

Breezy County News

SINNAMAHONING.
Mrs. V. A. Brooks, spent a few days with her daughter, at Renovo last week.
Mrs. Reese, of Johnsonburg, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. M. Baird.
Joe Council made a business trip to Emporium Saturday.
Miss Myrtle Shaffer visited in Emporium over Sunday.
The M. G. R.'s very pleasantly entertained the gentlemen, on Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. C. W. Gray.
Harry Essig spent Saturday in Emporium.
Miss Bertha Fulton spent Sunday in Renovo.
Miss Neoma Whitwire visited her aunt Mrs. Blum, of Emporium, over Sunday.
C. H. Cordie is spending some time in Pittsburgh.

The Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church meets at Bloomsburg, March 16th, under the presidency of Bishop Anderson, D. D., LL. D. Many changes are expected to take place on account of deaths and location of prominent preachers.
The annual meeting of the congregation and societies of the church at Sinnamahoning, Thursday evening, was an enjoyable affair. Reports showed that all the societies had been active during the year. The pastor, Rev. R. W. Runyan, gave a short lecture on his "Trip to London." He expects to be returned to this charge for another year.

BEECHWOOD.

Mrs. John Market, of Renovo, visited her parents at this place for a few days last week.
Miss Priscilla Andrews and Miss Grace Gueswinder, of Truman, were guests of Miss Roxie Rice, Sunday.
Miss Florence Sanford, of Emporium, was guest of Mrs. Lillian Guinter Saturday night and Sunday.
Lloyd Swartz and Miss Hattie Bone, of Emporium, attended the box social held at Paul Guinter's Saturday night.
Goldie Rice came home from Emporium, the last of the week.
Mrs. Dice, of Sterling Run, was guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Keptner, Sunday.
Oscar Hopkins, of Howard, visited his sister at this place Saturday evening and Sunday.
Jay Logan was in Emporium last Tuesday.
Clifford Morrison was an Emporium visitor Saturday afternoon.
Geo. Leavitt was in Emporium Saturday.
David Toner was in Emporium one day last week.
Guy Brown came down from St. Marys Sunday afternoon.

MEDIX RUN.

Mrs. Herman Miller is very sick at this writing.
Maude Allen, of Penfield, was guest of relatives in town over Sunday.
Theodore Lawton, of Austin, is moving his household goods to this place, being employed in the mill.
Mrs. Chas. Barr is quite sick at this writing.
Ruth Nyce, of Millers Run, was the guest of her sister, Friday evening and Saturday.
Mrs. Dave Arndt and children are visiting relatives here.
Hazel Mace is now at the boarding house.

The "Silver King" was in town for a week. A silver set was given the most popular lady which was awarded to Miss Phemeey Hewey.
Eugene Dollinger, who had his arm broken some time ago, is able to be at school again.
Miss Pearl Frazier is visiting friends at Sinnamahoning and other points.
Ray Miller was at Caledonia on Monday.
Wm. Arndt and wife are visiting Mrs. Arndt's parents at Morris Run.
Mrs. Dan Ross was on the sick list last week.
L. B. Russel and wife shopped at Du-Bois Friday.
C. A. King and wife have left here for Dr. Col. Mr. King has resided here quite a while as filer in the mill.
The I. O. R. M., degree team of this place visited the Wigwam at Hicks Run, Saturday evening. The Hicks Run order took in three new members. The Medix Run team had charge of the floor work.

Has Millions of Friends.
How would you like to number your friends by millions as Bucklen's Arnica Salve does? Its astounding cures in the past forty years made them. Its best Salve in the world for sores, ulcers, eczema, burns, boils, scalds, cuts, corns, sore eyes, sprains, swellings, bruises, cold sores. Has no equal for piles. 25c at all druggists.

CAMERON.
All on the sick list reported better.
Operator J. F. Sullivan is working third trick in telegraph office here until job is bid in.
The township auditors done their auditing Monday at the Cameron House.
Signalman G. L. Page has been working at Renovo the past two weeks.
Mrs. A. F. Walker visited friends in town Tuesday.
The schools left out early Tuesday, a. m., on account of cold school room, but resumed school in the afternoon.
Ray Dinunny, the new proprietor of the Valley House, is getting things in shape for his opening on the first.
Clarence Howlett and Capt. Wesley Barr, of Sterling Run, attended auditing Monday.
The Pen Vitrified Brick Co's engine made its first trip to town Tuesday. This looks a little like prosperity for our city.
Mrs. Ray Hazlett and children, of Harrison Valley, are visiting J. E. Lester and wife the past few days.
C. W. Rishel, of Emporium, made a business trip to this place Monday.

