were everywhere in profusion. This Society was organized last October, the first meeting being held at the home of the Misses Metzger, on Fifth street and ever since the beginning good times has rapidly succeeded each other. A luncheon was served during the evening by the young ladies of the society, one of the main features of the collation being individual birthday cakes, bearing one candle and souvenir card, in honor of the first anniversary. During the evening, Prof. W. Grier Briner read a short history of the first year of the Society and Prof. R. Howard Edgar favored the assemblage with a vocal solo, with Miss Ida Seger presiding at the piano. Miss Dorothy Nelson was the pianist during the dancing. Guests of the Society present were Misses Edna Clark, Gladys Lloyd, Rena Jordan, Flora Schlecht, Julia Bair, Dora Nelson and Ida Seger, of Emporium, Miss Jean Calmes, of Fostoria, Ohio, and Miss Nellie Swain, of Olean, N. Y., and Messrs. Carl Swanson, Richard Kuehne, Jr., Eugene Metz, of Emporium, and Messrs. Warren Herbaugh, Olean, N. Y., W. C. Cope, Greensburg, Pa., W. G. Frome, Penn Argyle, Pa., E. J. Powell, Scranton, Pa., and C. Fulton Hutchison, of Philadelphia. Members of the society present were the Misses Grace and Marguerite Metzger, Verena, Alma and Hilda Hertig, Elsie and Hilda Kuehne, Bessie McQuay, Marion Rentz, Helen Smutz, Minnie Baurgelt, Belle Husted, Margaret Dodson and Ethel Fisher and Messrs Russell McQuay, Howard Edgar, Grier Briner, Max Balcom, Allan Randolph, John Murray, Fred Keim, Everett Pierson, Scott Sterner and Arthur Catlin. All present reported a very pleasant evening.
State Sunday School Convention.
The Sunday School Convention of Pennsylvania is being held at Altoona, Pa., this week. Delegates from Emporium and vicinity who are in attendance are Rev. J. L. Bogue, Mrs. R. H. Bent, Rev. M. L. Tate, Mr. Arthur Orton and Miss Charlotte Spence, of Emporium, Rev. Mr. Hall, pastor of the Rich Valley Church, and the Rev. Mr. Lehman, pastor of the M. E. Circuit. The delegates departed for Altoona on the flyer on Tuesday and are expected home on Friday.
Republican Club.
All Republicans are invited to visit the Club Room, situated on second floor of Library Building, which is kept open every evening for the convenience of all who may desire to pass a pleasant hour or two. Daily papers from all sections of the country are free to all. This pleasant and comfortable Club Room is greatly appreciated by all patrons. If you have not enrolled your name on the club membership roll do so at once. From now until the election the Club Room is in charge of the Republican County Committee, so all are welcome, no matter if you are a member or not. Drop in any evening.
A Good Position.
Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8 hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., or Philadelphia, Pa.

