DRIFTWOOD.

A temperance lecture, given on Friday evening, Feb. 10th, at St. James Church by Rev. John O'Toole, of Wells boro, whose reputation as a public speaker had gone before him, and much pleasure and benefit were anticipated from the lecture. He gave a powerful analysis of human character, and showed how character is the result of our choice. He pointed out that our features are the gift of the Creator, but our countenances are the result of our own lives. His earnest ness, and strong porsonality, made his word paintings, and references to literature, especially to the great tragedy, Macbeth, very effective. The good results of the lecture were shown by a number of young men taking the pledge of abstin-ence. Father O'Toole made many triends by his firm convictions and earnest desire to do good.

The Local Institute held at the Driftwood High School, Saturday. Feb. II, was very successful. Not only were the leading teachers of the county represented, but leading teachers from other places. ## W. B. Corsets

ES, Madam, we do recommend W. B. Corsets. Their lines are always right—always in harmony with the latest style demands.

You can depend upon your new gown being right, if the foundation is a W. B.

This season the waist-line has that seductive incurve, which is so attractive.

The bust is gracefully sloped too, and the lines of the back are simply perfect. They give the figure those superb, sculptured lines which are so much admired.

There are so many styles of W. B. Corsets you can be fitted without the least trouble. Then the prices are so reasonable.
