Nucle F. W. Lucore anxiously awaits for the bars to let down on the 15th of April, when he will cast this line among the finny tribe.

This does not seem to be an off year as every township has coughed up a candidate for some county office. Charley Weller says after the votes are counted after primary election, "some dem fellows can hit their feet and skin back to de tal timber."

Last week agent Prosser was summoned to Coudersport on a $10,000 law suit. It was not a very interesting occasion; he says it is not likely to turn out a "get rich quick" affair on the part of the plaintiff.

A slight blaze started in Mrs. McDowell's house on the morning of the 15th, caused by a lamp being overturned. After much exertion by members of the household the flames were extinguished. Some minor articles were burned to the value of about $15.00. It was very fortunate the wind was still or there might have been a disastrous fire.

Bashful Billie is home from Buffalo; is sizing up things to see how the average is to the hill.

One more day and the Portage school closes for the season. The average boy sighs for the end to come and be on the "job" for his share of fishing.

The ever genial George Shaffer, traveling salesman for Silin & Co., called on his customers to-day. He says it is necessary for him to use any "hot air" as his trade "know a good thing when they see his goods." By the looks of his order book he is doing a land office business on orders for pants, overalls, shirts and underwear.

Ed. Sizor has severed his connection with the "pop" shop. He is offered a very lucrative position on the road with his auto soliciting orders for a well known wholesale house on Buffalo, to take effect the first of April.

It's hoped the P. R. R., will finish the new public highway from opposite Chas. Howard's to Sizerville, so there would be a continuous route on the east side to Emporium.
