Just Shopping

A fashionably dressed young wom-an entered the postoffice in a large western city, hesitated a moment, a stepped up to the stamp window. The stamp clerk looked up expectantly, and she asked: "Do you sell stamps here?"

The clerk politely answered, "Yes."
"I would like to see some, please,"
was the unusual request.

The clerk dazedly handed out a arge sheet of the two-cent variety, which the young woman carefully ex amined. Pointing to one near the center, she said, "I will take their one, please."—Everybody's.

SKIN TORTURED BABIES SLEEP AND MOTHERS REST

A warm bath with Cuticura Soap followed by a gentle anointing with Cuticura ointment, is generally suffi-cient to afford immediate comfort in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly eczemas, rashes, irritations and inflammations of infants and children, permit sleep for child and rest for parent, and point to permanent relief, when other methods fail. Peace falls upon distracted households when these pure, sweet and gentle emollients enter. No other treatment costs so little and does so much for skin sufferers, from infancy to age.
