The First Requisite

In letter writing is that the paper used be above criticism. Your stationary should reflect your taste, character and refinement, and convey your personality. The Eaton, Crane Pike Writing Paper are always the first choice of discriminating people. They are by far the finest social correspondence papers made. They are first in quality, and absolutely correct in style. Their artistic and pearly boxing adds much to their general attractiveness.

Come in and let us show you our line of the justly popular EATON CRANE & PIKE papers.

HABIT.
"His education forms the common mind; Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined."
—Alexander Pope.

REAL ANARCHISTS.
The blending of politics and high finance, which would perhaps better be called low stealing, is one of the most serious signs of moral breakdown in the nation, and this blending is responsible for nine-tenths of the evils we face in America today. The most dangerous anarchist in America is the man who buys laws, who buys and coerces legislators. He is the anarchist—the dangerous anarchist, because we can't put him in jail. The race track owners, franchise sellers and privilege buyers are the anarchists.—Rabbi Wise.

UNEQUAL.
I never could believe that Providence had sent a few men into the world ready booted and spurred to ride and millions ready saddled and bridled to be ridden.—Richard Rumbold.

LIVING IN SOCIETY.
To live on the top of a pillar, to withdraw into the desert or to live in a community—all this can be provisory, necessary to men, but as definite forms it is evident error and unreason. To live a pure and holy life on a pillar or in a community is impossible, because the man is deprived of a half of life—community with the world. To live always thus one must deceive oneself. It is evident, indeed, that just as it is impossible in the current of an impure river to separate a little circle of pure water by some chemical process, so it is impossible to live alone or in a society with some saints in a whole world which lives in violence for money. Ground and cattle must be bought or rented. Relations must be entered into with the exterior, the non-Christian world. We cannot liberate ourselves from it, and we ought not to, except that in general we ought to abstain from those things which we need not do. We only deceive ourselves. The whole work of a discipline of Christ consists in establishing the most Christian relations with this world.—Count Tolstoy.

LIFE AND DEATH.
Life is joy, and love is power; Death all fetters doth unbind. Strength and wisdom only dower When we toll for all our kind. Hope is truth—the future giveth More than present takes away, And the soul forever liveth Nearer God from day to day.
—J. R. Lowell.

VAN DRIVER WAS DISGUSTED

Thought Magistrates Should Wear Their Gowns on Street, So They Could Be Dodged.

Magistrate O'Connor was picking his disgruntled way through the rain the other day, says the Cincinnati Times-Star. He had hailed a street car from the pavement, and, sheltered under his umbrella, made for the rear platform, when a four-ton furniture van whirled on him, drawn by three briskly trotting horses. Magistrate O'Connor escaped demolition by a brisk sidewise leap. He called a remonstrance to the driver. As far as he could see, that personage had his head thrust around the corner of the furniture van, while he called back interesting items to the magistrate. Magistrate O'Connor chased him in the street car, caught him at a blockaded corner and had him arrested. The driver appeared before Magistrate O'Connor himself, when the latter had gotten into his silk robe of office.

"I could send you to the workhouse," said the still angry magistrate, "but I will let you off with a fine of $5. I intend this as a warning to all reckless drivers." The driver looked at Magistrate O'Connor sullenly, and thrust his hand into his pocket. He peeled off five ones and started for the clerk's desk to pay. "Hold on there," said Magistrate O'Connor, gathering up a bunch of his silk gown in nervous hands. "Haven't you anything to say for yourself?" "Yes," said the driver, sourly. "They ought to make you guys wear them Mother Hubbards on the street, so's a feller could dodge yuh."

"THIRSTY CANE" THE LATEST

Invention of Clever Frenchman That Makes Man Temperate by Drinking for Him.

A French inventor has hit upon a peculiar device for combating the drink evil. This is the "thirsty cane." Why do men drink? Because other men insist on standing them drinks. Many a big business deal is done over a glass, nowhere more so than in French cafes, and drummers would lose half their custom if they refused an appetizer offered by a customer, to whom they must of course stand another in return. The cane makes them temperate by drinking for them. Here is the inventor's description of it: "The cane is hollow. The handle is pierced with several holes and a rubber tube inside forms a syphon. The air being expelled, the liquid is sucked up. The cane is emptied simply by turning a valve and the liquid absorbed can be poured into the street on leaving the saloon."

The cane is warranted to hold from six to ten aperitifs, according to size. It is simple to use, as the top need only be put into the liquid at intervals when the other man is not looking. The hollow cane reminds one of the "yards of ale" of medieval England. The yard was a glass measure three feet long. At one end was a bulb holding about half a pint, at the other was a trumpet-shaped mouthpiece, and the two were connected by a thin tube. The task, no easy one, was to drink the vessel dry without spilling a drop and at a single draught.

Got Useful Information.

"There's no place like a pawnshop for picking up useful hints," said the improvident man. "Every time I happen into one I glean some item of general information that almost reconciles me to the necessity for being there. On my last visit I saw another man redeeming ostrich feathers. Our uncle brought them out tightly sealed in a glass jar. "What did you can them for?" the man asked. "So they wouldn't spoil," said the pawnbroker. "A glass jar is the safest thing on earth to keep feathers in. Moths and dust cannot get at them, besides you can keep an eye on them easily and any trouble that might have been breeding when the feathers were brought in can be discovered and nipped in the bud." "That hint I consider worth going to a pawnshop for. The way things look now nobody belonging to me will ever have any ostrich plumes to take care of, but if we ever do have any I shall know what to do with them."

True Consistency.

A prominent Chicago Sunday school worker and club woman went into one of the Michigan avenue china studios to make some purchases. After examining different pieces on one table the customer turned to the artist and said: "I think I will take everything that is on the table. But what is this jar for? I never saw anything just like it before," pointing to one done in pearl lusters, about four inches high and having a fluted cover. "That is a potpourri jar," answered the artist. "Oh, is it?" she queried, then she turned to the artist and said in a decided manner, "I will take everything but that, and I have always made a point never to buy or have a thing to do with anything pertaining to poker."

Probably.

Sunday School Teacher—After he heard the people shouting "Saul has slain his thousands, but David has slain his tens of thousands!" what did Saul do then? While (whose father "also ran")—I suppose he got right up and hollered for a recruit.—Puck.
