Sameron County Press

HENRY H. MULLIN,

Editor and Proprietor ORVILLE PROUDFOOT, Assistant and Manager RAYMOND KLEES, Assistant Foreman. W. Scott Sterner, Assistant Local Editor.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

STERLING RUN.

Oliver Evans, first trick operator at Huntley, attended the O. R. T. meeting at Kane last Saturday.

Mrs. C. A. Dice was a visitor at Renovo the past week.

Mrs. Cora Stewart and Mrs. Ray Dinniny, of Driftwood, were the guests of their brother, Mort. Dinniny and fam-

M. A. Barr is on the sick list this Whiting Herrick, of St. Marys, was the guest of his grand-mother, Mrs. Herrick, Saturday.

The Messiah Church caught fire Sun day morning and had it not been for the help of Samuel Ebersole, Jr., and a few others, it would have been destroyed; as it was, considerable damage was done

Mrs. W. H. Bagley visited relatives at St. Marys, Tuesday. We have been having zero weather for the past week.

Frank Charter, of Renovo, was a visitor in town Tuesday.

Ed. Marshall, of Chapman Hill, captured a cross silver grey and red fox. It also had a few black spots and was a beauty.

Mrs. Chas. Jones, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Watson, at Snow Shoe, for several weeks, returned home Tuesday.

The Mount Hope Coal Co , have commenced to survey the mile of road fur-ther on to the second drift where they have opened another mine.

Mrs. Law and Mrs. Demorest, of Renovo, were the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. J. A. Dice.

BLUE BELL.

CAMERON.

Wm. McVane lost a fifty dollar cow last week, owing to a bad fall received a few weeks ago.

Ice cutting is next in order, having out seven inches of ice now on the creek. Wm. McVane butchered two fine hogs

Monday. Total weight 1,093 pounds. Who is next? Quite a number of the Brick Company's people left recently, owing to no work at present. Dan Sullivan, Sr., sold a valuable cow and calf Saturday to Mr. Hughes, of Emporium, for a fine price. A big time is assured the night of the 23rd to the people in this place and else where, owing to the big dance here.

John McFadden has the record of be ing the best and fastest wood ranker in the county, having ranked seven cords in three hours, Monday.

A card party was held in one of our citizen's homes the past week, and the pair that was cheating are the ones who lost out. Next time play fair; maybe you might win a game once in a while

Wm. Wykoff left for another hunting hunter and always brings home the Miss Esther Stuart and nieces, of Detroit, returned to this place after an extended trip to the former place.

Howard Burlingame and wife, of Detroit, are visiting the latter's parents at

A big X was entertainment is booked for the 24th, in this place. All cordially invited to attend. W. W. Wykoff, of First Fork, spent a few days in this place last week. Come again, Wash.

G. L. Page's addition to his house is nearing completion and soon ready for occupancy. J. W. Harvey brought a fine bull "purp" from Sterling Run recently and made a donation of it. Frank Sullivan, night track walker at present, saw one of the largest wild cats Monday night that he ever saw, but after a short chase it was found to be a One Girl. grey rabbit. Schwab Bros received another car load of coal the past week. Nearly all of our town people are supplied for the winter now.

Frank Sullivan was bitten by the kissing bug Sunday and is in a serious condition at this writing.

Since the town has started two L. C. clubs, ye correspondent has not been able to keep tab on either one so he has nothing to report, but from side issues rehalf of the doings in this place.

J. W. Harvey is now champion seven. porium Drug Co.

up player of the county, since he has beaten champion Bagley of Sterling Run to the tune of 10-3, Monday.

There are some pretty cute persons in this place but it does not take fying glass to see through the fog. Bet-ter be careful or the vodoo man will catch you.

Cyrus Lupro returned from East Orange, N. J., Monday, and after a short stay here expects to make a short trip through the western States; from there going to California, where he expects to make his future home.

Dec. 14, 1910.

SINNAMAHONING.

Fine winter weather, but not enough snow for good sleighing. F. L. Miller, of First Fork, was a cal!-

er Monday.

John Moore, of Lorshbaugh, was in town, Tuesday, with a fine bear.

The Farmer's Grange, of Lorshbaugh, was organized on Saturday with about thirty members. "Fin" Johnson has started a milk route here this winter.

Geo. P. Shafer contemplates building an up-to-date hotel in the spring.

Rabbit hunters are having lots of sport since the fresh fall of snow.

getting moved into their new store, which is one of the finest in the county John Moore and L. C. Wykoff followed a big bear from Logue's Run into Grove Run on Monday, but failed to cap-C. E. Logue, of First Fork, has hung up his rifle and hunting outfit and is clerking in a store this winter.

