TARIFF NOTES.

Many of the European countries are trying to find a remedy for the high cost of living.

While the prices of some commodities which are subject to duty are going down, those for coffee are going up.

One hundred and fifty thousand mill hands in England are on a strike "on account of the high cost of living."

There was no Tariff insurgency in California's big Republican vote on Tuesday.

AN OCTOGENARIAN PROTECTIONIST.

Says that the Republicans Could Have won Easily if they had Stood by their Guns.

I knew we Protectionists were being whipped out of our boots by our own blunders.

First of all, our honest President blundered in signally failing to stand like a rock for his friends against the dastardly attacks of his own and their enemies, the Insurgents, who were bound to rule or ruin.

The Protectionists began a mere defensive warfare by talking altogether too much about the real causes of high prices, instead of using two-thirds of that time and two-thirds of their printer's ink in striking straight from the shoulder; in charging Insurgents and Free-Trade Tariff Democrats with the deliberate intention of robbing needy bread winners of employment by cutting down Protection purposely to bring want and woe to our workmen; intending that wages be cut 50 per centum by compelling 5,000,000 to remain idle while their wives and children would suffer cold and hunger; and all this for the sake of office and its emoluments, and that those with money might thus live cheaply at the price of the blood and muscle of the needy.

Oh, that Republican spellbinders had but thundered these political truths in the ears of the people, instead of standing on the defensive; yea, hiding behind Quaker breastworks manned with Quaker cannon!

And then grand old Joe Cannon, the life-long champion of needy wage-earner, was almost forced to stand idly by and see the sneaking attempt to crush American workmen by Free-Trade tariff Insurgents and Democrats. Aye, and Uncle Joe knows that nine-tenths, if not ninety-nine one-hundredths, of all the frenzied shrieking against him was inspired by the determination of the Insurgents and other Free-Trade Tariff foes of American workmen to crush labor under the iron heel of American markets glutted with foreign goods.

Will Insurgents gain by their dastardly conduct? Will Beveridge profit by his endeavor to crush our needy bread winners? Yes; I am sorry to confess that every Insurgent will gain, in that each and all would willingly part with an eye to destroy the sight of American wage earners.

They are without principle, save the principle of wrecking business sufficiently to destroy the prosperity of American labor.

Just mark how easily Foss, of Massachusetts, won by pure and undefiled brazen assault and false, frenzied charges to cover his own lack of truth?

Don't you remember, vividly, how wealthy Foss and millionaire Douglas worked their neat little bunco game? Recollect how they shrieked and yelled that if the 15 per centum were removed from hides they would see that shoes were materially cheapened?

Nevertheless, the very woe that the 15 per centum duty was removed, these snakes in the grass put up the price of shoes from 50 cents to one dollar per pair.

Some people might call this tall lying; but far be it from me to use such rough language, and so I merely term it the practice of the strictest economy in the use of truth and veracity.

I began this article at 9 o'clock tonight, and it is now 10:35. Time and space fail, and I pause upon the threshold of the subject by closing with some queries: Shall we remain behind the paper breastworks and allow the enemy to do all the assaulting; or shall we charge the enemy with shot, shell and fixed bayonets?

P. S. "We'll whip them to a frazzle," shrieked the Boss. But hear Sherman, Woodruff and Barnes' merry ha! ha!

Doing Their Duty.

Scores of Emporium Readers are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow; Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Emporium people endorse our claim.

Mrs. William Swartz, Maple street, Emporium, Pa., says: "I am very grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for what they have done for me. My back ached severely and my loins pained me. I could hardly get around to attend to my work and when morning came, I was so tired and languid that I did not feel like getting up. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and gave proof that my kidneys were at fault. On a friend's advice I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from Taggart's Drug Store and their use brought relief, although I had previously taken other remedies without the least effect. I am pleased to give Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FOR THE MERE MAN.

When In Doubt Make Him a Pocket Stamp Case.

The stamp case for carrying in the waistcoat pocket will prove an acceptable little present for a man and should be made in two pieces, the upper portion holding the stamps being slightly smaller in size than the other part of the case, into which it may be slipped. The case can be made from any small remnants of silk, and when complete it should measure not more than two inches by one and a half. The back portion of each part should be stiffened with a piece of thin cardboard, and an ordinary visiting card cut to the size required will answer the purpose very well. A small loop of narrow ribbon is sewed in the center of the upper part of the case by which it may be pulled from the lower part when a stamp is required. The sketch so clearly shows the nature of this little article that further description is scarcely necessary.

