

Breezy County News

HICKS RUN

Mrs. Major Bailey is on the sick list. Miss Ethel Hart left on Monday for Elmira, N. Y., where she will attend business college.

Frank Patchell, while enroute for Da B. is on Monday, lost his pocket book on the train. It contained about one thousand dollars.

Herman Erhard, who was called home a couple of weeks ago on account of the serious illness of his father, has returned and reports his father better.

Mrs. S. V. Mitchel, who has been suffering from an abscess, expects to undergo an operation on Wednesday.

On Monday morning, about 2 o'clock John R. Hicks' farm was discovered to be on fire. The barn was enveloped in a sheet of flames when first discovered. It contained a large amount of feed, wagons and agricultural implements, three cows, one calf and a large flock of valuable chickens, all of which was burned. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is believed to be the work of tramps. The loss is estimated as $2,000, insurance $300.

Jan. 4, 1911.

B. E. W.

HUNTLEY.

"Lial" Jordan has accepted a position as janitor for the Huntley school.

"Hub" Smith can be seen most any evening out with his bronco, giving the girls a sleigh ride. The young fellows don't have any show now, since Hub arrived in town.

A. W. Smith says that the pair tree owned by Johnson, that he picked 50 bushel of pairs from last fall, is now out in full bloom.

Lon Duell has resigned his position as assistant forman for W. W. Johnson.

Miss Bessie Billings is visiting friends in Renovo this week.

Thomas Kailburn, of Fourth street, is putting up an ice house at Renovo this week. He expects to run an ice cream parlor next summer if he can get the Wylsde school teacher to assist him.

The United Lumber and Coal Company expect to begin operations at Huntley soon. Mr. Philips will superintend the business.

Wayne Nelson was a Driftwood caller on Saturday.

Henry Hill, of Grove Hill, was seen on our streets on Friday.

An oyster supper will be given at J. E. Johnson's on Friday evening, for the benefit of the Huntley Band. Everybody invited.

The Union Sunday School of this place, will elect officers next Sunday, Jan. 15. Let everybody turn out and make the election interesting.

SPORT.

DRIFTWOOD.

On Wednesday last Mrs. S. P. Kreider and daughter, of this place, spent a pleasant day at the home of Rev. R. W. Runyan, Sinnamahoning.

D. Clinton Colebaugh, of Lancaster, called on Normal friends at Driftwood on Sunday.

Dr. Corbett, who has been ill for several days, is much better.

Miss Rotha Kreider was in DuBois on Tuesday and Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bower and daughter Leola, of Castle Garden, spent a day of last week at Wylsde.

S. D. McCool, while handling some goods at the station, slipped and fell against one of the trucks and was quite seriously injured.

Mr. Cordie, of Sinnamahoning, was in town on Tuesday evening.

Dean Thompson was in Emporium on Sunday.

A party of young people consisting of Misses Maude Callahan and Edna Mitchell, Messrs. William Spencer, J. E. Kreider, Archie McDonald and Mr. Cordie, attended the dance at Emporium on Friday evening.

Among those who attended the dance at Hicks Run on Monday evening of last week were: Miss Maude Callahan, Messrs. William Spencer and Garrett Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Carlson, of Renovo, spent Sunday in Driftwood.

Mr. Albert Reed left on Saturday for his home in East Brady, where his brother who was seriously ill. He died soon after his arrival.

Miss Nellie Whiting, of Sterling Run, gave a party to a number of her friends, in honor of Miss Rotha Kreider, who was her guest on Friday evening.

Miss Laura McDonald, who has been suffering from a sprained ankle, is not yet able to attend to her school duties.

Grant Himes, who has just returned from Mexix Run, is now ill.

x.x.

No One Expects It.

Without the use of Seline Pills a weak or run down person cannot expect to become thoroughly strong. Seline Pills are the strongest and surest tonic in the world. The price is $1 a box; six boxes $5, with full guarantee. Address or call at Dodson's Drug Store, Emporium, Pa., where they sell all the principal remedies and do not substitute.

CAMERON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

More sleighing. Another chance for our young people to go to Sterling Run. J. J. Considine, Supervisor of the P. & E. R. R., and Assistant Mr. Russell of Driftwood, were business callers in this place Tuesday.

Isaac Wykoff returned home from Potter county Saturday, and is spending a few days in this place at the home of her sister.

G. L. Page, signalman of this place, was a business caller at Emporium Tuesday.

A. A. Smith, signal foreman of Sterling Run, was a business caller at this place Tuesday.

The K. G. E. held their regular weekly meeting in their hall, Saturday evening, with a good turn out. He boys wish to see a better turn out at the next meeting. Boys wake up.

Ed. Clark is making all kinds of money this winter, by working in the mines by day and trapping by night. He has up-to-date 17 skunks, 21 muskrats, four foxes and seven woodchucks, not counting the squirrel and chipmunks he shot on the way to his traps.