DEATH'S DOINGS.
REPETTO.
John Bond Repetto, aged 30, who has been in the employ of C. B. Howard Company for eight or ten years, as blacksmith at their several lumber camps, died last Sunday night, about eleven o'clock. He had been out in the chestnut grove during the afternoon, gathering chestnuts and ate quite freely of them. He did not complain and when he retired appeared in his usual good health. His companions were aroused by a gurgling noise, about eleven o'clock, and were surprised to note his serious condition. All that could be done for him was done, but he died within a few minutes. No doubt his ailment was acute indigestion.
C. W. Rishell was called and his remains were brought to LaBar's undertaking rooms to be prepared for shipment, to his home at Kettle Creek. His brother, Orin Repetto, a prosperous farmer and well-to-do citizen, came here to accompany the remains to his home, where the deceased had resided when not employed. C. H. Edwards, woods Supt., M. T. O'Leary, his woods boss and John T. Howard attended the funeral which was held at Trout Run. The services were conducted by Rev. Franklin A. Lawson, pastor of M. E. Church. Cross Forks Lodge, I. O. O. F., of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body; deceased was also a member of Emporium Aerie No. 858, Fraternal Order of Eagles. The floral offerings are spoken of as being very beautiful and in great abundance.
Deceased will be remembered very pleasantly by his many Emporium acquaintances, he having stopped at City Hotel, where he kept an automobile for hire. His grand-father was an Italian, his father being a native of Missouri. Both of his parents are dead. He was an honorable and respected gentleman and had accumulated considerable money by strict economy. We understand he contemplated marrying in the near future, the lady of his choice being Miss Fish, of Nettleton, Cambria county, Pa., who fifteen years ago was employed in Miss Raymond's millinery store at Emporium.
Busy Court.
Court convened Monday at 1:30 p. m., Hon. Harry Alvan Hall, presiding, with Hon. G. J. LaBar and Hon. John A. Wyckoff, Associates.
The following attorneys are present: Messrs. F. D. Leet, M. Brennan, F. A. Johnson, J. P. Felt, Hon. J. C. Johnson, J. P. McFarney, D. J. Driscoll, St. Marys, Fred McFarlin, Ridgway, G. H. Baird, Ridgway, Hon. Geo. R. Dixon, of Ridgway, and H. W. Nelson, of Coudersport.
Court is being held this week and considerable business has been transacted. The most important cases that have been tried were: George Kenworthy vs Pennsylvania R. R., who sued for $20,000 damages on account of the death of his son, who was killed at Canoe Run, about a year ago. The trial lasted two days, resulting in a verdict of $1,500 in favor of the plaintiff. Motion was made for a new trial, which was granted. The burglars arrested for breaking into stores were all convicted.
Court will no doubt last all this week.
Attended State Firemen's Convention.
E. D. Fields and G. E. Swartz, two of Emporium's industrious young men, were PRESS visitors on Monday. Mr. Fields attended the State Firemen's Convention at Altoona last week, as delegate from Rescue Hook and Ladder Co., and reports a grand time. Ed. is loud in praise of the occasion and hopes the entire Emporium Department will become members of the State organization and attend the convention to be held at York, next year.
Let the department take up this matter early.

Candidate Tener and Party Coming!
Republican nominee, John K. Tener and his running mates, will be in Emporium during the afternoon of Wednesday next, Oct. 19th. It is hoped every citizen of the county, who possibly can do so, will meet the candidates, at the Republican Club. Don't forget the date.
Live Advertisers.
One of Johnsonburg's enterprising merchants has been for some time past running an advertisement that occupies two pages of the Press at that place. That merchant evidently believes that advertising pays, or else he would not be so foolish as to waste his money in printer's ink. He evidently has a different opinion on the advertising proposition than does a certain Smethport merchant, who told the writer the other day a display advertisement did not do him any good unless the printer would throw in a free local puff every time he changed his advertisement, which space would amount to almost as much as the space he was paying for, and for which he was receiving value received. Some merchants have some very queer ideas to what they conceive to be the printer's duty to those who buy advertising space in his columns. If a person went to a merchant and bought a coat and then turned around and asked the merchant to throw in the pants and vest to clinch the bargain we are of the opinion that merchant would very quickly, and properly, too, object to such an unreasonable request. The newspaper man's stock in trade is his advertising column, and if he were foolish enough to give away his chief asset it would not be very long before he received a call from the sheriff. Some of the most gigantic enterprises in this country have been built up through systematic and judicious advertising. Merchants, like Wanamaker, and others we might mention, spend fortunes every in newspaper advertising, and they reap immense dividends from their investments in printer's ink. Montgomery Ward & Co., Sears, Roebuck & Co., and all other mail order houses that come into competition with the home merchant, build up their immense business by advertising their wares, and the printer who will take their advertising can get his price without any quibbling on the part of the advertiser, without free local puffs thrown in. These astute merchants have found out that advertising does pay.—Smethport Democrat.
Election Approaching.
November 8th will soon be here and the electors of Cameron county will again be called upon to vote for the man best fitted to represent the people. John K. Tener, the Republican nominee for Governor and his partners on the ticket are meeting with rousing receptions wherever they go, it being clearly manifest that the voters of this state will continue the policy of the Republican party. It is the duty of every Republican to stand shoulder to shoulder for the entire Republican ticket. Every one of the candidates on the Republican ticket are clean, upright gentlemen and our party is proud of them.
Remember that your duty is plain—stand by your color and not be caught by clap-trap stuff trumped up by "has-beens" and self-nominated aspirants, repudiated by both of the old parties.

Where Safety Counts.
Statistics show that of all the houses built, over one-half are partially or totally destroyed by fire. Taking this large percentage into consideration, you easily see how very unsafe it is to keep cash or valuable papers concealed in your residence. Applying this ratio to the experience of a lifetime, you cannot afford to take the risk of losing your money by fire when it costs you nothing to deposit it in this bank. The check book we furnish makes your money just as accessible as if you had it in your pocket.
