Gather Up the Fragments.
The best historical example of economy is given us in the miracle of the loaves and fishes. "There were gathered up of the fragments twelve baskets full." We learn here the dignity of economy.

Far too often the food that would preserve life is made to feed the kitchen fire. Bits of butter left on the butter plates is often mussy looking, but perfectly good to use in cooking. A tablespoonful of cream or half a cupful of milk may be put into the mashed potato rather than the garbage pail

All cold mashed potatoes should be saved for croquettes or puffs. One cupful will make six croquettes or a good-sized puff. Much of the wastefulness in the kitchen is from want of knowledge. Rice water, for example, may not be known as nourishing. If the water in which rise is cooked is allowed to cool it makes a jelly, digestible and strengthening. Such water is an addition to any soup stock and should never be thrown away.

BABY'S SKIN TORTURE

"When our baby was seven weeks old he broke out with what we thought was heat, but which gradually grew worse. We called in a doctor. He said it was eczema and from that time we doctored six months with three of the best doctors in Atchison but he only got worse. His face, head and hands were a solid sore. There was no end to the suffering for him. We had to tie his little hands to keep him from scratching. He never knew what it was to sleep well from the time he took the disease until he was cured. He kept us awake all hours of the night and his health wasn't what you would call good. We