Our ex-champion seven-up player, J. W. Harvey, was again badly defeated by W. G. Bagley, of Sterling Run; score 7 to 1. It is rumored Mr. Bagley wants Mr. Harvey to play a game with his five year old daughter, but our champion's nerve failed him. What is the matter Jim, when our amateurs beat him? McFaddin says he is easy to beat.

LOUISE.

CAMERON

Miss Laura McDonald, teacher of the Grammar School, who has been off duty with a badly sprained ankle, for some time, returned to her duties on Monday.

J. W. Hurvey was a Sterling Run caller one day last week.

Calder Brick & Coal Co's engine was down shifting cars, getting ready to ship brick for the spring trade.

S. S. Hicks, of Britton Hill, was a caller in town Saturday.

Sheriff Norris was a business caller in town Friday.

Benj. Dayton, of Sterling Run, was a business caller in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Wm. Ledons and Mrs. Howard Burlingame were callers in Emporium Friday last.

The Liars Club held a meeting one day last week and Champion Frank Sullivan sprung a ghost story, when the members disbanded until the next week to investigate.

W. X. Y. Z.

SINNAMAHONING.

Miss Bertha Fulton and Mrs. Nathan Silin spent Thursday evening in Emporium.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton and son, visited in Emporium over last Sunday.

Miss Munsell spent several days with Miss Helen Council last week.

Wm. Piper of Renovo, spent some time with his wife and family at her home.

Mrs. Inez H. Truby, of Brush Valley, is visiting her brother, Rev. R. W. Runyan.

Miss Nellie Huntley, of Emporium, spent Saturday with Mrs. Strayer.

Mr. Tony Fulton is transacting business in Emporium this week.

Harry Insign spent last Sunday in Emporium with friends.

Miss Rena Wykoff visited friends at First Fork last week.

Mrs. V. A. Brooks visited in Renovo on Monday.

Miss Clella Caldwell has returned from visiting friends at Huntley.

A number of people from Renovo attended the P. O. S. of A. banquet, Monday evening.

x.x.x.

NORTH CREEK.

Meetings were held in the school house last week by Rev. Hall, Rev. Shares assisting. Meetings were transferred to the Rich Valley church, Sunday, and to be continued for some time.

Ethel Britton Sundayed at home.

Ernest Housler and Ed. Cool were taking a vacation. Ed. visited the city Wednesday and Ernest Thursday, of last week.

F. A. Lewis and Henry Carter called on friends on West Creek and transacted business in town Friday.

Lora and Helen McClenahan are again attending school. Both young ladies were very sick last week.

Walter Smith transacted business in the city Friday and Tuesday.

Everal Housler and V. M. Dow visited the city on Saturday.

Mrs. Chas. Barr had the misfortune to fall and break her left arm near the wrist, last Saturday evening. She was taken to Dr. Heilman's office early Sunday morning and had the fracture reduced and is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Florence Cool has been quite sick for some time.

J. W. Lewis and Henry Carter transacted business in town Monday.

V. M. Dow was quite ill last week, but is better again.

Mrs. Annie Housler enjoyed a sleigh ride Sunday.

Mrs. Vine Swartwood and Mrs. Annie White visited at Mrs. McClenahan's Sunday and Monday.

After visiting at the home of his niece,

Additional Bargains From Our January Clearance Sale

$5.00 Light colored Ostrich Plumes. Best quality, 15 inches long $2.50 Sale price, each

75c Taffeta Silk 26 inches wide; best quality. In Cadet blue and leather color, brown. Sale price yd 49c

8 1/2c Excellent quality 36 inch Bleached cotton, soft finished for the needle 7 1/2c Sale price per yard

3c Hamberg Embroidery, 2 to 3 inches wide reduced to per yd 3c

50c Men's heavy leather mittens. Sale price per yd 25c

1-4 Off regular price on all single prs Lace & Ruffle Curtains

Short Fleece Kimonos

Reg price 50c, sale price 39c

Reg price 59c, sale price 47c

Reg price 69c, sale price 53c

Reg price 98c, sale price 73c

Long Fleece Kimonos, excellent quality and stylish patterns.

