

CAMERON

this vicinity-snow every day.

Winter seems to have set in full in J. E. Lester returned from York State

Monday. W. H. McCann was a business caller at Driftwood Tuesday. Harry Morse, "Pogey" Stewart, Cy Lupro and E. M. McFadden were business callers at Drittwood Tuesday.

S. S. Hicks entertained his two sisters, from Clearfield Co., a few days last week. J. W. Harvey spent a day at Hulings hunting for bear. Sheriff Norris was a business caller in town Monday.

It is rumored that wedding bells will ring merrily on Christmas Eve.

Geo. Wykoff and party of huaters arrived here Tuesday, huating for birds, meeting with good success.

Mrs. M. Phoenix, who has been visiting for some time at Milesburg, returned home Monday evening.

Fred Armstrong and Robert Thomas, of Emporium, visited triends in town Saturday and Sunday. Come again,

D. B. Peterson, who is teaching school at Kane, visited his family over Thanksgiving.

G. L. Page lost a valuable bird dog, on the railroad at this place, Monday.

Miss Laura McDonald, teacher of the Grammar School, visited her home at Driftwood, on Tuesday.

Ed. Schwab received a valuable sheep from York State last week.

Frank Sullivan and party who spent two days hunting in Potter county returned home Thanksgiving evening.

Mrs. Wm. McNain spent Saturday at Sinnamahoning.

Grant Hart, of Sterling Run, was caller in town several days the past week. "Pogey" Stewart was called to Driftwood on a law suit Tuesday, as a witness

Edw. Clark is the champion skunk trapper of the county. He has $25 worth of furs and $15 worth of smell and so far and challenges anybody to beat him Mike.

NORTH CREEK.

The Misses Maggie and Lizzie Moon, who have been visiting here, have returned to their homes at Scranton and Rummersfield, Pa.

Beatrice Taylor, of West Creek, spent Thanksgiving here with relatives.

Ralph Brown and "Dorse" Lewis, of Rich Valley, visited at Mrs. Solveson's Friday.

Everel Housler and wife are home after an extended visit with relatives and friends at Frewsburg, N. Y.

F. A. Lewis returned home from Black Creek, N. Y., where he visited his daughter. He also visited in Little Genesee, Houghton, and other points.

Walter Smith went to town Friday.

Aunt Beckey Spence is visiting here, guest of her niece, Mrs. Annie Housler. F. A. Lewis was a visitor to the city, Wednesday. Hazel Chandler came home Sunday evening, after a week's visit with her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Leavitt and family, at Emporium. Mrs. Caroline Haskips returned to her home after visiting relatives for a few visited with D. N. Chandler and family Sunday evening.

Wm. F. Lewis and Lew Yates were in Emporium Saturday.

Everel Housler and wife met with an ecident Friday night on returning from the city. The night was very dark and being almost impossible to guide a horse, the animal was trusted to keep the road. It however, kept too near the precipice side of the road and a slide over against the wire fence was the result. It was necessary to cut parts of the harness and also the wire fence, to extricate the horse, which, when free ran down the preci-pice into the creek. Mrs. Housler re-ceived several bruises but no serious damage was done-only the scare and that was a-plenty. Fred Solveson killed some nice game Monday. 'Twas not a bear-but a pork-

Uncle Milton Griffin is guest of Mrs. Solveson and family.

Nov. 29, 1910. BLUE JAY

Clarion State Normal School. The Clarion State Normal School is offering special courses of study during the Winter Term for young men and women whose opportunities have been limited. Tuition is free and the cost of board is low. Drop a postal card to the Principal, Clarion, Pa., and get full particulars. Get the Genuine Always.

A substitute is a dangerons makeshift specially in medicine. The genuine Foley's Honoy and Tar cures coughs and cold quickly and is in a yellow package. Accept no substitutes. For sale by Emporium Drug Co.

CAMERON.

School opened again, after two days vacation. Paul Harvey starts for Standley, N. Y.,

Mrs. Fred Comley visited Emporium

Miss Gertrude Hoag, who is attending Normal School at Lock Haven, visited home folks for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Mary Leonard spent Saturday at the home of Mrs. H. L. Webster, at Miss Cora Emig gets a position, as telegraph operator in a few weeks. She is learning with E. D. Krape.

