Canting Hypocrisy.

The spectacle of canting hypocrisy, false pretense of advocacy of reform and wild demagogic appeal to the mob which is at the present time being presented by the campaign of William H. Berry, the candidate for Governor of the Flinn Van Valkenburg-Gang-Bryan-Democracy-Keystone Party, is one to set the honest and sincere voter to thinking, says the Philadelphia Star.

Berry poses as a "reformer" and shouts that about all others but himself and his supporters are under suspicion and should be jailed. The record shows however, that when he was State Treasurer and custodian of the State's money he had pet depositories for State funds. One of these was the Harrisburg Trust Co.

The Harrisburg Trust Co. financed a $50,000 bond issue of the Fields Brick Co., of Chester, Pa., of which Berry was the principal owner. This is all after the principal bank in Chester had loaned the Fields Brick Co. $16,000 and had refused to advance any more.

It has been asserted, too, and we have not seen it denied, that the Harrisburg Trust Co., which furnished the $500,000 bond required of Berry by the State when he became State Treasurer, did so virtually free of charge.

When Berry took office as State Treasurer, the amount of State funds on deposit in the Harrisburg Trust Co., on April 30, 1906, was $385,000. Month by month thereafter the State funds deposited in the Harrisburg Trust Co. increased, until, on Sept. 30, 1906, they were $718,126, at about which figure they remained during the entire term of Berry's tenure as State Treasurer, being reduced when his successor took office.

Another pet depository of State funds under the Berry regime was the Farmers' Deposit Bank of Pittsburg.

When Berry borrowed $15,000 for one of his Chester concerns from Col. James M. Guffey, the loan was made by putting the note made by Berry indorsed by Guffey, through this bank.

The loan was not paid and the Farmers' last summer, sold the 2,700 shares of stock Berry had given it as a collateral for all it would bring under the hammer—$700, leaving a balance due the bank of $14,300, with $730 unpaid interest.

Berry's ingratitude to Guffey, his hypocrisy in posing as fighting the liquor interests when he had made such arrangements that at the Allentown Democratic Convention five saloon delegates and one collector for a brewery swung the entire Lackawanna county delegation for Berry, and the list of those who supported Berry there reveals the names of others connected with the liquor interests.

His demagogic appeals to the mob, his demands that the men be burned at the stake, and others who opposed him at Allentown jailed, as well as his undignified and frothy sensational utterances on the stump, are of too recent occurrence to need comment.

Acknowledge It.

Emporium People Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

Mrs. John Summerson, W. Sixth St., Emporium, Pa., says: "My back ached most of the time and there was a soreness across my kidneys. Rheumatic pains darted through my limbs and in the morning when I got up, I felt tired and languid. Hearing that Doan's Kidney Pills were an excellent preparation for complaints of this kind, I procured a supply at Taggart's Drug Store. The remedies I had previously taken had not helped me, but Doan's Kidney Pills brought relief at once. I now feel much stronger and better in every way."

The above statement was given in Oct. 1907 and on Dec. 14, 1909, Mrs. Summerson confirmed it in detail.

SMALL COUNTY IS WELL REPRESENTED AT CAPITAL.

Josiah Howard Legislator Since 1905, Will Be Re-Elected in Cameron.

Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

Cameron the smallest county in population in Pennsylvania, is represented by one of the ablest men in the Legislature. Josiah Howard, of Emporium, entered the House in 1905 and at the session of 1907 he was given the important chairmanship of the committee of ways and means. In 1909 he was the head of the education committee, the body which had charge of the school code.

In the primaries of this spring no representative Republican of Cameron county was willing to enter the field against Mr. Howard. It was generally agreed that he had so ably represented his constituents in the two sessions that he should not be opposed. He has great influence in the next House. Mr. Howard is a man of big business affairs and knows not only the needs of his constituents, but is well informed concerning his state.

Mr. Howard was born in Williamsport on January 3, 1861. He was educated in the public schools, graduating in 1880. In 1887, he removed to Emporium and entered the lumber business as a member of C. B. Howard Company, a corporation which has large interests in Cameron county. Mr. Howard is also interested in the big powder mills of Cameron county, having recently been selected as chairman of executive board of the powder company. His concern has a contract to supply all of the dynamite used in the construction of the Panama canal. Mr. Howard was elected burgess of Emporium in 1902 and first entered the House in 1905.

What Democrats Think of Tener's Assault.

From the Doylestown Democrat.

The North American is now so thoroughly discredited that no well informed person is deceived by its course. Its yellow papers are the laughing stock of newspaper readers within the limited area in which it circulates. It is a joke, and a very small one too. People once laughed with the North American; but now they laugh at it. It has long been on the boggy slide of popularity and its stronger and better newspaper rivals in the city have crowded it into a very small corner, where a coterie of congenial spirits still feel and gloat over its morbid abuse. Even its sensationalist admirers no longer take it seriously, and it does not have the poor satisfaction of wielding any influence with them.

The North American is an outcast from American journalism. Its opinions are seldom or never quoted by other journals of good standing. Its news is colored to suit its own distorted and abnormal views of society and politics. Writers in its employ must sink their individuality, character and honor as newspaper men and drag themselves without protest through its yellow mire or get out, and every self-respecting newspaper man gets out. A man who stays two months on its staff of writers is considered an old man in its employ. Usually about two weeks of it is enough. The public will draw their own conclusion about the value of political views emanating from that sort of a newspaper hater.