SINNAMAHONING.

A. J. Barclay visited the county seat last week.
Amos Bennett went to Emporium one day last week.
Alex. Shade was a caller at Emporium last Monday.
Riley Warner, of Emporium, was a visitor in town on Tuesday.
George Huff was called to Nesbit on Saturday, owing to the severe illness of his mother.
Rev. Runyan visited with J. R. Batchelder and wife Monday evening and sampled some of his northern spies.
Make preparations to attend the home talent play, "In the Shadow of the Rockies" on Wednesday evening, March 15th. Don't forget the date and bring your best girl.
C. W. Rishel, of Emporium, was a visitor in town Tuesday.
John Clontz was a visitor at Sterling Run, over Sunday.
C. R. and William Crane have finished their wood job and moved home.
Geo. P. Shafer, salesman for the Silin Wholesale Manufacturing Co., is canvassing the western part of the state this week.

Don't forget "In the Shadow of the Rockies" in Logue's Hall, Wednesday evening, March 15th.
The blue birds made their appearance here last week. They will have cold times of it with zero weather.
Jeff Askey was up from Keating over Sunday to visit his best girl.
The lunch and smoker at the I. O. O. F., last Saturday evening was a success and all present had a good time.
J. R. Batchelder extends his thanks to his friends who gave the surprise party last Thursday evening.
L. C. Wykoff, of Lorschbaugh, was a caller on Monday.
Grove Supervisors met last Monday and settled up the accounts for 1910.
W. H. Davis chanced off his talking machine on Monday evening. Glenn Espy was the lucky man.
The pupils of the Enterprise School are making preparations for a fine entertainment on the last day of school.
Prof. R. W. Smith, of Huntley, was a caller in town last Saturday and called on Council Brothers and looked over the new store.

It looks as though the farmers were going to do something around here this summer by the way they are ordering phosphate.
The American hens around here have done nobly this spring, putting the price of eggs from 40c per dozen down to 20c.
Prof. E. E. Graves has his incubator working in good shape. He has one hatch off and another one on the way.

DEBSE

DRIFTWOOD.

The Fancy Work Club was entertained at the home of Misses Laura and Flora McDonald on Saturday evening. A few of the friends of Hon. John McDonald were also invited to spend the evening. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.
Mr. Purcell, the well known lumberman of this place, died very suddenly on Monday morning, while at the camp at Laurel Run. Interment at Renovo on Thursday.
John Riley and Eldred Kreider were in Emporium on Sunday evening.
Miss Ruth Gleason was in Penfield one day last week for the purpose of receiving instructions in music.
Florence Kauffman, of Lock Haven, called at the home of Hon. John McDonald on Friday last.
The Ladies Aid Hall has been greatly improved by the addition of a new kitchen and stairs, serving as a fire escape. It is now a very convenient and desirable place for public gatherings, suppers, etc.
Commissioner S. P. Kreider was in Emporium on Friday last and on Monday.
Mr. Noble has been visiting in Pittsburgh.
Audrey Hill and Erda Labord spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Hicks Run.
The Five Hundred Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Osburn on Tuesday evening. Besides members of the Club other friends of the family were also invited. The winners of the first prizes were Mrs. Harry Muthersbaugh and Arthur Arnold. The booby prizes were awarded to Miss Myrtle Smith and Hon. John McDonald. After the game, delicious refreshments were served and the rest of the evening was spent in singing. Mrs. Osburn proved herself to be a very successful and pleasing hostess.

S. L. Wilson, who has had a siege of lrrzrippe, is able to be out again.

NORTH CREEK.

Horace Burch visited friends here recently.
Vere Swesey visited with Grand-ma Carter Friday, and accompanied his sister home.
Mrs. Solveson suffered a relapse but is convalescing again.
Mrs. Lottie Lewis and children visited Mrs. Carter recently.
Wm. Lewis, T. F. Britton, J. N. Chandler, V. M. Dow, J. W. Lewis, Henry Carter, Norman Solveson, Oliaa Cool, Walter Smith, Willis McClenahna and Riley Housler were city visitors the past week.
Fred Solveson spent a few days at home.
Hazel Chandler spent a few days in Sizerville, guest of Leatha Victory.
Mrs. Lylah Pondas, of Hicks Run, returned to her home Saturday, after visiting a few days with his sister, Mrs. Housler.
Burton More spent a few days here, guest of Fred Solveson and family.
Miss Ida King, of Clear Creek, came over Saturday and took her niece, Mrs. McClenahna and her children, to visit with her at her home, bringing them back Sunday.
Clendon Moore visited his mother this week.
Mrs. Fannie Haskins, of Four Mile, visited at the home of her son, Ed. Cool, Saturday. Her daughter, Mrs. Abbie Kesler, accompanied her. They returned home Sunday.
Mrs. Laura Brundage, West Creek, is guest at the home of her father, F.A. Lewis.

