Hats for Matrons

SPITE of all the jibes flung at womankind for her fickleness as to fashions in headwear, there are some sorts of hats that are always vorn and always in style, or able to defy the passing fads of the moment. Among them are the small toques designed for elderly matrons and others who affect inconspicuous and good styles, the walking hat, dear to all women, and the big picture hat, with broad brim of graceful flowing lines which is the rose in the rosebud garden of hats every season. All the styles vary a little from time to time, but hardly enough to identify themselves as belonging to a certain year.

Three pretty and becoming hats for matrons are pictured here suitable to almost any season. The variation of the English walking hat, with brim faced with velvet, and turning up at the left, is finished with a very ample drapery of silk. The arrangement of this drapery gives the impression of a shape turned up at both sides, as in the regulation walking shape. Such a hat needs no additional trimming, but may be adapted to young wearers by the addition of a smart feather, or it may be elaborated for anyone by a tuft of ostrich half plumes. One must look far for a more elegant hat or the control of the results of the ribbon. The control of the ribbon is good in any dark or rich but is at its best in black. The control of the ribbon is good in any dark or rich but is at its best in black. a model so universally becoming. Hats of this character require the work of an experienced milliner; nothing short of perfection in draping and in finish is permissible in them. Facings must fit; trimmings must be placed by a practiced eye, otherwise the hat is a dismal failure and impossible.

The toque of silk or hair braid shown in the second figure is easier to accomplish. It is made on a light at a policy of leaves made of black at a forming a close set wreath. One wire frame which has an ample head size. The frame is covered with chif-fon and faced with maline shirred on What to Have for Dinner. In serving a dinner menu, care must be used to have the meal as well balanced as possible. Huntington Soup .- To a cup of corn add two cups of chicken broth and two cups of tomatoes, a sliced onion Bring slowly to the boiling point and simmer 20 minutes; rub through a sieve. Melt one and a half tablespoonfuls of butter and add the same quan tity of flour and a teaspoonful of salt; stir and mix well, then add the hot mixture. Season with cayenne and salt, if needed, and serve.

Beef Steak a la Henriette.-Wipe porter house steak, cut one and a half inches thick, broil over a clear fire eight minutes. Pour one-half of the sauce on a hot platter, lay the steak on the sauce, cover with the remaining sauce and garnish with grated or shaved horseradish and pars-

Sauce Henriette.-Mash half a cup of butter and divide in three parts. Put one piece in a sauce pan with the yolks of three eggs slightly beaten and mixed with one tablespoon of water and half a teaspoon of lemon juice. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly until the butter is melted. Add the second piece of butter and when melted, the third piece, then add two tablespoonfuls of tomato puree, tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one-half tablespoon of chopped parsley, half a teaspoonful of salt and a few dashes of cayenne pepper. This sauce should be perfectly smooth and of the consistency of a rich boiled cus

To prepare the tomato puree, cook a cup of tomato until reduced to three tablespoonfuls, using care not to scorch it. Strain through a fine sieve.
Sauted Potato Balls.—Cut the balls

New Ways of Serving Common Foods. As there are over two hundred ways of serving the common potato, and most housekeepers' knowledge consists of about five methods of cooking them, we need to add a few new recipes to our repertoire.

Parislan Potatoes.-Wash, pare and soak in cold water eight small potatoes, remove in half an hour and put on to boil for 15 minutes in boiling salted water. Drain and put into a baking dish, basting three times while baking with a third of a cup of butter.

Celery and Cream Cheese Salad.— Mix one-half cup of finely-chopped celery with one cream cheese. Make the mixture into small balls, arrange on lettuce leaves and pour over a French dressing. Sprinkle with paprika and garnish with radishes cut in fancy shapes.

Spiced Apple.—Wipe, core and pare six large apples and arrange in a baking dish. Mix sugar, cinnamon and a dash of salt, and fill the cavities. Add water and bake until the apples are soft, basting often with the hot sirup in the pan. Remove from the oven, cool slightly and pile a meringue on the top of each apple. Return to the oven and bake eight minutes. Chill and serve with sugar and cream.

To make the meringue: Beat the whites of two eggs until stiff, add four tablespoonfuls of sugar gradually, beating, then flavor with half a teaspoonful of vanilla.

Apple Charlotte.—Put a cup and a half of apple sauce in a buttered ba-king pan. Remove the crusts from four slices of stale bread, butter generously, cut in triangles and arrange as closely as possible on top of the sauce. Sprinkle with a third of a cup of sugar and bake in a moderate oven. Serve with thin cream.

Dressed Cucumbers .- Peel the cucumbers and draw a three-tined fork the entire length all around, then cut In slices and serve with French dressing.

From Pain to Pleasure a Quick Transltion.

I suggested Resinol and gave a neighbor one of your sample boxes for a child of a few months whose lower limbs were broken out with a rash resembling Eczema. The sample was applied at once and changed the wail of pain into smiles. Two jars were used with complete recovery in the surprisingly short time of two days. That tired mother's looks and words of gratitude were from the heart.