William Wykoff went to Hicks Run the fore part of last week. He took his gun, and expects to be absent about three weeks; so please look out Mrs. Pheasant and Mrs. Cottontail.

O. W. Evans, of Sterling Rnn, was calling on friends Saturday evening. Wonder who Oliver is looking after? We haven't seen him on our streets for some

John Schwab spent Sunday at home. Reports from the woods are coming in like news from the front.' hunters have been injured, and several narrow escapes have been recorded, but Frank Sullivan, better known as "Jack Schwab of Buffalo," says if they hunt with him he will ensure you that there will be no accidents. Jack expects to start for New York in a few days. Our hunters are cracksmen. J. W. Harvey went to Sinnamahoning Saturday, returning with a black squirrel and one pheasant.

Dad McCann made a business trip to Sterling Run Saturday.

Dan McFadden and Grant Walker returned, one day last week with a good supply of pheasants.

Miss Gertrude Wickett visited her sister, Kathern, at Driftwood, Sunday. Wedding Bells soon will ring. Who? Then we will get our Haleeka Club ci-

John Yocolona was a business caller at Emporium, Saturday night.

Sam and Everett Barr were seen on our streets Saturday night. S. S. Hicks' two sisters, from Pitts field, Pa., are visiting him for a few days. Mrs. William McVane and Master Willie were visiting friends at Sinnamahoning Saturday.

Fred Armstrong, of Emporium, was calling at Fred Comley's Saturday even-DAISY.

SIZERVILLE.

We miss "Facts From Four Mile" this week. Can't be their stock has become exhausted, so soon?

The new track is laid through our town and uncle "Bill" Law has the record of running the first engine across the unlucky spot where so many big wrecks have occured. "Bill" says the new steel bridges will put an end to wrecks at that particular point.

Mr. Chas. McGill, of Milton, severed his connection with the Pennsy carpen ter gang and has departed for home. He left many admiring friends behind. He will operate his broom factory during the winter months, he raising large quanti-

The Box Social was a financial success. Miss Victory netted the snug sum of $60. Miss May Prosser carried off the prize for the most superb box. She greatly enjoyed the distinction as well as her many friends.

J. H. Caton is laid up with an injured knee, having sustained it while handling a heavy plank in his mill. He is confined to the house under the Dr's care. It is hoped the injury will not prove seri-

Chas. Howard and Chas. Hockley are making extensive preparations for swine and squab raising, having all the facilities and natural advantages at their command. They certainly will reap a harvest in the near future and we sincerely hope they may. R. R. Agent Prosser and family are taking a much needed vacation. are enjoying the parental root again of his childhood days, Mr. Farnsworth doing the agency work during his absence. Mr. Burton, who has charge of the pump station at Shippen, occupies the green house. His family having been seriously ill prevented his moving until of late date. We welcome him to our burg The new block system is being installed. The p. m., can at all times see when the block is in line.

We hear many expressions of regret that the new public highway is being detained in building as laid out, it ing been completed as far as the school We predict it's early completion and see the dangerous public grade crossings eliminated.

The mighty hunters are slaying much game around Gardeau, one party being called to Port Allegany to settle for haying hounds in the woods. They came down to the tune of $260 and departed for their homes, wiser and better men. The judge told them to go and sin no more; they "got."

XXX.

WANTED:—Everyone in Emporium and vicinity to read the opening chap-ters of the new serial by Robert W. Chambers in the November number of Cosmopolitan Magazine. It is the greatest novel of the year and is illus-trated by Charles Dana Gibson.

Cedar Shingles $4.50 per thousand at C.B. Howard & Co's.

HOWARD SIDING.

Miss Ruby Heidick spent Thanksgiving at DuBois; also visited at Ridgway and Brookville.

Mrs. M. E. Close has returned from a two week's visit at Ridgway and St.

Mr. Thatcher, of Philadelphia, preached at Howard Siding school house Sunday morning and evening. He is a God. ly man. We wish there had been more out to have heard him.

Mrs. Snyder, of Williamsport, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Clayton Toper, at this place

Mrs. Wm. Johnson, and daughter Irene, of Bryan Hill, spent Saturday night and Sunday with her mother, Mrs.

Mrs. Thos. J. Norton spent Thanksgiving with her son, Arthur, at Bryne-

SINNAMAHONING.