HICKS RUN

Born, March 4, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Huron, a son, To Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Miller a daughter.
Mrs. Anna Farren of Red Bank is visiting relatives at Hicks Run.
Jas. Kirk, who has been confined to his home for the past two weeks on account of sickness is some better at this writing.
Mr. Ed. Gregory of Emporium, candidate for the nomination of County Treasurer, was in town one day last week looking after his political fences.
Mrs. O. H. Jordan of Huston Hill was a business caller in town on Saturday.
Chas. Connor, who has been suffering from tuberculosis the past two years, is very poorly and confined to his bed and cannot speak above a whisper.
Harry Pontis has returned from West Virginia and will not move his family to that place.
On Thursday last about three p. m. Chas. Collins' dwelling house was discovered to be on fire. The fire alarm was at once given and the quick response of a crew of men near by, soon had the fire extinguished. The fire done but little damage, except burning a large hole in the roof.
Our school opened on Monday, after being closed since Feb. 16th, on account of the scarlet fever.
The Indians of the Hicks Run Camp, No. 461, recruited by 23 new members and reinforced by the Medix Run Camp, were unable to carry away a single salp on Saturday.
March 6, 1911. B. E. W.

HUNTLEY.

Geo. E. Wylie, one of our township auditors, is busily engaged in settling up the township affairs this week.
The Driftwood callers this week were: B. J. Collins, W. H. Logue, Dan Kilbarn and John S. Jordan.
Wright Mason, of Pine street, was a pleasant caller in town on Sunday and made the flower garden a call. He picked out one of the most beautiful flowers for a bouquet, but when his lady friend from Grove Hill arrived the bouquet which he had picked out did not suit him very well. So he threw it away. What made you blush, Wright?
Mrs. M. M. Hill, of Medix Run, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Smith this week.
Lial Jordan, who has been staying with his brother Albert, of Grove Hill, returned home on Saturday.
Mrs. Leslie English, of Castle Garden, was the guest of her parents, J. S. Jordan and wife, Friday, returning home on Saturday.
John Devling, of Sterling Run, was seen on our streets on Saturday en route to Fink Hollow, where he expected to lodge for the night, provided that Henry Logue, of Sinnamahoning did not object.
Clarence Johnson was a caller in Driftwood on Sunday.
Lial Jordan was a caller in Sinnamahoning on Sunday.
Mrs. W. R. Smith and daughters Thema and sons Robert and Arthur were callers on Grove Hill over Sunday.
Misses Gladys and Carrie Hill, of Grove Hill, drove through town on Sunday afternoon.

A Sale of Fine Embroideries

When in New York we bought over 4,000 yards of beautiful fine quality Embroidery. By taking all the Importers had of each lot, we got them at greatly reduced prices. That is the reason we are able to sell them as follows:

- Lot 1. 28 inch Flouncing with Ruffle. Very handsome pattern with small pink or light blue flowers. Regular price $2.50 yd. Sale price $1.00
- Lot 2. 26 inch Swiss and Nainsook Flouncing, very pretty patterns. Regular price 69c Sale price 49c
- Lot 3. 26 inch Swiss and Nainsook Flouncing. Very fine work and exquisite patterns. Regular price $1.00 per yard, Sale price 69c
- Lot 4. 26 inch Flouncing. Rich open work. Irish Crochet patterns. Regular price $2.00 per yard. Sale price $1.00
- Lot 5. 46 inch wide Swiss Embroidery, very neat patterns. Regular price $1.39 yd. Sale price $1.00
- Lot 6. 3000 yards of very fine Swiss, Nainsook and Cambric Edging and Insertions, widths from 1 1/2 to 11 inches. Regular price 15c, 19c and 25c. Sale price 10c 12c 15c

Neckwear Hand Embroidered Collars. Reg. price $1.00
Fine Embroidered Collars with Ruching, Reg. price 50c
Fine Embroidered Collars with Ruching and Jablots, 25c
Regular price 75c.