Reg price $1.00, sale price 83c

Reg price 1.19, sale price 92c

Reg price 1.25, sale price 98c

Reg price 2.00, sale price 1.49

Ladies and Misses Coats

All $25.00 Coats reduced to $16.75

All 22.50 Coats reduced to 15.00

All 20.00 Coats reduced to 14.50

All 18.50 Coats reduced to 13.75

All 18.00 Coats reduced to 13.50

All 16.50 Coats reduced to 12.50

All 15.00 Coats reduced to 10.00

All 13.50 Coats reduced to 9.25

All 12.50 Coats reduced to 8.98

All 11.00 Coats reduced to 7.98

All 8.75 Coats reduced to 5.98

All 7.50 Coats reduced to 5.00

All 5.98 Coats reduced to 3.98

Ladies and Misses Suits

All $25.00 Suits reduced to $16.50

All 22.00 Suits reduced to 15.00

All 18.50 Suits reduced to 12.50

All 16.50 Suits reduced to 11.00

All 13.00 Suits reduced to 9.98

All 12.00 Suits reduced to 7.98

An odd lot of small colored Ostrich Plumes and Tips

Regular prices from $1.50 to $2.50 per bunch or feather. Sale price. 19c

Men's Soft Shirts with collars, the regular 50c quality, sale price 39c

Men's Black Fleece Sox, the regular 15c quality sale price 11c

Best quality American prints, light navy or grays all nice Patterns Sale Price 6c

Best quality Flaneltes in stripes and checks Light Colors regular 12c quality, sale price 10c

25c Children's Knit Golf Gloves in small sizes only. Blacks and colors. Sale price pair 11c

Flexible Flyers Less than Cost
All $2.00 Flyers reduced to $1.25
All 2.50 Flyers reduced to 1.66
All 3.00 Flyers reduced to 1.98
Any sled or sleigh in our stock to close out at half price.

$1.00 Children's extra heavy Scotch Tam O'Shanter
In cardinal, white, brown and gray mixed. Sale price 39c

1-4 off on all our CHILDREN'S COATS

R. KUEHNE, Emporium's Greatest Store.

20 per cent. on all our FURS

Mrs. Solveson, Milton Griffin returned on Tuesday to Rich Valley, where he stays with Mrs. Moore, another niece.

Mrs. S. M. Housler has been ill the past week.

Winnie Chandler attended the oyster supper held at Frank Craven's recently.

Mrs. Solveson and Clemond Moore visited the city Tuesday.

BLUE JAY.

STERLING RUN.

Carl Cromwell had his ankle injured quite badly Monday, by a piece of coal striking him.

John Ebersole of Emporium was a visitor in town, Sunday.

Mrs. Wright of Erie, was the guest of her mother Mrs. Herrick, this week.

Lulu Lewis was a visitor at Emporium over Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. L. Smith of Driftwood, was the guest of Mrs. Herrick, Tuesday.

C. G. Howlett was a visitor to Driftwood Wednesday.

James Moore lost a very valuable cow Monday by following on the ice, breaking her leg.

Ed Whiting visited his family over Sunday.

Mrs. B. E. Smith returned to her home at Ridgway, Sunday, having been here several weeks on account of the illness of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Samuel Smith.

Mrs. C. A. Dice was a visitor at West port Tuesday.

Flora Cromwell left recently for Driftwood to work for Mrs. Gleason.

The Mt. Hope Coal Co., blasted out some rocks along their railroad Wednesday.

BLUE BELL.

SINNAMAHONING.

Hon. John A. Wykoff attended license court on Monday.

Joseph Summerson of North Bend is at home this week, suffering with a lame hand.

James Walker of Renovo, is visiting with friends this week.

Amos Bennet went to Williamsport to visit John Poley at the hospital, whose case is very serious.

Mrs. Geo. Hill of Driftwood, was a visitor on Tuesday.

Mrs. W. L. Pitts and Ethel Smith were at the county seat last Monday.

Mrs. Martha Belden has returned from her visit at Emporium, Beechwood and Sizerville.

The owners of Hunter's Rest went out on Monday and dismantled the building, as it has been harboring illegal hunters of late. Some men cannot appreciate a good thing when they have it.

Game Warden Smith routed a party of hunters lately. They found the hide and blood where one deer had been shot. Arrests of the guilty parties will soon follow.

Hunter's Rest was a nice warm camp, built on lands of Barclay Brothers by several of our citizens for the purpose of hunting during the season and left open to accommodate any one who happened that way, but not for illegal hunters, so it had to be torn down.

Jos. R. Kinsley was a visitor on Monday.

Mrs. Geo. D. Mead visited at Renovo Monday.

Prof. Thos. Kilburn of Huntley, was a caller at Wylsde, Sunday evening.

The Keystone National Powder plant, at this place, is running full time with a full crew, working on the big government order.

Rennie and Erma Bennett came home from their visit at Galeton.

Wm. Huff of Keating was a caller here on Monday.

It looks as though Sinnamahoning would be a dry town after April first as we understand that the license application was held over.

"Win" Summerson left with his best girl last week for parts unknown to his family. He leaves a wife and eight children to the mercies of a cold winter.

Some parties say they have all the meat they want by just going after it. Other parties say they get a nice piece of meat every once in a while and don't have to go after it. They are pretty lucky.

Camp 122, P. O. of A., will hold their installation of officers on Tuesday evening. They are looking ahead for a good time.