William Swartwood and family, of Emporium, spent Thanksgiving with his

Mr. Haskins and wife were up to Austin last week.

C.H. Cordie tarried on Sunday in Emporium.

Miss Agnes McDonald, of Driftwood, was the guest of Mrs. C. W. Gray on Sunday. Miss Maud Callahan, of Driftwood, was the guest of Miss Ethel Runyan on Wednesday evening. Mr. Tillburg was a Williamsport visitor on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Brooks went to Renovo, Thursday, to visit their daughter. Mrs. Herman Krebs is at home from Lock Haven hospital, where she spent a week with her mother.

Miss Ethel Runyan spent Wednesday in Emporium.

Mrs. Henry Caldwell is visiting in

Mr. Nace Drum, of DuBois, spent last Wednesday with his parents at this place.

Nov. 29, 1910. X.Y Z.

-----STERLING RUN.

Mr. Brua Keefer, of Williamsport, and Squire Eddy, in two days' hunt recently bagged 12 nice birds, Foot, a few miles out from Huntley.

Mrs. Florence Brenneman, of Harrisburg, and Miss Lulu Lewis were visitors at Emporium Sunday, guests of Mrs. J. P. McNarney.

Miss Nannie Spence, of Emporium, is visitor in town.

Mrs. Tom Marks and children, of Olean, are the guests of parents, S. L. Bunce and wife Mrs. John Neenan, who has been quite ill, is better at this writing. Mrs. Marshall, of Emporium, was called here Sunday on account of the serious illness of her father, C. C. Craven. Carlton Smith, Geo. O'Keefe, Teoka Whiting and Mildred Strawbridge spent Thanksgiving at home returning to school Monday. Mr. Fred Brenneman, wife and brother and Chas. Miller after spending a week in town, guests of Mrs. Jessie B. Lewis returned to their home at Harrisburg, Wednesday, having bagged 6 birds and 8 rabbits.

Mrs. Dr. Wright, of Erie, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Herrick, re-

Mrs. J. A. Dice returned home Monday from a week's visit with relatives at

Miss Minnie Quinn and Misses Wells and Quinn of Emporium are the guests of former's parents, Wm. Berry and Thos. J. Lynch, who has been working at Elkland, is home on a short visit. Mrs. Mike Donahue and children visited relatives in St. Marys over Sunday

Master Geo. and Arthur Warner, of Emporium, were the guests of Mrs. Jessie Lewis, recently. Mike Parker, Wilson Berry, Clarence

Howlett and Louis Whiting returned a flock will come along before Christmas. home Saturday from a hunting trip to Morquito Creek. Mike Parker killed a very nice buck which weighed when dressed 198 pounds. Witson Berry killed one somewhat smaller.

Miss R. L. Brink returned home from Middletown recently where she was called on account of the death of her

Mrs. A. A. Smith and daughter visited relatives at Beech Creek Saturday. Miss Nettie Kisseli is a visitor at Sinmahoning, guest of her sister, Mrs. T. S. Fulton.

Mrs. Abe Padolf and son visited for mee's brother, N. Silin, at Sinnamahoning, Monday. C. C. Craven was stricken with paralysis last Saturday, and died Tuesday night at 10 o'clock. Will be buried at Emat 10 o'clock. porium Friday. Funeral services at his ate residence Friday A. M., at Sterling Run.

Miss Clara Stewart, of Driftwood, was the guest of her uncle Mort. Dininny re-

Mr. and Mrs. Cob, of Philadelphia, were the guests of J. A. Dice and wife Tuesday. Mr. Cob has recently retired Route agent on the Penna. R. R.

Mrs. Geo. Kenworthy and children were the guests of the former's father and mother, at Elbon, the past week. BLUE BELL.

The Christmas Spirit

of gilt, and tinsel, and crystal and color glisten magically in myriad forms. Plunge into the thick of the throngs and and you can't escape the contagion—the contagion of happiness. The carnival spell The gay, strange things born of men's brains to entrance the errant fancy of children will untangle your twisted thoughts and the old cold spark—the human spark—will burn again.

