"The Bowery Detective."

Will be seen in this city one night, on Tuesday, Nov. 29, at the Emporium Opera House and it is always a pleasure to announce the coming of an attraction of merit. And it may not be amiss to say that the story presented is not of the usual Detective novel style, but a full of heart interests, unfolding a very pretty love story, while rich with wholesome comedy running through the play, by three of the characters which keep their audience in the best of humor throughout the action of the play.

The plot of the play is hinged on the sly and insidious bank President in his efforts to ruin the life of an honest and worthy bank cashier by placing trumped up charges of embezzlement against this cashier, who is forced to flee the country, and through the efforts of a well-known government sleuth known as "The Bowery Detective," the dastardly plot is unravelled and the crime fastened on the right ones.

The management has taken great pains in casting the play to give the same a strong interpretation, each one portraying their character for their individual worth, which makes it an excellent production, easily acted.

Seats are now on sale at the usual place and no advance in the regular prices will be made.

Democrats Who Will Run Things.

Presuming that in the Democratic Congress the chairmanships of committees will be awarded by the Speaker, who is expected to be Champ Clark, of Missouri, in the usual way—that of seniority in party service—it is easy to name those who will run the affairs of Congress, says Philadelphia Inquirer.

The great Committee on Ways and Means, now headed by Payne of New York, will pass into the hands of Underwood, of Alabama. In case Clark should not be given the Speakership, he would take over the Ways and Means Committee, since he is the ranking Democratic member of that committee now. Either the gentleman from Florida or the gentleman from Missouri would command the forces engaged in revising the tariff law. Clark is a disciple of Bryan. Mr. Underwood believes in "a tariff for revenue only. That is a pleasant outlook for wage earners dependent upon a protective tariff for steady employment, isn't it?

Next in importance comes the Committee on Appropriations, which will pass out of Lands of Tawney, of Minn. Fitzgerald, of New York, is entitled to the chairmanship, but there is no love lost between Fitzgerald and Clark, for the New Yorker bolted the leadership of the Missouri in the contest over the House rules and dealt with the Cannon following, therefore the appointment of Burleson, of Texas, as chairman of this committee may be looked for.

Arsene P. Pujo, a Democrat of Louisiana, is the logical successor of Mr. Vreeland, of New York, as head of the Committee on Banking and Currency. As chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs we shall have Flood of Virginia, in place of Foster, of Vermont.

Questions concerning immigration and immigration laws will be turned over to Burnett, of Alabama, as chairman of the Immigration Committee, instead of to Howell, of New Jersey.

Old soldiers and those interested in the pension laws will have to look to Richardson, of Alabama, and not to Loudenslager, of New Jersey.

Mr. Mann, of Illinois, has been handling matters relating to interstate and foreign commerce. Adamson, of Georgia, is the ranking Democrat on the committee.

The Committee on the Judiciary will be given to Clayton, of Alabama, and Parker, of New Jersey, will be retired. There will be little chance for the building up of the American Merchant Marine under the Democratic House. Greene, of Massachusetts, present chairman of the Committee on Merchant Marine, retires for Clark, of Florida. The Democratic policy will be free ships, if it carries out any policy what ever.

What will be the ideas of the Democratic House concerning the development of rivers and harbors can only be conjectured. There is a special committee on the improvements of the Mississippi, the Chairmanship of which will go to an Arkansas Democrat. It is presumed that the Mississippi will be well cared for, but what of the interests of the Delaware? The Delaware and harbor and river developments generally are under the control of the important Committee on Rivers and Harbors, and the chairmanship will pass from Alexander, of New York, to Sparkman, of Florida.

The navy will be at the mercy of a Tennessee Democrat, Mr. Padgett; Postoffice affairs, of Moon, of Tennessee; public lands, of Robinson, of Arkansas, while the Agricultural Committee will go to John Lamb, of Virginia.

Such is the havoc that Republicans have wrought, for only by Republican votes have the Democratic victories been made possible. All of the committees which have to do with the great interests of the United States—rivers and harbors, banking and currency, appropriations, naval affairs, foreign affairs, postoffices, the consideration of the tariff and of the supply bills, immigration, public lands—all of these pass out of the hands of eastern and western chairmen, and the South comes into full control.

There will be time for cool second thought before the Presidential election of 1912.

Heed The Warning.

Many Emporium People have Done So.

When the kidneys are sick they give unmistakable warnings that should not be ignored. By examining the urine and treating the kidneys upon the first sign of disorder, many days of suffering may be saved. Sick kidneys expel a dark, ill-smelling urine, full of "brick-dust" sediment and painful in passage. Sluggish kidneys cause a dull pain in the small of the back, headaches, dizzy spells, tired, languid feelings and frequently rheumatic twinges.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only; they cure sick kidneys, and rid the blood of uric poison. If you suffer from any of the above symptoms you can use no better remedy. Emporium people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. E. L. Rendt, Fifth Street, Emporium, Pa., says: "For years kidney trouble kept me in misery. My back ached constantly and I could not rest well on account of the acute pains across my loins. My kidneys caused me much annoyance and I felt miserable in every way. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills, I obtained a box from Taggart's Drug Store and commenced their use. Prompt relief was received and I now have no cause for complaint. I have of ten recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