"Chantecler" Waist Fronts. Handsomly Embroidered on fine white Batiste, made to sell for $1 at 11c

New White Goods at Special Low Prices
Several patterns of handsome open work, woven stripe white goods, Reg. price 25c
Sale price 20c

Fine sun bleached Nainsook per yd or $1.80 per piece of 12 yards 16c
Fine sun bleached Nainsook per yard or $2.25 per piece of 12 yards. 20c

New Wash Dress Goods.

- New Wash Voiles in latest patterns per yard 16c
- Monseline Bourdeur, fine striped material with side border, per yd. 25c
- Irish Linette with border, small dot designs, per yard 25c
- Voile Antoinette with border, polka dot designs, per yard 25c
- Near Silk, looks like Foulard per yard. 18c
- Linella, pretty flowered and dotted patterns, per yard 15c
- Fine Baste and Dimnity. Handsome flowered designs 15c 16c

Our Great Sale of Fine Silks Continued this Week

Samples mailed to out of town customers on request. R. Kuehne, Emporium's Greatest Store

STERLING RUN.
Perry Mason, of Renovo, was a visitor in town Tuesday.
Mary Summerson and Mrs. Ed. Whiting visited their sister, Mrs. Fred Hewitt at Ridgely, the past week.
Frances Barr closed a successful term of school at Pine street Thursday.
Frank Wade, of Emporium, was a visitor in town Tuesday.
Zeolla Mason and Mrs. Ed. Whiting are visiting friends in Williamsport this week.
Mildred Berry spent Sunday at Emporium, guest of Marie Donovan.
Floye and Nellie Whiting and Gladys O'Keefe spent Sunday at Medix Run, guests of Mrs. E. P. Brooks.
The Lady Macebees will hold a pie social at the school house, Saturday evening, March 11. Everybody welcome.
Wm. Bagley, proprietor of the Alpine House, is remodeling and papering the building. When finished it will be a great improvement.
Margaret Summerson entertained the Junior Sewing Society, Saturday afternoon.
Mrs. Podoff and daughter Irene, were visitors in Sinnamahoning Sunday.
L. C. Summerson butchered a fine hog Saturday.
John Anderson's mine caved in this week, and it will be impossible for him to do any mining at present.
M. A. Barr was a visitor to Emporium Sunday.

HOWARD SIDING.
Several of the young people went to the social on More Hill, Saturday evening.
Mr. Joloff went to Williamsport Hospital, for an operation, on Friday.
Mrs. E. Close attended the Sunday School Convention held in Emporium.
George Mathewson, second trick operator, spent a couple of days last week at Ischua, N. Y.
Henry Joloff gave the Howard School a sleighride to Beechwood. They took refreshments and spent several hours very pleasantly at Mrs. Clarence Morrison's.
Rev. Lehman preached his last sermon for this Conference year on Sunday. The wish of all is that he may be returned.
Ralph Ostrum, of West Creek, attended church here Sunday.
M. E. Close was called to Bryan Hill last week. Her daughter, Mrs. Johnson, fell and sprained her ankle.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas and children, of Emporium, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Parks on Sunday.
No school on Monday. Mrs. Heideck is reported sick.
Wash. Selfridge has completed his work in Hicks Run and is at home again.
Have new neighbors in the cottage near the tower. Wonder how they enjoy cooking and dish washing.
Max Balcom was seen on our streets Sunday evening.

Foley Kidney Pills.
Just the right medicine for backache, rheumatism, Bright's disease and all urinary irregularities. C. C. Mackey, 811 Locust St., Williamsport, Pa., says: "For the last two years I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney trouble. There were severe aching pains across my kidneys and back, my ankles pained me and were swollen up and I had shooting pains in my sides and other parts of the body. After taking five bottles of Foley Kidney Pills the pain in my back has vanished, the swelling in my ankles is gone and they are normal size and the shooting pains have been cured and I feel full of vitality and many years younger than before taking them. I cheerfully recommend Foley Kidney Pills. Sold by Emporium Drug Co."

Foley Kidney Pills.
Neutralize and remove the poisons that cause backache, rheumatism, nervousness and all kidney and bladder irregularities. They build up and restore the natural action of these vital organs. Sold by Emporium Drug Co.

For Sale.
I offer for sale my farm, composed of 110 acres, 50 of which is cleared; location on main road, about two miles west of Emporium on P. & E. R. R. Farm and buildings in good condition. Will sell to suit purchaser, including all stock and implements if desired.
I. H. LEGGITT,
Emporium, Pa., R. F. D.