Hand Embroidered Laundry Bags | Beautiful Pillow Tops at Half Price

Our own importation from Germany. These Bags are very beautifully Embroidered; Elegant

Designs and the price won-derfully low for Handwork, $1.00 and 1.25

Waist Sets in Christmas Boxes

Each Box Contains 31 yards, Pretty White Waist Material of Mercer-69c, 89c, $1.00

Rich Furs

ers that our prices were considerable below those asked in large cities, and this is rightfully so. We offer splendid Furs at very reasonable prices.

Gloves

Kid Gloves that can be bought for the price

$1.00 and $1.50

New Real and Imitation Washable Chamois Gloves

50c and $1.00

ness 50c, $1.00 and $1.50.

and 50c.

worth 10 to 25c per tube, choice 5c.

Toys, Dolls, Games

Toy Grocery Stores fully equipped for busi-

24 inch Jointed Dolls extra good, each $1.25.

Fine quality Water color Paints in Tubes.

Baby Bumb Unbreakable Dolls, each $1.00.

Hundreds of Games at each 5c, 10c, 25c

We sell the best makes in

We are told by our custom-

Extra Special

Millinery at Less Than Cost. We must have the room taken up by our Millinary Dep't for the display of Holiday Goods. Therefore we offer all our Ladies', Misses' and Children's Trimmed and ready to wear hats at following prices:

All $6.00 Trim'd Hats red. to $3.98 All 5.00 Trim'd Hate red. to 3.75 All 3.98 Trim'd Hats red. to 2.50 All 3.50 Trim'd Hats red. to 2.25 All 2.50 Trim'd Hats red. to 1.50 All 2.00 Trim'd Hats red. to 1.25 All 1.50 Trim'd Hats red. to 98c All 1.25 Trim'd Hats red. to 79c

These Pillow Tops are sample pieces of a New York Manufacturer; there are just twenty, All beautiful Patterns, made with Corenotion Braid Flowers, all Handwork. The regular price is $3.00 each, but having been shown as samples for a little while, we offer them at $1.50 each

Splendid New Silk Scarfs

Silk Scarfs are very popular this season. We offer a very large assortment in Plain or Persian Designs; also Lace and 50c to $5.00 Chiffon, at from

Children's Fur Sets

White Astrachan, Thibit, Ermine, Lamb, and Angora, also Gray Persian, Brown Coney, Australian Oposum Sets are shown here. Prices per set range from $10.00

Embroidered Center Pieces & Table Scarfs

Unusual values in Round or Square Center Pieces and Scarfs, richly Embroidered. Either Hemstiched or Linen our own importation. 50c

Brass Goods and Novelties

Hammered Brass Umbrella Stands, $3.00

$2.50, $3.50, $5.00. Pictures in Gold Frames, 69c, $1.00, $1.25,

Humidors which keep your cigars moist and

Wonderful Values in Framed Pictures at each 10c and 25c.

Emporium's Greatest Store.

The best made for the $1.00 and $1.50

John S. Jordan, our champion trapper and hunter, caught a very large wild cat one night last week. It weighed about

Men's Combination Sets Consisting of One Silk Handkerchief, One Silk Tie, One PairMercerized

Sox. All of the same color. Per Set, $1.00.

B. J. Collins left for Conneaute, Ohio, on Friday, to visit his brother at that

J. E. Johnson butchered some fine hogs on Thursday. Thomas Eddy, of Sterling Run, and Mrs. Keefer, of Willamsport, were callers in town two days last week and secured a nice bunch of pheasants in Big Run. A. W. Smith called on relatives and friends on First Fork, Sunday and Mon-

William H. Logue and son Walter, are busily engaged building a new addition to their bouse.

Thomas Kailbourn transacted business Sterling Run on Saturday evening. Elmer Hill, of Driftwood, was the nest of W. R. Smith and family on Wednesday. Clyde Collins was a business caller in Driftwood on Saturday. Lewis Smith is making preparations to ecure some wild geese when the first flock flies over this place. He has order ed a cannon that will throw a bushel of buck-shot five miles. We all hope that

Wayne Nelson was a Driftwood caller Mrs. William Wheaton, of Sinnama-honing, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Smith, on Sunday. Wright Mason, of Pine Street, was a pleasant caller in town on Sunday. Our school teacher Miss Pearl Lewis. of Buffalo, has resigned her position as teacher. We are sorry to see her go for she is a very competent teacher.