Washington Camp, No 136, P. O. S. of A., held their installation of officers on Monday evening. District President, H. R. Haverly, of Renovo, accompanied by twenty-four members and the drum corps of Camp 88 were present. After the installation of officers by Mr. Haverly, the members listened to some fine addresses by the visiting members and a few selections by the drum corps, after which the Camp adjourned to enjoy the refreshments, which was served by the committee, assisted by sisters of Camp No. 122, P. O. of A. After refreshments the time was spent in speeches, singing and music by the drum corps until train time, when the visiting members left for home with many hand shakes and pleasant good nights with a warm invitation for Camp 136 to visit Camp 88 in the near future. There were 87 at the banquet and all had a good time.

DEBSE.

HOWARD SIDING.

Bert Close butchered a fine hog Friday.

Mrs. R. Fisher, who has been quite ill for the past week is recovering.

Mrs. J. C. Skillman visited friends in Emporium Friday.

Telegrapher L. R. Burlingame was a business caller in Emporium Saturday.

Telegrapher J. F. Sullivan, of Emporium, is working first trick at Howards for a few days.

Telegrapher Geo. Mathewson was a business caller in town Friday.

Mr. A. Kresge, of DuBois, is conducting an extensive log job here this winter. The timber is taken to Chas. Spangler's mill on West Creek for sawing. The logs are being hauled by the home teams.

Mr. James Reed, of Moore Hill, was taken to the Ridgway Hospital early last week suffering from liver trouble. We are glad to hear that he is resting very comfortably at this writing.

Rev. Lehman, of the Cameron Circuit, is conducting a series of revival meetings in Sterling Run, Cameron, West Creek, Moore Hill, Howards and Beechwood. These meetings are being well attended and much good is being done in this worthy work. Rev. Lehman is a true christian, a splendid speaker and is loved and respected by all.

Iring McManus and George Arnold were Emporium callers Saturday evening.

Geo. C. Arnold, P. R. R. trackman is off duty at present with an attack of grip.

George Andrus secured a wild cat Saturday and another on Sunday.

William H. Jalloff our up-to-date woodsman and farmer, is doing a fine business this season supplying the good people of Emporium with stove wood, which he is cutting from his timber lot. William has purchased the Stiggle property and intends to conduct extensive farming operations during the coming season, and also will operate an up-to-date poultry farm assisted by Mr. Clayton Toner. William is one of our broad gauge farmers and reads the Press. Success to him.

Thomas Jalloff killed a large wild cat on Moore Hill Saturday evening. These animals are very numerous this season.

Miss Ethel Fisher took the P. R. R. examination for telegraphy at Renovo, Monday. Miss Fisher has mastered the profession and her success is assured. Her many friends extend congratulations.

James Bateheider, of Sinnamahoning, and John Jordan, of Huntley, called on Operator Sullivan, at the tower Saturday. They are working on a new preparation

Arthur B. Hopkins has accepted a position as teamster for F. J. Norton.

S. W. Berfield lost a valuable cow recently—we are sorry for his misfortune.

Mrs. Frank Maurer, of Emporium, spent Sunday with her parents.

Fred Norton's foot-bridge was destroyed by the high wind Sunday night.

for bear bait to use next fall, which promises to surpass all former efforts in that line.

L. Andrus while bringing a load of logs from the woods to Spangler's mill Saturday, broke the tongue from his sleigh and was forced to abandon the load until assistance arrived.

Section Foreman John Lawson, of Beechwood, called on Operator Sullivan at the tower Saturday.

A sleighing party consisting of young people from Truman and Beechwood, enjoyed a trip to Emporium Saturday evening.

Prothonotary W. J. Leavitt, of Emporium, spent Sunday with parents at this place.

Clate Towner and Herman Close are the champion dog trappers of this vicinity, having trapped two fine specimens, one belonging to Toner himself and the other to Operator Mathewson. There is some talk of a closed season on this species of game during the next few years, to give them a chance to increase in numbers, they being somewhat scarce in this section. To help this good cause along Mr. Bert Close has seven nice pups about four weeks old, all of the right sort, which we understand he is willing to contribute to the good cause. Anyone wishing one will receive same by dropping Mr. Close a card. P. S.—Bert says this offer only holds good for five days so don't delay.

J. F. S.

HOWARD SIDING.

Master George Piper, of Emporium, attended revival services last Saturday evening. Herman Close accompanied him home, Sunday morning, and attended M. E. Church and Sunday School.

Miss Ethel Fisher took a business trip to Renovo on Monday.

Mrs. John Piper and two children, of Emporium, spent Saturday night and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Parks.

Several from West Creek attended services last Saturday evening; also Mrs. Murray, of Emporium. We are having excellent meetings and a good attendance.

Amos Kresge has several teams hauling logs to the West Creek mill.

x.x.x.