Gloating in character assassination, it is impotent to assassinate, because its vocation as an assassin is too well advertised. Politically it is a non-entity. It has no policy and little influence. If it represents anybody politically, it is a set of discredited and outmoded Republican leaders, who have long wanted to control Pennsylvania politics, but cannot. Soured by its own political feebleness and chafing under defeat of whoever or whatever it has ever advocated, its aim is now to create political anarchy. Again it will fail because its mission as a disturber is too well known. The North American has never had a word of commendation for a Democrat or a Democratic policy. In this respect the Democratic party is fortunate, for a party's policy or candidates could receive no better endorsement than the North American's active opposition.

Tener and the Wage Earner.

In a recent address to a gathering of miners Representative Tener discussed the attitude of the Republican Party in this State towards labor. He referred to the many wholesome laws for the advancement of the wage earner enacted by that party and continued:

"Of this record we are justly proud, and we point to our action in the past as a guarantee of our intentions in the future. We realize that the development of our industries has brought with it new problems, new dangers and altogether complex conditions that demand and deserve consideration and treatment by the law-making and law-administering powers of our Commonwealth."

Mr. Tener then outlined some of the recommendations he will submit to the Legislature for the enactment of further legislation in the interest of laboring men and women. He referred especially to measures for the protection of the life and health of those who toil in the mines and factories and emphasized the importance of the employers' liability law, whose operation, he said, should be broadened in justice to the wage earner.

It will be to the interest of every working man in Pennsylvania to vote the Republican ticket this year. A better friend of labor than John K. Tener has never been presented to the people

To the Voters of Cameron County

I am a candidate for the Legislature and respectfully solicit your votes for me at the coming election, Tuesday, Nov. 8, 1910.

I have always stood for Schools and Churches,
Play Grounds and Factories, Farms and Homes.

I have lived here 23 years and you all know me and that I have used my best efforts for the permanent advancement of the interests of the whole county.

Our towns and county are growing and we are getting better schools, better churches and more factories. We are on the FRONT LINE in many things and I will try to do my share to keep us there, and to progress as fast as opportunity and means permit us. We firmly believe the county is only beginning to open up its coal operations and brick clays and that they hold a large and sure future for us all.

Trusting to merit your support and assuring you of my appreciation and best endeavor.

Yours very truly,

JOSIAH HOWARD,

Emporium, Pa., Oct. 17, 1910.

ple as a candidate for Governor. His record as a citizen and as a public man in every sense confirms this statement. The pledge he made the wage earner to support their cause to the measure of his ability and influence was not a campaign platitude. He meant every word he uttered. With John K. Tener as Governor labor will be assured of a "square deal" at Harrisburg.

The election of Mr. Tener and the other candidates on the State ticket is not the only phase of the campaign with which labor is concerned. On November 8th this State will elect a Legislature and thirty-two members of Congress. The Legislature will name a United States Senator. That Senator should be a Republican. Each of the thirty-two men Pennsylvania will send to the House at Washington should be a Republican. The welfare of labor demands this. If the Democratic party comes into power it will pass a Democratic tariff bill. Every wage earner knows what that will mean because he recalls what the enactment of the last Democratic tariff bill meant. There is but one way for the laboring man to protect himself against destructive Democratic tariff revision. He must vote the Republican ticket.

A vote for the Keystone ticket will be a vote for a Bryan Democrat for Governor. It will be a vote for Democratic candidates for the Legislature, who, if elected, will vote for a Democrat for United States Senator. It will be a vote for Democratic candidates for Congress, who, if elected, will vote to substitute free trade for the protective tariff system. Can any working man in this State afford to vote the Keystone ticket?

The Popular Windsor.

The many Cameron county patrons of the Windsor Hotel, Philadelphia, will be pleased to learn that this long established and popular hotel, which has been conducted for so many years by the Windsor Real Estate Company, has been leased for a period of ten years by Waldo T. Brubaker, who for the past five years has managed the hotel for the owners. Before coming to the Windsor, Mr. Brubaker was for some years connected with the Shelburne, of Atlantic city.

Mr. Brubaker has applied for a charter for the Philadelphia Windsor Hotel Company, which will assume the lease and conduct the business. Associated with him in the new concern and active in the conduct of the business will be Frank J. Zimmerman, for the past eighteen years in charge of Bassett Ice Cream Company's restaurant at 504, Market Street; John R. Keegan, formerly manager at the Rudolf, Atlantic City, and at present Chief clerk at the Windsor; Clarence W. Walsh and Joseph F. Donovan. The last two named are with Mr. Brubaker the incorporators of the new company.

While one of the greatest assets of the Windsor is undoubtedly its location, situated as it is on Filbert Street, midway between Broad Street Station and the Reading Terminal and in the heart of the Theatre and shopping districts, the new company plans to add to the attractiveness of the house by several changes and improvements, among which are the addition of about fifty new suites with private baths, and the placing of the dining rooms and kitchens under the personal supervision and direction of Mr. Frank J. Zimmerman, one of the best known and most competent stewards in Philadelphia. Mr. Zimmerman plans several extensive changes in the dining room, and intends to make a specialty of serving a business men's lunch at noon time. The house will be conducted, as formerly, on both the American and European Plans.