Counsil Brothers are basy this week

J. R. Batchelder has quit hunting for this season and is carrying mail again.

A. J. Barclay was out in the mountains the last week, looking for bear but failed to locate any. J. H. Fry was a visitor at the county seat on Tuesday.

Plumbers are putting in a furnace and heaters for J. H. Drum this week.

O. R. McCool has his new barber shop located at the end of the bridge.

It looks pretty lonesome at the mouth of First Fork now. No stores, no postoffice and not much of anything else but ruins to look at.

Mignon Rebekahs will hold a class initiation on Friday evening. All members are requested to be present.

The new chemical engine has come and has been tested and proved to be all right. Sinnamahoning's first start for fire protection.

O. C. Spence, of Driftwood, was down Monday looking up poultry for Christ-

Game Warden, A. E. Smith, went to Potter county last week.

"Lape" Logue got one of Jim Batch-elder's recipes for fox bait and caught one the first night. He says the recipe is all right.

The papers say that the bear law will be changed this coming winter so as to cut out trapping for them, or selling the carcass after being killed. The trappers will have to move to some other State.

Only six bears were caught in traps in Grove this fall, not very many.

Counsil Brothers held their opening of the new store on Wednesday. They had a fine display. Geo. P. Shafer and Will Logue cutting wood for the B. & S. R. R., this If it keeps cold a few nights longer the ice harvest will commence. R. J. Fiscus has moved from Wyside to Enterprise, in one of the Sinna mahoning Powder Co's houses.

G. H. Wykoff, of Grove Hill, Clinton county, was a visitor last week.

The little black horse and buggy failed to make its trip to Wyside last Mon-

A. L. Ensign and C. H. Cordie were callers at the county seat Tuesday even-Benette Bennett is visiting friends in Jersey Shore this week.

Amos Fenton was a visitor at Emporium over Sunday and since his return has been wearing a broad smile. He during the past week. must have met with something very pleasing to the eye while up there. The Fair and Festival by the ladies was very nice and a large crowd were in attendance. Music was furnished by the Sinnamanoning Band. X. Y.R." was at the Fair and will give a full seport next week. The Band was present at Council Brothers opening on Wednesday and rendered some fine music.

It looks as though there would be sev eral weddings in the near future as hear several of the boys singing, "Just WANTED:—Everyone in Emporium and vicinity to read the opening chapters of the new serial by Robert W. Chambers in the November number of Cosmopolitan Magazine. It is the greatest novel of the year and is illustrated by Charles Dana Gibson.

A substitute is a dangerons makeshift ceived it would take one editor and three reporters busy to keep tab on all that is Foley's Honoy and Tar cures coughs and

NORTH CREEK.

Mrs. Emma Haskins, of Sizerville, is visiting friends in this place.

Congratulations to Walter. Christmas will soon be here.

Anna Bates has returned from visiting her parents in Plank Road Hollow. Mrs. Wm. F. Lewis is on the sick

Garle Lewis has gone to Mina to work in the kindling wood factory. Olive Coole called on friends on West Creek Saturday, bringing her father home with her.

Winter has come at last. We have some very cool nights.

Bertha Britton is improving.

Ed. Morgan visited the city last week accompanied by Myrtle Cool. Clendon Moore was sick last week.

Walter Smith made a journey over the Four Mile recently, Quite a little photographing has been done this week. How about it boys?

Very poor attendance at school the C. E. Chadwick came near burning out Monday morning. Be careful how you burn wood these cold mornings. The girls on North Creek are getting ome mysterious post cards. Mrs. Cool's baby is in a very critical condition. It is hoped that he will soon

FIRST FORK

Notwithstanding the bad storm of Saturday night, Horace H. Hall, organized a "Gravge" at Baily School House, of 16 members, with the following officers; Frank L. Miller, Master; Mildred Haynes, Secretary; George Goss, Overseer, &c. Owing to the storm a good many who had sent in their names failed to show up.

Mrs. Elsie Beckner accompanied by her sister Cella Logue, started for her home at Laurel, Miss., on Saturday. They are going to stop over Sunday a Mercury got down to zero on Saturday morning.

J. R. Batchelder was up last week as-

LeGrand Wykoff and John Moore killed a small bear in Lick Island Run about the middle of last week.

There has been but few bear killed along this section this season, and the bear hunters from a distance have all

Mrs. Keck, of Wharton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. M. Williams, for a couple of weeks.

Since hunting season closed C. E.