A Lawyer's Bag.

One hears it at every turn, "Men are so difficult to buy for." And it is the Christmas present for Bob, Jack or Tom that some devoted woman is hunting. If she were just once to get away from the idea of "frivolous" the road would be straighter and she might walk right up to the very thing she seeks—for instance, a lawyer's bag made of dark bottle green kersey cloth, exactly the size of the old one, unless there has been complaint of its awkward proportions.

These bags usually are drawn up with mohair braid, two strings of it, and the ends sewed together by a flat lapping process, admitting of easy pulling open and shut. Neither bows nor knots are allowable, and in order to insure the easy working of this convenient gift the casing must be of generous width.

A Happy Suggestion.

There never was a man who didn't enjoy having a match scratcher handy when he wanted to light his pipe. Take a heavy card 7 by 9 inches, either white or cream, and gild the edge by putting on gold paint in little irregular splashes; also gild a clay pipe to hold matches, tie diagonally across the center of card by punching two holes close to the bowl, one each side of the stem and again near the end of stem, run ribbon through and tie in bow. Cut large heart from sandpaper, gild and paste to lower corner. In the upper corner letter with gold paint, "A Striking Proof of My Affection." Make two holes at center of top, run ribbon through and tie in a bow on the right side.

He'll Find It Useful.

A pretty worker's companion either for a man or a woman is made in the following manner: Take a skewer or an old knitting needle (a wooden one) and put a few spools of cotton on it.

HANGING SPOOL HOLDER.

Tie a bow of ribbon on each end. Then make a long loop of ribbon with another bow at the top. After the first spool at each end of the skewer attach a ribbon to hang down. Two small dolls are then seated on this novel swing and are dressed very prettily, to be used as pin cushions.

A Brush of Velvet.

For the wearer of the silk hat, whether he be father or grandfather, there may be made by one of the little ones at home a soft pillow of plush.

Plush will make a better hat smoother than velvet and, whether it be of soft blue, of glaring scarlet, of vivid purple or merely a quiet gray, will depend on father's taste on his previous expressions as to color. Some men want the brightest, others the duldest tones possible, but few of them want those shades that lie between.

When finished the plush pad will measure three inches by six, and it is filled with cotton to a desirable softness and pliability, but not stuffed.

PRESENTS CHILDREN CAN MAKE.

However nice a bought Christmas present may be, it is quite certain that as a child's gift a mother or father, aunt or uncle—indeed, any grownup relative—would prefer something made by the little donor herself. In this column a few home-made presents which can quite easily be made by children are described, and none of them costs more than a trifle to make.

First of all, there is the frog pen-wiper. To make this gift a strip of light green cloth or velvet, seven inches long by three and a half wide, is required. This must be marked into four divisions. The lower portion should be lined with flannel. Sew the edges together and turn up a quarter of an inch at the bottom and glue this to a round circle of card, so that you have a bag with a cardboard bottom. Next cut a piece of card twice the size of one of the flaps and cover it in red flannel, making a hole half an inch wide in the middle. Fold this card and after padding each flap with cotton wool sew the flaps on each side of the hinge. Two small boot buttons for eyes on the top flaps and you have something very like a wide mouthed frog sitting up. Now fill the body through the mouth hole with small shot and draw a pen through the opening.

Useful Gift For Grandma.

A useful gift for grandma or an invalid friend is a cape made of plain or figured elderdown or outing flannel thirty-six to forty inches wide. Fold and cut material into a true square; cut from one point to center, then cut a round opening for neck. Finish the edge by hemming with some fancy stitch with a crocheted border or bind with ribbon. Tie with bow at the neck.

Ribbon should match colors in material. For invalids there is no better wrap, as it can be put on and taken off so easily and when made of pretty colors gives a touch of brightness which is very cheery and pleasing to the shut-in.

An Easy to Make Box.