Westbbrook Commercial

Academy. Students who wish to start in January should apply now. Only a few seats left, Business, shorthand typewriting and English courses. 29th school year.

WESTBROOK ACADEMY, Olean, N. Y.

Warning

All persons are hereby forbidden from trespassing upon the property of this Company without a permit from this office, or the Manager at the works KEYSTONE POWDER MFG. Co. Emporium, Pa., August 1st 1903

Latest Popular Music.

Miss May Gould, teacher of plane fort has received a full line of the la-est and most popular sheet music. All the popular airs. Popular and class-leal music. Prices reasonable.

Goldie Rice is home on a vacation.

Thanksgiving. Lora Kirkpatrick has accepted a position at Hicks Run.

Messrs. Viner, Waddington and Leutze, of Emporium, were the guests of Jay Logan last week.

were shopping in Emporium Monday. ounty seat Wednesday.

spend Sunday with his parents. Regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., was held at the M. E. Church, Wednes-will be glad to learn of his speedy recovery.

R. L. Wylie captured two large wild cats last Monday, one weighing 50 pounds the other 30 pounds. Here's luck to you, Robert.

Jay and Rose, spent Thauksgiving at Williamsport.

Many people, who attended the Thanksgiving ball at St. Marys, report a lain's Cough Remedy have been thoroughly tested during the epidemics of inoking after business last week.

vell earned vacation at home. Mrs. Evers made a business trip to the county seat Friday,

Frank Gueschwinder is spending a

Albert Rice was home last week.

An interesting Thanksgiving program was given in the Castle Garden school, Wednesday evening Nov. 23, by the school. The teachers, Miss Gertrude Hill and Miss Rotha Kreider, as well as the pupils, deserve much credit for getting up the program. The entertainment was well attended by patrons and others.

Charlotte, were in Williamsport several days of this week. A pleasant visit with Mrs. H. A. Greenough, formerly of this

Hammered Brass Jardiniers, $1.00, $1.25,

Fine Gold Clocks, $125, $1.50, $1.98,

BEECHWOOD. John Reid, of Renovo, called on his arents between trains Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Toner were the ests of their son, at Daugascahonda,

Laura McDonald and Jeanette Smith

Lizzie Markert and father visited the Shary Rice came home Saturday night day evening. A large attendance. The many friends of Mr. Chas. Rice, Chas. McLaughlin, of HicksRun, visit ed his friends on Sunday in town.

Mrs. John Lawson, son and daughter, at Emporium on Thursday evening last.

fine time.

DRIFTWOOD.

SPRUCE UP.

Mrs. Russell, of Philadelphia, who is visiting her son, Mr. C. L. P. Russell, of this place, was a guest, with her son, at the home of Mr. S. P. Kreider on Thanks Mrs. Joseph Johnston, and daughter, place, was reported. Special Thanksgiving services were held in the Methodist church, on the

Hammered Brass Fern Dishes, 89c, $1.00,

in good taste, brass bound, zink lined $1.50,

Onyx Black Silk Hose

evening of Nov. 27, by the Rev. Run-yan. The theme for the evening was 'The Call of the Sweet Singer of Israel.' The church was decorated in the National Colors and good music was rendered. The offering was for the benefit of the Philadelphia Hopital.

Prof. Harrington and Miss Kitzmiller have again returned to their school work, after their Thanksgiving vacation. A crowd of young ladies were pleasanty entertained at the home of Miss Rotha Kreider on Friday evening. All brought their fancy work with them.

Rev. R. W. Runyan and Mrs. R, acompanied by her sister and daughter, after attending services, on Sunday evening, were pleasant callers at the home of Mr. S. P. Kreider.

A deer weighing 184 lbs. was brought to the station at this place, to be sent to Mr. Rhines of Ridgway. A banquet in honor of the Hon. John McDonald's seventieth birthday was given by the railroad men of division 8, on Fuesday evening last. He has been in the employ of the railroad company, as

Supervisor, for thirty years and is now

retired from active service

Messrs. Eldred Kreider, John Riley

we have not heard of a single case of pneumonia. Sold by all dealers.

WANTED AT ONCE. Local andtraveling salesmen in this state to represent us. There is money in the work for YOU soliciting for our easy selling specialies. Apply now for territory.

ALLEN NURSERY CO., Rochester, N. Y

MUNN & CO. 361Broadway, New York