Logue has gone back to Wharton, to clerk again for William Horton. Howard Burlingame of Detroit, Mich. has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burlingame, at Berge Run for few days and is visiting friends at Cameron since The game Wardens a'l went into the woods and hunted game till the close of the deer season, just as that was what they were for, and since have started out to hunt other game in the shape of law-breakers. Pretty late in the season starting out, Eh?

NUF SED.

DRIFTWOOD. The annual Masonic Banquet given by the Ladies Aid Society on Friday evening last. About seventy-two guests were present, including members of Driftwood Lodge and visitors from Renovo, Emporium, Benezette, Hicks Run, Northumberland and Sinnamahon-

A very nice dance was held in Mitchell's Opera House on Thursday even-ing last. Excellent music was furnished by Miss Florence Murphy and company.

Mrs. S. P. Kreider and Mrs. J. D. Winslow of this place attended the meeting of the Eastern Star Lodge, in Emporium on Wednesday last.

The Fancy Work Culb met at the home of Mrs. Bruce Polm on Saturday evening. A pleasant time was reported.

Mrs. R. T. Krider of Northumberland is visiting at the home of her parents, Dr. V. K. Corbett, and will remain during the holidays.

Mrs. Benjamin Osburn has been ill Miss Ethel Runyan, of Sinuamahon-ing, was in town on Friday evening and Mr. Roy Kreider, of Northumberland, was in town Friday evening to attend the banquet. A program is being prepared by the Literary Society of the Driftwood school, to be given on Friday afternoon, after which the schools will close until after New Year's Day.

Mr. S. P. Kreider made a business trip to Emporium on Tuesday. A Christmas program is being pre-pared by the Methodist Sunday School.

A Christmas Tree and Santa Claus will help to interest the young folks. Westbbrook Commercial Academy. Students who wish to start in January should apply now. Only a few seats left. Business, shorthand typewriting and English courses. 29th school year.

WESTBROOK ACADEMY, Olean, N. Y.

For Sale. ng on, and then would likely miss global for the doings in this place.

J. W. Harvey is now champion seven.

J. W. Harvey is now champion seven.

BEECHWOOD.

Mrs. J. L. Reid was called to Renovo on account of sickness.

Guy Brown, of St. Marys called on triends in town Sunday.

Mrs. C. Toner, of Howard, is visiting her parents at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Logan spent a tew days at Curwensville, DuBois, and other points of interest. Robert Wylie was a business caller in Emporium on Thursday. Mr. John Nyhart spent a few hours at the county seat Wednesday.

Alfred Rice is some better at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. James Carney, of Ridgway, were the guests of the Lawson family on Thursday. Lora Kirkpatrick, of Hicks Run, was the guest of Goldie Rice over Sunday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Smith. Dec. 4th, a daughter. Jacob Herbstreet visited his daughter at St. Marys, last week. Reuben Andrews, who has been located at Nebraska, is home for the holidays

Miss Helen Friendel, of Emporium, returned to her home Monday, after making a short visit, guest of her friend, Tressa Lawson.

The popular ten, of this place, are preparing to give a dance and supper on Dec. 17h. A good time is assured.

Mrs. John W. Wylie was visiting her daughter at St. Marys the past week.

Mrs. John Lawson is the guest of her daughter at Pittsburg. Belle Hamilton and George Simons of St. Marys visited their friends in town

Sunday. Rev. Chas. Lehman, who is conduct ing revival services at the M. E. Church for the past two weeks, is having great success, bringing many young people to the altar. Let the good work go on,

SINNAMAHONING.

Mr. John Ganse visited friends in Coudersport, over Sunday. Mrs. C. W. Gray shopped in DuBois

last Wednesday. Mrs. J. H. Baird, Mrs. T. J. Fulton and Mrs. Nathan Silin attended a meeting of the Eastern Star, on Thursday evening. Ray Carstater spent Wednesday at his home in Keating. Mrs. Shade of Keating spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Frank Fisher. Miss Nettie Kissell, of Sterling Run returned home last Wednesday, after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. T. S. Fulton. Mrs. Silin visited in DuBois last week.

Rev. R. W. Runyan, Messrs. J. H.

Baird, C. H. Cordie, J. H. Krebs, C. Fry, J. Barr, and James Counsil, attended the Masonie Banquet, at Driftwood, Friday evening.

Miss Myrtle Shafer spent Sunday in

Miss E. Runyan called on friends in Emporinm on Friday.

Mr. Frey and wife of Penfield, spent Sunday with their parents. Mrs. Ensign and grand-daughter, Sizerville, spent Sunday with her son, A. L. Ensign.