A handkerchief box is a simple present for a child to make. Cut a piece of card six inches square. Then cut four pieces each six inches long and two wide for the sides and four more six inches long and three wide for the lid flaps. These should have one long edge straight and the other rounded. Now on the square place a piece of cotton padding, scented with a good sachet powder, and over that a square of bright silk. Stitch this down, binding with narrow silk braid, and then pad and cover the four sides and lid flaps. Next take a piece of silk or silkette three inches wide and a yard and a quarter long and gather it top and bottom. Hem the four sides on to the bottom and draw up the puff around the sides with a ribbon drawstring.

Two Gift Books.

Take a piece of water color paper, any size, fold in center, paint some pretty design, flowers or scenery, and diagonally the words in gold paint. "Guest Book." Use plain note paper for leaves and tie with ribbon to match color of design painted. Attach to this a program pencil and cord.

A baby book is made the same way, using blue forgetmenots scattered all over the cover, blue ribbons and blue or white pencil.

Knitted Wash Cloths.

Almost all children like to crochet. They can make really useful presents in shape of wash cloths of heavy white knitting cotton. Make a chain of twenty-five or more stitches, according to the size liked, and work in simple crochet stitch until the rag is square. A border of blue or pink cotton can be worked into a simple shell by the older children.

A Work Tray.

A linen covered work tray has fourteen spools of silk lined around the edge. The middle of the tray is embroidered in repousse daisy work and there is a heart shaped pin-catcher.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

A TOY AEROPLANE.

Captive airships which whiz around on a string are complete in every detail, and those made in celluloid are splendid toys that boys will be delighted to receive for Christmas presents.

The popularity of electric traction is reflected in the increased sales of electric trains and trams. The motorcar and taxicab figure prominently on the shelves. These are provided with hooters, adjustable hoods, windows which can be lowered, glass screws, lamps and even the telltale taximeter itself.

Monkeys and bears on trapezes, which squeal and grunt continually, are new and are bound to cause endless fun. There are those which turn innumerable somersaults until the motive power gives out.

In the parlor and board game department new ideas are rampant. The old fashioned Christmas tree may be superseded by the lucky pies, a big box full of prizes bearing numbers, which have to be drawn for.

The Always Popular Tool Chest.

There are few boys who are not "tickled to death" when Santa Claus leaves them a tool box, and now that manual training is taught in the schools most boys know how to use the tools intelligently. But they must be of the best quality to be of any practical value. And a watch! Well, the height of a boy's glory is reached when he gets a really truly timepiece. The popularity of the watch is well exemplified in one of Mr. Dooley's famous stories, in which the hero prayed for a watch as a Christmas gift, but, much to his disgust, received a hair chain that raved.

Things a Boy Likes.

He likes a pair of hockey skates, footballs, an air rifle, college pennants, a desk, games, jackknives, tie clips, and if you want to delight his heart give him a silver pocketknife with his monogram on it. School and college pins and just now the monogram scarf-pla may be what he'll want. Among more useful presents are to be found sweaters, school or dress suits. If the boy is interested in wireless telegraphy all kinds of batteries and appliances will help along the cause. Should you want a present for the small boy or for one of larger growth who belongs to a drum corps get him a really good drum and he'll be happy, but his parents probably will suffer. What difference? It's Christmas!

What a Girl Likes.

If she is a wee lassie who can just trundle a doll's carriage or is old enough to feel the real responsibility of a dollie as big as herself, she'll like nothing better than one of the up to date baby carts exactly like those a real baby takes her airing in. The carriage illustrated is a new model put out for the Christmas trade and the cheapest of them sells for $3.50. The shape is the same at all prices, the difference being merely in the appointments of the carriage. Of course the very wee girl will have an old fashioned model or a very tiny replica of this new variety.

Proud as Punch is the small girl when she wears her set of furs that Kris Kringle has brought her. This year there is a fascinating assortment of these sets, ranging all the way from ermine to the near ermine, which is just plain rabbit or cat, but pretty and dainty nevertheless. Chinchilla is an attractive pet for young girls, and lately even the black furs have been considered smart for youthful wearers.

Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." For sale by Emporium Drug Co.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

Too many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Anicis Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of Burns, Boils, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at all druggists.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup, bringing dread to the household. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at the first sign of danger. It contains no opiates. Sold by Emporium Drug Co.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment.