Dec. 14, 1910.

MEDIX RUN.

Horace Smith, while switching cars at annery, Friday morning caught several fingers in the steel rope, smashing three fingers. He will be unable to work for some time.

The infant daughter, aged four months, of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Carson died Friday morning of pneumonia. Re-mains taken to Clearfield on Saturday for Miss Iva Backus, who has been sick for some time, is better.

A few cases of whooping cough in Mrs. Jos. Riss went to DuBois hospital on Wednesday for treatment. Mamie DeHass, of Benezette, is visiting her sister at this place.

The Ladies Aid Society will hold a fair in Band Hall, Dec. 15th. Benefit of Rev. Engler.

Miss Mary Miller is now able to be around again Mary Swain, of Austin, is visiting her ister, Mrs. C. A. King. Mrs. Mae Wolfrau, who has been sufferning with rheumatism, is somewhat

Mrs. R. Nelson, of DuBois, visited here a few days ago, guest of her daughter. A number of Odd Fellows from this place attended Lodge at Benezette Saturday evening. A dance, benefit of the band, was given Saturday evening.

T. H. Garrity was a DuBois visitor one day last week. T. H. Garrity was a DuBois visitor one day last week.

Frank Fye, of Clearfield, while enroute for Roaring Branch, stopped off a couple of days, guest of Ed. Moore and family.

visitor on Thursday. Mrs. Jack Garlin, of Benezette, was a visitor in town Wednesday.

meeting Wednesday evening.

NORTH CREEK.

Henry Carter is driving team for W. Lewis and hauled wood for E. H. Marshall, Wednesday and Friday.

Mrs. Solveson visited the city Friday. Warren Moore called on friends here Sunday.

Ed. Morgan visited town on Monday, Mrs. Vine Swartwood and Mrs Annie White were guests of Mrs. May Mc-Clerahan, and family Sunday.

Frank Craven passed through our streets Wednesday.

Wm. Smith and Everal Housler were city visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Solveson gave a taffy party Tuesday evening. There were seven couples present. Games and music were the principal features of the evening, excepting the nicely prepared luncheon, to which they all did justice. The young folks report a pleasant time.

To town Saturday: Olive Cool, V. I. Dow, Wm. F. Lewis, Willis Mc M. Dow, Wm. F.

Clenahan, Everal Housler. Robt. Warner purchased a new team. They are oxen. Some one wonders if they are so much alike that he has to put a "B" on one end of the yoke for "Buck" and a "B" on the other end for "Berry," so he can tell them apart. Henry Carter was a city visitor Tues-

THAT birthday party which was to be,

will not take place until the beautiful warm days of summer.

J. N. Chandler and Corydon Housler are living up Porcnpine Hollow.

Dec. 14, 1910. BLUE JAY.

Signals of Distress.

Emporium People Should Know How to Read and Heed Them,

Sick kidneys give many signals of dis-The secretions are dark, contain a sed-

Passages are frequent, scanty, painful. Backache is constant day and night. Headaches and dizzy spells are fre-The weakened kidneys need quick

Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys backache and urinary disorders. Emporium evidence proves this statement. Mrs. Anna Zimmet, Fourth Street, Emporium, Pa., says: "Ten years ago I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Taggart's Drug Store and found them to be a reliable kidney medicine. I shall al-Geo. Pistner was a DuBois business ways recommend this preparation when

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, The Pocahontis held their regular Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents. Remember the name-Doan's—and take no other.

I have the opportunity.

中心不得心不得心不得心不得心不得

GIFT SUGGESTIONS

Wreaths of Holly.

A useful basket filled with our choice Fruits or with flowers for the Christmas dinner table center piece.

A fancy box of our good chocolates, a dozen of roses.

Father

Sister

Mother

A box of good Cigars. A jar of good Smoking Tobacco.

A set of those Leipsic Post Cards framed.

Little Sister or Brother A box of Home-made candy; a dozen pop-corn balls, some clear candy toys and candles and tree ornaments for the Christmas tree. Chewing Gum, Whistles.

For the Christmas Table

Delicious bon-bons, after dinner mints, salted peanuts, almonds, fruits and nuts. Ice Cream in Molds or Bricks.

Our line of Candies cannot be surpassed in point of quality in Cameron county; price from 8 cents to a dollar a pound. We make our own Ribbon Candy, commonly called "Christmas Candy." 2 pounds for 25c, 15c single lb.

Christmas Letters and Postals for friends out of town

ONE DOOR EAST OF POST OFFICE, EMPORIUM, PA.